Though Lott to Sight, to Memory Benr.

The oft quoted line, "Though lost to sight, to memory dear," originated with Ruthven Jenkyns, and was first published in the Greenwich Magazine for Mariners, in 1701 or 1702. Here is the whole poem. Sweet heart, good bye! that flut'ring sail Is spread to waft me far from thee. And soon before the farth'ring gale My ship shall bound upon the sea.

Perchance all des'late and forlorn, These eyes shaft mine thee stany a year. But unforgetten every chartes Though lost to night, to memory dear.

Sweet heart, good bye! one last embrace! Oh, cruel fate, two souls to sever! tin this heart's most sacrof place Thon, then alone, shalt dwell forever; And still shall recollection trace. In Francy's mirror, over near,

Each smile, vach tear, that form, that face Though lost to night, to memory dear.

A CONVENTION of wild radicals, calling themselves the Spiritualists and Friends of Progress of New Jersey, has just been held at Vinehand. A resolution in opposition to marriage for life and in favor of free love was adopted. One carnest gentlemen argued in favor of polygamy, but was put down by about the only sensible woman in the crowd, who defended monogamy, conservative to command unqualified approval. Woman's right to suffrage and every other privilege was avowed, and it was resolved that if money is entitled to any in terest for its use, 31 per cent., the aggregate of the increase of the nation's wealth, should be the masimum. The assemblage has now adjourned, and the world moves on

The Spanish Sea-Saw.

Alfonso & Carlos appear to be the most skillful adepts of the beligerent sea saw of any two men in modern times. For a while, A! fonso has suddenly shot up to the extreme height of the plank. At present the Madrid King is slowly going up, and Don Carlos and his cause as slowly sinking, imperiow long this will be the case no one knows. Not long ago General Dorregaray was recruiting a Carand threatening to cut the communication between Madrid and the

The Carlists had gained the mountains and were strongly fortified in the passes of Catalonia, where they are periectly safe as far as Jovellar and his troops are concerned.

The strength of the Carlist Army is in the Basque provinces, and, as yet, these have been scarcely touch ed by the Government troops. The Basques are very devoted to the cause of Don Carlos, and laugh to scope the edicts promutgated from Madrid General Dorregaray and his troops are now in a position where they can effect a junction with their friends at any time, and although the Alfonsists have gained a victory, they are likely to profit little from its results. Meantime, Alfonso is endeavoring to bolster up his cause by the labors of the Constitutional Convention at the capital. By a curious inconsistency, full freedom of conscience is nominally granted, but the Catholic church is the only one to be supported by the State. No man is to be persecuted on account of his religious belief, but all Protestant processions and public demonstrations are prohibited. Byen this manoh is such a gain for Sp

The Grangers in Conneil.

The State Grange Council met in Dallas on the 17th install the most interesting feature of the occasion is the address of the Master, Mr. William W. Lang, which has been looked forward to with great in terest by outsiders, especially democratic politicians.

From a synopsis of the address published in the Galveston News, we are impressed with rather a poor opinion of Mr. Lang who seems to strive more at long, high sounding words than substantial, logical, plain English.

He congratulates the order in the most high-falutlu style upon its prosperity and power.

"The Order of Patrons of Husbandry, like a new constellation in the beavens, has seated itself in the She got some cheers, but was too family of forces, which is working out the process of advancing civilization. It is a bright shining star among the societies that aim to promote the moral, social and intellectual progress of the world. Indeed, be is a careless observer who has witnessed the wonderful awakening among the tarmers of fected chiefly by the potent agency of our Order, if life fails to recognize its power for usefulness, or its tendency for good. While we recognize in it the perfection of all human agencies, we claim for it the virtues which spring from high resolves and philantrophic purposes throughout the jurisdiction of the State Grange. Linve the pleasure of reporting the Order in a most healthful and prosperous condition —a compact and solid organization, to be brought before the club. Members moved and setnated by the nobles are requested to be prompt in attendance. moved and scinated by the noble principles and the cherished objects upon which its foundation is based. He alludes to fact that this sea son is the first in the history of our prospering. He defeated Dorre- State that there has been a demand by our farmers and attributes it to the Grangers. Is it not possible that the building of railroads into our State and the stream of immi gration they have brought has caused this new order of things.

He suggests the organization of : Grange Insurance Co., and a Grange the Alfonsists, not auticipating any | Banks he thinks the Grangers capable of doing their own banking and insurance.

Hedevotes much of his address explaining the position of the Grange towards railroads and although he says much about the mutuality of All classes of Lumber always on hand a for the interests of the railroads and SALE the grangers he gives way to the tollowing:

"Itailroads, in their very nature and character, are monopolies, and 8-19-7 adward have a power over the public to 1.124 make these demands, unless to strained by legislative control. "Oh, but," say they, "such laws interfere with established vested rights." But let us remember that when vested rights become public tyrannies it is high time for them to become justly regulated, not destroyed, by the uccessary laws and constitutional ensetments of a free people. So thought our forefathers, and their example is worthy of emulation.

Upon the political character of the Grange he expatiates at some ral be length over the very difficult task to prove that it is and it isn't a political organization, he says:

"Every organization that aims to promote the material interests of a people is more or less political in its character. The Grange has for one of its objects the advancement of mutual interests of the farmer, Porte Monnaies, and while religion and politics are not permitted in the work of the Order, each Grange has a right, and it is its duty to discuss and under tand the great economic question of taxation, which underlies our prospects as a people, and we propose to exercise that right reess of its effect upon political parties. We are not, though, as an Order, a partizan organization. We propose meeting together, talking together, buying and selling together, and in general acting together for our mutual protection and advancement as occasion may require. The obligation of an intelligent and active participation in political affairs is imposed upon every citizen by the very nature of Hon. Mayor J. H. French; Ex-Mayor F our government. Being a Patron Girand; Messrs, H. Barbeck, Fritz Rommel, James L. All uses one make of employment, or those wishing to improve their directionary and the appearable formulationace, as make a respectfulle from the date of the control of the contro ty of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FARED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In buildniess, it restores the capillary. glatids to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most economical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid; glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality and I consider it the BEST PREPA-BATION for its intended purposes." A Word of Advice to Travelers.

The Missouri, Kanone & Texas Railway

The Missouri, Kassas & Texas Railway has become so well known to the people of Texas, as one of the finest and most confortable Roads on the continent to travel on, that it necess almost unnecessary that we should say arght is the peake. Not we danned ever get hack from a trip over this line without saying something in praise of the management, who always seem to be striving to make sheir patronad. The track is always in the best possible condition and trains are at all times run at wriform speed. Pullman's finest Drawing Room Sleeping Cars: accompany alk through massenger trains, and if you are going north or east, by making your wants known, you can go either via Hamiltal or the Louise. And for Kansas City, Denver, California, or any of the Narthwestern States or Territories, it as such the best posts we have from Texas. Their Dining Stations and Honys for Meals are all that a revelor could wish for, and in fact there are revelor availed wish for, and in fact there are revelor could wish for, and in fact there are not a weather the state of are all that a trevelor could wish for and u fact there seems to be making left un-lose to render a trip over this line pleas-int. 28 1-75 % TV 1.121

Organ' possesses a beautiful and pecularly soft tone. The Concerto Stop is without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced, from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is supherb. For sweat-ness of tene and orehestral effects it has no equal."— N. Y. times. 11,
