One day he sent a clerk out to collect some money, to the extent of $100, out of which he was to pay for the insertion of a two-line "ad." in a daily paper. Through a lucky stroke of stupidity the clerk left the "ad." and the $10 at the newspaper office, and said it was to be inserted to that extent. Imagine the frugal seedman's horror when he found that the money which was to have carried him through several weeks, had all been spent in one advertisement. For the length of two columns the morning paper repeated the lines: "The Are successfully treated, relieving all pain instantly, and effecting restoration to normal condition.

The consequence was that the tion was exhausted early, and the subscriptions came pouring in.

The article advertised was the Baltimore Bonapartes, and the dif-ferent printing offices have taxed their ingenuity and type fonts to spread so few words over so large a space. The result was not unlike that of Mr. Judd's clerk's blunder, for the orders poured in at such a rate for the May number of Scribner's that a new edition had to be printed. And yet there are many persons engaged in business pursuits with minds so obtuse that they cannot perceive the great advantage of a liberal and judicious use of "prin-ters' ink."

Some time ago the State Geolegist, Prof. Buckley, and his subor-dinate, Mr. Whipple, were on a professianal tramp over the hills and found a very curious weed of a most pungent, offensive odor. They brought it to town, wrote a learned and curious description of it, its habitat and utility in adding another unknown scent to the one thousand of Cologne. The descrip-tive pamphlet was widely circulated and excited much talk among botanists. A specimen of the weed was suspended in the Capitol, and a farmer came in-perhaps it was our Rutabaga-and seeing and smelling it, sang out to the little Professor what in the h——i re you doing with this d-d old stink weed here! But, interpos ed the learned Professor, 'that is the newly discovered Buckleins Whipplelogius.' 'The h—l it is,' answered Rutabaga; 'perhapa that's its name, and it is enough to make it smell to heaven".

MR. A. C. AABAGOCK is no longer connected with the San Antonio Express. The obligations for subscription and advert sement which he agreed to fulfill will be faithfully discharged. The Express-An Explanation.

For two weeks the Daily and Weekly EXPRESS have not been issued, and this short article is written to give our patrons and readers, and the public generally, such explanation as is due them, and necessary to the future management of the paper. We simply desire to explain ourselves, and not to injure any one else.

It was suddenly discovered, a little more than two weeks ago, that the whole business management of the Express was in a fearful state of contusion, and that a foot out of joint." financial disseter was close at hand. The paper was then stopped, not from inability to go ou, but to swoid further complication and damage, to investigate the condition of affairs, and to get rid of the cause of all this non-leasance, misfeasance, and mal feasance.

This has now been happily accomplished, and the paper will go forward from this day with renewed vigor and onthusiasm, since the incubus that was pressing the life out of it has been removed.

All the obligations of the Exernes will be fulfilled, all its business will be strictly attended to, a'l the complaints of subseribers will be redressed, all mistakes and He says neglects will be rectified as repidly as possible.

Every year increases the popularity of this valuable Hair Preparation; which is due to merit, alone. We can assure our old patrons that it is kept fully up to its high standard; and it is the only reliable and perfected preparation for restoring GRAY OR FADED HAIR to its youthful color, making it soft, lustrous, and silken. The scalp, by its use, becomes white and clean. It removes all eruptions and dandruff, and, by its tonic properties, prevents the hair from falling out, as it stimulates and nourishes the hair-glands. By its use, the hair grows thicker and stronger. In baldness, it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, and will create a new growth, except in extreme old age. It is the most eco-nomical HAIR DRESSING ever used, as it requires fewer applications, and gives the hair a splendid, glossy appearance. A. A. Hayes, M.D. State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPA-BATION for its intended purposes." We learn of school houses, an efficient superintenden as accident, which came near being fatal, that occurred on the Frio the other day A boy about twelve years of age was sent to water with his father's horse. The animal was very tired from a hard day's ride, and did not move fast enough; so, to accelerate the speed of the animal, the youth wound the rope about his waist. It was just at duck, and, as the water was approached, some object frightened the perse, causing him to run away and drag the boy with him for some distance, bruising him badly, but, -wonderful escape !reaking no limbs. In a haracteristic letter, she says :

"I remember rambling about the crumbling walls of the Alamo, recalling all its bloody horrors; and as I climbed the mouldering, melancholy pile, to watch the last rays of the setting sun gild the hiff-tops, creep down the sides, and slowly sink into the blue waves of the San Antonio river, as I looked, over the quietly beautiful valley, with its once noble Alameda of cottonwoods, my heart throbbed, and I wondered if I should be able, some day, to write about it for those who had never looked upon a scone so fair. I seem, even now, to be once more winding through that lovely valley holding my mothers hand tightly, as she repeated beautiful discriptions from Thomson's "Seasons" and Cowper's "Task." Again I see the white flock slowly descending the hills, and bleating, as they wound home to my fathers fold. After a two years residence in San
