

DAILY EXPRESS
PUBLISHED BY THE EXPRESS PRINTING COMPANY.
Official Journal United States.
OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF BRYAN CO.
Agents for Daily and Weekly Express
Caddo Parish, La. Geo. W. Goss
Caddo Parish, La. W. N. Cooke
Caddo Parish, La. W. Schuchardt & Co.
Caddo Parish, La. A. Schild
Caddo Parish, La. Louis Miller
Caddo Parish, La. C. H. Smith
Caddo Parish, La. C. H. Holtz
Caddo Parish, La. E. P. Batt
Caddo Parish, La. E. C. Sells
Caddo Parish, La. G. Brown
Caddo Parish, La. M. V. Merick
Caddo Parish, La. H. G. Froehel
Caddo Parish, La. W. H. Slaughter
Caddo Parish, La. Ben. Klobas
Caddo Parish, La. E. H. Hughes
Traveling Agents—Western Texas,
J. L. MARTIN. D. J. JONES.

ADVERTISING.
Advertising rates for either the DAILY or WEEKLY will be made known on application at our Advertising Room, or by letter. 25 cents would suit all cases.
All advertisements, except for established business houses, with whom we have running accounts, must be paid for in advance.
All business communications should be addressed to "Business Manager Express Printing Company, San Antonio, Texas."

TERMS—Daily.
One copy one year, in advance $10.00
One copy one month, in advance $1.00
One copy one week, in advance $0.50
Weekly.
One copy one year, in advance $2.00
One copy one month, in advance $0.20
SUNDAY MORNING, May 7th, 1876.

It is reported in well informed army circles that two Court-martials will grow out of General Crook's recent Powder River expedition. It is said that charges have already been preferred against Colonel J. J. Reynolds and Captain Alexander Moore, 3d Cavalry, and that orders convening the Court will shortly be published.

It is said in army circles at Washington that General Robert Allen, of the Quartermaster's Department, will soon be relieved for disability. Colonel Wm. Myers is now acting as Chief Quartermaster, Division of the Pacific, but it is believed General Rufus Ingalls will shortly be ordered to that place, succeeding the former as Chief Quartermaster of the Department of California.

Mr. Seymour has published, through the Public, a long letter in vindication of the contents of his May 15, in which he says: "It seems to me that the papers referred to are not quite prudent in speaking of the 'Idealists', for I am a greatly mistaken 'Idealist' will be laid great demand as soon as the Presidential campaign is opened, as they were last summer in Ohio, and many times before."

The friends of Mr. McKee of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat are still trying to get him from the presidency under the influence for complexity in the whisky conspiracy. A dispatch to the Republic from Jefferson City, says the friends of William McKee visited General McDonald and Colonel Joyce in the presidential with a view of procuring from the prisoners evidence to the effect that Fitzroy's testimony that Joyce had paid McKee $500 of ring money at the supervisor's office was false. Joyce stated to these gentlemen that Fitzroy's testimony was never in his (McKee's) office when McKee was there, but neither McDonald nor Joyce would make sworn statements on the ground that they were being very closely watched and self-preservation was the first law of nature. Other parties have gone to Jefferson City in the interest of Mr. McKee, and another effort will be made to procure a statement from McDonald and Joyce.

There is now an immense demand for silver change throughout the country. The Globe-Democrat says that much dissatisfaction is justly felt with the arrangements throughout the country for the issue of silver. As no place is the supply equal to the demand for it, and by some strange fatality of ignorance, the Treasury Department fails to make use of the large means for its distribution. If the paper banks were allowed to draw it in quantities limited only by their assets, they would be able to disburse it to the smaller city and country banks, and these would issue it to their customers in full to suit. But this arrangement is not allowed to go into effect to a sufficiently great extent to influence the demand and supply, and consequently the small sums of coin held out of the Sub-Treasury are hoarded, while at the same time fractional currency is becoming scarcer. It is already difficult to secure a sufficient amount to transact ordinary business, and if the present policy be continued, complaint will become so general as to induce a change in the present method of distribution.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes: Mr. Blaine made his personal explanation in the House, and I do not see how it is possible to quarrel with it. Unless you are prepared to believe him an infidel, how can you refuse to accept his explanation? It seems to me that those who refuse to believe that Mr. Blaine made a great mistake, should not have any objection to him on the ground that he is probably a thief. To quarrel with him on any other ground is to quarrel with a question of honor, and it is better to quarrel with a question of honor than with a question of honor.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes: Mr. Blaine made his personal explanation in the House, and I do not see how it is possible to quarrel with it. Unless you are prepared to believe him an infidel, how can you refuse to accept his explanation? It seems to me that those who refuse to believe that Mr. Blaine made a great mistake, should not have any objection to him on the ground that he is probably a thief. To quarrel with him on any other ground is to quarrel with a question of honor, and it is better to quarrel with a question of honor than with a question of honor.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes: Mr. Blaine made his personal explanation in the House, and I do not see how it is possible to quarrel with it. Unless you are prepared to believe him an infidel, how can you refuse to accept his explanation? It seems to me that those who refuse to believe that Mr. Blaine made a great mistake, should not have any objection to him on the ground that he is probably a thief. To quarrel with him on any other ground is to quarrel with a question of honor, and it is better to quarrel with a question of honor than with a question of honor.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes: Mr. Blaine made his personal explanation in the House, and I do not see how it is possible to quarrel with it. Unless you are prepared to believe him an infidel, how can you refuse to accept his explanation? It seems to me that those who refuse to believe that Mr. Blaine made a great mistake, should not have any objection to him on the ground that he is probably a thief. To quarrel with him on any other ground is to quarrel with a question of honor, and it is better to quarrel with a question of honor than with a question of honor.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes: Mr. Blaine made his personal explanation in the House, and I do not see how it is possible to quarrel with it. Unless you are prepared to believe him an infidel, how can you refuse to accept his explanation? It seems to me that those who refuse to believe that Mr. Blaine made a great mistake, should not have any objection to him on the ground that he is probably a thief. To quarrel with him on any other ground is to quarrel with a question of honor, and it is better to quarrel with a question of honor than with a question of honor.

The Washington correspondent of the Springfield Republican writes: Mr. Blaine made his personal explanation in the House, and I do not see how it is possible to quarrel with it. Unless you are prepared to believe him an infidel, how can you refuse to accept his explanation? It seems to me that those who refuse to believe that Mr. Blaine made a great mistake, should not have any objection to him on the ground that he is probably a thief. To quarrel with him on any other ground is to quarrel with a question of honor, and it is better to quarrel with a question of honor than with a question of honor.

GOVERNOR HUBBARD.
There is one consolation in the election of Governor Coke for United States Senator, yes, two or three of them. He will no longer be Governor of the State. He has made a miserable poor Governor. This is now a confirmed fact in all parts of the State. Crime, violence, robbery, bloodshed and murder stalk throughout the State in daylight as well as at night, and the Governor contends that he has no power to keep his oath to see the laws faithfully executed. His financial policy is getting the State deeper and deeper in debt day by day, and in addition to legitimate obligations, a large part of the increase grows out of high commissions and fees to agents and attorneys, and of the low rates at which the securities of the State are sold.

That talented, cultured, and fair minded gentleman and statesman, Hon. R. B. Hubbard, will be our Governor hereafter. When we remember this, we are inclined to be thankful to the Legislature for so great a boon. Governor Hubbard is not only one of the most talented and cultivated gentlemen in the State, a great orator, and of large experience in public life, but he is without prejudice against any section of the State, or any class of our people. He is just and generous toward all, and his heart is full of patriotic desire for the happiness of the people, and the development of the wealth, power, and glory of Texas. We congratulate him on becoming the Governor of the greatest State of the Union, leaving out the weight of great cities, and considering what Texas will be in a few years. We hail him as the Governor we need at a time when selfishness, bitterness, and neglect of the laws, and of the welfare of the people, have cast a gloom and a blight upon the whole State. We predict for him a brilliant career as the Governor of Texas, which is almost equal to being the President.

WOOL-GROWING IN NEW MEXICO.

New Mexico, as well as Western Texas, is raising into importance as a wool growing section of the United States. A correspondent of the Kansas City Price Current, writing from Albuquerque, gives us some interesting information as to the wool clip of that territory. He says that in the absence of any census or statistical report, it is impossible to give the number of sheep or the quantity of wool produced in New Mexico. The stock owners had a very successful lambing season last year. The copious rains last summer and fall produced an abundant crop of grass, hence although the winter has been dry the loss of sheep has been trifling. He thinks it is safe to calculate the increase of this spring's clip at about sixty per cent. over that of last spring. The shearing season commenced in June. On account of the demoralized state of the wool trade East, it is hard to say what the prices will open at in New Mexico. The people are becoming alive to the importance of improving their breeds of sheep; for that reason the quality of the wool is growing better annually.

The stock masters and wool growers of New Mexico are introducing into their herds, the best strains of full-blood Mexican rams with which to cross the Mexican ewes, thereby gaining each successive season a more dense growth of wool, also a much finer grade of the same. The very best grades of fine unwashed wool running up in the Eastern market may tend to keep back the clip, as those who are able, will hold for a better price. Those who are depending on the sale of their clip to pay for shearing, lambing, herding, etc., will be forced to place it on the market. The wools of last summer that brought 35-37 1/2 with, this season, get bring over 37-38 1/2; in coarse carpet wools the difference will not be so great, as they did not advance last year in so great a proportion as the fine wools, and will probably bring 32-33 1/2. These are Philadelphia prices. The clip of wool in Bent county, Colorado, will be large and of fine quality. None of the herds of sheep were sheared last fall and there is now a year's clip to come off which will begin to come in about June first.

THE EXPRESS AND THE STATESMAN.

The Austin Statesman, now that the smoke of the senatorial contest has passed will be able to see a little more clearly, and to be somewhat more just to its contemporaries. It has permitted itself to say, during the height of the struggle at Austin, that "the Express, with all other Republican papers of Texas, is hostile to Coke, and classifies this paper among 'the organs of Grant,' and says many other things intended to make the impression that the EXPRESS is a Republican party organ. We hope we shall not hereafter find it necessary to continually resort to the agitation of saying that the Express is sincerely, strictly, and entirely independent. It has the courage to support the Republicans when they are right, as to any principle or measure, and it has the justice to do the same thing for the Democrats; it needs no courage to pursue that course toward the Democrats in a State overwhelmingly Democratic.

But what we regret most in these remarks of the Statesman is, that it should have made use of the Express to injure Judge Hancock at the critical moment of the senatorial contest, in view of the fact that the correction would come too late to remedy the evil done. The injustice of the Statesman is apparent when it is remembered that the San Antonio Herald supported Judge Hancock as warmly as the Express, and when it is further remembered that the Express also heartily supported Judge Devine as the special and universal choice of the West. That misrepresentation, injustice, trickery, unnecessary combinations, pitiful sectionalism, and an undue use of official power have been used in the defeat of Judge Hancock is too plain to admit of a doubt, and it will yet be made manifest to the public.

In Fine White Blinds, ready-made or in order, Farnham & Fox cannot be surpassed in price or quality.

GOV. COKE ELECTED SENATOR.

Gov. Coke has at length been elected United States Senator for Texas to fill the place of Hon. Morgan G. Hamilton, which will become vacant about a year hence. He was not our choice, but we are prepared to give him due credit for the ability and political and official experience necessary to fill that high position with honor to the State. We think the Democratic party has made a great mistake in rejecting a national statesman with a high national reputation, like Hon. John Hancock, and electing a man who has not, since the war, either in private or public life, manifested anything like national principles or sympathies. It is a bad, bald Bourbon triumph, and the contribution by the great and progressive young State of Texas of a thousand tons to the immense Bourbon burden hung around the neck of the Democratic party, and which will sink it beneath the waves of defeat in the coming Presidential election.

Moreover, it is an exhibition of official greed that it is not at all creditable, allier to Gov. Coke, the Democratic party, or the State. When party or State necessities require the choice of a newly elected Governor for the United States Senate, there can be no reasonable objection to it; but in this case there was no such necessity. The State had plenty of men fully as able and eligible as Gov. Coke, and some of them of the superior to him, and it was an exhibition of infidelity, unchivalrous, and selfish unfairness on his part, after being twice elected Governor, to seek to grab, gobble, and gorge everything of official value the State had to give, without any regard to the claims of his party peers, who had stood by him in brotherly confidence, and had made him all he is. They constructed the ladder upon which he mounted, not suspecting that he would betray them; but when he got to the top, he turned his back upon them, forgot their friendly services, turned his face toward higher and broader official pastures in view, pulled the ladder up after him, and left them without the friendly courtesy of a decent farewell.

Had this grasping spirit and course of Gov. Coke been foreseen in the Convention of 1873, would he have received the nomination over Gov. Throckmorton, who confessedly had such the strongest claim upon the party, having been ruthlessly and foully turned out of the Governorship by Gen. Griffin? Had it been foreseen even in the late Galveston Convention, could he have got the nomination without a struggle? They tell us that all is fair in politics as well as in war. God forbid! In the grand old Whig school, in which we were trained, no such sentiment, philosophy, or practice ever obtained. Would that the high-souled, chivalric sentiments and practices of those noble old representatives of the gentlemen of the country might once more give purity and character to our political life!

Although this criticism is due to ourselves, to Gov. Coke, to the other able men fitted for the Senatorial office, and to the State at large, yet Gov. Coke will make an able and creditable Senator, and he will encounter no factions opposition from the Express.

Gov. Horatio Seymour, in an interview with a Herald reporter, summed up the political situation with epigrammatic conciseness, saying that the Republican party had lost the confidence of the country, but the Democratic party had not gained it. The epigram fitted the case exactly that it is impossible to add anything to its force, but Mr. Seymour has felt called on to enlarge upon the topic, and he has done so with a fairness and a clearness that mark him as an exceptional man among the politicians. As a Democrat Mr. Seymour's hopes and affections naturally incline him to believe that the confidence which the Republican party has forfeited is forfeited forever, and that the Democratic party will gain that confidence which it has not as yet succeeded in gaining; but he does not allow his affections to distort his view of the facts. In the corruption at Washington he sees no sudden and isolated phenomenon, nor can he accept the theory that under a free system of government a pure and honest people can be represented by corrupt and infamous officials. On the contrary, he avers that "our Government, municipal, State and general, are strictly representative, and in their maladministration they have reflected the errors and demoralizations of the people."

KILBOURNE, the real estate broker of Washington, who was imprisoned by the Congressional committee on the Real Estate Pool because he would not tell all about his private business, and expose its books, is about to be the investigator after all. It is now stated that the firm of Kilbourne & La ita have decided to address a letter to the speaker of the House announcing their willingness to submit all the testimony in their possession, including their books and papers, relating to the real estate pool, to the committee examining that subject. Mr. Kilbourne says he has vindicated what he regards as a great principle in refusing to submit to a seizure or examination of his private books and papers, when, as he alleges, no charge of fraud has been made against his firm or his clients, but in order that the House and the country may see that his recent renunciation was not for the purpose of concealing anything improper, he solely as a vindication of his rights, he will now tell all he knows about the real estate pool, and submit his papers to the committee. This is said to be the substance of the contemplated communication to the House.

The Border Express, Danville, Va., says that there is a widow lady living in one of the adjoining counties of North Carolina whose husband was a Confederate soldier, and who during the war was in prison at Elmira, N. Y., there he died. This lady, since the close of the war, has received regularly every year the check of A. T. Stewart, the deceased millionaire, in the sum of $50. Why she has never known, she says in a recent communication, and she now says that her annual donation will cease.

THE SMALL, BUT RELIABLE PIANO FORTÉ HOUSE.
A. Scheidemanntel & Co.,
DEALERS IN
Pianos and Organs,
A. Scheidemanntel & Co. do not do business in over 100 towns in Texas, but are prepared to furnish Pianos and Organs of any make at any price just as cheap as anybody else. A. Scheidemanntel & Co. are the Sole Agents for the two leading Pianos of the World—the celebrated Steinway and Knabe Pianos, for San Antonio and W. Texas.
THAT'S ALL THEY CARE FOR.

A. Scheidemanntel & Co. will furnish pianos of less renowned makes at the lowest rates, viz:
Chickering, Style 1, Square Piano, $410.
Chickering, Style 3, Square Piano, 450.
Chickering, Style 4, Square Piano, 475.
Chickering, Style 10, Upright, 415.
Other styles in proportion.
A. Scheidemanntel & Co. do not do business in over 100 towns in Texas, but are prepared to furnish Pianos and Organs of any make at any price just as cheap as anybody else. A. Scheidemanntel & Co. are the Sole Agents for the two leading Pianos of the World—the celebrated Steinway and Knabe Pianos, for San Antonio and W. Texas.
THAT'S ALL THEY CARE FOR.
A. Scheidemanntel & Co. will furnish pianos of less renowned makes at the lowest rates, viz:
Chickering, Style 1, Square Piano, $410.
Chickering, Style 3, Square Piano, 450.
Chickering, Style 4, Square Piano, 475.
Chickering, Style 10, Upright, 415.
Other styles in proportion.
A. Scheidemanntel & Co. do not do business in over 100 towns in Texas, but are prepared to furnish Pianos and Organs of any make at any price just as cheap as anybody else. A. Scheidemanntel & Co. are the Sole Agents for the two leading Pianos of the World—the celebrated Steinway and Knabe Pianos, for San Antonio and W. Texas.
THAT'S ALL THEY CARE FOR.

A. SCHEIDEMANNTEL & CO.
A. SCHEIDEMANNTEL & CO.
A Call and you will be convinced of the correctness of their motto—"Satisfaction to all."
A. Scheidemanntel & Co.
Main Street, San Antonio, Texas.
Dorman, Holmes & Co.

THE GREAT AMERICAN PIANO FORTÉ HOUSE.
Dorman, Holmes & Co.,
MANUFACTURERS AND DEALERS IN PIANOS & ORGANS.
To facilitate business, we have made our general office at Dallas, where all orders from Texas should be addressed. Instruments will be sent from nearest supply Depot or DIRECT FROM FACTORY.

Dorman, Holmes & Co. localize their business, making it a home institution everywhere. They now do business in over one hundred towns in Texas, and can refer to hundreds of persons in this State who are using their instruments.
They have every advantage and facility that can be obtained, and will sell at prices below competition. The attention of close buyers is solicited.
Dorman, Holmes & Co. unite advantages of a Home House and a large Eastern House.
In addition to their own make, "The Dorman, Holmes & Co. Grand Scale Piano," they control for this and several other States the Renowned Chickering & Sons, Bradbury, Steinway (except in Western Texas), and other First-class Pianos, also the cheaper Pianos of Hale, Stanley & Son, Arion, Hayden & Son, and others, ranging in price from $250 upwards, that they can deliver to their customers just as cheap as the same instruments can be bought at the factory in New York or Boston, saving the expense, delay and risk of long transportation. They supply families direct, giving them every advantage usually given agents. Parties in this State, wishing to test their instruments before buying, can have them placed in their homes, for trial, without extra expense.
Dorman, Holmes & Co. are among the Largest Dealers in Pianos in the United States, their trade now extending over nearly the entire country, and will guarantee to deliver Pianos and Organs at any point in the State at lower prices and on better terms than any other house.
Dorman, Holmes & Co. pay all freight, insurance, etc., and give with each Piano a $10 stool and cover; they also keep each piano in tune one year, free of charge. They ask no money until the instrument is received and tested, and unless it gives satisfaction, can be returned at their expense.
Dorman, Holmes & Co. do not rent cheap Pianos, but each instrument comes bright and new to the purchaser, direct from the factory, thus avoiding the probability of getting a piano which has been rented 6 or 12 months, so is very often the case in buying from small dealers and agents.
Pianos and Organs sold on monthly payments of ten to twenty-five dollars. Second-hand instruments taken in part pay for new ones. Pianos and Organs made to order, with silver inscription plate with any name engraved on it, parties may wish. Orders can be left at the Wheeler & Wilson Machine Office, San Antonio.
A large stock of Piano Stools and Stools at bottom prices. All kinds of Musical Instruments, Sheet Music and Music Merchandise furnished at lowest prices.

FACTS BY WHICH DECIDE.
In those opinions but insignificant advertisements of C. Pratt & Co., they endeavor to convince the public that our STAR OIL and PRIME OILS are identical in name, which they know, even better than we could ever tell. In essence there is NOT THE CASE. Peerless is by no means one of the inferior grades of oil; it is in every respect equal and fully up to the actual standard (not the "rated" standard) of Astral, and is like the latter 12 degrees below the burning point of our STAR OIL. Now we propose to furnish the Peerless, guaranteed equivalent in every respect to Astral, at One Dollar a case less than our STAR OIL, which we sell at the price of Astral, although our STAR OIL is 12 degrees better, burns easier, and consequently has the preference of the consuming public.
Our certificates, formerly published, (originals of which can be seen at our office) from our local, distinguished chemists, Messrs. Geo. H. Katteyer, A. Netto and E. Dreiss, who tested both oils, and declare our STAR OIL
TRADE MARK
WAGNER & RUNNELL
STAR OIL
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS

TRADE MARK
WAGNER & RUNNELL
STAR OIL
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS
y 12 degrees better than Astral.
In addition to the certificate alluded to, we herewith annex a certificate from Chemist Theo. Odet.
Certificate.
At your request, I have tested the samples of Star Oil taken from the store of George Dalling, and find the flashing point at one hundred and thirty-three (133) degrees Fahrenheit, the burning point at one hundred and forty-four (144) degrees Fahrenheit. Astral oil, taken from the store of E. Kotula & Co., the flashing point at one hundred and twenty-one (121) degrees, and the burning point at one hundred and thirty-two degrees Fahrenheit. I am of the opinion that the Star Oil is by all means the better and safer oil.
[Signed]
THEODORE ODET,
Ex-Preparateur de Physique et de Chimie la Faculte des sciences de Lyon.

DESIROUS TO KNOW.
Will the firm of this city please publish the results of the tests made with a case of our Star Oil, sent to New York for that purpose, a few months ago.
WAGNER & RUNNELL.
Hugo & Schmeltzer,
Sole Agents for West Texas
OF THE
KAHRIG'S ST. LOUIS BEER.
NEW SHIPMENTS ARRIVING EVERY WEEK.

Also Roskam, Gerstley & Co.'s well known and celebrated
RESERVE AND SARATOGA WHISKIES
ALWAYS ON HAND.
KAMPMANN, J. H. KAMPMANN, KAMPMANN
ARCHITECT AND BUILDER,
Is prepared to contract for all kinds of Mason Work, Stone Cutting, Carpenter Work, Plastering and Painting.
J. H. Kampmann's
NEW DOOR, SASH AND BLIND FACTORY

The undersigned having completed his new Factory, in which all work is done by Machinery and Steam Power, is prepared to make at the very shortest notice
Doors, Windows, Blinds Etc.
OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.
Ripping and Planing Lumber. Making 1 inch and 1/2 inch flooring and other articles connected with the Carpenter Business.
SEASONED LUMBER, WHITE AND YELLOW PINE AND LOUISIANA SWAMP CYPRESS CONSTANTLY ON HAND.

NOTICE
SAN ANTONIO, TEXAS, APRIL 1, 1876.
The firm of Bennett & Thornton is this day dissolved by mutual consent. W. A. Bennett having purchased the assets and assumed the liabilities will settle up the business.
W. A. BENNETT,
J. S. T. THORNTON.
Calling attention to the above notice of the dissolution of the firm of Bennett & Thornton, and my discontinuance in business, which has become necessary on account of ill health, I desire to retire my professional thanks to the citizens of San Antonio and Western Texas, for the confidence and liberal patronage bestowed through an active business term of ten years. Although retiring from active business, I shall continue to feel an interest in the welfare and success of my old business friends and customers. My partner, Mr. W. A. Bennett, has associated with him Mr. J. S. Lockwood, of the firm of Lockwood & Manning, and will continue the business under the firm name of Bennett & Lockwood.
I take great pleasure in commending them to my friends and the public, as in every way worthy their confidence.
J. S. T. THORNTON.

San Antonio, Texas, April 1, 1876.
The partnership heretofore existing between J. S. Lockwood and Joseph Manning, under the style of J. S. Lockwood & Manning, has expired by limitation. The accounts of the late firm will be transferred to the firm of Bennett & Lockwood, unless otherwise instructed. All business of the late firm will be settled by J. S. Lockwood, at the office of Bennett & Lockwood.
J. S. LOCKWOOD,
JOSEPH MANNING.

W. A. Bennett J. S. Lockwood
BENNETT & LOCKWOOD
BANKERS,
AND
Dealers in Exchange, Bullion, and Government Securities.
Collections collected on all points in Texas. Telegraphic Transfers made. April 1, 1876.
$5 to $20 per day in home. San Antonio, Texas, Monday, April 1, 1876.
The most perfect satisfaction guaranteed in every respect.

Dr. P. J. GRIFFIN & CO., No. 114 South Fourth St., Philadelphia, (via mail) RHEUMATISM
is a disease that afflicts over 25 per cent of the human race. Almost every effort heretofore made as to the treatment of this disease has been to fill the patient with purgatives—drugging the body to effect a cure. Dr. P. J. GRIFFIN & CO. after years of research, now present to the public the only prepared articles in the market. The disease is treated externally by means of the Liniment, which, when properly applied, reduces the swelling, relieves the tension and restores the infammation, the cause of pain is a very short time, thus restoring freedom of movement and elasticity to the joints. The disease being a blood poison, of a peculiar nature is internally by means of the Pills and Elixirs—operating on the system according to its direction. To effect a permanent cure, the Pills and Elixirs must be used in conjunction with the Liniment.
SCIENTIFICALLY
TREATED
Nervous Prostration, Nervous Weakness, Paralysis, Softening of the Brain, Dropsy, and all GRAVE DISEASES caused by the LOSS OF NERVE POWER, cured by use of "P. O. P."
Ask for Griffin's Rheumatism Remedies, they all bear our trade-mark and signature, and are put up securely. Price, $1.00 each; 50c. per bottle. Sold by all druggists, or by express, prepaid, 25c. extra of $1.00.
For Sale by all reputable Chemists throughout the World. Ask for them.