Within that period I have been present at only two political meetings, one is id by the Erpablican party and the other to day at this place by the Democrats. Although I was at the latter but a short time I was for the greater part of the day in the streets, with every opportunity of observing the behavior and demeaser of the large concourse which the occasion had brought together. The cellection consisted of citizens on foot and on horseback. I saw, the no instance any exhibition of any behavior inconsistant with the strict est propriety. At the Republican meeting to which I have above referred there was no attempt at interruption. I shall require very strong evidence to satisfy me that South Carolina is an armed camp. I know of nothing which would end me to conclude.
