Sea-Lions.

[Charles Nordhoff, in Harper's Monthly] The sea-lions, which congregate by thousands upon the cliffs, and bark and howl and shriek and roar in the caves and upon the steep sunny slopes, are but little disturbed, and one can usually approach them within twenty or thirty yards. It is an extraordinarily interesting sight to see these marine monsters, many of them bigger than an ox, at play in the surf, and to watch the superb skill with which they know how to control their own motions when a huge wave seizes them, and seems likely to dash them to pieces against the rocks.
 They love to lie in the sun upon the bare warm rocks; and here they sleep, crowded together, and lying upon each other in inextriccable confusion. The bigger the animal, the greater his ambition appears to be to climb to the highest summit, and when a huge, slimy beast has with infinite squirming attained a solitary peak, he does not tire of raising his sharp-pointed, maggot-like head, and complacently looking about him. They are a rough set of brutes—rank bullies, I should say; for I have watched them repeatedly, as a big fellow shouldered his way among his fellows, reared his huge front to intimidate some lesser seal which had secured a favorite spot, and first with howls, and if this did not suffice, with teeth and main force, expelled the weaker from his lodgment. The smaller sea-lions, at least those which have left their mothers, appear to have no rights with any one is bound to respect.
 They got out of the way with an abject promptness which proves that they live in terror of the stronger members of the community; but they do not give up their places without harsh complaints and piteous groans. Plastered against the rocks, with their lithe and apparently boneless shapes conformed to the rude and sharp angles, they are a wonderful, but not a graceful or pleasing sight. At a little distance they look like huge maggots, and their slow, ungainly motions upon the land do not lessen this resemblance. Swimming in the ocean, at a distance from the land, they are inconspicuous objects, as nothing but the head shows above water, and that only at intervals. But when the vast surf which breaks in mountain waves against the weather side of the Farallones with a force which would in a single sweep dash to pieces the biggest Indianman—when such a surly vehement and with apparently irresistible might, lifts its tall white head, and with a deadly roar lashes the rocks half way to their summit—then it is a magnificent sight to see a dozen or half a hundred great sea-lions at play in the very midst and fiercest part of the boiling surge, so completely masters of the situation that they allow themselves to be carried within a foot or two of the rocks, and at the last and imminent moment, with an adroit twist of their bodies, avoid the shock, and, diving, reappear beyond the breaker.

Vice President Wilson has nearly, if not quite, completed his history of the political movement against slavery, and has now gone to Washington, it is hoped on his way farther South, where he can have the absolute rest which he has refused as yet to take. He cannot long resist the tendencies of his constitution unless he does take more care of himself.

Three German Archbishops are now in the Penitentiary. Ledochowki, Archbishop of Posen, had the honor of leading the list. He was followed by Eberhard, the Archbishop of Trier; and now Paul Melchers, Archbishop of Cologne, followed suit.
 Madame MacMahon received, up to recent date, $41,000 for the cheap soup kitchens she has been instrumental in establishing in Paris.
 The Duke d'Aumale subscribed $1,000, and the Comte de Paris $400.
 The Abbey of St. Blaise, in the Black Forest, has been destroyed by fire. The Abbey church, which resembled St. Peter at Rome in many points, and was remarkable for the fine ceiling of the chancel, the high marble altar, and the grand columns of the nave, was designed by Blonde. Some pieces of tapestry preserved in the sacristy were the handiwork of Marie Antoinette and Maria Theresa.
 Nothing has been saved but the bells and shrine of the founder.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

We learn that there will be an engine trial of the whole San Antonio Fire Department, on Saturday at 3 o'clock, P. M.

For all the styles of spring and summer hats go to PANCOAST & SON. 14-3 d1f

The murderer Bill Taylor has been apprehended by the home protection club of Indiana, and shipped to Galveston for safe-keeping.

PANCOAST & SON have now received a full assortment of cloths, cassimeres and linens to make up to order. 14-3 d1f

The Senate rejected the House bill to appropriate $400,000 out of State funds for the payment of the salary of public teachers due prior to July, 1873. Let them starve!

GENTLEMEN'S furnishing goods of the very best quality always to be found at PANCOAST & SON. 14-3 d1f

At last we had our frost. The lowest temperature of this winter occurred on April 10th, at about six o'clock in the morning. At some places standing water was covered with a thin crust of ice, while at other places no ice had formed. Potatoes, beans, grapes, cotton, etc., have been damaged, and we are afraid the upper country has suffered severely.

READY made clothing in style and make not to be surpassed, just received by PANCOAST & SON. 14-3-11f

BEFORE Justice Kloocke a suit is pending against democratic office-holders for debts incurred before and during the election, for election purposes. A restaurant, and a poor man at that, has provided hungry voters with meals by order of democratic candidates, who now profess the democratic executive office is responsible for said debt. We wonder whether the law will recognize such a corporate body as the democratic executive committee and not rather make those pay that ordered the meals by their own hand-writing.

Wanted by Leroux & Cosgrove 50 Cavalry Sabers and Scabbards—new or second hand. We will pay a liberal price for them if we can get them by the 20th inst., 54 & 56 Commerce street, San Antonio. 10-4-03f

The American Sardine Co.'s Boneless Sardines are much better, and less than half the cost of imported Sardines. 26-2-d1y

The Pull Down Practice.
Death laughs when he sees the weak and feeble bleed, blistered, salivated, opiumed, or gripped with violent purgatives. He knows that such treatment they can not long survive. In direct conflict with this pull down practice is the principle upon which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters operate. The effect of this incomparable vegetable restorative is to build up the system and invigorate the constitution. It imparts appetite and assists digestion, enriches and cleanses the blood, regulates and tones the liver and the bowels, and establishes and perpetuates a healthy habit of body. By a happy combination of vegetable extracts—tonic, aperient and anti-bilious—with a pure stimulant, these effects are simultaneously produced. There is no prescription of the pharmacopoeia that has the same scope. You may find among its formulas scourges for the bowels, stimulants for the stomach, sedatives for the nerves, but no grand combination medicine that, like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is at once a tonic, an aperient, a corrector and an alterative.

Owing to the hard times and the inability of many of the suffering to visit the National Surgical Institute, at INDIANAPOLIS, Indiana, three of the Surgeons of the Institute have yielded to urgent solicitations, and will visit Galveston, stopping at the Exchange Hotel April 2nd to 11th, Austin Fitzhugh House April 14th and 15th, and Dallas, Texas, Crutche-field House April 17th and 18th 1874, with all kinds of Surgical Apparatus and appliances, and fully prepared to treat such cases as may call upon them for relief, thus saving the patient a long journey to the Home Institution. They will come especially prepared to treat all surgical cases; Paralysis; all kinds of deformities of the face; spine, and limbs; Diseased Joints; Diseased Eyes; Catarrh of Private Passages; Piles; Fistula, &c. — No cases will be undertaken without a fair hope of relief. Prices will be moderate. It is needless to say that this Institution is entirely responsible and the largest and most popular of the kind in America, curing thousands of cases annually. Come the first day, if possible, as a great crowd will be there. Remember the time and place. Sent to the Institute for circular. 31-3 w1d6t-eod

FLORENCE SEWING MA- CHINE CO. have determined to REDUCE PRICES,
and will hereafter sell their $25 Machine for $45, and other styles in proportion.

THE FLORENCE
is the ONLY Sewing Machine that feeds the work backward and forward, or to right and left, as the purchaser may prefer. It has been greatly IMPROVED AND SIMPLIFIED, and is far better than any other machine in the market.

IT IS NOW THE CHEAPEST
The following are some of the many points in which the FLORENCE excels all other Shuttle Machines: In doing more styles of work. Winding and changing the Bobbin without removing the goods. Ease of setting in opposite directions. Accuracy of tension. Durability and strength of parts. Quietness in running. Choice of SIDE or BACK feed. Simplicity of Shuttle. Ease of threading. Lightness in running.
Elasticity of stitch. Mechanical principles employed. In-refusing no kind of goods. Ease of setting needles. Lack of wear on thread. Fineness and neatness of stitch. Rapidity and ease in winding bobbins. Absence of cogs, cams and springs. In saving of thread.
Ease and rapidity of regulating stitch.
In quality of hemmer and attachments in variety and styles. In lack of needle cutting cloth. In fastening ends of seams, and staying any part of seam, &c., &c.

We challenged all competitors to dis-prove any of the above statements.
After a thorough test of over twelve years not a single FLORENCE has over worn out in family use.
