MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

THE EASTERN WAR.

London, Oct. 27.—The Fall Mall Garrison has announced that the ship Hyacinth is preparing to take six companies of Royal Engineers and two companies of the Transport Corps to join the Mediterranean fleet. Its 8-10 dispatch says an apparently true report is made that Russia intimates a willingness to accept the Porte's latest demands, provided that the latter will not call upon her to implement the desired result.

Proposed to settle the terms of peace at a conference at which Turkey is not represented are proposed by England.

THE ARCTIC EXPEDITION.

The Italy Press Association states that a telegram has been received at Portsmouth announcing the return of the Arctic expedition under Capt. Nares, who reports that progress to the north pole is impeded by ice. "No land was seen, excepted of high mountains, and the sea, 20 miles, but in other respects the expedition was successful. The fleet is at Valence."

Brooks.—Edward R. Stokes, Jim Fink's murderer, is to be released on the 25th, having been confined four years. He will be comparatively young when he gets his freedom, as his oil refinery works, which were carefully looked after by his mother, who has been very devoted to her unfortunate son, while he has been imprisoned, will be returned to him. It was about three very same oil works at Hope's Point that Stokes had some of his steepest legal contest with the late James Fink. Stokes has speculated since he was born in prison, and is now the owner of a very valuable patent, which he purchased while in Sing Sing from a convict, a paving street. Stokes stated before he was sent to Sing Sing for arson that he might go to Europe for a short time on his release, but it would only be for a short time, as he would be compelled to look after his estate of care. But it is more than probable that, as at present, the progress of his lung, that Stokes may have to take a trip to Germany this winter, if he wishes to prolong his life, for his constitution is completely broken and needs patching up.

THE PAUCITY OF FEMALE NAMES.
[From Logan's Letter to Chicago Times.]

The Duchess of Edinburgh, who left England at the beginning of the year, is now sojourning with her mother, the Empress of Russia, at a pleasant watering place called Yalta, on the coast of the Crimea. The young Duchess will not return to England until after the present campaign, as winter sets in.

The sailing bubble is crossing round all those regions, and will no doubt cast anchor very soon at Yalta, on a visit to his wife. His countrymen and heroines were on different terms from those loving ones who the siege of the Malakoff took place, and Sebastopol had to succumb to the advancing armies of the allies, France and England.

Derivish Pasha's army is entirely demoralized.

The Catholic Albanians who joined the Turkish standard, have gone home.

A Vienna correspondent of the Times confirms the capture of Djebel by the Turks.

Unless the armistice is concluded the Serbs must move back from Aleksandar and Doljevo.

A Berlin telegram from Paris says the Porte has accepted Ignatoff's proposition of a week's armistice.

A Times special from Berlin says the liberal newspapers declare vigorously against the establishment of Russian power in Turkey's provinces, and urge placing of reforms there and under British control.

Rome, Oct. 27.—The Russian iron clad will be sent to Sicily to reinforce troops already sent to the East, in case it should be needed.

A Destructive CYCLONE.

Panama, Oct. 19.—A destructive cyclone swept over Central America on the third and fourth instant. Managua, in Colorado, is inundated, four hundred houses down and many persons are drowned. The damages are estimated at two million dollars. The town of Brawfield on Mosquito coast lost houses. The steamer Colorado, Adams, was destroyed at Granada. The loss of crop in the coffee district is estimated at fifteen million dollars; about twenty lives were lost and the whole district was inundated.

THE JOINT CANVAS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Whichever party carries North Carolina, the people will have been benefited and interested by the spread of the cause of the Union.

For Governor—Judge Seths and ex-Governor Vance—who, in the true and good old American fashion, have been traveling together through the State, and jointly discussing the questions of the day. Lately the two candidates for the Lieutenant Governorship have begun to do something to indicate that this plan of apportioning to and among the people of different political subjects is dying out.

There is no doubt that it is the best. It calls together the citizens of both parties and gives each side an opportunity to hear what the other has to say. It prevents adrepreserence and compels fair statements. For we know that the other side is listening to us by its opponents, who reply at once and to the same audience. It trains the people to bear both sides in orderly silence, and appeals to their reason and not to their prejudices or ignorance. It brings out the voters to decide without prejudice to whom they will intrust political power.

The other day, at Buntington, in North Carolina, nearly three thousand persons gathered to listen to Mease Vance and Seths, and the two parties being very evenly balanced in number, there was great enthusiasm and perfect order. Now much better, however, than those meetings organized and held for those who already believe with them.

SATURDAY MORNING Oct. 28th, 1876.

CASLE Garden, New York, is nearly restored.

Gov. COKE will retire from office on December 1st.

The French Reformed Church is the latest to threaten rupture and permanent division in its ranks.

Prize Mexico has arrived at home, and about to present his impressions of this country in a series of lectures.

Two enterprising Californians, who four years ago planted 1,000 acres in walnuts and almonds, will net over $250,000 from this year's crop.

Under the English law a wife is now secured in her right to all earnings derived from any occupation she carries on separately from her husband. Previously to 1850, the wife was obliged to apply to the courts for this privilege.

The Princess Salm-Salm has taken for a second husband a tall English ex-Secretary of Legation, the younger son of a Lord. A Prussian Ambassador attended the wedding breakfast, the Emperor William sent a congratulatory telegram, and a choice band of Jenkins' entered around the scene.

Ex-QUEEN Isabella has already begun to stir up the strife in Spain. A dispute between her and the Ministry about a few thousand pounds, said by the former to be due from the Nation to her, has brought contempt and ridicule on all concerned. The dignity and courage of the King under these trying circumstances have gained him fresh honors.

The Jewish Times says that an awakened interest is manifesting itself in England in the change of the Jewish worship. "The rising generation cannot be reconciled to obsolete traditions, superannuated customs, which belong entirely to the past. They will not attend to worship with which they can have no sympathy, in which prayers are recited which they do not understand, or which they must consign to the realm of superstition."

This business week, closing with to-day, has been an active and exciting one for San Antonio. The Presidential election, which comes off next Tuesday, will render the incoming week the most exciting the nation has witnessed since the day of the outbreak of the rebellion. The political events of the coming week will be of the most interesting character, and the wildest enthusiasm will prevail. The contest will be exceedingly warm and close. As to the result, no one can even now predict with any degree of accuracy. Both parties are nearly equally balanced.

ITALIAN women are coming to the front. They have been prominent in the agitation throughout that country with reference to the Bulgarian outrages. The Cooling Chioce presented an address at the public meeting in Rome on the 20th inst., and Miss Matilda Castell addressed an enormous meeting at Naples a week afterward. The spirit and eloquence of the latter moved the vast audience to uncontrollable enthusiasm. She had the courage, too, to repudiate the policy which would establish an alliance between the Crescent and the Cross.

The Sioux and other Indians of the Northwest, who were induced by Bishop Whipple recently to "renounce" for their conditional removal down to the Territory, seem to have reconsidered the step. Probably Red Cloud thinks they are too many years of good pilaging in Wyoming, Montana, etc., to give up former uncertainty. But little does he know of the increased facilities for scalping and plundering in the new country to which he was invited, and good news it is that there is diminished probability of his coming or sending his "young men" to look around.

A NEVADA paper represents General Sherman as saying in that State: "The 'bayonet' order, as it is called, means nothing which can be construed against the honor of the country." It seems also the commandants of troops were stationed to respond to the call of United States marshals when intimidation is threatened at the polls. The act of Congress under which it was issued was offered by a Democrat, and it applied equally to the North and South. The object of it is simply to assure an honest election in the South. When he had ordered his troops to the South he replied, "Not a single man." My order simply applies to the troops already there. If they are called upon they will act. Then you have the whole gist of the "bayonet" order.

AFRICAN.
EXPLORATION.

The idea of founding a Belgian colony in the distant part of the world, in order to advance the interests of commerce and industry, was always a favorite with of Leopold II. of Belgium. As Crown Prince he published a pamphlet under the title of "Le Complement de l'Europe de 1835," in which he explained various plans. Some years afterwards, when he had become King, he sent at his own expense an engineer, M. Thain, subsequently the private secretary of the Empress Maximilian, of Mexico, to Australia and the Islands of the Pacific Ocean, in the hope of finding there some happy spot which, unoccupied by any other nation, might serve the Belgian purpose of colonization. At present the King of the Belgians has resumed this plan, and the proposal is now to establish a colony in Southern Africa, to which is to be joined a penal settlement on the French model. Friendly relations have been established for the purpose with Pretoria, the capital of the Transvaal Republic, and it is hoped that if some thousands of Belgians avail themselves immediately of this new opportunity for emigrating the plain will be realized.

The King of the Belgians has, however, higher aims than mere forming of a penal settlement in Africa. He wished to promote the further exploration of Central Africa and to take steps for the suppression of the slave trade.

In his opening address the King said: I have arrived, at the belief that it might be convenient for you to come and discuss and determine in common with the authority belonging to you, the ways to be followed; and the means to be employed for planting definitively the standard of civilization on the soil of Central Africa, and to come to an agreement as to what has to be done to interest the public in this noble enterprise and to induce it to contribute toward it.

For, gentlemen, in works of this kind it is the concurrence of numbers which gives success. It is the sympathy of the masses which must be solicited and obtained. In fact, what resources could not be disposed of if all those for whom a frame is nothing or little consented to hand it to the fund destined to support the cause of the slaves in interior of Africa? Great progress has already been accomplished; the unknown has been attacked from many sides; and of those here present who have enriched science with such important discoveries would retrace for us the principal points of them their exposure would be a powerful encouragement for all. Among the questions to be examined the following will be chief: 1. Precise designation of the best route to be obtained on the coast of Zanzibar and near the mouth of the Congo, either by conventions with the chiefs, or by purchases to be concluded with individuals. 2. Designation of the roads to be opened successively toward the interior and of the hospitable, scientific and pacificatory stations to be organized as a means for abolishing slavery, for establishing concord among the tribes, for preparing to whom just and distinct rights of property. 3. The creation, after precise definition of the work, of an international and central committee and of national committees for pursuing the execution of the work, each, in so far as it will be concerned, to explain the purpose of it to the public of all countries, and to make an appeal to the charitable sentiment which has never been addressed in vain.

MR. H. L. STEVENS.

Dear Sir—We have good reason for regarding your Vegetable a medicine of great value. We have sold it to us that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age, for the last two years he has suffered from neuritis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A course of treatment with your vegetable gave him the faintest hope of his early rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of house remedies, that even amputation could not save him as he had no vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetable, and he grew that way to the present time, and is now perfectly recovered. He has lately resumed studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where his limb was lanced, we have the full confidence that in due time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about 100 doses daily of Vegetable, but lately uses but little, as he declares he is too well to take medicine.

Yours respectfully E. B. Bier

WHAT IS VEGETINE!

It is a compound extracted from banks, roots and herbs of Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quietes the nervous system. It gives you good sweet sleep at night. It is a panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quietness, and rest. The secret of the vegetable's sweet sleep has been proved by many an aged person. It is the great blood purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it. It relieves and cures all diseases originating from impure blood. Try the Vegetine. Give it a fair trial for your complaints; then you will say to your friend neighbor and acquaintance, "Yes, it has cured me."

Reliable Evidence.

The following unsolicited testimonial from Rev. O. T. Walker, formerly pastor of Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, and at present settled in Providence, R. I., must be deemed a reliable evidence. No one should fail to observe that the testimonial is dated in the year of 1852, and with the name of the Vegetine in the Rev. Mr. Walker's family, who now pronounces it invaluable;

PROVIDENCE, R. I., 104 Transit St.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

I feel bound to express my satisfaction with the high value I place upon your Vegetine. My family have used it for the last two years. Its nervous debility it is invaluable, and I recommend it to all who are suffering from the infirmities of age. I have no doubt its efficacy is equal to that of any other medicine.

O. T. WALKER.

Formerly Pastor Bowdoin Square Church, Boston, Mass.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. A. Best, Pastor of the M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the infirmities of age, and especially the infirmities of the eyes. Rev. E. A. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative power of Vegetine.

REV. E. A. BEST, Natick, Mass., Jan. 1st, 1873.

A DOG AND A MONKEY FIGHT.

SIDE SHOW AT A NEVADA RACE TRACK—THE MONKEY VICTORIOUS.

The race track was yesterday enlivened by a very attractive programme, in which a fight between a dog and a monkey was the leading specialty. While the amusement was progressing a stranger hove in sight with a small black dog, and bounded up to a post upon which the monkey was basking in the sun. To all outward appearance the monkey was dead, and seemed to have been hung up on the post to keep out of the way of the chickens. The stranger moved up to the monkey and poked the lifeless animal with his cane. At the touch of the stick the animal's legs swung back and forth without vibration on their part.

"When did this monkey die?" asked the stranger of a small boy.

Before the boy could furnish an explanation of the monkey's taking off, the black dog came up and snuffed the animal's tail. The next thing any body knew was the fact of the monkey sitting astride the dog, and the dog howling and squealing like a neglected child.

The monkey had fallen off him like a deadbeat, and immediately the wildest excitement prevailed.

The crowd was at hand at once, and Daggett, rushing about and flourishing an immense cane acted as master of ceremonies, and Joe Stewart, pulling out a handful of twine, wanted to lay odds on the monkey, as soon as the dog recovered from his surprise, and realized the somewhat important fact that the monkey was one of the quick instead of the dead; he rose to the situation and made a vigorous defence. The monkey, however, got the dog by the collar, and then twirling his tail about the post, held him with a pretty substantial grip in one hand and cuffed him vigorously with the other. Under this treatment the dog howled for mercy, and struggled until the collar gave way, after which he started for the back yard with the tip of his tail curled under his legs like a crescent. The stranger who owned the dog stood by; a passive spectator of the scene, and when the dog disappeared and the monkey resumed his state of torpor on the top of the post, the boy simply remarked, "Don't act like he was dead."

PADGING TO SOME PURPOSE.

(Philadelphia Press.)

The ingrate male sex are wont to deride the one which fair women occasionally make of our great Southern staple to correct the deficiencies of nature, yet it must be admitted that Mrs. Daniel Goldschmidt paddled to considerable advantage. On examination by a custom-house official of the material with which Mrs. Goldschmidt, on her late voyage from Europe, deemed it expedient to increase the rotundity of her bust, she developed form, and were discovered the following articles: 10 coral bands, 1 pair gold earrings, 7 pairs diamond studs, 1 diamond star, 1 pair diamond earrings, 2 pearl crosses, 1 watch ring, 1 diamond breastpin, 1 pearl breastpin, 3 small pieces jewelry, 25 coral beads, 12 gold watch, chain and pencil attached, one open-faced ladies' watch, 1 pearl smethyst pin, 1 cluster diamond ring, 1 gold chain and pieces of chain, 1 diamond brooch, 1 diamond pin, with solitaire pearl; 1 cameo pearl and diamond pin, 1 pearl, diamond and stone brooch, 1 diamond cross, worth $1,500; 1 diamond pin, with pearl pendant and center, valued at $1,00. The entire collection is valued at $20,000, and the customs authorities, unwilling enough to consider Mrs. Goldschmidt's conduct as a fraud upon the revenue, and the valuables have gone to set out the deficit in the national exchequer caused by the nonpayment of Uncle Sammy's income tax.

THE DEMOCRATS AND THE CHINESE.

(San Francisco Alta.)

The Democrats last night, in this city, inaugurated scenes similar to those enacted in Southern States of interrupting meetings addressed by Republicans. In the desperate struggle they are making to carry this city for their standard-bearers, they resort to stopping the right of free speech, and will probably follow it up with blackguardism and blows. Hon. Horace Davis, Republican candidate for Congress, and Hon. A. P. Van Duzer, were invited to address the 7th ward Anti-Coolie Club. They accepted the invitation and made their appearance last evening at the appointed time and place, at the corner of 1st and Mission streets.

Mr. Davis was permitted to make his speech to the large crowd of working men who had assembled there, and loudly applauded his views on the Chinese question. Mr. Van Duzer was next introduced, and had spoken only a few minutes when a crowd of miserable Democrats and demagogues made their appearance on the opposite corner, started a boutade, and put some liquor on a box, who proceeded to drizzle Mr. Van Duzer's voice and, of course, the noise had continued following his desired effect of disturbing and breaking up the meeting. Truly reform is necessary.

FEMALE SOCIETY.

All men writers (Thackery) who avoid female society have dull perceptions and are stupid, have gross tastes and revolt against what is good. Your club swimmers, who are sucking the butts of billiard cues all night, call female society insipid. Poetry is uninspiring to a yoke; beauty has no charms for a blind man; music does not please a poor beast; who does not know one tune from another; but as a true epicure is hardly ever tired of watercress, brown bread and butter. I protest, I can sit for a whole night talking to a well-regulated, kindly woman about her girl Fanny, or her boy Frank, and like the evening's entertainment. One of the great benefits a man may derive from woman's society is that he is bound to be respectful to her. The habit is of great good to your morale, men, depend upon it. Our education makes us the most eminently selfish men in the world, and the greatest benefit that comes to a man from woman's society is that he has to think of somebody to whom he is bound to be constantly attentive and respectful.

POLITICAL POOL-SELLING.

The pool rooms, especially Morrisey's and Johnson's, did good pool-selling last night on the general result of the election for President in the State of New York. By common consent it seems that the struggle has shifted to the Empire State. As both houses paid the pools yesterday on the direct result in Ohio and Indiana considerable money was set aside for future events. Early in the afternoon 100 to 80 was freely invested that Tilden carried New York, but later in the day the Hayes side of the struggle weakened, and 100 to 75 was accepted, which was still further reduced in the evening to 100 to 70 on Tilden against Hayes. Betting on the general result of the election is in favor of the Republican candidate at the average rate of 80 to 55.

SWEETENING PIES.—The usual practice of the housewife, in preparing apple or berry pies, is to add the sugar to the fruit when it is put into the pastry, or stewed preparatory to its being baked. But science teaches us that this is not the right thing to do, but on the contrary, it should not be added until the fruit is nearly if not quite cool. It has been ascertained that cane sugar is quickly turned into glucose by heat and acids, and therefore it takes much more sugar to sweeten the fruit, added when it is hot. All kinds of fruit and berries contain both sugar and vegetable acid, and the nature of the sugar varies in different fruits, not only according to the quantity of acid which enters into their composition, but also upon the heat of the sun, under whose invigorating influence the fruit ripens. Therefore when the season is cloudy and rainy, both berries and fruit are sour to the taste, as the sugary flavor is produced by the action of warmth and light upon the glucose, which is always present in them.

RHEUMATISM!

CLAVIN'S RHEUMATIC POWDER, For the cure of RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, SCIATICA, NEURALGIA, &c., &c.

ABSTRACTS: FOR RHEUMATISM, LUMBAGO, OR LATE BACK—Take one powder three times a day, in milk or sweetened water. If the powders move too freely, take less of the powder, and if too strongly take more. If the powders are too strong, mix them with the softest parts to be rubbed freely with Clavin's Soothing Liniment, two or three times a day.

FOR SCIRRHOSIS OR RHEUMATISM OF THE Joints—Take the same treatment.

If Rheumatism has been caused by the abuse of Masonry, it might be well to take one or two bottles of Clavin's Stillingia, price $1.00 per bottle. Rheumatic Powder, 75 grains per bottle, and Soothing Liniment 25 cents per bottle.

IT WILL CURE RHEUMATISM IN THE 45.
