ONE HUNDRED GUNS FOR LOUSIA-NA-BONFIRES ILLUMINATE THE CITY.

WACO, Lept. 16 .- The city was thrown into a state of wild excitement over the news from Lousiana, and when the final result was known there was great rejoicing. One hundred guns were fired in honor of the grateful event, and bonifires send up their jurid glare all over the ci-

The enthusiastic assemblage on Col. G. B. the streets called out Col. G. B. Gerald, who delivered an electrical speech in harmony with the feelings of his auditors. In the course of his remarks he said the crisis in Lousiana was the turning point where the destiny of the Southern President Grant refused te interfere, But while thus laying hold of the all would be well, and Lousiana's talse notes which had been held out lost commerce would return again. But if he turusts Kellogg back, the followers were suddenly overtaken blackness of the South would be impenetrable.

and changes of water and food may be faced without fear. As a Remedy in MALARIOUS FEVERS, BOWEL COM-PLAINTS, RESTLESSNESS, JAUNDICE, John Muechleisen Arnold, D. D., honorary secretary of the Moslem Mission Society, and late her British majesty's consular chaplain at Batavia, says the Christian Intelligencer, It is the Cheapest, Purest and Best Family has recently issued from the press of Longmans, Green & Co., London, a volume entitled Islam -it: History, Character and Relation to Christianity, which contains a large amount of new and interesting matter relative to the life of Mahomet or Mohammed and the sacred book-the Ko ran-which is attributed to him.

It is well known that the beauty of the style and language of the Koran was appealed to by Mohammed as a proof of its inspiration, which theory is implicitly accepted by his followers. Dr. Arnold shows that this claim of the superior elegance and purity of the language of the Koran has been disputed by eminent Arabic scholars, and he quotes, in evidence, from the writings of the Arab philosopher, Abdel Messih ben Isaac el Kindey, who lived a century after Mohammed, as

"From my own intimate acquaintance with the book-tor I am an Arab-I know that it contains corruptions, that it is destitute of order, style, elegance, or accuracy of composition or diction. It contains contradictions from first to last; one sentence abrogates another, and the whole is puerile and weak; yet it is said that men and genii together could not produce its equal. The writings of El Kais and other poets and learned men, who lived at or before the time of Mohammed are clearer, more elegant and more subtle. Their discourses are deeper and plainer, and with them Mohammed contested when they questioned his rights and rejected his claims. I have read a so called Koran, written by Maselmet el Hanafi, without any of the aid and assistance which your friend (Moham med) received in his book. Had the former appeared before his, it it would have been accepted and received as the orthodox revelation, supposing even it were brought for ward on the plea of the beauty of language, elegance and order alone." Dr. Arnold points out some of the contradictions with which the Koran abounds, exposes the perversions of prophecies which are quoted as establishing the Arabian prophet's claims, and indicates passages by which the divine sonship of Christ, in the sense in which it is which has hitherto lacked satisfactory explanation, is thus accounted "Mohammed died at the age of sixty-three, on the eve of a Monday, the tweitth day of the month of June. Having predicted that he would rise from the dead on the 3d day, he had charged his followers, before his death, not to bury him earlier on any account, as was customary; and in this way alone can we fully account for the delay which occurred in the burial. THE President's proclamation will be read by every law abiding citizen with satisfaction. The majesty of the law is about to be asserted and every good man in the country feels more secure in his lite, liberty and property.

It is as false try on several memorable occasions, as it is impudent, and will meet a and we are at this moment passing severe rebuke at the band of the through a crisis of the most daugerpeople of the Republic.

THE spirit of the Texas Demoeratic press over the recent ontrages committed in Louisiana by McEnery and his "White Leaguers" will go far to convince the loyal public over the nation, that the spirit of '61 is still rampant.

Gov. Coke's friends and supporters in Waco got up a wild demonstration over the New Orleans masacre, fired 100 guns, and listened to some senseless twaddle from one G. B. Gerald. It is always best to avoid whistling until you are out of the woods.

GOV. KELLOGG'S DISPATCH, which we publish, gives the true state of the case in Louisiana. His opponents tonot pretend to deny it. That vast corruption existed in that State, is not denied, but it was not his fault. He remedied it as rapidby as possible, under the fiercest opposition. LOUISIANA is the first battle ground of the new rebellion, a rebellion headed by Democratic politicians, and men who, unfortunately, did not get fighting enough during the first rebellion. The Louisiana affair was no sudden uprising, better the battle be fought out in New but a deliberate, well planned, cold Orleans than elsewhere, unless a premium the Government, and to overthrow a State government.

Treason and Murder.

The Democrats of the South, who support the unparalelled outrage of everthrowing the State government of the army: of Louisiana, will soon find the publie opinion of the country and of the world is against them. Secession, which claimed that it was not in violation of the Constitution nor of the original compact between the States, and therefore a peaceable remedy for alleged wrongs, was formal and decent compared to this bloody and murderous affair. And yet secession is dead forever, although no one was punished for treason or murder in fighting er soldiers.

And that they will be thus brought to trial, as soon as the State govern ment is restored, there can be no doubt. And they will be convicted, if there is any just enforcement of the laws. FROM NEW-ORLEANS.

A graduate from the University of Copenhagen, Denmark; Honorary M. D. from the University of Padova, Italy; for sever-al years assistant Physician to to the cele-brated Prof. Ricord, Paris.

Having been for years a student at the large hospitals of Paris, London, Vienna and Copenhagen, and a thorough, large and varied practice during 15 years has gained the most thorough knowledge of the nature of all chronic diseases, and the treatment thereof, and he has tensive practice, had an unparalleled suc tensive practice, und me decided a cure where cess, and very often effected a cure where every remedy had been tried and all hope every remedy had been bad been desparaof restoration of health had been despr

Nabody who ever suffered of the tedious and life imbittering disease-DYSPEPSIA - has ever in vain callee on Dr. Bille. every case has he by his new method of treatment restored the functions of the stomach, and with it the health and vigor of the patient, and many a person does to-day, with gratitude, recall the moment placed himself under Dr. Bille's cure. For his treatment of LADIES' DISEAS E8, Dr. Bille is deservedly renowned, and no lady suffering from AMENOR RHCEA, HYSTERIA, PROLAPSUS UTERI or any other disease peculiar to the female system should fail to call on Dr. Bille, as they will quickly be releived of their ruftering and ultimately restored to perfect health.

Diseases of a Private Nature Dr. Bille has made a speciality, and this scourge of humanity, unsuccessfully treated by most practitioners, is easy and quickly overcome by his new treatment. Being a pupil of the most renowned Physician for syphilitic diseases in the world, Prof. Ricord, in Paris, Dr. Bille will always guarantee a cure in any case of syphilit's disease which may come under his treatment; and hundreds in this city and vicinity can testify that in cases of syphilitic nature, where other physicians have failed, Dr. Bille has always been relieved, and full power restored.

No man is too old and no young man too debilitated that he can not be completely reinvigorated and rejuvenated by the treatment of Dr. W. Bille.

Dr. Bille wishes to call particular attention to his new discovery, by which he can, by the help of microscope and chemis-try, discover if there is any syphilitic poison in the blood, which is of the greatest importance, as persons having had venereal diseases often believe themselves cured, and the poison still remains in the blood to break out sooner or later. Dr. Bille has resided in New Orleans for years, is endorsed by the best citizens there, and by his skill, knowledge and successful cures has obtained a great reputation as specialist. DR. BILLE Has Sone to WACO and is

THE MUDDLE between the Pierce rail road and Seguin seems as far from settlement as ever, from what we see in the Times of that town. But the report on our streets is that the road will be pushed through to this city. We hope it is true, but the mysterious silence preserved makes ns wish for more assurance. A correspondent of that paper makes the following statement: "To understand the relation of Seguin to the Pierce R. R., it is necessary to know that the last Legislature gesed a railroad law granting all railmads, that had complied with their charters, a renewal, to which law Senator Ireland added an amendment, requiring the Pierce road to run by and maintain a permanent depot not more than a half mile from the Court house in Seguin. In compliance with that law, the representative of the road has run several try lines through Seguin and its vicinity, and finds the best practicable crossing of the San Geronimo immediately East of Seguin, will throw the road a little over a mile from the Court House; the citizens of Seguin at a public meeting, sanctioned in their individual capacity, the change of Millet Seed, Paris Green, powdered distance from a half mile to a mile from the Ccurt House, and appointed a committee to confer with the road representative, Just received by in relation to the matter. That conference resulted in a request from the road, that the citizens of Seguin would partially indemnify for the expense incurred in deflecting from their former route, and grant them the right, of way through the county, and fifty acres of land at their depot-which they estimate at seven or eight thousand dollars, about one-tenth of the cost of deflection; to which the citizens of Seguin object, and this leaves the matter just where it started."

SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 14, 1874.

Editors Express:

Our present railroad system has so wonderfully developed as to become, probably, the largest and most powerful (financially, and politically considered) organization now extant in the United States, The building of so many thousands of miles of costly railroads within the last five or six years; the draining of many millions of the capital of the world to this one source ; the fact that our country is suffering from a reaction-a panie arising from this sole cause of excessive speculative railroad absorption, and failure of such enterprises to meet their dues and obligations, causes our wisest statesman to pause, and cast about for a remedy for this gigantic evil, and at the same time not to retard the continued growth and prosperity of the newer portions of our country where railroad communication is a prime necessity. To meet this necessity, the Narrow Gauge railway system, which has now fully established itself in public was inaugurated. Still the want of still cheaper railway facilities for city streets for suburban residents, for farming communities, and for interior and remote regions, remains unsupplied, and the public mind is probably more exercised, to day, over the problem of safe, speedy, cheap and frequent railroad facilities, than upon any other topic of general public interest. To meet this great want of the country the London. American one-rail railway system is presented to the people of the United States and to this section particularly as a means of arriving more nearly to these desirable conclusions than has yet been attained by any other plan of railway locomotion now in existence. In connection with the foregoing facts it is probably necessary to speak more in detail of the necessary considerations entering into the construction of a railway on this system; these are safety, speed, durability and cost of construction and maintenance. , It is a physical impossibility for engines or cars to be thrown from the track. Only by tearing ont the entire rolling stock from beneath the cars, or by destroying absolutely the track itself, can a disaster happen from this source. To its speed there is no appreciable limit. It can be estimated only by the power of the engine used. While forty to fifty miles per hour is the limit to the best of our present railroads, by this system one hundred miles per hour can as readily be obtained, with far greater assurance of safety.

The Prismoid track, well built, and painted is almost indestructible.

The iron rail weighing eighteen pounds to the yard, being thoroughly cushioned by the wood beneath it, will last four times the ordinary life of a rail on the two-track system, and as to repairs, the fact of its complete exemption from frost action, broken rails, low joints, and spreading of tracks, makes them less than nominal.

As for cost this road can be built and equipped for less than the cost of the narrow gauge railway for construction alone, and with the same amount of rolling stock, will do three times the amount of business that can be done by any broad or narrow guage railway in the country at two thirds less cost.

This railway system presents itself especially to the citizens of the West. A slight co-operation will build reads to remote distances paying tribute to San Antonio, large districts of country which would remain for years inaccessible by the present expensive plan of constructing railroads. In fact, it renders railroads possible where heretofore they have been an impossibility. an impossibility.

"Not Very Well."

A feeling of vague bodily discomfort, which does not amount to positive illness, and yet is incompatible with health, is often aptly described by the phrase, "Not very well." This feeling usually arises from a deficiency of the nervous power which is required to keep the vital machinery in vigorous and healthful operation. Nervous weakness has too frequently turned out to be the prelude of some serious malady to admit of any doubt in the matter. Inactivity of the bodily functions as surely begets their derangement as cause procedes effect.

It is therefore absolutely essential for the preservation of health, perhaps of life itself, that this warning should be promptly heeded. The case does not admit of delay. Revitalize the system at once and effectually with Hostetter's Bitters—that peerless invigorant which, by infusing new health and strength into the system protect it against disease more surely than ever knight of old was protected by armor of proof against the foe.

THE American Sardius Co.'s Boneless Sardines are much better, and less than half the cost of imported Sardines.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic

No one remedy is louder called for by the necessities of the American people than a sure and safe cure for Fever and Ague. Such we are now enabled to offer, with a perfect certainty that it will eradicate the disease, and with assurance, founded on proof, that no harm can arise from its use in any quantity.

That which protects from or prevents this disorder must be of immense service in the communities where it prevails. Prevention is better than cure, for the patient escapes the risk which he must run in violent attacks of this balleful distemper. This "CURE" expels the miasmatic poison of FEVER AND AGUE from the system, poison of Fever and AGUE from the system, and prevents the development of the disease, it taken on the first approach of its premonitory symptoms. It is not only the best remedy ever yet discovered for this class of complaints, but also the cheapest. The large quantity we supply for a dollar brings it within the reach of everybody; and in billious districts, where Fever and AGUE prevails, everybody should have it, and use it freely, both for cure and protection. It is hoped this price will place it within the reach of all—the poor as well as the rich. A great superiority of this remedy over any other ever discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinne or mineral; consequently it produces no other over discovered for the speedy and certain cure of Intermittents is, that it contains no Quinine or mineral; consequently it produces no quinism or other injurious effects whatever upon the constitution. Those cured by it are left as healthy as if they had never had the disease.

Fever and Ague is not along the consequence of the minimals poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, among which are Neuralge Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Paningli Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and consequently cures them all alike. It is an invaluable protection to immigrants and persons travelling or temporarily residing in the malarious districts. If taken occasionally or daily while exposed to the infection, that will be excreted from the system, and cannot accumulate in sufficient quantity to ripen into disease. Hence it is even more valuable for protection than cure; and few will ever suffer from Intermittents if they avail themselves of the protection this remedy affords.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity, and producing many truly remarkable cures. where other medicines fail.
