CARDINAL ANTONELLI New York, Nov 7 - A Rome special says the Pope was greatly affected by the sud-deuness of Cardinal Antonelli's prostradeuness of Cardinal Antonelli's prostration. He was, by direction of the Pope, carried to an adjoining apartment. The Pope sent one of his own physicians, but on arrival of the doctor all hopes were declared gone. The sacred rites were then partaken of by the dying Cardinal, and the Pope returned for a short time to another part of the palace. His holiness however again visited the sufferer before going to his bed and remained by his side for some time administering comfort and consolation, and upon leaving, as the hour was late and his holiness almost ill himself, he gave the dying man benediction.

RUSSIA PREPARING FOR WAR property. RUSSIA PREPARING FOR WAR London, Nov 7—A Vienna correspondent says it is certain that Russia is preparing for all aventualities. Russian officials who have heretofore been anxious to deny all military preparations now maintain that the whole arm 7 is on war footing.
This sudden frankness may possibly be by command. We are determined to sell within the next ninety (90) days the following choice property. Terms, one-third cash, balance in one and

THE JAMESES

AN INTERVIEW WITH THE MOTHER OF THE MISSOURI OUTLAWS

The Kansas City Times of Tuesday reports the departure for Texas of Mrs. Dr. Samuels, of Clay county, Missouri, mother of the notorious James boys.

A Times representative met Mrs. Samuels upon the Fort Scott train just before it started out. She was just taking a farewell of a number of her old friends and acquaintances who had accompanied to the train. She did not know where she was going, but if there were those who desired to know where she was goue she wished a letter addressed to Mrs. Z. Samuels, Sherman, Texas, holders the inmense sum of Mrs. Z. Samuels, Sherman, Texas, holders the intenses sum of would find her. As for her sons, Frank and Jesse, she had nothing Thes. P. Porter, ex-Gov. of Ky to say further than they were at least a thousand miles from Kansas City, and were hard at work make ing an honest living. The old lady appeared rather de exhibited the stump of her arn blown off by the detectives in one of their raids. She said: "I hope I shall at last find peace and rest in the new home I hope to find. I am the new home I hope to find. I am very old now, and not the woman I was thirteen years ago, when trouble came upon me and mine with the war. My busband was hung by the Federals, and Jesse, then only a boy fifteen years old, was whipped by the same gang until speechless because he could not tell where his brother Frank was. As for my family, here is all there is of it, Dr. Samuels is old and helpless. My little boy is nnable to make a living yet. He is the next to the boy killed by the detectives at the same time they threw in that hand grenade. Then there is my daughter. She was brought home from sonoot to do the sewing for the family when I lost my arm. Besides these three beipless members of my family I have an old darky who has lived with us on the farm over there in Clay county for thirty years. She will never leave us; she is too old to do for herself, and will not take her freedom. Then I have an old very old now, and not the woman paralyzed negro belonging to the family. I must keep him as long as he lives. And then a little negro child adopted by me and old Aunty, make up my family. Yesterday morning was so cool that or sovereigns settled by the laxury of s morning's nap, sid not come to the polls mounted high in the heavens.

By 9 A. M., there were only 50 votes polled in the 3rd Ward and 20 in the 4th By 10 o'clock there were 72 votes in the 2nd Ward and 43 in the 1st Ward. A voter in the 3d Ward enquired for greenback ticket," but none such was to be had. Like a little man, he pocketed his inflation ideas and fought mit Dilden und Hendricks.

In the 2nd Ward, a resident with smiling complacency, moved up to vote and was asked his name, which completely floored him. He scratched his mane without effect, but affirmed he had certainly heard it. A neighbor relieved his embar rasment by volunteering the information He had no appearance of carrying more than a legitimate supply of corn juice. He was doubtless overwhelmed by the immense responsibility that rested on his shoulders.

Scalawag! are some of the soft specehoa ded the air yesterday. What a spectacle the seething masses of humanity must have presented in New York. A tremendous battle without a shot fired. Two great wrestlers meeting in mortal combat, whose struggle shake the very earth. We, here, can feel but the outer inflances of the mighty wave which there surges and lops up into a mountain's attitude. But we here are vitally interested in the result, and cold and indifferent as we seem, with many the suspense is great, as if we felt at stake not only the supreme interest of the South and the whole Union, but that also of the Lone Star State. The ides of yesterday will fall, we think, on the hopes of many with a crushing power, while out of their disapointment will be wrung the great joy and gladoess that will brighten the hearts of thousands of patriots whose hope has been anchored upon the rock of Reform.

OUR ANNIVERSARY.

On the 8th of November, 1875, the Ex PRESS was taken charge of by its present management. With more energy probebly, that other gift of nature or fortune, 6 young men assumed the ardums task of establishing a first-class newspaper in San Antonio. The public was unaware of the great difficulties under which this task was assumed. The old Express had descended, by the pursuance of an unwise course of journalism, to the lowest round upon the ladder of distress and desponden cy. Its subscribers had forsaken it; its advertising columns were filled with unprofitable matter; its good name, if such it ever possessed, had faded away. When we assumed control of the paper, it was could possibly be, and still be invested

But, nothing daunted, and believing there was an opening in Sau Antenio, and a field in Western Texas, for a good newspaper, the young men who own and control she Expuses to day, took charge of it to satisfy the need of a good local and we have succeeded so far, despite all opposition, beyond our most wanguine hopes. We have won for the Expanse a good will which we can justly feel proud of. Our subscribers have increased by the score, and our advertising patronage has grown to paying dimensions. We feel that we have done our duty, in that we have received a liberal neward for our

We enter upon our second year to-morrow with the brightest prospects before us, trusting that ere another twelve months has rolled around, to be as firmly and independensty established as any journal in the State. We thank our patrons for their fiberality, and hope to merit its continuance so long as we shall live, Commensurate with our support, will the Commensurate with our support, will the good influence of our journal grow. If the people of San Autonio and Western Texas desire a good newspaper, let them support us, as we flatter ourselves that we can satisfy such a craving.
