VOL. IX.

SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1875.

AND DESCRIPTION

ves the following supers of Bis-rescut speech on the Catholic BINKANCK'S SPEECH.

Then Prince Dismarch rose like a sewet; the smile had long whose best his face, which was set in even more than its usual sternness. Let me endeavor to give you deignife of our Line three de abrovaid.

I do not intend to answer the last speak-er in a general manner, but only to reply to a particular expression of his, and, in deed, only this because I fear that na other speaker will repeat that sections, for it has already been too often repeated, and the hoperatic member is perhaps, the last man who will repeat it. And yet this sentence must be newered, and in a way that has not hither to come to pass. It is the false interpretation of a phrase in itself a correct on e-- "You shall obey God rather than mun." The last speaker has done them good service. I do not, thereknown me long enough he has himself fore, expect any great results; but we often said so, indeed - to be well aware are simply doing our duty in protecting that I recognize this auxiom in its abso- the independence of the State and of the lute correctness, and that I believe I am obeying God when I serve my King- and in standin up for the spiritual freewhom he also formerly served-in wirtee of the motto "WithGod, for King and Fatherland." It seems that for him the three Jesuits and of the Pope. And this we do factions in this motto have broken asunwith God for King and Fatherland. [Prolonged cheering and applause. Some hisder, and that he contemplates God apart from the King and Fatherland. I cannot s es from the Center.]. follow him on this path. [Stentorian cheering.] I believe that I am serving my God when I serve my King in protecting the common wealth, whose monarck he ie, by God's grace - he whose duty it is, imposed upon him by God, to free his people from foreign spiritual pressure, and to protect its independence against Roman attacks-in the fulfilment of which duty

I serve the King. [Prolonged and enthusiastic cheering.) The last speaker himself idolatry; but nevertheless he does not restrain himself from permitting his deductions to base themselves upon this perversion of the truth, waking out that we do deity. He should have given a thought with which he represented the Rowan

Emperors who allowed themselves to be deified, saying: "The fellows themselves were får from believing therein," and so is he far from believing in what he said:

he only availed himself of the illustration

to praise their rule at the expense of ours

As he contemplated producing this effect, he found it necessary to represent us as being heathen. But the anxiom I have referred to is not the one really in ques tion; the real question before us is, "Shall you obey the Pope rather than the King ?"

Roars of applause.] For me there exists a very appreciable difference between the Pope and God; and so there did, heretofore, for the honorable member, Here, for us, the question is not, "Shall you or but simply, "Shall we serve the Pope in worldly matters which have nothing whatever to do with the welface of our souls

more than we serve the King Co Before

1826 we lived under the rule of the Landrecht, which went a little further than we propose to go; and these gentlemen (pointing to the Center) who pretend that they go as far as the Landrecht did, would do well to reflect that their fathers very honorably went to glory (selig gendrilen) under that regime. These are matters that come under the same category as the Roman Emperors. It is said-and by people who make as if they believed what they said..."bonurable Christians, such as we, are maligned to an ignorant public." All that the last speaker uttered was not in reality spoken in order that it might be heard here, or that it might convince you, gentlemen, but in order that it might be printed. Everything that has comeout which, spoken elsewhere, were punishable

-may be printed with impunity. This explains the extreme funitfulness of your specifics here (addressing the Center).

tion without any consideration, whether they have been merited or not by success

Whether, on the other hand, the behavior of the Bishops has materially benefited

A Call.

The Republican Senatorial Executive Committee, for this, the 29th District, are requested to meet in San Antonio on the 1st Monday in May next, for the purpose of consultation in regard to the political situation in view of the coming election. This is a matter of great importance to our party and to our section, and it is hoped there will be a full attendance.

H. MACCORMACK Chairman.

Mc NALLY's company started for the Rio Grande on last Saturday. EVEN General Shelly, a dyed in the wool democrat, in his address at the funeral of Gov. Hamilton, did not forget to be silent, on such a subject, as politics. But Hancock blurted out his democracy.

He then boo-hood and suddenly sat down as if ashamed of his indis cretion.

For genuine cussedness we recommend the filched leaders of our city cotemporary the Herald. Under the head of "Extravagance of American Shoddyites" a column article is taken from the N. Y. Times with the prefface:

"We certainly did not expect to find in its columns such a fair and dispassionate exposition of the folthe people composing the Radical party in the United States, and who have made their musbroom fortunes from the contracts, &c., dependent on the war and at the expense of the South."

This sounds very much like a "dahm-phule."

The bar at Austin, passed suit- hour. able resolutions over the death of Gov. Hamilton, and the State of ficials joined in offering respect over his remains. But the great heart of the people welled, in genuine sorrow, over the death of the champion of their rights. He had spoken beave words in the cause of human freedom and had hurled de fiance at treason, and the old love of country came to the surface over his grave. If a demagogue attempt ed to sully his memory by attributing to him sentiments which never had a lodgement in his breast, the bright spirit beyond the grave was beyond the hurt.

plete system, combining perfection ofworkmanship with the largest productions at the smallest cost.

In order to obtain these results, time; labor, money, and the expression of My Live, as a prestical mechanic, have been freely contributed, and I believe, with success. Further to facilitate the manufacture and sale of my Machines, The Howe Machine Co. has been organized, and the business will be carried on in the name of that Company, under my supervision. The enviable reputation of my Machines has induced persons to use my name in connection with Machines of an inferior description—and I have, therefore, to protect myself and the public adopted, as an especial Trade Mark, a Madallion, having in the centre the profile of the Inventor surrounded by the legend, "Ellas Hows, Jr., Inventor and Markel, New York, U. Whole Tickets $6.00; Half Tickets $3,00 Turnly, F Schmalstong, R C Carter, Jo Quarter Tickets $1.50.

Mode of Drawing. There will be upon the stage two glass wheels, the contents of which can be seen by the audience. A committee consisting of three eminent citizens, in no way co nected with the management, having first printed on seperate slips of paper, and securely sealed from ONE TO TWENTY THOUSAND, corresponding to all the tickets sold. A similar committee, having first examined and counted, will place in the smaller wheel the 7,000 gitts, of de-nominations from $6 to $10,000, securely sealed. Both wheels will then be turned until the contents are thoroughly mixed. A boy, securely blindfolded, will then draw from the larger wheel one of the numbers, which will be opened and exhibited to the audience, and called load enough for all to hear, by a crier appointed for the purpose. The number thus drawn will be recorded by the clerk and placed on file. A boy, securely blindfolded, will then draw from the smaller wheel one of the gifts, which will be opened and exhibited to the andience. The amount of the gift will then be recorded by the clerk and placed on file with the number just drawn. The gift thus drawn will belong to the ticket bearing the same number as the one drawn immediately before it. Thus this process will continue until 2,000 numbers are drawn from the large wheel, and all the gifts from the small wheel; and the 2,000

Safe Keeping of the Maney. All meneys ariting from the sale of tick-ets will be deposited in the banking house of Mesers. Raguet & Fry, at Marshall, fexas, and there will remain until after the drawing, and all the gifts have been fully provided for. The management is not dependent upon the sale of tickets for not dependent upon the sale of busiess for the means of defraying expenses, but is amply supplied with funds for that pur-pose, and the entire proceeds of the sale of tickets will stand untouched in bank as a guarantee for the payment of the offer.

Payment of Gifts. The payments of gifts will commence three days after the drawing, and will continue two months thereafter and "no continue two months thereafter and no longer. Tiekers entitled to gifts must be presented of contacts the manager, where they will be taken up and paid by cash checks on Messrs Ragnet & Fry, bankers, or by sight drafts on New York and New or by eight drafts on New York and New Orleans, at current rates of exchange, at the option of the holder. Tickets, like greenbacks, are good to the holder, and no gift will be paid wishout delivery of the ticket entitled to it at the office of the manager. All gifts not called for in two months will be tarned over to the city for the benefit of the Market-house and City Hall. The drawing will be published in circular form, and will be sent to all persons outside of the city by mail who have ordered tickets by letter, and to every ticket-holder whose post-office is known.

CONSUMPTIVES, TAKE NOTICE. - EVERY mement of delay makes your oure hopeless, and much depends on the judicious choice of a remedy. The amount of testimous in taver of Dr. Secenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as favor of Dr. Secenck's Pulmonic Syrup, as a cure for consumption, far exceeds all that can be brought to support the pretensions of any other medicine. See Dr. Schenck's Almanac, containing the certificates of many persons of the highest respectability, who have been restored to health, after being pronounced incurable by physicians of acknowledged ability. Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many, as these evidences will show; but the cure is often promoted by the employment of two other remedies which Dr. Schenck provides for the purpose. These Schenck provides for the purpose. These additional remedies are Schench's Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills. By the timely use of these medicines, according to directions, Dr. Schenck certifies that most any case of consumption may be cured.

Dr. Schenck is professional at his principal office, Corner Sixth and Arch Sta.

Philadelphia, every Monday, where all letters for advice must be addressed.

use; and every family should have them on hand for their protection and relief, when required. Long experience has proved them to be the astest, surest, and best of all the Fills with which the market abounds. By their occasional use, the blood is purified, the consuptions of the system expelled, obstructions removed, and the whole machinery of life restored to its healthy activity. Internal organs which become clogged and sluggish are cleanaed by Appe's Fills, and stimulated into action. Thus incipient disease is changed into health, the value of which change, when reckened on the vast unlittindes who enjoy it, can hardly be computed. Their sugar coating makes them pleasant to take, and preserves their virtues unimpaired for any length of time, so that they are ever fresh, and perfectly reliable. Although scarching, they are mild, and operate without disturbance to the constitution, or diet, or occupation. ATTACHMENTS, applied to the IVORY EYE CUPS. Full directions are given on the wrapper to each box, how to use them as a Family Physic, and for the following complaints, which these Fills rapidly cure:

For Byspepsis or Endigention, Lietlessmens, Language and Loss of Appetite, they should be taken mederately to stimulate the stomach, and restore its healthy tone and action.

For Edwar Complaints and its various symptoms, Bilious Eleminache, Siels Headsache, Jammitce or Green Sickmens, Bilious Colic and Bilious Pervers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For Bysentery or Bitarriseas, but one mild dose is generally required.

For Etheamastams, Coest, Oravel, Palpitation of the Escart, Pain in the State, Back and Lecias, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. Wils such change those complaints disappear.

For Europay and Evensteal Swellings, they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For Emparemantem, a large dose should be taken, as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

taken, as it produces the desired effect of sympathy.

As a Dismer Pill, take one or two Pills to promote digestion and relieve the stopach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels, restores the appetite, and invigantes the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these Pills makes him feel the ded by better, from their cleanaing and resorvating effect on the digestive apparatus.
