THE PUBLISHERS OF THE EXPRESS. The True Political Situation of Texas.

The present state of affairs in Texas, the outrages committed upon law and order by the present Legis lature, the persecution of republicans wherever they are in majority or hold official positions, the utter neglect of duty towards the wants of the people and the ruinous financial policy of Coke have at last attracted the attention of Congress and of the leading republicans and there is good ground for hope the manner by which the present administration ascended to power will be ventilated and looked into. We observe quite a change of tune in the leading papers of the North and West concerning Texas, indicating | Serrano's army. a current favorable to the sustaining of the first of all republican principles, i. e. obedience to law, which has been so shamefully and outrageously violated in Texas. There is no question that the pres! ent administration has no founda tion in law, that it is a mere usurpation and we have submitted to it only by necessity, as we would submit to martial law in time of war.

The man, who calls himself Governor of Texas, has not been in angurated as such under the constitution, but in violation of the and a general mutilation was imminent. same; by force and violence and with assistance of old rebels be book possession of the gubernatorial chair and ousted the lawful governor whose term had not expired lappel, raising it neatly. Following this even if the election in November last had been decided a legal one.

The present Supreme Court can not even claim to be a legal body master and deputy looked on in charming by force of the amendment creating and innocent meterest. The performance s, for said amendment has never was high art, a dett facility elequent of mwfully been adopted, nor lawfully woted upon, and its existence is the product of an arbitrary and unheard of despotic action of an unlawful body of men, styling them selves the Government of Texas.

It is well to keep these facts in wiew and not let our eyes be dimmed by the appearing security of the usarpers. It it is high time that things be called again by their right names and that no misconception of the true situation of things take roots. It is high time to remind the people that the men who now rule Texas are the same that attempted to cut our fair State loose from the Union and who in this criminal attempt run thousands of citizens into death, impoverished the country and brought desolation and distress upon every bonsehold. They are the same men that fed on the bleeding country, held high positions under the confederacy and paraded our streets in fancy unitomes, while the youth of ranks. Thousands of brave men have sacrificed their lives at the instance and in behalf of these new fledged saviours of Texas who so well understood to spare their precious lives for the sake of downtrodden humanity.

Let it be well understood that the party, persecuted and to be eradicated by the Coke men, is the ter st. very party that saved the Union, that abolished slavery and restored liberty where the crack of the whip was law for millions of human be mgs. It is the party of progress, it is the national republican party of the Union, the party that elected undetstood and things are called by their right names! It "is rebel lion, that has taken possession of the government of Texas, and it is loyalty, which is suffering and trodden down.

Let Congress investigate and give justice to whom justice is due.

How to Open Letters.

A young lady called at the registry department of the Sacramento Post-office last week, according to the Record of that city, and asked for the privilege of reopening a letter which she claimed to have dropped into the box that morning. The Postmaster, after finding the address and taking a particular description of the missive sought, obligingly searched among the letters in the "drop," and, finding the letter, proceeded to open it in the presence of the writer. In doing this the official used a common lead-pencil, but the lappel of the envelope was stuck to "stay stuck" Observing this unprofessional method, the me show you." The letter was handed over, when the fair manipulator deftly run the thumb-nail under the edges of the up, with delicate touches in kind, it soon became apparent that the opening, with out leaving a trace of the manipulation, was only a question of time. The Postpatient practice. Neatly the work was done, and as the careful opening was completed the lady remarked, by way of explanation merely, and lest some inference unfavorable to the legitimacy of this skill might be drawn. "I used to be in a postoffice myself, you see; I learned how it's done, as you know." That Postmaster and that deputy depose that they "see," but they aver that the obvious meaning of the words "you know," conveys an insinuation, and that anybody that says so is "another."

At the next representation of the Passion Play at Oberammergan, the visitors that annually throng there from all parts of the world will enjoy an additional treat which has been provided for them by the secentric King Louis of Bavaria. This will consist of a colossal group of statues, representing the crucifixion, which is to be erected on one of the kills adjoining the village, where it can be seen at a great distance. Professor Halbig the celebrated sculptor, has been engaged some 14 months on the work, and has searly completed it. It is to be erected upon an im mense pedestal, about 18 feet high, with the figure of, an angel at each of the four corners. The work itself is 22 feet high, so that altogether it will loom up 40 feet from the top of the hill. With the excepthe state were fighting in the front tion of the upper part of the cross, the At manufacture prices with moderate whole work has been cut out of one stone, which weighed 77,000 pounds when it was first brought into the workshop of the sculptor, and will weigh 34,000 pounds when completed. The cross and the figare of the crucified Savior are finished : the figures of John and Mary, at the foot of the cross, about 13, feet high, are also nearly completed, and it is expected that by the 1st of September next the work will pe put up in the place designated

In 1865 the remark was made by Hon. I. N. Arnold, of Chicago: "No pen will ever do justice to the memory of Abraham Lincoln." The same scholar and friend of the President might now, after the passage of nearly a decade of years, say with truth: "MNo pen has done that memory justice." Yet, four years ago, when Boyd published his "Lincoln Bibliography," the list of biographies, enlogies, &c., reached some five hundred, besides nearly four hundred sermons, orations, and addresses occasioned by the death of the martyred President; and many of the biographies have been severely criticised by the press as doing the opposite of justice to their subject. It has just been made public that Messrs. John G. Nicolay, the present Marshal of the United States Supreme Court, and John Hay, both of whom were the private secretaries of President Lincoln, are writing another biography. They are preparing their work with great care, and the volume which they produce will be more fall and complete than any which has yet been issued. They are peculiarly fitted for the task undertaken, from having enjoyed such an extended intercourse with the subject of their literary labor from their intimacy with the distinguished men of the nation during Lincoln's Presidency, and their early and continued predilection for authorship. One of the most entertaining biographies ever written may be looked for, containing, as it witness the review of the treeps of the | doubtless will, records of valuable and lively conversations held with the amiable President during a series of years.

Ask them?

An advertisement of a medicine, how ver candid and conscientious it muy be, does not always carry conviction with it. The public know to their sorrow that the boastful ciaims put forth in behalf of many so-called remedies are literally "a delesion and a snare." EX-TREASURER HONEY after having swindled the State out of about $12000 since his reinstatement and perhaps more than that before the Governor took him by the collar and ensted him, has had the impudence to memorialize the present Legislature for a special appropriation to pay him the salary of I'reasurer which Dr. Graham received. Will the So-called grant the prayer?

GENTLEMEN'S furnishing goods of the ery best quality always to be found at PANCOAST & SON.

THE trial of Judge Maney is going on in the Legislature. He is charged with disobedience to the orders of the late Surreme Court. What a farce! There are 120 men sitting as a Legislature in disobedience to a decision of the very Supreme Court the authority of which they now simulate to uphold. "What a farce!"

READY made clothing in style and make not to be surpassed, just received by PAN-COAST & SON. 14-3-1tf

WINTER is upon uslagain and overcoats are equally sought for. There is no telling when this anomalous weather will cease. A fierce norther sprung up day before yesterday and blew furiously all Tuesday night and yesterday. Great fears are entertained that it will be followed by a night frost. We have too much confidence in the good sense of the weather clerk to believe he would inflict us with such a calamity. Frost, when the wheat is tipening and the mulberries are on our tables! Ridiculous!

THE American Sardine Co's Boneless Sardines are much better, and less than half the cost of imported Sardines.

THE Senate has adopted a bill extending the right of any railroad company not now lapsed or forfeited, but not reviving the right to subsidy of lands, money or bonds now lapsed or forfeited by reason of noncompliance by any company with the terms of its charter or law, by reason of which said company is entitled to any subsidy of money, lands or bonds; provided-by Ireland-that the Columbus road shall not be entitled to this bill, unless it build its road through the town of Seguin. Mr. Peirce will please take notice We are inclined to believe that the language of Ireland is the one best understood and appreciated by Peirce.

Army News' ...

Leave of absence for thirty days, to take effect on the arrival of Captain Davis' company (F), 4th Cavalry, at Fort Clark, Texas, with permission to apply for an extension of two menths, is granted First Lieutenant F. L. Shoemaker, 4th Cavalry. Captain Heyl's company, (K), 4th Cavalry, is hereby relieved from duty at Fort Clark, Texas, and will proceed to Fort Duncan, Texas, and there take post.

On the arrival of Co. K. 4th Cavalry, at Fort Duncan, Captain O'Connel's compamy, (M), 4th Caralry, will be relieved from duty thereat and proceed to Fort Clark, Texas, and there take post.

The Quartermaster's Department will furnish the necessary transportation. On the recommendation of the Medical Director of the Department, Assistant Surgeon A. B. Campbell, U. S. Army, is relieved from duty at Fort Clark, Texas, and will proceed to Ringgold Barracks, Texas, reporting, on his arrival, to the commanding officer for duty.

Owing to the hard times and the iuability of many of the suffering to visit the National Surgical Institute, at INDIA-NAPOLIS, Indiana, three of the Surgeons of the Institute have yielded to urgent solicitations, and will visit Galveston, stopping at the Exchange Hotel April 2nd to 11th, Austin Fitzbugh House April 14th and 15th, and Dallas, Texas, Crutchfield House April 17th and 18th 1874, with all kinds of Surgical Apparatus and appliances, and fully prepared to treat such cases as may call upon them for relief, thus saving the patient a long journey to the Home Institution. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases; Paralysis; all kinds of defermities of the Paralysis; all kinds of deformities of the face, Spine, and limbs: Diseased Joints; Diseased Eyes; Catarrh; Private Diseases; Piles; Fistula, &c. — No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of pelief. Prices will be moderate. It is needless to say that this Institution is entirely responsible, and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands of cases annually. Come the first day, if possible, as a great crowd will be there. Remember the time and place. Send to the Institute for circular.
