THE TEXAS INDEMNITY BOND.

Washington May 2, 1916.
Ess. News-In the account of the controversy now going on between Messrs. Morris & Durant, of this place, and the Messrs. O'Dings, of Texas, I see that Governor Clegg refers to my claim against the State of Texas as the "Herald's claim of O'Dings."

CONTRACT WITH GOV. MURKIN.
In reply to this charge so slipshodly made, I have to say that this claim was founded on a contract made with Fidelity National Bank, then Governor of Texas, for himself and the Military Board, and it was committed most have been participated in by him, as it was impossible to have the contract without his signature, and that was the fact.

It could be shown that the people of Texas, when they elected a Governor, do so with the understanding that the Governor will act in the best interests of the State, and not for his own private gain.

THE BOND.
The contract for the bonds sold to England provided for their payment at eight cents in the dollar in Texas, and at ten cents in the dollar in the rest of the world.

REPUTATION.
These bonds, though bearing the broad seal of Texas, have been repudiated, and thus dishonored, by the State. They are now worthless, and with a market value of only one cent.

WHO ARE CULPABLE?
It will thus be seen how little ground there is for this gratuitous slander on me and outrage on the memory of Governor Murkin. It is my firm belief that the State is dishonored by its own obligations, and certainly not by Gov. Murkin or myself.

THE FUTURE CONTROVERSY.
As to the present contest between the lawyers, I see only one way out of it, and that is for the State to pay the bonds at the rate of ten cents in the dollar.

As to the present contest between the lawyers, I see only one way out of it, and that is for the State to pay the bonds at the rate of ten cents in the dollar.

and introduced him to parties there who were anxious to settle the whole bond matter. I further said that in three days after he arrived here or in New York he had not obtained a satisfactory settlement, I would myself pay the expenses of the trip. In answer to this, Mr. Clark said the Executive of the State declined to interfere with the Messrs. O'Dings.

Why he preferred to have attorney pay a sum of thirty or forty thousand dollars to do what I suppose was really the proper business of the Attorney General, and whose services I suppose would have cost nothing, I am at a loss to understand. Perhaps Mr. Clark, if called on by the Judiciary Committee, could shed some light on the subject. JOHN CLEGG.

WIDOWED IN THE BALANCE AND FOUND WANTING.

'Have you any experience in the business?' we asked a verdant-looking youth who applied for an editorial position the other day. 'None, I, though?' he replied, 'shoving one foot under the chair to hide the unskillful patching of a backwoods cobbler. I should say I had experience—Haven't I corresponded with the Pamplunville Screamer for six weeks—hain't that experience enough?'

'That's all very well, we replied, but when we take young men on our editorial staff we generally put them through an examination. How much are twelve times one?' 'Twelve! Why any little boy ought to be able to ans—'

'Hold on, please—don't be two feet who discovered America?' 'Klumbus! Pahaw, them questions are just as easy as—'

'Who was the first man?' 'Adam! Why mister, I know all—'

'What was his other name?' 'His other name, why he ain't have none.' 'Yes, he did. You see that's where we've got you. His other name was Ebenezer—Ebenezer Adam, Esq., late of Paradise. Nobody knows this but editors, and see to it that you don't tell anybody.'

'How long would it take a muddertie to cross the desert of Sahara with a small orphan boy to touch him up with a red-hot poker?' 'Well, look here, mister, if I had a state and pencil I could figger that out, but dog on my skin if I'm much on mental arithmetic.'

'State and pencil! Did you ever see a state and pencil about a sanctum?' 'Well, we'll let that question slip. Have you got a good constitution?' 'Farty sizable.'

'How long could you live on raw corn and faith, and do the work of a domesticated elephant?' 'Lord! I don't believe I could live more'n a week.'

'Well, that's about as long as you'd want to live if you got an editorial position on this paper. We shall see you on some question and if you can't ans for it, you can take it your own and sail in.' 'State and pencil—'

'I didn't correspond for the Pamplunville Screamer six weeks for nothin'. Let her come—'
