Rev. J. O. Summers.

Galvestonians who can remember the first years of the Methodist Church in this city will remember the person named above, who was both an able and an exemplary minister of the gospet in this city a third of a century ago. The "Courier Journal mentious him among the distinguished ministers in attendance at the great conterence in that city, and says truly that he is now a man of national reputation. He was born and educated in England. After arriving at the age of became the pastor of a church in Baltimore, and subsequently preached in Washington, D. C. Thence he removed to Texas, where he remained a year or two, and moved to South Carolina; thence to Alabanra, and lastly to Tennessee. He went to Nashville in 1856, and hecame the general book editor for the Southern Methodist Church, and for several years past has been the editor of the "Christian Advocate." He is now sixty two years of age. For the last twenty years he has been engaged in writing a very elaborate commentary on the gospels, which work was recently completed. He is also the author of several smaller commentaries and numerous religious works. He is a most intelligent preacher, a bril-liant writer, and one of the most active men in the church.—Galveston News.

Fighting in Arkansas.

Dispatches from Arkansas bring news of great disorder and consid able bloodshed. On the 18th Geo. Lacy killed Robt. Raymond in a street tight-both colored. Several other street fights have occurred. A shooting scrape took place at Duvall's Bluff between a Baxter man and a Brokes man: the Baxterite was wounded.

At Pine Bluff two or three affrays occurred, the first caused by the seizure by Baxtermen of State arms carried there by Brooks discharged negroes, who arrived there by boat. The arms were restored, however, and, in retaliation, Marphy, who was captured by King White and mise that he would leave the State, again organized a mob and burned a ginhouse near town and threatened to burn several dwellings in the

A dispatch to King White says:

For God's sake, stop him (Murphy), or have him stopped, or he will burn us up."

A portion of King White's caval ry goes down in the morning to put a stop to degredations, and it is the opinion that Murphy will have or ganized a force armed with guns tak en from the State House, and will resist arrest, and another fight will be the result.

In fact the warfare, on a small scale, will be carried into all parts of the State; one hardly will occur that a killing will not follow.

One Baxter man to night, show-ing a handful of Henry rifle cart-ridges, said he would kill a negro with each before he was satisfied. Gov. Baxter's proclamation to-day is occasioning some comment in Brooks circles, and the belief is that Baxter intends to bring Brooks and and all his principals before a civil tribunal, at an early day, and try them for treason. This, with the hasty action of the Legislature in declaring a number of seats of the Brooks men vacant and electing others, and of inquiry into the affairs of State officers, is regarded by the Brooks faction as a threat to compel them to leave the State and turn the entire government over to Baxter. A dispatch at midnight of the 18th says that a dozen men who went over the river to night, have killed a desperado there named Massey. It is also stated that several persons were wounded at Pine Blaff to day, and to night General Newton, of the Baxter forces, held a consultation with Gen. Fagan, other counties. A rust proof wheat is cultivated in Tyler and other counties. A variety known as California wheat has done well in some localities for several years. In the northern part of the State, on the 1st of April, wheat was six to ten inches high; in more southern localities two feet in height, and heading out, In many cases it made an excellent winter pasture, and is claimed to give better promise of a crop in consequence.
