THE ORIENTAL DISCUSSION

From the telegraphic dispatches we have published the past few days, our readers have observed that there is a European war, that Serbia has invaded Turkey and the Balkan peninsula. The war is comparatively small, but small as it is, the greatest interest is taken in it by France, Russia, and Austria, the three great empires, with France and England. It was apprehended a few weeks ago that a rupture between Serbia and Turkey was about, all the great powers above mentioned would become involved, but more recent indications give the issue a different aspect, and these various nations which all have a leading part to play in the Balkan Peninsula, are content to assume the attitude of mere spectators.

OUR PRAYERS AND OTHER STUFF

Let us keep out of political discussions, State or National, even to offer prayer and ask for God's blessing, which never get things but their own kind. Bishop Simpson, one of the greatest divines and ecclesiastics in the present Methodist Episcopal Church, was absent for long periods at the opening of the Continental National Convention at St. Louis, Bishop Marvin, an almost equally popular divine and polemicist of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, offered the opening prayer, and he is being enthusiastically eulogized. The St. Louis Globe Democrat says that it "finds it impossible to praise it from any other than a historical point of view. If the Right Reverend, Chaplain has any faith in the efficacy of prayer, he has certainly heard at work for many a year ending the prayers he uttered with fervor and with frequency for the success of the late Conference. If all these prayers are considered by against him, his only refuge would be to join the Catholics Church and get a general pardon."

FACTS BY WHICH DECIDE

In these spacious but insignificant advertisements of C. Frost & Co. they do not say that their Star Oil is better than any other oil, but they do say that it is the best oil that ever was made.

COMPARING CANDIDATES

Before the recent Presidential nomination of the two parties, the comparison drawn for the various candidates, by their friends and opponents within their own party ranks, was quite amusing to read. But they are much more interesting now, after the disputed question have been thrown into the shade by the official facts.

NOTES AND OPINIONS

Who did you say would be nominated at St. Louis? Mr. W. H. Goss says that Mr. Tilden will be elected. Mr. W. H. Goss says that Mr. Tilden will be elected.
