THE STATUE OF RELIGIOUS LIB

tion Ground at Philadelphia, took place on Thursday, November 30, the National Thanksgiving day, amidst the work of art, ingenious in design, strik-ingly expressive of the idea it is intend-ed to express, and finished in its execution. It is not only a monument conferring honor upon those who designated it as a gift to a nation, but one covering the artist with glory.

In its entirety the menument expresses Gratitude, Admonition, Recognition and Protest. It consists of three figures of equal significance. In the middle stands the Goddess of Liberty, a figure-eleven feet in height; colossal, grand and imposing, as ought to be the person-ification of Liberty. Attired in simple, classical costume, she bears on her breast a shield with the stars and stripes, on her head the Phrygian can encircled by a band of thirteen golden stars. Her left hand rests upon the fasces, a wreath of laurel and a roll of the Constitution

A correspondent lead him in. of the Times, writing from Alexandria, facetiously remarks: "Fancy mutton fattened on ancient Eypt ians! The other day, at Sakhara, I saw nine camels pacing down from the mummy pits to the bank of the river, laden with nets, in which were femora, tibia and other bony bits of the human form, some two hundred weight in each net on each side of the camel. Among the pits were people busily engaged in searching out, sifting and sorting the bones, which almost crust the ground. On inquiry I learned that cargoes with which the camels were laden would be sent down to Alexandria, and thence be shipped to English manure manufacturers. They make excellent manure, I am told, particular for Swedes and other turning. The trade is brisk, and has been going on for years, and many go on for many more.
