General Items.

THE Northern Railway station of Paris was recently draped in satin and velvet, crowded with the Russian diplomatic corps, and thousands of spectators, to welcome Alexis, his brother and mama, who were traveling stricktly incag., and were theoretically blind and deaf to these vast preparations.

M. SACRE was nineteen years the French oper as a machinist. In that period all the ordinary deductions from his pay were made that would have entitled him to a pension at the age of fifty; but he was recently dismissed, without good reason, as he holds. He therefore sues for 40,000 francs damages for account of the loss of his pension.

WARM! The Empress of Imasiawears a crimson velget and furlined cloak, valued at $20,000 It is lined with 228 skins of Russian sable, each of which is worth $60. The Czar possesses a still many costly mantle, lined with the tar of Millinery Store the blue fox, which is worth $39. 000. He presented to Adelina Patti on the occasion of her last beniefit in St. Petersburg a set of furs of the value of $10,000.

MR. HANDWERK, of Allentown, Pa, has been bricked up in a cell tour feet square for twelve years, by his relatives. He was said to be insane, and his kind hearted parents thought this the most ecouotaical way of disposing of him, He owned $4,000, which the State would have appropriated to pay his expense at an asylum had be been sent there. This careful foresight on the part of relatives is unspeak. ably touching and disinterested.

THE case of Oliver B. Stout is the sensation in Indianapolis. Oliver sued his mother in law, claiming damages to the amount of $40,000 for "alienating his wife's affectious." The defendant proved that the agevery night, and, besides, was addicted to the practice of making love to the colored servant girl, be sides committing other indiscretions of just such a nature as would "alienate the affections" of a wife, without taking account of any induence exercised by the mother in law.

THE Medical School in Pasis was re opened on the 3d instant, and M. Chauffard lectured. It will be re | Uhrig's St. Louis Beer. membered the school was closed some weeks ago on account of dis turbances made by the students, who had determined that this professor, on account of his obnoxions political opinions, should not lee ture. No disturbance was mode on the 3d, but the students manifested their intolerance by staying away from the lectures. That account will be settled, p. thaps, when they want their diplomas.

These deservedly celebrated and popular medicines have effected a revolution in the healing art, and proved the fallacy of several maxims which have for many years obstructed the progress of medical years obstructed the progress of medical science. The false apposition that "Consumption is incurable" deterred physicians from attempting to find remedies for that disease, and patients afficied with it reconciled themselves to death without making an effort to even the from a doon which they supposed to be unavoidable. HEADQ'R'S MILIT'Y DIVIS'N OF MO., New Orleans, Jan. 4th, 1875. Hon. W. W. Belknagt,

Sec. of War, Washington, D. C. It is with deep regret that I have to an onnce to you the existence in this State of a spirit of defiance to all lawful author ity, and an insecurity of life which is bardly realized by the General Government and the country at large; the lives of citizens have become so jeopardized that, un less semething is done to give protection to the people, all security usually offered by law will be everridden. Defiance to the laws and the marder of individuals seems to be looked upon by the community here from a standpoint which gives impunity to all who choose to indulge in tither. The civil Government appears powerless to punish or even arrest. I have to-night assumed control over the Department of the Gulf. P. H. SHERIDAN.

THE rainy weather has given away be fore a sweeping northwester; the thermometer fell 6 degrees below the freezing point, and winter has fairly set in. Overoats are the order of the day.

by J. Clavin and A. Dreiss. WE had the pleasure of a call from Mr.

Dick Bird, a foot-racer from California. who preposes to run a race against R. A. Jenkins for a purse of $300, on January 13th, at 3 o'clock p. m., on the race ground. THE house next to our office is going to break down one of these days, and there is all probability that somebody will be burt by it. Who will then be responsible for it? The city, of course. Why, then, does the city not remove this public nuisance before we have to report a misfortune, caused by an inexplicable negligence on the part of somebody.

THE CITIZENS' TICKET nominated last night will sie elected overwhelmingly. The uprising against the "ring" nominations is immense. We never before witnessed such enthusiasm. We hear already that several of the 'ring" nominees have withdrawn. Our old friend, Dr. Graves, we understand, is hopelessly disgusted.

Wn take pleasure in announcing that Mr. F. R. Mason, recently of King George County, Virginia, arrived in San Antonio Friday, January 1st, 1875, where he intends to locate. Mr. Mason is a graduate of the University of Virginia, and expects to practice law in this city. We are always glad to welcome here all energetic young men of the East.

We regret very much that the troupe abould leave us at this time, but they are very anxious to visit the "Alamo City," and I take this means of introducing them to you, and through you to the citions of your place. I have no heaitancy in asying that they come up fully to their representations.

Any favor which you may be pleased to extend to Mr. Elkin or his troupe, will be appreciated by them, and reciprocated by me if opportunity should ever offer.

DEAR DAN: — I take pleasure in introducing Mr. Elkin, agant of the Carlotta Comedy Troupe, a very clever gentleman and a whole soul fellow; he certainly can be proud of the company, he represents, as they are undanhtedly the best ever visitud our city; everybody seems to be carried away with their performance. We all regret very much that we cannot telain them the balance of the season for their performances are elegant and very amusing.

THE CITIZENS MOYEMENT. - Notwithmding the extreme inclemency of the weather, the the turn out of our eltisons on yesterday evening at the Alam Literary Hall, was very large, and it would be impossible to conceive how a greater dis-play of enthusiasm could have been manifested.
