WALL APPROACHING.

THE LAST ECHO FROM THE SEAT OF STRIFE.

EAGLE, Pa., April 28th.

Three or four hundred revolutionaries are marching upon Piedras Negras, opposite to the town.

THE METHODIST CONVENTION.

Hallman, May 1.—In the address of welcome to the delegates of the Methodist Convention, held yesterday, the Rev. Dr. Hallman, of New Orleans, said: "The last echo from the seat of strife."

He also said: "I trust that the Methodists in America assume its separate and independent existence as a church, sociable and neighborly, and that it will be a great blessing to our country."

It is thirty-six years since the general conference last assembled here, although up to that time more than one-half of all the general conferences had been held in Baltimore.

An hour or more was occupied in addressing seats by several conferences as they were successively drawn up.

W. Woodruff was elected secretary.

RENT TO THE TRADE ASSOCIATION.

New York, May 1.—Hon. George D. Dix shot and killed, without motive, J. M. Deliber at the Westminster Hotel, has been committed to the insane asylum.

ADMITTED TO PROBATE.

Providence, R. I., May 1.—At Newport to-day the will of Charlotte Condumine was admitted to probate. Mr. J. Young Scammon was present and acknowledged his own signature.

FIRST THOUSAND TREY.

San Francisco, March 2.—The road to the Yosemite Valley by Mariposa route is now open for vehicles. The first strength stage from Merced leaves this morning.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 2.—Passenger line goes to New York, and will return on Friday.

Passenger goes to Boston on official business, and will return in two weeks.

Braxton testified that he had nothing to do with the Mary Morris case after he became secretary of the Treasury.

He was absent when it was settled by Mr. Conran, and denied in general all negotiations regarding the appointment.

Delegates of the Peabody's Union called on the President to ask him to protect soldiers, especially crippled ones, in offering

The President replied that he would do what he could for them.

BOSTON.—The Richmond Chamber of Commerce petitioned for a special assessment of Sherman of Ohio called by the House joint committee on the subject of the proposed tax on distilled spirits. The chamber of commerce of Boston voted to oppose the resolution.

Washington, May 1.—The Republicans again demand that District Attorney Dyer has not forwarded from St. Louis any recommendation about the trial of ex-colonel McClellan, but private advice was given him against the petition to the President for his release. It is understood here that Dyer's declination is based upon political considerations; the same answer will be made in regard to the application for pardon of McClellan.

TERIBLE COLD.

Milford, Pa., May 1.—Last night was the coldest in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. At 5 a.m. the thermometer stood at 29°. Ice formed to the thickness of half an inch over all the water. High wind prevails.

KNOW.

Watertown, New York, May 1.—Snow fell here last night two inches deep. The storm extended over the northern part of the State.

CONFERENCE.

Baltimore, May 1.—The seventh general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church assembled this morning at the Academy of Music, and was called to order at nine o'clock by Bishop Jones.

After an interval of two hours, other delegates sat on the platform and the organization was filled with delegations. Dr. Ward of N.W. Indian Conference, and Dr. G. Baker of New York, were invited to take seats on the platform.

After the reading of a passage of scripture and praying Bishop Jaynes stated he held in his hand a roll of the delegates to be called to the platform to be seated.

He then called the roll of delegates; at the conclusion Bishop Jaynes announced a quorum present.

After the roll call Mr. Newman of Washington City, the Correspondence proceeded to elect a Secretary.

THE REPUBLICANS.

Baltimore, May 1.—The seventh general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church assembled this morning at the Academy of Music, and was called to order at nine o'clock by Bishop Jones.

THE REPUBLICANS.

Baltimore, May 1.—A special committee from the Peabody's Union, consisting of Dr. Woodruff, Dr. McClellan, and Dr. G. Baker, left to-day for Marquette, to direct the movement of the troops ordered to the Milwaukee mining region; the civil authorities having advised General Hayes that their inability to prevent the miners from attacking the miners who have been working against the miners, who have been working for some time. It is thought that work will be resumed to-morrow on the arrival of the military.

THE REPUBLICANS.

New York, May 1.—A dispatch from Columbus, Ohio, dated April 30, says: "A general strike was suspended, but no pay was received, so all the men will be allowed to be hired, either himself or by contract, were adopted.

Henderson, of Indiana, moved to adjourn the rules and pass a bill to regular the strike.

The resolution was adopted.

The miners, who have been working against the miners, who have been working for some time. It is thought that work will be resumed to-morrow on the arrival of the military.

WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 1.—The Senate is discussing the passed amendment to the bill governing the impeachment trial to provide that the defendant in the Senate questions shall be in public.

FOREIGN.

London, May 1.—Special dispatch from London, April 29, says: "The Foreign Office has received a despatch from Dr. Balfour, the British Ambassador, to the effect that the disease prevalent there is not the plague but an epidemic fever, caused by quinine.

Paris, May 1.—M. Rollin, Republican, was elected yesterday to the Chamber of Deputies from St. Arnaud.

HOT DAY.

London, May 2.—Advice from Captain Castle states that the King of Hanover refuses to pay the fine for maltreating British subjects. He invites the British Commodore to visit Abony, where he will pay in powder and bullets.

TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1876.

BEAUMS and Conkling have not spoken to each other for ten years.

We are under obligations to our able representatives in Austin for late papers and reports.

Two thousand government troops are quartered around Monterey, awaiting the arrival of Diaz.

JUDGE IRELAND is a self-made man. From humble position, he has risen to considerable popularity with many people in Texas.

MORTON has been accused of appropriating $250,000, which was a part of the $2,000,000 paid by the Federal Government during the war, in furtherance of the Union cause.

The Imperial Court of Discipline at Potsdam, has sentenced Count Von Arnim to a formal dismissal from the public service, and the payment of the costs of the proceedings.

Tax per diem and mileage of members of the Legislature is fixed at $5 per day, and $2 per day for antecedent services, with $5 for every five miles traveled going to or returning to the capital.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Corpus Christi Times attributes the protection of American life and property in New Laredo, to Colonel Merriam and the Commercial Agent, Mr. Haynes. The border war has been transferred to the interior, Diaz being on the march to Monterrey.

Governor Coke and Judge Ireland are estranged. The Judge proves beyond doubt, through the presentation of written communications over the signature of Coke, that the latter has always represented his cause as not to interfere with the Senatorial question.

The Houston Telegraph entitles its article "The Governor vs. Merrick & Duran." It is just the reverse, and even then incorrect, for the State of Texas is the party injuring. Governor Coke has nothing to do with it, aside from his official capacity. It is the State involved, principally through the Executive's mismanagement, and short-sighted policy.

Governor Coke's message to the Legislature, explaining the Giddings Merrick imbroglio, is not sufficiently clear, and Col. Giddings intends refuting certain broad assertions therein contained. He will show that he had no understanding whatever with Merrick or Duran relating to fees. Governor Coke ordered him to "get the bonds, bring the money here to me, and I will make full and liberal settlements for fees." He handed every cent over to the Governor, and received as his per cent, $31,000.

The Mormons are seeking for other localities. They have failed to bring Utah into the Union, and emigrating to New Mexico, will essay a conversion of that benighted region. The move is being freely discussed in Salt Lake City, and as an early day the migration will commence. Their object is to have identity with a commonwealth, and a voice in the National Assembly. A few active and enterprising young men have already planted the seed for a colony in New Mexico.

This Austin Statesman is unceasing and unjut in its advocacy of Coke's rights to the Senatorship. It publishes an anti-bolton spirit, revealing rebellious feelings, traducing and reviling the union record of Judge Devine, and attempting to injure Judge Devine by indecorous language. Annoyed at Coke's "pas pas," the object is to defeat all aspirants by malice and hate. Inasmuch as Judge Devine concerned him "will not trot over to Austin" and as far as his "refinement" is in question, it would be well for the Statesman to parallel his position.

This Kansas City Times has circulated a box to the effect that editors were requested to forward their address, accompanied by a photograph to the New York Sun. In return they would receive a free pass to the Centennial, with a coupon entitling them to a seat at a grand editorial banquet to be given at the Centennial Hotel. The Dallas Commercial was the only Texas journal possessing sufficient gallantry to correspond with Dan and inquire into the verity of the statement. The Sun responded that it had no intention of running the dead head department of the Centennial.

THE INDIAN BUREAU.

The House of Representatives has, by a very decided vote, declared its purpose to transfer the Indians to the control of the army. It is one of the arch policies of the present Congress, and will result in incalculable benefits to the service, to the savage, and to the West. The Indian Bureau has been known from time immemorial as the most inoperative department of the government's service. It has been an incubus upon the military, and expense to the nation, and a speculating monopoly of counsels and agents. It has been composed of civilians in total ignorance of what reforms were needed, and who have disposed of the charities without consideration of management.

In the latter part of his address he paid the ladies a beautiful tribute which was very appropriate.

"...very, arms with Virtue, howe the soul With commanding but sweet control."

The address having been delivered, all rushed for the

TOURIST GROUP.
where the Knights all formed in line and the names were called by the Marshal. After preliminary preparations the judges—M. C. Yates, D. P. Marr and J. L. Martin, took their seats under the shade of a large mosque when the running commenced:

KNIGHTS ENTERED:

Knight of the Black Hill, C. H. Bragg;

Don Quixote de la Mancha, James Boyer;

Knight of Democracy, John H. Smith;

Knight of Galvan, George Morris; Knight of Independence, E. H. Parker; Knight of I Will, I Can, John Fogg; Knight of the West, Gilbert Turner; Knight of Pleasanton, P. G. Bowman; Knight of Boileau, S. S. Camp; Knight of Lampassas, G. F. Hinde; Knight of Waterloo, T. Turner; Knight of the Lost Cause, W. H. Chapman; Knight of Oakville, William Harmon; Knight of the Diamond Cross, C. C. Fountain; Knight of Texas, L. & Frank; Knight of the Alamo, Bennett Musgrave; Knight of San Antonio, D. G. Franks.

After four hours, riding without intermission, the Marshal announced that D. G. Franks, Knight of San Antonio, & E. H. Parker, had caught six rings—winning the horse and also the privilege of crowning the lady of his choice Queen of Love and Beauty.

The average time made from extreme poles was six seconds—a distance of 75 or 80 yards. The best time made was four seconds.

The riding having terminated, the anxious multitude retired to prepare for the grand ball which was soon to follow at the City Hall;

At a very early hour the hall was crowded with those who sought enjoyment when the law proclaims the gun and sabre its reliance for the advancement of the aborigines. The "Quaker" Policy is virtually repudiated by the abolition of the bursar, and its impulsive adoption has retarded the growth of the country, by emboldening the Indians, and concealing them to many improprieties. The practical workings of the system, interested peace makers, between the offenders and avengers, defeating all definitive results.

As Congress has passed a bill transferring this department to the care of the military, we look for a better management than heretofore existed. More responsible men will have control, men whose pride and ambition will be employed in properly conducting out of the first interest of the country. The award is given to the uncivilized, and is in a way a reformer with the "Arabs of America."

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

THE CARNIVAL AT PLEASANTON.

PLEASANTON, April 29th. The 26th of April dawned upon Pleasanton beautifully, and fair-faced nature in all her loveliness, as she too gloried in the celebration to take place. People from every direction began to come in the day before, crowding every hotel, restaurant and private house in town.

At 10 o'clock the Odd Fellows in full regalia "marched" from their hall to the Courthouse, where a large and appreciative audience was in attendance.

More responsible men will have control, men whose pride and ambition will be employed in properly conducting out of the first interest of the country. The award is given to the uncivilized, and is in a way a reformer with the "Arabs of America."

THE POST OFFICE was very nicely conducted by Miss Emma Chapman, Nelia Lyons and Rose Cotton. The ring-cakes also were in the hands of very able ladies—Mrs John M. Smith and Mrs W. M. L. Marshall. Each cake bore a prize, a handsome gold ring, a chance at which was given for 50 cents. Chances went like hot cakes till the list was complete, when the cutting was done. The lucky gentlemen were Master James Lyons and Mr W. M. L. Marshall.

Dancing continued unceasingly until a very late hour, when the ball room was deserted, all retiring to rest with feelings of satisfaction that full justice had been done the occasion.

GRANGE ITEMS.

There are 1,000 subordinate Grangers in Kansas, with over forty thousand members.

The Grangers of the United States have $18,000,000 invested in their various enterprises.

The Grangers in California ask the State legislature to fix the fees of attorneys whose no contract is made.

They have a "Granger collapse" in California, too. The order has saved Patrons in that State only seven millions of dollars.

Secretary O. H. Kelly tells us that there were more Grangers organized in March than during any month for nearly two years, and still is also showing a very active return of new Grangers in excess of last year.

The National Grange executive Committee is working out a more perfect business for co-operative stores within the Order, and will, in due time, present the proper kinds of banks for use in all branches of such stores.

An agricultural exchange agency says of the tenders on their land they can afford to let the high-priced implements lie on the fence corner or in the field during long and inclement season? The simple Grangers of pure Richard's time would have said: "Keep ploughs sharp."

Many subordinate Grangers throughout the country have passed resolutions declaring it the duty of national government to pass a law fixing an uniform rate of interest for the entire nation not to exceed one per cent, per annum, under the clause of the constitution to regulate commerce.

There will be a very large increase this year of picnics among the Grangers, as compared with any previous season. We already hear of several being proposed in different countries and in different States. This is well and we do hope the subordinate Grangers everywhere, during the summer and fall, will have a social gathering for the benefit of themselves and their neighbors.

Encourage the young men in the Grange to speak and discuss all subjects brought up for investigation. This will cause them to think, which is the only road to progress. Whenever the members of a Grange freely interchange their views on all subjects, interest is at once taken in meetings, and the whole neighborhood improves.

A Granger in Virginia made a test of the efficacy of the Grange agent by sending two loads of wheat for him to sell, and on the same day sent two loads to a commission merchant. Result: Wheat sold by Grange agent, $1.49 per bushel; by commission merchant, $1.49 per bushel.

The London, England, Farmer, speaks highly of the Grange movement in America, and says: "We greatly admire the power of communications among the Patrons of Husbandry. If English farmers would follow their example, they might return a greater number of their own class to the House of Commons."

None of the Patrons in Ohio are using the power which they possess by reason of numerical strength in controlling elections of officers of agricultural societies, with the intention of putting a stop to their racing at fair. They seem to have triumphed thus far, and it is said they are to make the same effort in every county where they are strong.

WASHINGTON WOMEN.

"Women in Washington" was the subject of the lecture delivered by Mrs. Elizabeth Cady Stanton in McCormick Hall, the other day. There was a very large audience— one of the largest audiences that assembled in the hall during the winter lecture season.

The elements which made up Washington society were humorous, and adorned, said the speaker, material for an interesting and instructive course of study. There were no classes, however, which gave each field for consideration of the women of the Washington of to-day. The first class, whose members were dressed, consisted of respectable, fashionables ladies who accepted application in society which made their conceptions in the eyes of the outside world. The second class consisted of persons who held places of power, and who in early life had seen poverty. The ladies' influence was largely due to their personal charms, rather than to their mental endowments. The press published columns on columns of descriptions of the balls and dinner parties given and attended by these beauties of fashion, while they could scarcely give names enough for more than a list of a dozen mentioning conversations composed of thinking women of the land, who had seen bied to talk over the weighty things of life in the state and society. The former adorned their person to catch the eye of admirers; the latter were studying how to raise their sisters to a higher intellectual standard, and to obtain for them recognition in the law of the land. Then there was a class whose members consisted of the earnest working women of Washington. To this class the daughters of the ex-judges and ex-congressmen belonged, women whom the hand of poverty rested on, and who were now earning the wages of fashion and extravagance laboring for by their parent when they tried to lead in society. There was still another class, to which the speaker had the honor to belong; women whose business in life was to raise others of their sex to a position where they would be higher and better, where they would be recognized by the law and have a voice in their own government.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale, the eminent literature, pastor of a Unitarian Church in Boston, and nephew of Edward Everett, will shortly visit San Antonio.

The Press Association of Texas will meet in Jefferson, on the 7th of June. The League calls upon the citizens to contribute liberally for the entertainment of editors.

Last Tuesday the Sheriff of Comal county, with an order from Judge Noonan, of San Antonio, took Wm. Faust from the custody of the Sheriff of Guadalupe county and conveyed him to the jail of Comal.

An ex-city official of Galveston was found with his little twelve year old daughter, both entirely nude, saying prayers for his deceased wife in the Catholic Church in Galveston Tuesday night. He had presents of candy, fruit and new pipes for her with him. The poor man, who was insane, was taken charge of by his friends and cared for.

Mr. Dennis May, of Galveston, who has lately returned from Austin, reports that Mr. Alex. Denby, formerly a customhouse inspector at Galveston port, has been sent to the Insane Asylum, suffering with a severe brain disease. The numerous friends and acquaintances of Mr. Denby, who is a noble, whole-souled fellow, will no doubt be pained to learn of the above.

A gentleman just arrived from San Saba county, Western Texas, has shown us a fine specimen of gold-bearing quartz rock, containing the purest virgin gold in veins running through it. It was picked up with a large quantity of other specimens on the top of the range of mountains which run through Nevada, Idaho, New Mexico, Arizona and into Texas. Where this gold was found the Indians are very bad, which fact has up to this time prevented the development of mines, no doubt as rich as those along the great gold-bearing range which runs in an irregular course from North Carolina, Georgia and through Texas up to British Columbia. The Indians are rapidly giving away before the advancing civilization, and we have no doubt in a few years the mines of Texas and Arizona will be successively worked.

The quarrel between the Duke and Duchess of Edinburg has become a matter of international importance. Mr. Smalley writes: "The visit to Petersburg, for which the death of the Duchess" was furnished a convenient pretext, was really a polite means of effecting a separation." The Czar's love for his daughter is one of the strong passions of his life; what may he not do to avenge the fancied slights which she believes she had to bear?"

THE EFFICACY OF ADVERTISING.

In a conversation today between some prominent members of the bar, an interesting reminiscence came up regarding the efficacy of advertising. Several years ago an eccentric bachelor, who had become imbued with the advanced ideas of infidelity, advertised for a wife in a paper of small circulation then published in Worcester. He had the advertisement also copied into a phonological journal in New York. In answer to all applicants he sent a blank to be filled out by the applicant stating her name, measurement, color of the hair and eyes, and also a daguerreotype. The man never married, but at his death his effects passed to his executors, and with them the blanks and likenesses. Among the legal advisers was a gentleman who now occupies an official position on the bench. He said that he could not tell the number of applicants for marriage. There was a large trunk and a valise filled with blanks and daguerreotypes, and they came from all parts of the country, many of them from the city and persons of respectability. Soon requests began to pour in from persons requesting the blanks and likenesses. The matter caused quite a sensation at the time.

HE MEANT WELL.

There is an old gentleman that comes down town on foot every morning who appears to be a great friend to dumb animals. Whenever he sees a dog scratching at a store door to be let in he promptly opens it for the animal. The other morning he made a mistake in the dog business. He let one in, and soon the same canine came rushing between his legs, nearly throwing him down, and covering the lower part of his pantaloons with paint. A man with overalls was chasing the dog, trying to get a line shot at him with a paint-brush he had in his hand. The old gentleman exploded with the irate painter, for such he proved to be, saying: "My good man, why do you wish to hurt that dog?"

Because he has tipped over my paint and made an internal mess of everything. Some blasted old idiot let him into the shop when we were all trying to keep him out while I was doing some painting; he jumped through the door, stuck his forelegs into the paint-pot, and tipped it over. Brown paint on a marble floor looks well; don't it? I wish people would mind their own business!"

TEXAS FROM EXCHANGES.
No quotations in wool—no market.

Rev. Edward Everett Hale, the eminent literature, pastor of a Unitarian Church in Boston, and nephew of Edward Everett, will shortly visit San Antonio.

The Press Association of Texas will meet in Jefferson, on the 7th of June. The League calls upon the citizens to contribute liberally for the entertainment of editors.

Last Tuesday the Sheriff of Comal county, with an order from Judge Noonan, of San Antonio, took Wm. Faust from the custody of the Sheriff of Guadalupe county and conveyed him to the jail of Comal.

An ex-city official of Galveston was found with his little twelve year old daughter, both entirely nude, saying prayers for his deceased wife in the Catholic Church in Galveston Tuesday night. He had presents of candy, fruit and new pipes for her with him. The poor man, who was insane, was taken charge of by his friends and cared for.

Mr. Dennis May, of Galveston, who has lately returned from Austin, reports that Mr. Alex. Denby, formerly a customhouse inspector at Galveston port, has been sent to the Insane Asylum, suffering with a severe brain disease. The numerous friends and acquaintances of Mr. Denby, who is a noble, whole-souled fellow, will no doubt be pained to learn of the above.

A gentleman just arrived from San Saba county, Western Texas, has shown us a fine specimen of gold-bearing quartz rock, containing the purest virgin gold in veins running through it. It was picked up with a large quantity of other specimens on the top of the range of mountains which run through Nevada, Idaho, New Mexico, Arizona and into Texas. Where this gold was found the Indians are very bad, which fact has up to this time prevented the development of mines, no doubt as rich as those along the great gold-bearing range which runs in an irregular course from North Carolina, Georgia and through Texas up to British Columbia. The Indians are rapidly giving away before the advancing civilization, and we have no doubt in a few years the mines of Texas and Arizona will be successively worked.

The quarrel between the Duke and Duchess of Edinburg has become a matter of international importance. Mr. Smalley writes: "The visit to Petersburg, for which the death of the Duchess" was furnished a convenient pretext, was really a polite means of effecting a separation." The Czar's love for his daughter is one of the strong passions of his life; what may he not do to avenge the fancied slights which she believes she had to bear?"

THE EFFICACY OF ADVERTISING.

In a conversation today between some prominent members of the bar, an interesting reminiscence came up regarding the efficacy of advertising. Several years ago an eccentric bachelor, who had become imbued with the advanced ideas of infidelity, advertised for a wife in a paper of small circulation then published in Worcester. He had the advertisement also copied into a phonological journal in New York. In answer to all applicants he sent a blank to be filled out by the applicant stating her name, measurement, color of the hair and eyes, and also a daguerreotype. The man never married, but at his death his effects passed to his executors, and with them the blanks and likenesses. Among the legal advisers was a gentleman who now occupies an official position on the bench. He said that he could not tell the number of applicants for marriage. There was a large trunk and a valise filled with blanks and daguerreotypes, and they came from all parts of the country, many of them from the city and persons of respectability. Soon requests began to pour in from persons requesting the blanks and likenesses. The matter caused quite a sensation at the time.

A. SOLID GOLD.—Mr. Paul Marcus has just received another shipment of those celebrated "Dewitt Spring Bed Bots," which are still the best in the world.

The crops in this section are looking fresh and growing rapidly. Large quantities of old corn, feed, &c., of the crop of 1875 are still on hand by the raisers, and for sale. With all these advantages, we have a goodly furnishing water and timber in abundance. A Stock Company has been organized in the town for the purpose of publishing a paper at that place, which is to be styled the "Boston City Era," the first issue of which will be published on the 1st of June next. The press and other necessary machinery has been ordered and will soon be received by the Company. This Boston City will undoubtedly be successful in establishing a business where he is so well and favorably known as in San Antonio, especially when that business is founded upon a solid basis.

Several young men while wandering west of the San Pedro Saturday night, became wrathful in their feelings towards a colored man who offended them, and, in the language of the vulgaristic world, gave him a licking. Neese Williams, a colored policeman, interfered, and attempted to arrest the parties who resisted, telling Williams that he was drunk, not on duty, and had no right to arrest them. But Williams was persistent, and so the boys jumped him, and from all accounts gave him a rough round.

OILY CORRESPONDENCE.

SEGUN, TEXAS, April 27th, 1876.
Messrs. Wagner & Rammel:

GENTLEMEN.—A few days ago I sent a letter to Messrs. Flagg & Dickeson, asking for information about the lamp explosion.
Both parties being sick at present, and being the only witness, as I am the person who saved Mr. Flagg from being burnt to death, I give you the complete details, at the request of the gentlemen referred to.

On the 17th of April, at half-past nine a.m., and just as I had retired to my room adjoining the saloon, and while Mr.
Flagg was busy putting out the lights, all of a sudden I heard an explosion, and on opening the doorway Mr. Flagg revolved in flames from the knee up, and the wall and ceiling burning. After a short struggle, I succeeded in throwing him down, when I covered him with quilts, and to prevent his striking had done up him, until the fire in his body was extinguished by the inhalation of the air. In the meantime, I called for and received help to stop the fire and save the house.

Drummers visiting the city should not dress themselves in women's costumes when they parade the streets after dark, and a woman acts unlawfully when she does a gentleman's suit in order to excuse a visit to one of our first class bar-rooms.

A scene Saturday night was governed by the above circumstances, and the result was both parties were arrested. The drummers contributed $15 and the woman $18 to the city's coffers yesterday morning upon the request of Recorder Anderson.

—Feeling called upon to avenge his dear gazebo he borrowed an aspergillum and, after getting so that he could squeeze a few doleful noises out of it, he posted himself under her window one night and began plaintively howling, "Oh, whisper what that feels!" She poked her head out of the window at the third line, and said, "Oh, it's you, is it? I thought it was you. And you want me to whisper what I feel, but well, I feel tired, that's what I been working a hard running sewing machine all day. Get a soft running Domestic and then I'll know you mean business."

—Messrs. Flagg & Dickeson, I am sorry to inform you that we have sold up stock of all kinds, and are now in the market for new.
