MR. BLAINE is now supported for the Republican nomination to the Presidency by the delegations of both California and Oregon. The latter State has just been heard from. These things, taken in connection with his previous unbounded popularity with his party, the support of nearly all the New England States, and an enterpricing population. Where we that of Popusylvania, after the complimentary vote for Hartrauft, and also the support of the North-western States, would seem to reader it almost certain that he will be nominated at Cincinnati, Bristow is fully as popular as Blaine is with the people, but Blaine has an established hold upon the party leaders, in Congress, and also in most of the States. THE Galveston News lays us under obligations for a gennine and agreecable surand comrade during the eventful scenes of a new departure, or, rather returned to his old avocation, and again appears in the role of a minister of the gospel. The Alexandria Gezette has the following.

George W. Carter of Louisiana, formerly George W. Carter of Louisiana, formerly of Virginia, ex-minister, ex politician, ex-lawyer, ex-secretary of Pinchhack, having become disgusted with politics, law and Radicalism, the latter of which he esponsed soon after the war, has again abjure the pumps of vanities and this wicked world and will once more go into the oi-nistry, having been effected the charge of a congregation in New York.

Col. Carter was a brave soldier, and as cool in battle as Gen, Pat Cleburne himself. He is a man of remarkable talents, and one of the ablest and most popular speakers to the country. Like some others, he was made for the elerical vocation, and ought to have staid by it. FACTS BY WHICH DECIDE

In those spacious but insignificant advertisements of C. Pratt & Co., they endeavor to convince the public that our STAR OIL and PERKLESS are identically the same, which they know, even better than we could ever attempt to consince them, is not the case. Peerless is by no means one of the inferior grades of oil; it is in every respect equal and fully up to the actual standard (not the advecated) of Astral, and is like the latter 12 degress below the burning noins of own 8TAR OIL. Now we propose to Furnish the Peerless, guaranteed equivalent in every respect to Astral, at One Dollar a case less than our STAR OIL, which we sell at the price of Astral, although our STAR OIL is 12 degrees better, hence agier, and consequently has the preference of the consuming public.

Hogs attack the rattlesnake with impunity, the effect of the poison being probably neutralized by a thick layer of adipose tissue. Dr. Bailey is able to contradict, from his own experience, the state ment that serpents do not move about at night; he has often, when riding by moonlight, seen them gliding through the grass. The author says that when the venom of a serpent has entered the circulation, all remedies are unavailing. He has seen a freshly killed chicken split open and applied to the 200 bbls of Crushed; wound, with good results. In such cases the flesh of the chicken turns green and putrid where it comes in contact with the virus. The most certain remedy, however, is whisky or brandy used in in large quantities-say a quart-immediately. Intoxication is not exhibited until the poison has been counteracted. Sweet oil, taken in doses of several ounces is also essential. Sportsmen camping in Texas are accustomed after pitching their tent to stretch around it a hair tariut.
