MILITARY MATTERS.—On the recommendation of the Medical Director of the Department, the contract of Acting Assistant Sergeant C. S. Taft, U. S. Army, is annulled to take effect on the 31st instant.

Dr. Taft is entitled to actual traveling expenses from Ringgold Barracks, Texas, to Washington, D. C., in accordance with the terms of his contract.

The Judge Advocate of the General Court Martial instituted in this city per Special Orders No. 114, current series, Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's Office, having reported that the service of Major D. R. Clendenin, 8th Cavalry, is no longer required by said court, he is authorized to take advantage of its privileges.

—This evening those interested in horse-riding should be on hand at the Fair grounds. There will be both a trotting and a running race.

Those who have vegetables growing had better dig them up in a hurry, as the grasshoppers will destroy all vegetation in a few days.

The grasshoppers stopped a train on the Central road the other day by being placed upon the track, making it so slippery that the cars would not progress.

—Have you seen those big circus pavilions? If they have all that they contain, we needn't spend $100 to go to New Orleans to see the Mardi-Gra.

We were wrong in stating that Mr.
J. W. Bayard had located himself in the Brokerage business with Messrs. Wulffing & Leibert. His headquarters are with Messrs. Calligan & Co.

—The Rev. B. A. Jacobs, Jewish Rabbi, recently from New Orleans, delivered an eloquent discourse at the Synagogue last evening on the Persecution of Judaism.
A large audience was present.

—The ducking received by several of our young sportmen has dampened their ardor. They had better enter for the trapshooting to come off during the Fair.
Here's a chance for glory.

—The Deller Show is a great attraction.
The novelty draws everyone to examine its contents. That big gold dollar will split some tipsy fellow's breeches pocket in his endeavor to make way with it one of those dark nights.

—The warlike dispatches from Europe, have sent some of our people figuring on the probable effect on this country. They show considerable talent at mathematics, but have not had a chance to try the great radical sum—Addition, Division and Multiplication.
