THE RELATIONSHIP—GOV. COKE FOR JUDGE DEVINE—THE FORB-SIGHT OF THE EXPRESS AGAIN VINDICATED.

As soon as the decision of the question of the successor to the Hon. J. W. Foster in the United States Senate is made, and the names of the various candidates eligible to that position were placed before the public by their friends, the Express discovered a series of slips and bold moves to put one man aside, and to bring another forward at the expense of the public.

The Express, however, is not to be so easily duped. It has been the policy of the paper to give the friends of several of the other gentlemen to whom the nomination was open, a fair and impartial hearing. It has not been the policy of the paper to give the friends of Judge Devine the same treatment.
