NOON DISPATCHES.

Associated Press Dispatches.

Richmond, Va., May 26.—At the municipal elections yesterday no disturbance occurred. The Democrats were successful here by 3000 majority.

San Francisco, May 26.—The Democratic Convention adopted a platform advocating the honest payment of the public debt; gold and silver to be the only legal tender for payment only, and a prohibition against the issuance of paper money.

There has been a meeting of small farmers here since the arrival of the Colorado, which had some of its members.

Louisville, May 26.—In the Democratic Convention General Lewis Dush was chosen chairman at large.

Chicago, May 26.—The Tribune has just published a long article on the subject of the Centennial.

Washington, May 26.—The meeting of the Kentucky celebrated yesterday, the one hundredth anniversary of the first Baptist church in the State.

Chicago, May 26.—The Tribune has just published a long article on the subject of the Centennial.

THAT GREAT LAND GRANT.
The Apache State Gazette copies the following from the Capital correspondence of the Galveston News:

There is going to be considerable opposition to any legislative relief for Tom Scott's land grant. It does not appear to location, settlement and taxation the immense land reserve of the Texas Pacific. On all sides I hear expressions of opposition to the continuance of this reserve. Whether Hamilton's party is engaged in encouraging these notions I can't say.
