CHARLES MORGAN

But few managers of public carriers have succeeded so well...

It was the monopoly in Galveston that forced him to the improvement of Buffalo Bayou...

Mr. Morgan's career has been a record of success...

His object is not that of a smuggler; his sense and knowledge of government convince him...

MORGAN'S SHIP CHANNEL

BUILDING OF MORGAN'S RAILROAD AND WHARVES AT SIM'S BAYOU—THE SHIP CHANNEL TO BE FINISHED BY THE END OF THE YEAR.

Yesterday the House reported of the News arriving in Harrisburg on the 6.20 A. M. Galveston train, visited the Ship Channel works of M. J. Morgan...

THE LANDSCAPE

At the point selected for the terminus of the channel, the present site is at least thirty feet higher than in a landscape point of view. The south bank of Buffalo bayou...

THE WHARVES

The new wharves, the piles of which have just begun to be driven, are to be extended along the bayou in front of the mouth of Sim's bayou...

THE SHIP CHANNEL

At the lower end of the line of wharves, and immediately in the mouth of Sim's bayou, a dredge is present, being employed for the purpose of clearing the channel...

OUR WORK

In digging out the bottom of the Sim's bayou, it is found that the turning basin, or wharf, is in some places some thirty feet higher than the water level...

OUR WORK

Four counterfeiters were arrested at Cincinnati yesterday. A considerable amount of fifty-cent counterfeit notes and dies for manufacturing were seized.

OUR WORK

About one hundred feet of the dam across the Kansas river, opposite Lawrence, was washed away on Friday.
