FRIDAY MORNING, April 24th, 1876

President Grant has very properly, under the circumstances, vetoed the bill...

The International Railroad has made a demand on Austin, and the city has acquiesced...

Gov. Chamberlain of South Carolina, in his message to the people...

They attempted to criminate the Jefferson in the National House of Representatives...

THE MEXICAN QUESTION PROPERLY CONSIDERED

It would seem from the maneuvering of the military that the Schellenger suggestion will prevail...

It is a matter of history, dating from the time that there is intermediate between the two nations...

By a party of reasoning, it would appear that interference would be commended and encouraged...

This is the attitude of affairs at present, and the "redoubt" steps will soon be reported...

Such as we regret the action of the Convention in temporarily revising the Tom Scott railroad land subsidy...

It had the consummate impudence to thrust itself into our Constitutional Convention, and wrang from its members...

THE KILBOURNE CASE—A DANGEROUS QUESTION TO THE COUNTRY

If our readers have paid particular attention to the debate of the last few days in Congress on the Kilbourne case, we think they will see, as we do, that the matter is a very grave one...

But, the Herald again speaks of the Tom Scott scheme as follows, part of which we approve, and part condemn: Its impolicy is conceded; its blatant and pitiable appeal to Congress to bolster it up by guaranteeing the payment of the interest on its bonds finds no responsive echo in the present House of Representatives...

We must decidedly protest against the insinuation of the Herald, contained in the above, either that Governor Coke was actuated by wrong motives in vetoing the International bond bill, or that Legislature and Governor will be actuated by wrong motives in the future course in relation to the Texas Pacific scheme...

Calling attention to the above notice of the dissolution of the firm of Bennett & Thornton, we have to say that we are glad to see the firm dissolved...

Notice: SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, APRIL 1, 1876. The firm of Bennett & Thornton is this day dissolved by mutual consent...

THE HERALD ON THE LEGISLATURE

We are always pleased to agree with our neighbor of the Herald when we can conscientiously do so...

It had the consummate impudence to thrust itself into our Constitutional Convention, and wrang from its members...

do not entertain the fear that the Herald expresses, that Western Texas will be sacrificed by the hostile legislation of the East and North...
