The situation in Texas.

An Austin correspondent of the Houston Telegraph says:

The "gentlemen" who laughed at, or excused the outrage perpetrated on Mr. Honey at Belton, begin to perceive that they have taken the wrong tack. Gov Coke has requested Mr. Boyd, the District Attorney of Bell county, to seek dred dollars, out the malefactors and bring them to justice. There are those here who say they know Mr. Boyd, and are sure the young men are safe. imputation upon Mr. Boyd. but as a reason why that gentleman, by an efficient discharge of his duty, should vindicate himself from the suspicion his "friends" are casting upon him. From DeWitt county I learn, on what appears' to be good authority, reported -- were taken from Clinton jail. Three were hung near the town and the remaining two were shot in the woods. The Sutton NORTON & DEUTZ shot in the woods. The Suttern Taylor fend is more rancorous than

A deputy sheriff from Bell county informs me that the tragic state of affairs there has not been exagger ated. The Belton paper seems either to lear to tell or to desire to conceal the truth.

A gentleman from Bryan gave me to day some interesting details of the Farmer murder. One of your cotemporaries came near having very personal reasons to object to the prevalence of lynch law.

Another month's continuance of disorder will cause Texas affairs to occupy a prominence in the next political campaign only inferior to that occupied by those of Kansas twenty years ago.

We take the following from the Waco Advance:

Some time ago Mr. Sturgis, editor of the Hill county Expositor, wrote an article denouncing the action of a mob in that county, who killed a prisoner while under guard in the court house, and now we learn that on last Thursday night the house of Mr. Sturgis had to be guarded to prevent violence to him, from a mobwho proposed to force him to write an article and retract what he had said. And we suppose if he had refused, they would have acted to wards him as mobs usually do to their helpless victims. Oh! civilization! are you bidding Texas adieu ?

Yes, civilization retired to the quiet homes of the good and cultivated when Cokery came in, flaunting its bloody flag, with its motto emblazoned in letters of luried light as follows: "Fellow citizens, I felt good, too,"-when the Lieutenant of State Police was assassinated in Waco.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Waco, June 30. A cold-blooded assassination occured here last night in the killing of an old man named Sprague, who claimed to be related to the wealthy family of that name in Rhode Island. He was shot in the back by some un-An inquest was to have been held to day. Mr. Sprague was in Waco on yesterday for the purpose of instituting legal proceedings of a di-vorce, but the Justice (f) referred him to his own beat. The opinion is entertained by some persons that the murder grew out of the domestic difficulties, in which the deceased was at the time involved; but how true this conjecture is cannot now be certainly determined.

SATURDAY, JULY 4, 1874.

THE people of Bryan, after standing idly by, while murders and coun ter mob murders, to the number of half a dozen, have been taking place, have just held "an enthusiastic meeting" and passed resolutions for the enforcement of the lawsbeking the stable door after the horse is stolen. Bryan is strong for Doke, of course.

WE publish to day the hanging by a mob of three persons, as we aid yesterday of two persons-five maob murders in two days. Such is the case nearly every day in some part of Texas ever since Colle's administration commenced. It was not so under Davis' administration. The truth is, a man who has ene mies is not safe in many parts of Texas.

Gen. H. E. McCulloch, of Seguin, whom everybody recognizes as an honest man, writes a strong letter to the Herald of this city against the Ireland Amendment, and in vindi sation of the course of Col. Pierce, it was absurd to suppose the Legislature President of the Galveston and San Antonio railroad. He says the com pany have chosen the best possible zonte, and that to go by Seguin would lose several miles, and seveal hundred thousand dollars.

THE Democratic Convention to sominate a candidate for Congress for this District is to meet at Goliad, Angust, 26th. We imagine San Anmaio, and the West generally, will not have their interests much consult. ed in this convention. It will be a manipulated concern, in the interest of a few political aspirants. Let Br people of the West, without the distation of these cliques of officemekers, select their own candidates, and elect the man of their choice. Then we shall be sure to get a good Congressman.

A. B. HALL, late sheriff of Harris am independent candidate, publish all a letter charging Greary, his old employee, with embezzlement of lucidly and interestingly examined. Sec 38.050, about a year ago. Creary pablished a reply stating that the matter was of a private nature, that he was ready to settle with Hall at any time; and stating that Hall was charged with embezzlement in Harris county to the tune of $90, 960, and that two bills of indictment were pending against him for that offense. Hall and Creary know all about each other. Creary was elect Half is Postmaster at Galves

WALL OF THE SOLE IN A gentleman informs the Herald of this city that he witnessed the benging of the three prisoners taken from the DeWitt county jail. He mys one of them protested his inpomense to the last. What a horrid Thing it is to have had a hand in the murder of belpless prisoners! The man that does it should be ahunned by all good men. And how ght Gov. Coke to be regarded, who rejoiced in assassination while speaking to the people of the State mring the last canvass? Are not all these murderers and lynch mobs his special constituents, and encouraged and inspired in their bloody work by his own bloody words and sentiments? He is directly, persenally, officially, logically, and philosophically responsible for the mundation of this fair land with blood and blood guiltiness. He has carsed us with physical lynch law and he deserves moral lynch lawall good men.

attaches of the concern, will join their the court is simply whether the judgment fellow citizens in its celebration. Therefore, no work will be done, nor any paper issued on the evening of the Fourth. The Herald office will likewise be closed, we understand, and the business houses generally will be clossed. This is as it should be. The proper celebration of the Fourth of July throughout the South will do more to restore the proper national feeling than anything else.

Arguments in the International Bond

Special to the Telegraph.

AUSTIN, June 30 .- The argument in the International bond case was opened by Mr. Harris, who contended that the Gov. ernor, Treasurer, and Comptroller are, by the Constitution of the State, made the exclusive judges of their own action. He hoped the court would resist the anaconda power of the railroad corporations; that could bind the State for six or sixty milions of dollars for thirty years. The Republican principle that there should be no taxation without representation had been violated, for the Legislature that passed the act incorporating the International Railway Company was elected when many people were disfranchised. The tea was thrown into Boston harbor for a less outrage. Further, he said that the Legisla ture was bribed. (Chief Justice)-"Was that not negatived by the jury?" Harris -"Yes, because the evidence was ruled out of court." The International Bailroad Company, he continued, was asking the court to exceed its jurisdiction and to break down all barriers defending the State Treasury, and they wished to concentrate in the hands of the Judge of the District Court of Travis county the powers of all three departments of the government, judicial, legislative and executive.

Attorney General Clark followed with in able legal argument, advancing the following propositions supplemental to the previous brief, viz :

First-The power to enforce the perforwance of a public duty, on the part of detached. menty, just before the election in an executive officer of the government. Anstin a few days since for city must from its nature be an extra judicial shal, in which Ed. Creary was prerogative, and the people of Texas in raming their government have failed to delegate that portion of sovereignty to any court. The history of mandamus was ond, the power to enforce if it pertains to any court does not pertain to a court whose jurisdiction is limited in a particu-

It must be a court in which indicial sovereignty resides and which exercises a general superintendence over inferior tri bunals and persons throughout the State. Taney in Kendall vs. the United States. 12 Prt., 628: Third-Whenever a duty is imposed by statute upon a constituted. executive officer and such duty appears to him as inconsistent with other duties devolved upon him by the constitution, or when the ensetment takes from him any constitutional prerogative, it is right and duty to decline its execution, be being responsible for the mistake to the cemoving power, and not to the courts Federalist, No. 51; second Dallas, 410 State Constitution, Oct. 4, section 20.

Fifth-No court will grant a writ of andamus in any case to command a public officer to perform a duty when the officer is such an one as is amenable to another authority by which he can be punished for neglect. Tapping on Mandaus 177.

Sixth-The exerc se of the power claimed is tantamount to providing a mode for the suspension or removal of a constitutional officer in a manner contrary to the provisions of the Constitution.

Seventh-No court has the right to grant a mandamus in any case except where it is legal and the judge duly required. Taffany, nine, 4; Dowling and

In the evening session of the Supreme Court, Walton, for the Company, complained that Harris did not treat the merits of the case, but went off into a tirade against corporations. That the assertion of Harris that bribery was not allowed to be proven was contrary to the record and he deserves moral lynch law- Ample opportunity was given, yet the the reprobation and execuation of jury was compelled to negative the charge. That this was not unusual in character, but familiar to the courts in every State. Also the defence adopted an attempt to place the Comptroller higher above the law than even the King of England. If the court had found a difficulty in sustaining the mandamus because a new incumbent occupied the office, they would find abundant precedent in Texas reports. minters of the Express and the The right of mandamus exists against already rendered was valid. Mr. Walton argued fully and lucidly, quoting numerons authorities, that the District Court of Travis county was competent to grant the releif asked, and that a mandamus would lie against an executive officer if the law defined the duty to be performed, and did not leave any discretion. That the signature required from the Comptrol ler was ministerial, and not executive and that no discretion was involved in it. The merits received able treatment, but space forbids further report. The speech was altogether worthy of Mr. Walton's high reputation.

"UVALDE, June 15, 1874.

Reports have reached here that S. M. Evans of this place was found dead a day or two ago in a cedar brake about 30 miles above here, supposed to have been killed by Indians. Creed Taylor and party were attacked near the same place by about 20 savages the fight lasting some time and resulting in a drawn battle, Taylor losing one man killed and one wounded.

It is also reported here that Mr. J. Cook of Eagle Pass, accompanied by a Mr. Spicer of Fort Clark, and an other man, lately started from Eagle Pass to the Hot Springs in Mexico, have all been found dead on the side of the road. Cook leaves a wife and three children.

A GERMAN on the East side of the river having some nice peaches which he wished to preserve, and being annoyed by the thefts of youthful intruders, put some poison into some of them. The result was that some of his own kinfolks got poisoned, instead of the boys. He now says that he intended to poison the birds, that procked on his trait, but we think this is a little "too thin." Birds are two-legged, and it may be that he intended to poison ati two legged depredators.

This es the first intimation we have received that any addresses were to be delivered on the occasion. But better late than ne ver. We suppose some gentleman has been selected to read the Declaration of Independence, but we have not heard who at is. But we trust the celebration will turn out finely after all.

THE IRISH-AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF this city, in view of the celebration of the To the Merchants and other Busi-"Giorious Fourth," have prepared a large and beautiful green flag, fifteen feet long, and eight feet wide, with handsomely mainted designs, and white border, to be suspended across Commerce street from their hall, a few doors East of the Express office. In the back-ground of the painting is represented the rising sun, in full-orbed aplendor, emblematic of the Eastern origin and oriental worsi-ip of the Irish race, before the introduction of Christianity. Next appears the "Harp of Erin," emblamatic of the music and literature of early Irish history, both of which mainly consisted in the traditionary songs and chants of the bards, handed down from Cather to son, and from generation to gen exation. Next appears the shaurock, the symbolic plant of Ireland since the introduction of Christianity, the three leaves of which are considered typical of the caystery of the Holy Trinity.

These designs have been beautifully mainted on the green ground in golden color by our fellow-citizen, Mr. E. J. Pine, who is quite skillful in artistic work of that kind,

The Association will ruise first the Amexican flag, and then the Irish flag. In the evening they will have a meeting for an associational celebration of the 'Pourth' at which the members of the press, and the public, are fivited to assist.

TEXAN BUSINESS THRIPT -- The Texas State Pair, which has just anded at House con, afforded an apportunity of indging the material and industrial progress which the State is making. The exhibition was attended by at least 50,000 strangers who had come to Honston to see the evidences of Texan prosperity, and according to all accounts they went away delighted There is a cotton and wooler mill at Honstou, also tren sud brass foundries. An extensive immigration scheme, originated by the Mayor and city council of Houston, is also meeting with marked success. The over of many are thus farning eagerly to the new commercial and manufacturing El Dorado, where, with the rapid extenmon of railways and increase of immigra-Goo, a prosperous future is in store for outerprise and well-directed energy."-Churcheston News, yet mortilis then

We reproduce the above, although it has already been used by our neighbor, the to the importance to San Antonio and Western Texas of making our own approaching Fair a grand success. If the $20,000 people who visited Houston were delighted with Texas, what would be their delight in visiting this committed by bean-cifed and infinitely fertile region. The associations, history, rounness, seemety, and contains connected with two Autonio and the West, so unique and wonderful, States, either North or South : Every pos soble effort should be made to bring out even Mexico, and to make the Bair fully successful; and the papers of the whole Union should be filled with correspondence en the subject.

To a crimical neglect of preventive medication may be ascribed a majority of the ailments which affect humanity. It is the ailments which affect humanity. It is a well ascertained inct, resting on the experience of twenty years, that a course of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will put even a naturally feeble system in such a state of defence that it will be competent to resist the most prevalent causes of disease, such as the malign influence of miasma, unwholesome water, excessive heat, damp, cold, sudden changes of temperature, &c. Yet there are thousands of persona living in perpetual peril from one or more of these causes, who recklessly omit to avail themselves of the absolute protection which this famous vegetable anti-dote affords. Intermittent and bilious dote affords. Intermittent and bilious remittent fevers, rheumatism, general debility, nervous weakness and irregularities of the stomach, bowels and liver, would be comparatively nuknown if this palata ble specific were in universal use in the districts where they principally prevail.

Saturate a Piece of Bread or Meat with gastric juice, and it will dissolve. This is digestion. Add to such a mixture a little alcohol, and it will not dissolve. This is indigestion. Beware, then of tinetures, or tonics, or decoctions containing spirituous liquors. Shan all rum "tobics," and rely solely on Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, the finest digestive invigorant known, and free from the fiery curse of Alcohol. 6-2 4w
