Collapse of Cookery.

Now we think that it can be shown that the Governor made a very great blunder in the positions assumed by him. In the very outset, he desired to be relieved from the outstanding indebtedness of the State by an act which contained a provision which rendered it practically a dead letter upon the statute book. We here insert the following paragraph from his message of the tenth of February:

"If we cannot raise money to meet our liabilities, and pay the current expenses of the government, then I say use the money coming into the treasury to pay the latter and make the best arrangement we can for the former; and for this purpose I recommend that your honorable bodies provide by law for retiring the entire floating debt of Texas in existence up to the thirteenth day of January, 1874, into bonds. I mean by the floating debt all claims for money against the State whether in the shape of warrants or other claims, which might be matured into warrants upon the treasury."

This was the pet scheme of his Excellency, and yet when adopted and acted upon was the gravest violation of vested rights, and to a certain extent the most unjust repudiation of "warrants or other claims which might be matured into warrants upon the treasury" which could have been accomplished, the full force and effect of which will shortly be seen and felt all over the State, unless by some fortunate chance occurrence some one will be able to come to the Governor's relief in this his hour of great distress and place the money in the State treasury. Let us here pause and determine who were the parties who held warrants and other claims upon the Treasury. They were two principal classes: the poor clerks and employers of the State who, in their poverty and distress, availed themselves of their education and discharged the public duties of the State, relying upon her solvency and good faith for the money; also the various officers who had received such warrants and claims as good paper, which they believed could be made available in their settlements as public officials. The other class was composed of bankers and moneyed men who had bought up such claims and warrants at a discount. What was the effect, upon the first class, upon the passage of the act? It amounted to nothing less than the loss of a large per cent. to those holders who were compelled to have money, and to that extent was repudiation. It was repudiation again, because it discriminated between the claims and warrants issued prior to the thirteenth of January, and decided that they should not be paid until the bonds were sold. It decided that the claims and warrants issued after that time should be paid out of the funds collected by the officials from taxation and other sources. So that the very class who most needed their money were told to wait until the Governor's scheme proved a success; and, in the meantime, those claims were repudiated. Capital is exceedingly sensitive, and will not be invested where there is the taint of repudiating just liabilities. But the Governor shall be his own critic. In his letter to Mr. DeFaney he makes use of the following emphatic language:

"The Legislature have made ample provisions for the payment of the public debt. It only remains for the Executive to act and carry out the law. I will do it promptly, and the debt will be paid within the next hundred days. I mean what I say."

Who then is responsible for the failure, if not the Governor? He said that ample provision was made. Then the failure is truly chargeable to him and nobody else. He had all that he asked for. But the failure proves that the Governor was wrong; that he was not a financier; and that, in refusing to consult men who were conversant upon such matters, to be governed by their advice, he disregarded the dictates of wisdom and is justly censurable for the present condition of the finances.

The Governor did not act wisely when he selected an agent who was so little known as Mr. Moody. However good a man he might be, and however pure and upright, he did not have the reputation for such a position.

The whole matter has been handled in a bungling manner; and the result does not surprise many who had the independence to think for themselves.

And now another class are likely to suffer on account of the deficiency of the school fund. That fund is said to be short between one hundred and two hundred thousand dollars. The poor teachers will be calling for their money; and if their claims are not paid, the consequences will be serious and damaging. Five hundred thousand dollars were reported to be in the treasury for the payment of teachers, unless we have been misinformed. What has been done with the money? Has it been paid to employees of the State with the expectation that the sale of the bonds would enable the officers of the State to replace it? We do not believe that the money has been corruptly used; but that it has been improperly paid out.

The Statesman officer has suffered heavily by the Governor's policy, because the proprietors have held their warrants upon the assurance of the Governor that they would be paid in one hundred days. The prospects now look gloomy; and it may be months before the creditors of the State will be paid for claims and warrants which were due prior to the thirteenth of January last.—Austin Statesman.

FRIDAY, JULY 3, 1874.

COKE says, "I mean what I say," but "the Executive is powerless."

WESTERN TEXAS wants a national man for Congress. San Antonio, Indianola, Corpus Christi, Brazos Santiago, Eagle Pass, El Paso, the railroads, the frontier people, the claimants on Mexico, the stock interest, the immigration interest, all demand a national man, and no sectional demagogue.

THE COKE PAPERS, in speaking of the killing of prisoners by mobs, nearly always conclude their accounts with the remark: "We condemn such conduct, but, the prisoners rightly deserved their fate. The condemnation means nothing, and is so understood; the assertion that the fate of the prisoners was 'deserved' is the real sentiment intended to be impressed, and breeds new mobs, as carrion breeds vermin.

COKE has sent Adjutant-General Steele to investigate DeWitt county—after the county has been overrun by desperadoism. What will his visit be worth? Only his traveling expenses. Coke has also directed the District Attorney of Bell county to inquire into the Honey outrage. We thought he was sworn to do that anyhow. Will Coke's reminder strengthen the oath?

An article appears in yesterday's Express calculated to produce the impression that Gov. Coke had visited while in this city during the election a Mexican house of prostitution.

We do not think that our contemporary is properly posted in this matter and we trust he will make a correction in accordance with the facts.

During the visit of Gov. Coke to our city some of our most prominent citizens invited the Governor and his party to attend a Mexican supper which they had gotten up for the occasion. We can if necessary, give the names of the gentlemen present, all of whom are men of wealth and culture and against whom the insinuation of the Express would fall powerless.

The Governor and his party afterwards attended an election fandango, in company with the gentlemen referred to, Judge Upson, we are told, making a speech.

The attendance for a few minutes at the fandango was intended to gratify a natural curiosity, peculiar to all strangers visiting San Antonio.

To give this occurrence the extraordinary interpretation found in the Express, is to assail the reputation of men against whom no such charge has ever been made except in the article in question.—San Antonio Herald.

We stated what occurred in the District Court, in as few words as possible, and as accurately as we could. We now publish the other side, as it appears in the Herald. Let the two stand for what they are worth before the public. We made no "insinuation," nor gave any "interpretation" of the facts stated, "extraordinary" or otherwise. "Mexican suppers," "fandangos," and other peculiar national customs, are visited by the best of men, but those were not in question. "The names of gentlemen of wealth and culture" in San Antonio have no "insinuation" against them in the Express, "powerless" or otherwise. Those who imagine that the Express is in the habit of saying "powerless" things may find out their mistake. Better not make that mistake at the start.

We have now given both sides, which we always do, and which no Coke partizan journal in the State has ever done when the reputation of a Republican was concerned, or ever will do. "Coke himself is the head and front of that kind of clamorous injustice in this State. He sought to ruin men in position, and in public life, and to damn their names, for no other reason than that they were not his supporters, many of them Old Line Whigs, and Union men, and yet brave Confederate soldiers, which he never was. He is the most egregious fraud that ever was palmed off on—the ex-Confederates, the Democratic party, and the State. And nearly all these ranting proscription partizans who seek to drive ex-Confederate soldiers into their support are men who drove poor men into the war, neglected their families, but never placed their own worthless carcasses where there was danger of shot and shell. Bah! They stink in the nostrils of men, and "smell to heaven."

Telegraphic.

AUSTIN, June 29.—Green, the runaway defaulter, ex-steward of the Lunatic Asylum, who turned State's evidence against Newcomb and others, has been arrested in Matamoros. Extradition papers will be issued, and the prisoner at once returned to Austin in time for the present term of the District Court.

Mr. Moody will shortly present a written report to the Governor. I am informed that it is not correct as telegraphed to a Houston contemporary that he failed to sell the bonds because of the unsettled condition of the International question. It is rumored that he will shortly return to New York under more favorable auspices to effect a sale.

Col. Benyades is, under authority from Gov. Coke, raising a company of minute men to pursue Mexican thieves and murderers into their own territory. He has been notified that if he attempts to follow them off Texas soil, he will be arrested by the United States military authorities.

HOUSTON, June 29.—Sam Ewing, son of Judge Ewing of this city, was shot in a steam yawl, four miles below the city, in the bayou, by a man named Groath, who fired from the bank and afterward alleged that he mistook Ewing for a thief who had been recently deprecating upon his premises. Ewing was a young man of respectable family.

Gen. Braxton Bragg has gone to Austin, accompanied by Gen. Roberts.

HUNTSVILLE, June 29.—During this forenoon four convicts made their escape from the penitentiary by cutting their way through the wall with a pick. This evening three others escaped by breaking from the illues when coming from the dining hall.

The inmates of the prison, fearing a still greater departure, have had all the prisoners for the time being confined to their cells.

WILLIS STATION, June 29.—A bold burglary was effected here about 3 o'clock this morning. Two men, giving the names of James Rogers and James Fowler, gained entrance to the store of Messrs. R. Bass & Bro., and removed sundry articles of merchandise. They were discovered and arrested.

SEDALIA, MO., June 29.—The delegations arrived here at ten o'clock. They were received by a large delegation of citizens, headed by the Mayor, with a fine brass band playing a welcome. They take the train for Booneville at twelve o'clock, where they dine, returning here to a banquet this evening. They remain to-night, and hence home to-morrow morning, except four, who visit St. Louis.

AUSTIN, June 29.—At the election yesterday for city marshal, Ed. Creary, independent candidate, received 82 majority. There were but 1900 votes polled out of a registration of 1900, which shows that the Democracy could have succeeded had they taken sufficient interest in the election.

The Governor will request the District Attorney at Belton to seek out and punish the authors of the outrage on ex-Treasurer Honey.

BRENSHAM, June 29.—Two prisoners confined in the Barleson county jail, at Caldwell, escaped on Thursday night. One of the prisoners was a white man who was charged with shooting his brother-in-law, a one-armed physician, in the leg, causing his life to be endangered. The populace hunted the man down and killed him. The other prisoner was a negro, and he too is supposed to have been killed by his pursuers.

The people seem to be taking the law into their own hands in many counties, and those communities appear to be fast drifting into a state of anarchy.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Mr. Hale has finally declined the Postmaster Generalship on account of impaired health. His successor will not be named for several days.

BALTIMORE, June 29.—Bishop Whelan, Roman Catholic Bishop of the diocese of Wheeling, W. Va., who has been seriously ill at St. Agnes hospital in this city, is convalescent and considered out of danger.

LONDON, June 29.—Dispatches from Pernambuco announce the death of the Primate of Brazil.

The last Russian papers received here contain reports of a very destructive fire in Berdicheva, in the government of Volhynia, a town inhabited mostly by Jews. A fire in one day destroyed 600 houses. The next day there was another conflagration in Valany, where there was a loss of nearly as many more buildings. On the two succeeding days the town was again visited by fires by which the whole streets were laid in ashes. Thousands of persons are made homeless.

A special to the Standard says that Marshal Serrano has decided to take command of the Republican army immediately. Gen. Zabala has arrived at Tafalla.

BAYONNE, July 1.—Don Carlos and wife have arrived here from Estella. They were received amid great rejoicing.

MADRID, June 29.—Beside Marshal Concha, one brigadier and two staff officers were killed in the attack of the Republican troops upon the Carlist entrenchments at Muro, yesterday. Gen. Martinez commands the north till the arrival of Gen. Zabala, under orders from Madrid, while the army has fallen back to Zerin.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a stated meeting of Alamo Lodge No. 44, held on Wednesday evening July 1, A. D. 1874, A. L. 5874, the following tribute of respect to the memory of our late Bro. S. G. Newton was unanimously adopted:

To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Alamo Lodge No. 44, Brethren:

Your Committee appointed to express the feelings of this Lodge, touching the death of Bro. S. G. Newton, late a member thereof, attempt the task assigned them with a sense of feebleness, yet affectionately and fraternally submit the following:

WHEREAS, It has pleased the Great Architect of the Universe, to let the mallet of Death fall with fatal force upon Brother S. G. Newton, and

Whereas, By this blow Society has lost a useful and talented member and this Lodge and the Craft an earnest and devoted brother, therefore be it

Resolved, That while we deeply feel and deplore the loss of Bro. Newton we humbly bow to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, That Alamo Lodge hereby tender their heartfelt sympathies to the bereaved family of their deceased brother, in this their sad hour of trial.

Resolved, That in this sudden touch of Divine Providence, we are more forcibly reminded of the duties we owe to God, our neighbors and ourselves.

"For man to his long home doth go, And mourners group around his urn; Our dust to dust again must flow, And Spirits unto God return."

Resolved, That the Lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the foregoing preamble and resolutions be spread upon the records of this Lodge and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased brother; also that the St. Louis Freemason, and that the city papers, be requested to publish the same.

DR. W. BILLE,
FROM New Orleans,
A graduate from the University of Copenhagen, Denmark; Honorary M. D. from the University of Padova, Italy; for several years assistant Physician to the celebrated Prof. Ricord, Paris.
Having been for years a student at the large hospitals of Paris, London, Vienna and Copenhagen, and a thorough, large and varied practice during 15 years, has gained the most thorough knowledge of the nature of all chronic diseases and the treatment thereof, and he has in his extensive practice had an unparalleled success, and very often effected a cure where every remedy had been tried and all hope of restoration of health had been despaired of.
Nobody who ever suffered of the tedious and life imbittering disease—DYSPEPSIA—has ever in vain called on Dr. Bille. In every case has he by his new method of treatment restored the functions of the stomach, and with it the health and vigor of the patient, and many a person does today, with gratitude, recall the moment he placed himself under Dr. Bille's care.
For his treatment of LADIES' DISEASES, ES, Dr. Bille is deservedly renowned, and no lady suffering from AMENORRHEA, HYSTERIA, PROLAPUS UTERI or any other disease peculiar to the female system, should fail to call on Dr. Bille, as they will quickly be relieved of their suffering and ultimately restored to perfect health.

Diseases of a Private Nature
Dr. Bille has made a speciality, and this source of humanity, unsuccessfully treated by most practitioners, is easy and quickly overcome by his new treatment. Being a pupil of the most renowned Physician for syphilitic diseases in the world, Prof. Ricord, in Paris, Dr. Bille will always guarantee a cure in any case of syphilitic disease which may come under his treatment; and hundreds in this city and vicinity can testify that in cases of syphilitic nature, where other physicians have failed, Dr. Bille has always been successful.

NERVOUS DEBILITY, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, IMPOTENCY, either caused by age or abuse, quickly and permanently relieved, and full power restored.
No man is too old and no young man too debilitated that he can not be completely reinvigorated and rejuvenated by the treatment of Dr. W. Bille.

Dr. Bille wishes to call particular attention to his new discovery, by which he can, by the help of microscope and chemistry, discover if there is any syphilitic poison in the blood, which is of the greatest importance, as persons having had venereal diseases often believe themselves cured, and the poison still remains in the blood to break out sooner or later. Dr. Bille has resided in New Orleans for years, is endorsed by the best citizens there, and by his skill, knowledge and successful cures has obtained a great reputation as a specialist.

Has arrived in Waco and is located at the

A GLOUBOUS RAIN fell yesterday evening in this city, and, apparently, upon all the surrounding country, far and near. This will cause the early corn to fill out to the very fullest, and will also make a full crop of the late corn. Grass, gardens, stock, and everything else are now flourishing, and Western Texas is prosperous and rapidly growing rich. Plenty of good and cheap food for immigrants, as well as good and cheap lands, and the best of health.

READY made clothing in style and make not to be surpassed, always on hand at PANCOAST & SON. 14-3-1tf

MEXICAN, OR EL PASO ONIONS.—We had another visit this morning from Mr. E. G. Andrews, of Atascosa Postoffice, Bexar county, who is giving special attention to the raising of the above onions. He first obtained the seed from Mexico, or El Paso, we forget which, and then preserved them from degenerating by proper cultivation, and allowing no other sort of onions to grow on the place. The soil he cultivates is a black sandy loam. He breaks the ground with a turn plow, and then subsoils with a bull tongue. He then beds up the ground, in the usual way, as for cotton, or vegetables, with the rows about two feet apart. The ground should be as clean as possible, and the soil finely pulverized, by the use of rakes, rollers etc. He then plants the onions in two ways.

About the first of September, or any time during that month, he sets out onions in the rows, from about the size of a hen's egg to that of a medium turnip. He sets them close together in the rows. In about six weeks, or two months, they will have sprouted and grown sufficiently to separate the sets, and to transplant them. Each onion will have divided into several sets, from a half dozen to twenty. These are carefully separated, and set out in the rows, leaving about a foot or fifteen inches between them. In good ground, and with proper cultivation, these will have grown into large onions, and be ready for market, by April or May, according to the time they have been planted and transplanted, and also according to the season, where there is no irrigation.

Another plan, carried on at the same time as the foregoing, is to sow the seed in the same sort of rows, and about the same time, September. This is done by making a small drill furrow in the top of the bed, sowing the seed in it, and tramping, or pressing the earth down over them. By the spring time these will have produced onions of small size, which, carefully preserved, are to be set out in the following September, and then managed as in the first plan described.

In this country manure is scarcely ever needed, the soil being sufficient of itself. But when used, the stable or barn yard manure is not put upon the ground in its raw state. It is either burned upon the ground, and the ashes spread upon the rows, or, what we think is better, it is put in a tank, and kept wet, and, at the proper time, it is poured upon the ground in a liquid state.

This onion, as those who have never seen it may not know, grows to a very large size, the average ones weighing one pound, and some of them reaching as large a circumference as that of a breakfast plate. It is perfectly round, almost milk white, with delicate green shading, and is of a mild and delicious taste. No other onion in the country can compare with it. There are many bastard onions of this species, where the onions have been set out in the fall, and have sprung up into numerous sets, which have not been separated and transplanted, and the result is a mass of flat, three-sided and other misshapen things, instead of large, round, smooth onions.

All this Western country can grow these onions in the greatest abundance, and they will prove very profitable to the producer.

THE American Sardine Co.'s Boneless Sardines are much better, and less than half the cost of imported Sardines. 26-2-dly

Self-Defence.

To a criminal neglect of preventive medication may be ascribed a majority of the ailments which afflict humanity. It is a well ascertained fact, resting on the experience of twenty years, that a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will put even a naturally feeble system in such a state of defence that it will be competent to resist the most prevalent causes of disease, such as the malign influence of miasma, unwholesome water, excessive heat, damp, cold, sudden changes of temperature, &c. Yet there are thousands of persons living in perpetual peril from one or more of these causes, who recklessly omit to avail themselves of the absolute protection which this famous vegetable antidote affords. Intermittent and bilious remittent fevers, rheumatism, general debility, nervous weakness and irregularities of the stomach, bowels and liver, would be comparatively unknown if this palatable specific, were in universal use in the districts where they principally prevail.

Naturate a Piece of Bread or Meat with gastric juice, and it will dissolve. This is digestion. Add to such a mixture a little alcohol, and it will not dissolve. This is indigestion. Beware, then, of tinctures, or tonics, or decoctions containing spirituous liquors. Shun all rum- "tonics," and rely solely on DR. WALKER'S VERMIGAR BITTERS, the finest digestive invigorant known, and free from the fiery curse of Alcohol. 6-2-4w

IT IS NOW THE CHEAPEST

The following are some of the many points in which the FLORENCE excels all other Shuttle Machines:
In doing neat styles of work. Winding and changing the bobbins without removing the goods. Sewing in opposite directions. Accuracy of tension. Durability and strength of parts. Quietness in running. Choice of SIDE or BACK feed. Simplicity of Shuttle. Ease of threading. Lightness in running.
Elasticity of stitch. Mechanical principles employed. In refusing no kind of goods. Ease of setting needle. Lack of wear on thread. Fineness and neatness of stitch. Rapidity and ease in winding bobbins. Absence of cogs, cams and springs. In saving of thread.
Ease and rapidity of regulating stitch.
In quality of hemmer and attachments in variety and styles. In lack of needle cutting cloth. In fastening ends of seams, and staying any part of seam, &c., &c.

We challenged all competitors to dis-prove any of the above statements.
After a thorough test of over twelve years not a single FLORENCE has ever worn out in family use.
