Picture Story Of A Fire Department Rescue

When you read about elevator rescues, it is invariably cited in the number of hours it takes to rescue a victim or victims who have fallen into the bins, or pits.

Fast-working members of the Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department turned that around Saturday afternoon, as they performed their first elevator rescue, successfully, in a matter of minutes.

The first call for assistance at Muleshoe Fertilizer came in to the Bailey County Law Enforcement Center at 1:26 p.m., and City Patrolman Hal Bynum was the first to respond to the call.

Bynum found Dolores Orozco, 52, had fallen into a pit of dry fertilizer inside the tall elevator. Bynum climbed down to where Orozco was partially covered by the fertilizer and dug him out while a call for the rescue department of the Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department.

Climbing the steep ladder on the side of the elevator and then climbing down into the pit where Orozco was trapped were J.O. Parker, Alton Parker, Jack Rennels, Jack Dunham, Claude Holmes, James Martin, Tom Ladd and David Ladd.

Realizing that Orozco had an apparent hip injury, the firemen strapped Orozco to a backboard before securely fastening him in a basket stretcher for the long ascent from the fertilizer pit.

Down below, many eyes were turned upward to the top of the elevator where Orozco would be brought down. Another crowd waited quietly outside, as most rescue operations of this type in other places have taken a matter of hours.

Waiting below the elevator shaft with a stretcher were John Blackwell, Jerry Mick and Frank Ellis, Jr.

They were joined by other members of the fire department, Mrs. Ruby Green, Mrs. Gordon Duncan and Robbie Green, as well as the manager of the fertilizer company. Most of the onlookers remained quietly outside, and only occasionally peering through the wide doors to the inside.

Finally, the firemen on the rescue dais indicated they had raised Orozco to the top of the elevator and were ready to lower him to the ground. With J.O. Parker preceding the stretcher and guiding the descent, the other firemen above lowered the stretcher with two ropes.

When the ambulance drove away, taking Orozco to West Plains Medical Center for emergency treatment, the clock showed 2:02, making a total of 36 minutes from the time the first call came in until Orozco was on his way to be treated. Orozco was taken later Saturday afternoon to Methodist Hospital in Lubbock for treatment of a broken pelvis.

Retired Fire Chief Earl Ladd, who was at the rescue site Saturday afternoon, said this was the first elevator rescue in Bailey County. Several years ago, when an elevator at Lazbuddie exploded, Chief Ladd said members of the fire department assisted in rescue operations there.

Members of the rescue team were praised for their speed and efficiency in removing Orozco from his grey-powdery trap without further injuring him. Most members of the fire department have had some training in rescue operations, and some have had extensive training. Once again, it has been proven—Muleshoe has a fire department and rescue squad to be proud of.

George Bush Refutes Fund Charge

George Bush, candidate for the Congressional seat being vacated by George Mahon, today released figures showing more than half of all money raised in his Congressional campaign has come from contributors living in the 19th Congressional District.

"Since I announced my candidacy in July of last year, 1889 West Texans have contributed to my campaign. That is 63% of the total contributors and represents 52 percent of the total funds raised since July, 1977," said Bush.

"Contrary to erroneous statements made by my opponent, only 16 percent of my contributors live outside the state of Texas," continued Bush, "and 21 percent of my contributors reside in Texas, but outside the 19th District."

Bush pointed out that a total of 3040 persons have contributed to his campaign: 1889 reside within the 19th District, an additional 642 live in Texas, and 509 make their homes outside of Texas.

"We have had fantastic success in raising funds for our campaign. It is a time consuming, hard job, but I am extremely happy and grateful that so many West Texans have given to our campaign," said Bush.

conservative Democrats—including Gov. Dolph Briscoe's children -- will spark a winning total of 53 percent of the vote for Clements on Election Day.

The list of Clements supporters literally reads like a "Who's Who" in the Democratic Party in Texas, and includes Ed and Janey Briscoe Vaughan, the son-in-law and daughter of Gov. Dolph Briscoe; and Mrs. Margaret M. Martin and Sherry Martin Hill, wife and daughter of the late Texas Attorney General Crawford Martin.

"Never before in a Texas gubernatorial race have so many Democrats and Independents publicly endorsed a conservative candidate of another party, but the fact of the matter is that they feel more at home in my campaign. They know I will put Texas' best interests first, instead of the selfish desires of vested interest groups and liberals," Clements said.

Several recurring themes are found in the remarks of the conservative Democrats and Independents supporting Clements.

"Many of these citizens are disillusioned not only with my opponent's liberal philosophy, but they are all too familiar with his negative style of campaigning, and they don't feel they can trust him in the governor's office," Clements said.

Vaughan, an attorney in Uvalde, today stated: "My wife and I are supporting Bill Clements because we strongly believe that Texas needs a fiscal conservative, a proven businessman to guide our state government."

Vaughan went on to say, "We are supporting Bill

When the blue and white Olton Mustangs come to Muleshoe Friday night to tackle the black and white Muleshoe Mules, they will be coming here prepared to try to upset the leading team in District 3-AA.

This year, Muleshoe has defeated both Friona and Littlefield in district action to take the leading honors. But, the Mustangs are coming to town with a 'do or die' attitude, knowing that the team that upsets the Mules will have a better chance of coming back to take district honors and represent the district in playoffs.

Since 1960, Olton has a slight edge in games against the Mules. They have won 10, to eight for the Mules. At the same time, on at least four of those years, the Mustang have had a decisive victory.

In 1968, the score was 49-7; in 1969, 40-0; 1975, 34-7 and 1976, 37-6.

But, last year, Muleshoe defeated the Mustangs in their 9-1 season by a score

JO WOOD

Jo Wood Wins First Place For Last Week

How about another first place winner again this week in the weekly Merchant's Football Contest! This week, Jo Wood, who has entered faithfully each week, came up with the winning combination.

Mrs. Wood missed two games, Indiana - Illinois and Washington - Arizona State. She was also 15 points away on the double tiebreaker scores.

In second place was another new name in the contest, Linda Whitson also missed two games, Dartmouth - Cornell and Houston - Arkansas, but she was 20 points off on the tiebreakers.

The third place winner was Jim Shafer. He missed the Tennessee - Mississippi State and the Indiana - Illinois games, but was 23 points away on the tiebreakers.

Others missing two games and their tiebreaker scores were Pat Young, 25; Sue Bessire, 26; Hugh Young, 31; C.O. Larue, Jr., 36; Nona Blake Douglass, 43; Ruth Malone, 54 and Maureen Jesko, 77.

Coach Mike Wartes was lavish with praise for his entire team this week, as he said the team has really jelled during the last game.

"The Mules came into their own last Friday, and have a lot of momentum," said the coach. "We are going to try to maintain the momentum the rest of the year. We have a very good defensive team and we are very proud of our defensive secondary who have played us a good game all year. Our offensive line has also proven to be great. Our three backs last week made over 100 yards each. Our backs realize the line does the work to allow them to make yards and the line realizes the backs make extra yards when they all work together."

However, the coach warned, "The district race is not won. To get in the playoffs, it is mandatory that we win the next games. Olton, along with Dimmitt, are both good teams, and will be strong contenders. We will be ready for Olton, in fact, we won't show up without being ready for the next Cont. page 6.

Jaycees Plan Trapshoot This Saturday

The Muleshoe Jaycees will conduct a trap shoot Saturday, November 2, starting at 1 p.m. It will be across the highway south of Robert Green, Inc.

Shotgun shells and refreshments will be available at the shoot.

Also available will be tickets for the Remington 1100 model automatic vented rib 12 gauge shotgun, which will be given away by the Jaycees on the opening day of the Pheasant Season.

Tickets are available from any member of the Jaycees for a $1 contribution. The shotgun will be presented to some lucky winner at noon on Saturday, December 9.

Shortly after 2 p.m. Monday, Muleshoe City Patrolman Jerry Hicks took a telephone call from a woman whose laundry had disappeared from a local laundry establishment. Within an hour, the woman had her laundry back, and had declined to file charges on the person who had taken the laundry to her house, and had it hanging on her clothesline. The woman who took the laundry explained to Hicks and City Police Chief Johnny Richards that she 'mistakenly thought the laundry was her own.'

Hugh Young, president of the Muleshoe Jaycees, announced that effective Nov. 1, the Jaycees will hold their regular meetings at the Bailey County Civic Center and Coliseum.

First meeting for the Jaycees at the Coliseum will be Monday, Nov. 6, at noon.

On Monday, November 6, at 7:30 p.m., the Women's Auxiliary of the Muleshoe Volunteer Fire Department will conduct a special meeting at the Fire Station.

It will be determined during the meeting if the Auxiliary will continue to exist, so all interested fire department wives are urged to attend.

Bailey County Commissioners Court will meet in regular session on Monday, Nov. 2, in the courtroom.

Routine county bills and miscellaneous items are listed on the agenda for the meeting which begins at 10 a.m.

"If it's someone's idea of Halloween, they're badly mistaken," said a grim Johnny Richards, Muleshoe City Police Chief, as he surveyed the numerous reports of vandalism and criminal mischief inflicted within the city during the past weekend.

"The acts show a criminal mind, doing criminal activities," he added.

Jury Trials Postponed To December

Prospective jurors who had received cards to appear for jury service last Tuesday, were receiving telephone calls Monday cancelling their appearance.

According to records in the office of District Court Clerk Nelda Merriott, Mike Rodriguez and Eloy Garcia, both charged with burglary at the VFW, entered pleas of guilty. They were assessed four years probation each and ordered to make restitution for the merchandise taken.

Ten others scheduled for trial had different dispositions. James Ray Clayton was tried in Littlefield on a combination of charges from various counties and is serving a sentence with the Texas Department of Corrections.

Frederick Myers, who was charged with the burglary of Damon Drug, is already with the TDC, serving a sentence from another county.

The trials of James Jackson, Marvin Sehested and William Hern were passed until December.

incidents reported to the police.

Also, the persons did not discriminate, as they ranged in doing their damage to homes, businesses and vehicles owned by the very young to the very old. They also moved from one end of town to the other, east to west and north to south.

Friday night, an unknown person or persons fired shotguns at two different pickups in different parts of town. Early Saturday morning, in the 700 block of West Ave. G, a pickup was shot with a .410 shotgun.

Also, in the 500 Block of East Fifth St., another pickup was shot with a .12 gauge shotgun.

Then Saturday night and early Sunday morning, numerous incidents occurred.

Here is a chronicle of the events, not necessarily as they happened or as they were reported:

Vandalism Reward Offered

With the heavy vandalism and criminal mischief done in the city of Muleshoe during the past weekend, the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture is offering a $250 reward for the arrest and conviction of anyone involved in the incidents.

Tommy Black, executive director of the CofC, said he and Chief Johnny Richards have authorized the reward to help stop such activities in Muleshoe.

Chief Richards said the names of persons who have information as to any person who was involved in the vandalism will be held in strict confidence.

He can be contacted at 272-4304 with the information.

Clements Boosts Law, Stronger Penalties

Because of the mushrooming population in Texas, this state must take definite steps now to ensure that our communities will be safe for all Texans and that law and order is maintained, Gubernatorial candidate Bill Clements said today.

In a major address on law enforcement, Clements said, "By 1983, Texas' population will have mushroomed with gains in the Congress and electoral college as a result of the 1980 census. These new citizens will have different cultural backgrounds, at least by Texas standards, and that can lead to disharmony, even violence.

"In maintaining law and order, the police forces of the eighties must remain the servants of our local communities and they must treat all Texans equally under the law."

In the entire area of law enforcement in Texas, Clements stated, one of the most pressing needs is a new attorney general who is not a career bureaucrat.

Attorney General John Hill, Clements said, "has interfered with the workings of local law enforcement office where it was politically expedient to do so--as in Odessa (in the Larry Lozano case). And, he has ignored the need for outside investigation when his political friends were involved--as in Laredo."

Clements also noted that the attorney general and his campaign aides violated the law in filing the attorney general's own campaign financial statement. Among the violations, he said, is a failure to report major contributions and expenditures made during the primary.

While praising the work of the Department of Public Safety, the Texas Rangers, and local law enforcement officials, Clements said definite steps can be taken to better protect the citizens of Texas. He specifically mentioned:

--Mandatory minimum sentences for a specific crime so that a potential criminal clearly knows the consequences of his acts.

"As an example, we cannot have some judges giving non-capital murderers five years to life while others get suspended sentences," Clements said.

--Legislation which prohibits plea bargaining for repeat offenders.

"Career criminals commit most of our serious crimes so it seems logical to plan an aggressive attack on the problem caused by repeat offenders," he said.

--The creation of additional courts, as necessary, to guarantee repeat offenders a fair trial.

"We cannot have convicted felons turned loose on reduced charges just because of crowded court calendars," he said.

--Denying parole to repeat offenders, and improving probation services for the first offender.

"Last year, those on probation returned $15 million to the Texas taxpayers through restitution payments, probation fees, and court fees. It costs about $7 per day to keep an individual in prison; under $2 per day on supervised probation; and probation keeps the first offender away from the hardened criminals in our prisons," he said.

--Restitution by the criminal to repay his victim for damages is also a concept that should be pursued.

To the extent it is feasible, I support it," Clements said.

--Providing humane facilities for those who are in prison.

"Texas jail capacity is far too small and I support the construction of new facilities," he said.

--Expanding the role of the Texas Ranger to end the drug traffic crossing the Texas-Mexico border.

Auxiliary Sponsoring Christmas Card Project

The Muleshoe Hospital and Nursing Home Auxiliary will sponsor the Christmas Card project again this year. Support for this project has grown each year and the Auxiliary is hoping to make this year the best.

The money raised from this project will be spent in remodeling the Nursing Home. Plans are underway at this time for remodeling the hall in the east wing. This will include painting, new suspended ceiling with recessed lights, carpet and fly-trap doors at the east wing entrance and west wing entrance. These doors are needed to make the halls lighter as well as to conserve energy.

E.S.A. Movie Had Good Turn Out

The Epsilon Delta Chapter of E.S.A. had a good turnout for their movie, "The Shakiest Gun in the West", starring Don Knotts.

About $250, which was profit, will go to the Muleshoe Civic Center, probably to be used to help equip the kitchen.

The children had a fun time and E.S.A. appreciates the use of the Civic Center.

The names of each person or family that send a contribution to the "Christmas Card Project" will be on the Community Christmas Card which will appear in the Muleshoe Journal Christmas week. This is one way of wishing your friends in this area a Happy Holiday Season without mailing out cards. The Auxiliary also welcomes those from other towns and communities to join in on the greeting card project.

Donations can be made to the Hospital Auxiliary at Box 396.

Carolyn Allison Manager Of New Lubbock Store

Grigsby's Rag Doll, a specialty store featuring "great looks in clothes, shoes and accessories," is having its Grand Opening in the Memphis Place Mall, Lubbock, beginning Thursday, November 2, through Nov. 18. The manager of this new store is Carolyn Allison, a native of Muleshoe, and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allison of the Pleasant Valley Community. Carolyn is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and Texas Tech University with a degree in fashion merchandising.

Grigsby's Rag Doll of Lubbock is the seventh in a series of specialty stores and is owned by Mr. and Mrs. Cuin Grigsby, Jr. of Abilene. They opened their first store, Grigsby's Shoe Store, in Abilene in 1958. The first Rag Doll was opened in 1966 when the Shoe Store was enlarged next door. In 1967 the Rag Doll was enlarged again to take in more than 5,000 square feet of the latest fashions. The Odesa Rag Doll was opened in Aug., 1972 followed by more Rag Doll Stores in Midland, San Angelo, Big Spring, and Wichita Falls. Miss Allison became associated with the Rag Doll Stores in July 1977, as assistant manager of the Midland Rag Doll, moving in Dec., 1977 to Wichita Falls as the manager there.

Miss Allison was formerly associated with Margarets of Lubbock, with Frost Bros., San Antonio, where she was an assisttant buyer, and with Howard B. Wolf, Dallas, acting as warehouse and office manager, Fabrics II Division. She is a candidate for a masters degree in clothing and textiles from Texas Womans University, Denton, and was chosen in 1976 to represent TWU at the Cotton Council and Natural Fibers National Seminar with an original design which she created from a cotton fabric.

Miss Allison sends a special invitation to Muleshoe area people to stop by, where she will be happy to give you personal attention as you browse, get acquainted or reacquainted, and shop for great looks in clothes.

LOUISA'S LETTER

Dear Louisa,
My husband has a good business and we have one son. All of our lives we have looked forward to his taking over the business when he grows up. However, our son, who is eighteen, announced last week that he wishes to be a doctor and nothing we can say will make him change his mind. My husband is heartbroken. What can we do to change our boy?
Mother-Conn.

Answer:
Encourage him to be as good a doctor as possible and help him all you can. There is no greater mistake for a father to make than to try to live his life all over again through his son. Remember that every child is an individual, who has his own desires and ambitions.

Reason For Thanks
"Thankful! What have I to be thankful for? I can't pay my bills!"
"Then, man alive, be thankful you aren't one of your creditors."

According to both coaches, the Olton defense is very tough, and their team is physical. The game is expected to be another 'thriller' in the Mules hoped-for district championship.

Clements for another reason, and that is because we know John Hill's liberal record all too well. As attorney general, he has been a poor manager of the taxpayer's dollars as shown by the 600 percent increase in his budget and the 300 percent increase in his staff."

Mrs. Martin, who lives in Austin, said, "The foremost reason I am supporting Bill Clements is because he is a conservative businessman who shares my philosophy of efficient state government. Bill Clements is an experienced business leader who is approaching this campaign, and the governor's office, fairly and responsibly. He has made no excessive promises, or promises he cannot keep."

She also said, "I have watched the governor's race this fall with great interest. I am not surprised by John Hill's dirty campaign tactics this year because I know from first-hand experience that he waged the same kind of negative and divisive campaign against my husband, Crawford Martin, in the 1972 attorney general's race."

And, she said, "I saw John Hill wage a negative campaign against Gov. Dolph Briscoe in the primary and now I find it amusing that Mr. Hill has the audacity to falsely accuse someone else of his own style of dirty politics."

Janey Briscoe, wife of Gov. Briscoe, joins Mrs. Martin in her assessment both of Mr. Hill's liberal philosophy and his style of campaigning.

Mrs. Briscoe has been quoted as saying her three grown children "lean toward Bill Clements because of the conservative philosophy he represents."

She also said, "Party loyalty aside, I do feel he (Clements) would make a better governor than Hill." Mrs. Briscoe said that during the Democratic Primary this year Mr. Hill said "a lot of things about me and Dolph that were deliberate lies and he knew it."

Clements said, "John Hill's claims that he has 95 percent of the Briscoe support are deliberate distortions and the press realizes this, yet he continues to foist that myth on the voters in an attempt to shore up his quickly eroding campaign."

Clements pointed to an article in the Dallas Times-Herald in which Political Write Dave Montgomery stated, "Since the primary, Briscoe's public support of Hill has been half-hearted at best, non-existent at worse. At every press conference, when

Most newspapers pick Hill over Clements

"John Hill may be the best candidate for governor in decades. Judging from his record, he should win easily over his Republican opponent, whose chief qualification is money. Unlike his opponent, Hill is not given to outrageous promises, intemperate personal attack or underhanded tactics. He will work hard for the best interests of the state and its people."

— Austin American Statesman

"The more Mr. Clements has explained his blunt viewpoints — even those views we could agree with — the more he has raised doubt as to how effective a bulldozer could be in Texas government. Conversely, John Hill has grown in our evaluation as a man who not only is the best state attorney general in recent history, but also is a man with the intelligence, savvy and ability to serve Texas well as governor."

— Abilene Reporter-News

"We believe Hill will bring vitality and leadership to state government. Hill is not an advocate of big government. Nor is he a free spender. He has pledged that no new taxes will be levied if he is elected. His anti-inflation program is the kind of fiscal conservatism Texans can accept gleefully."

— Corpus Christi Caller

GOVERNOR

Tower Gets High Award From Navy

Senator John G. Tower (R-Tex) today received the Naval Reserve Association's "highest symbol of respect and honor for 1978" at the Association's annual conference in New Orleans, Louisiana. The National Distinguished Service Award is accorded annually to the individual who has performed the most outstanding service to the nation, the Department of Defense or the Navy.

Tower, a Chief Petty Officer in the Naval Reserve, and the only enlisted reservist in the Congress, was cited for his dedicated and all out support for a ready Naval Reserve which is second to none. He has consistently resisted efforts by the Administration, and the Defense Department to cut back in the size of the Navy's Reserve arm.

The senior Texas Senator, who is the ranking minority member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, has always been a staunch advocate of a national defense rated number one in the world as the only way the United States can continue to exercise its leadership in the world community.

"The dangerous trend toward unilateral disarmament by this nation, as evidenced by cancellation of the B-1 manned strategic bomber, slowdown in the development of the next generation ICBM, refusal to produce the enhanced radiation weapon, and withdrawal of our ground forces from South Korea, if not reversed, will ultimately result in the United States being subjected to intimidation and political and economic blackmail by the Soviet Union. If we ever reach that situation, where the Soviet Union is not only superior in military strength, but also economically, all our valued goals for a better life for all out citizens will become mere dreams. A national defense posture second to none must be the cornerstone of our national strength in the real world of today and the foreseeable future," Tower declared.

Following the President's veto of the Defense Authorization Bill because it contained funds for a fifth nuclear aircraft carrier, Tower won assurances from the Chairman of the Armed Services Committee that he would work early in the next session of the Congress for a supplemental appropriation to begin rebuilding the Navy.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's Note--The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek looks at the prospects for a tax out.

Dear editor-- "Finally," a man said to me the other day, "we are going to get some tax relief."

"You think so?" I asked. "Of course, Look, everybody is running on a platform of cutting taxes. Republicans, Democrats, Independents, you name them and they are all committed to reducing taxes. Regardless of who gets elected, we are bound to get a tax cut."

Maybe so. There is a saying, "those who are ignorant of history are doomed to repeat it," but that is only half the story. Those who are familiar with history keep on repeating it too. Frequently on purpose.

Never in the history of man has anybody ever run for office on a platform of increasing everybody's taxes, and never since the invention of elections have taxes come down to where you could tell it.

A tax-cut platform has been used so often by candidates it is worn down as the hollowed-out marble steps at an ancient cathedral trod upon by millions of visitors over the centuries.

Not only are all the candidates in favor of cutting taxes, the people already in office with the power to do it are in favor too. Why, some Congressmen who have been in office 25 years or longer and have continued to raise taxes are still running on the same platform they first got elected on -- cutting taxes.

But a lots of people say this time it is going to be different, taxes are going to be cut. Come back a year from now and let's see what happened.

Yours faithfully, J.A.
A fanatic is one who lets one idea dominate his life and befores his reason.

whose ship strength has diminished to what Tower considers dangerous levels because of continued inadequate defense budgets. The Naval Reserve Association Award was presented at the noon luncheon of the Association at the New Orleans Hilton Inn, as part of the group's 25th annual conference.

AN "EARLY BLUR" SITUATION

The lack of adequate identification or "early blur" prior to the shooter pulling the trigger can tempt the hunter into believing that he actually sees a deer, when in reality, it may be another hunter.

Recent studies by the U.S. military, various universities and clothing industries show that the best defense for a hunter, whether after deer or other game, is to wear outer clothing made from hunter blaze orange.

The hunter, hiker, angler, or trapper who wears clothing of a color that merges into the brush and tree shadows or who is clad in garments of gray or brown is continually giving off deer clues.

These clues, such as movement, noise or odor are used by deer hunters as well as the deer to spot or identify an animal or man.

It is apparent from accident reports received and studied by Texas Parks and Wildlife Department hunter safety experts that "hunter judgement" accounts for a large percent of the accidents each year. Of the 36 hunting accidents reported to P&WD since Jan. 1, 1978, 13 have been classified as "hunter judgement" such as victim moved into line of fire; victim covered by shooter swinging on game; victim out of sight of shooter; or victim mistaken for game.

But, many shooting accidents occur when experienced hunters, who do not drink, and are adept at identifying game, shoot another hunter or person. The human mind can be convinced that a deer is standing in the brush if the conditions, such as shadows, light, sound or movement are inadequate for the hunter to identify the target.

This "early blur" condition can be corrected if the person in question is wearing outer clothing with a luminance factor not less than 40 percent, a dominant wave length between 595 and 605 nanometers and an excitation purity not less than 85 percent. This recommended color specifies the daylight fluorescent orange or hunter blaze orange, which is required on the P&WD wildlife public hunting areas during the deer season and should be on the hunters list of required equipment.

Nature does not produce any object, plant or animal life with these color variations. Many hunters have not gone to the hunter blaze orange for fear of scaring the deer away, but tests have shown that deer do not distinguish different colors, only shades of gray.

Most experienced deer hunters realize that movement scares deer and, therefore, the majority of the successful deer hunters are stationary or hidden when they bag their deer.

The P&WD suggests that all hunters, experienced and beginners, take a little more time in identifying their target before pulling the trigger, even if it might mean letting a buck deer slip away in the brush.

A member of the British Parliament once told his 13 year old son of his first hunt, "All the pheasants ever bred won't repay for one man dead," and this remark should apply for all wildlife whether in Texas or other states.

WILDLIFE AREA QUAIL HUNTS

Two of the wildlife management areas maintained and operated by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department in north-west Texas will open for their annual quail hunts on Nov. 4-5.

The Matador WMA located 11 miles northwest of Paducah in Cottle county will also be open for quail hunting on Nov. 11-12, 18-19; Dec. 2-3, 9-10, 16-17, 1978, Jan. 6-7, 13-14, 20-21; Feb. 3-4, 10-11, 17-18, 1979. There will be no restrictions on the number of hunters during each hunting day.

The Gene Howe WMA located east of Canadian in Hemphill county will also be open to quail hunters on Dec. 9-10; Jan 6-7; Feb. 3-4; March 3-4, 1979. The number of hunters will be 30 per day. No repeat hunters after the first day unless the daily quota of 30 hunters is not filled.

Quail hunting on these two WMA as well as the Black Gas, Chaparral and Engeling WMA is by permit issued at the check stations on the area.

Retortable pouches will arrive on grocery market shelves in the near future. This innovative new food packaging should change the complexion of grocery store shelves and food buying practices and, hopefully, reduce energy used by manufacturers and consumers in getting food on the family table. The pouch consists of three layers that provide the strength of a metal can and convenience of boil-in bags.

An outer polyester layer gives strength, the middle aluminum foil serves as a barrier against light, moisture and gas while the inner layer of polypropylene provides the heat seal and inner container for food.

The advantages of this packaging innovation are numerous: --The pouch takes about 30 to 50 percent less time to reach sterilizing temperatures producing a product that has better color, firmer texture and fresher flavor.

--Pouched products require no refrigeration or freezing and can be stored at room temperature as long or longer than canned items. --Pouched foods take less time to heat than frozen items, thus saving energy. Items can be heated in microwave ovens if removed from the package first.

--The pouch opens easily by tearing across the top. --Campers can eat directly from the pouch to eliminate dish washing. --The pouches weigh much less than cans and take up less storage space than cans, jars or trays in storage and disposal.

--Pouches require less energy to manufacture than cans, jars and trays.

Estimates indicate that energy required from harvest to consumption will be 60 percent lower for a vegetable packaged in the retort pouch than for a frozen vegetable and about 15 percent lower than canned vegetables. --Single serving portions may provide new meal alternatives for singles.

Fall Weather No Blessing For Farmers

AUSTIN--After a summer of scorching heat and drought, September's moisture and lower temperatures were not the blessing they should have been to most Texas farmers, reports the Texas Department of Agriculture.

Widespread rains throughout a large portion of the state during the month did give a needed boost to livestock ranges and added subsurface moisture to the soil which will be welcomed later in the season.

"Farmers ready or almost ready to begin harvest operations, however, have found the rains and accompanying cool weather unwanted and in some cases, damaging," Agriculture Commissioner Reagan V. Brown said.

"Most cotton farmers in the Plains areas were hoping rains would hold off until the bolls had matured," he continued. "The rains may also cause some decline in cotton quality and some losses during harvest because the fiber is loose in the boll."

The 1978 cotton production estimate has continued to drop, according to Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service surveys, and is 37 per cent below the 1977 crop. The estimate is 80,000 bales below the September 1 forecast.

Other rain-related problems have shown up in corn, with delayed harvest and extensive lodging reported in some of the major corn-producing counties. The crop is down 17 per cent from a year ago, with production expected to total 135 million bushels.

One thing you've got to say for Social Security: it's done more than anything else to make people admit their right age. --Courier, Charleston, S.C.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor: ref-Hance - Bush and the Trilateral Commission.

Kent Hance has a very good record in the Texas legislation. We can be sure he will be a good representative, if elected.

George Bush may be just as good, but we will not know until we try him. We don't have that much time. We need a representative now.

George Bush, Sr., is a member of the Trilateral Commission which was inaugurated in July, 1973 as a policy-oriented organization based on analyses of major issues facing North America, Western Europe and Japan.

The Trilateral Commission is organized by the leading money managers of the world to direct the policies of Europe, Japan and America toward a common goal as determined by the Commission.

The Trilateral Commission has more influence on our Government than all of the voters in the United States, because of a lot of our elected officials are former members, such as Jimmie Carter, Walter Mondale, Andrew Young and many more.

I do not like the idea of this group of nonelected people running the affairs of our government.

There are no recognizable members of agricultural organizations on the North American list.

How can we know if George Bush, Jr., will vote like we want him to, or like his father wants him to. M.G. Killough (s)

Two good men are running for Congress from this district.

So... Why should we vote for George Bush?

Four Important reasons

1 GEORGE BUSH WON'T HAVE TO COMPROMISE HIS PRINCIPLES.

Most of us in this district are conservative. George Bush is a conservative, and he'll be free to represent this philosophy in Washington. His opponent, however, would have to "go along to get along" with the party's leadership, which doesn't always agree with our position.

2 THE ELECTION OF GEORGE BUSH WOULD BE A CLEAR SIGNAL TO WASHINGTON OF HOW WE FEEL.

If we want to send a message to Washington that we don't agree with the domestic policies of the current administration, George Bush is the man to carry it. The election of a Democrat, on the other hand, would be seen as an endorsement of present policies--policies which have caused wasteful spending, big government, and overregulation of our lives.

3 GEORGE BUSH IS A BUSINESSMAN.

He is a hard-working, tax-paying private citizen. He understands our problems because they are his problems, too. He'll take a businesslike approach to government and will work to make it more efficient.

4 GEORGE BUSH HAS GREAT POTENTIAL FOR LEADERSHIP.

Knowledgeable, articulate and well-versed on national issues, George Bush would be listened to in Congress. He would be highly effective in speaking up for and working on behalf of the people and the economy of West Texas.

ON NOVEMBER 7, VOTE FOR WEST TEXAS. VOTE FOR GEORGE BUSH FOR CONGRESS.

Farmers Plan Tractorcade To Washington

Farmers and ranchers of the American Agriculture movement (AAM) plan to start rolling their rigs to Washington, D.C. shortly after Congress convenes in mid-January.

"We'll give Congress or Ag. Secretary Bob Bergland the length of the time it takes us to get to D.C. to act," said Derral Schroder, spokesman for American Ag. "We'll stay there until it happens. We'll camp anywhere and everywhere and become residents of Washington, D.C. until we get our demands."

Schroder said the National American Ag Tractorcade will begin from five or six locations in the country, including Lamar, Co., Amarillo, Dallas, Houston, Bismarck, N.D. and Pierre, S.D.

"We'll travel about 100 miles a day," Schroder said. "We'll have meetings every night and pass out flyers on the way. We'll gather more tractors and supporters as we go."

Schroder said that tractors from the West Coast we will be hauled to the closest starting point. The Tractorcade will, according to the AAM spokesman, "parade through most of the large metropolitan areas such as Chicago, St. Louis, Memphis and Indianapolis."

American Agriculture representatives are counting on making the winter trek in two weeks.

"After reaching Washington," Schroder said, "Each morning we will travel to the capitol to urge our congressmen to act."

Schroder said American Ag is getting businesses to help sponsor the tractorcade.

Penn State-Maryland Classic Is Saturday

We have a classic of a college football confrontation Saturday - just down the road in Central Pennsylvania - between undefeated Maryland and undefeated Penn State. The Terrapins and Clemson are co-leaders of the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the Nittany Lions, with fifteen straight regular season wins, are clearly number one among the independents. The teams have beaten two common opponents this fall, Kentucky and Syracuse. Maryland whipped Kentucky, 20-3, while Penn State shut them out a week later, 30-0. Syracuse fell to the Terps, 24-9, and once again a week later, the Orangemen were defeated by the Lions, 45-15. In 23 meetings, Maryland has only won one game against Penn State. In meeting #24, we think the Nittany Lions will prevail again, but the spread is just four points.

Conference as they usually are at this time every year. The Tide, with the exception of the loss to Southern California the third week of the season, has had most games very much its own way. Mississippi State is one of three challengers remaining on Alabama's 1978 schedule, and the Bulldogs think this could be upset-time. State started the season whipping up real storms, winning the first three games. Then they temporarily ran out of gas, running into difficulties with Florida and Southern Mississippi before impressively beating both Florida State and Tennessee in their last two games. The Mississippi State Bulldogs are only eleven point underdogs to Alabama.

Crystal ball analysis: it needs polishing!! Through October 21, we picked 1,049 games right out of 1,423...average, .737. Big Ten leader Purdue, Pac-10 front runner U.C.L.A., Atlantic Coast co-leader Clemson and Nebraska and Oklahoma, joint owners of the Big

Gin Trash Slated For Cattle Feed

Cattle feeders could, in some cases, spend as much as $48 a ton for cotton gin trash to use as feedlot roughage and still make a profit.

This is one finding in a study on economics of using gin trash as a cattle feedlot roughage, conducted by Dr. Kenneth B. Young of the agricultural economics faculty at Texas Tech University.

"Using gin trash as a roughage could help solve at least two problems," Young said. "It could reduce the feeders' dependency on more conventional roughages, such as alfalfa, corn silage and cottonseed hulls...often in short supply and expensive...and it would reduce or eliminate waste disposal problems for ginners."

Young conducted the research in the Texas High Plains area, but he said the results could probably be extended to other feedlots. More common roughages frequently have to be shipped into the feedlot area.

Gin trash is available at the rate of 859,000 tons per year, or nearly 400 pounds per head for all feedlot cattle in the High Plains, assuming feedlots operate at 50 percent average capacity and 200 percent turnover per year, Young said.

In addition to availability, gin trash has been found comparable nutritionally to more common roughages. One laboratory analysis conducted by Hi-Pro Feeds at Friona found ground gin trash had a similar energy content to alfalfa hay, although digestible nutrient content was lower. Digestible protein in gin trash was nearly half that of milo or corn, both high energy feed grains. Protein level was considerably higher than cottonseed hulls.

In his experiment Young used four different energy requirement levels for feed rations, based on cattle's increasing energy requirements from starting to finishing stages of feeding. Levels were 36, 40, 44 and 48 megacalories of net energy for gain for each one hundred pounds of ration.

In one comparison the ration without gin trash contained 18 to 0 percent cottonseed hulls, the numbers representing starting to finishing percentages; 0 to 5 percent commercial supplement; no molasses and 7 to 21 percent alfalfa.

In the gin trash ration 40 percent ground gin trash and 11 to 16 percent molasses were substituted for hulls and alfalfa. Grain sorghum content without gin trash was 58 to 85 percent, but with gin trash was 18 to 39 percent. Meal and fat contents were 0 to 3 and 0 to 1 percent, respectively, without gin trash, and 5 to 9 and 0 to 14 percent, respectively, with gin trash. The additional meal and fat were required for the finishing rations which had higher energy level requirements.

Prices per hundredweight for ingredients in this ration were $1.60 for cottonseed hulls, $4 for molasses, $5.62 for supplement, $8 for cottonseed meal, $4 for grain sorghum, $9.20 for fat and $3 for alfalfa. Gin trash was priced at $2.24 or less per hundredweight.

At these price levels Young found that producers could afford to pay up to $44.80 per ton for gin trash before it became too expensive.

With varying price levels the results indicated that gin trash value was highly sensitive to prices of cottonseed hulls and alfalfa, which gin trash replaced as a roughage. Estimated values of ground gin trash in the study ranged from $14.80 to $48.80 per ton.

Young concluded from his study that replacing more expensive roughages with gin trash in Texas High Plains cattle feedlots would be economically feasible, but further feeding trials are needed to add support to these findings.

ON CHINESE OIL

China reportedly has begun to offer its oil for sale in the American market, another of several recent signs that that country has decided to develop its unmeasured oil reserves.

Beef Import Bill Passed By Congress

The Senate, early Sun., gave final congressional approval to the Bentsen Counter-cyclical Beef Import bill and sent the measure to the White House.

The Bentsen bill in its final form included minor modifications made in the House of Representatives but its major feature, eliminating the pro-cyclical approach of the 1964 Meat Import Act in favor of a counter-cyclical approach, remains intact.

The Senate completed action on the legislation in the closing hours of the 95 Congress.

"I am pleased that Congress has approved my legislation, which will benefit both consumers and ranchers across the nation, and I am hopeful that the President will sign it quickly into law," Bentsen said.

The American housewife has been faced with sharp cyclical swings in beef prices over recent years. My bill will help moderate this 'roller coaster' effect and in the future would help ease the sharp upswings and downswings that we have experienced in beef prices in past years."

The counter-cyclical approach in the Bentsen bill would allow fewer beef imports into this country when domestic supplies are abundant and more imports when domestic supplies dwindle.

The pro-cyclical approach of existing law has the reverse effect, allowing more imports as domestic supplies increase.

"There is an overwhelming preponderance of hard evidence from all sources that my bill will vastly improve the current meat import law, with significant benefits to both producers and consumers," Bentsen said.

"The counter-cyclical control of imports will add stability to the domestic beef market. Greater stability in the beef market will result in lower prices to consumers over the long run, a sure and reasonable market for imports and a fair rate of return to ranchers," Senator Bentsen said.
