THE KILLING AT AUSTIN.

STHER PARTICULARS OF THE AFFAIR

We met a gentleman from Austin yester Thompson. The affair occurred on Christ. mas night, at the Capital Theatre, a variety show. Ben Thompson had been drinking, and upon entering the theatre took a private box. While the performance was progressing, he pulled a pack of fire crackers from his pocket, commenced lighting them from his eigar and throwingethem on the stage and among the andience. Wilson, who was proprietor of the theatre, insisted that Thempson should stop this conduct, but the latter did not mind what was said to him. Wilson, naturally a hot-headed man, then jumped Thompson to lgive him a thrashing, but not proving equal to the emergency, he drew his pistol, when opportunity offered, and fired at Ben, missing him. By this time Thompson had his pistol out, and, firing, killed Wilson ...

Charley Matthews who was bar-tender at the place, upon hearing the firing, grabbed a deuble-parrel shot gun, and rushed to the support of Wilson. He approached very close to Thompson, when eff.ct, for the muzzle of the gun was the month, mortally wounding him.

Ben Thompson has killed quite a num enmetances as on this occasion—that is in

Had Wilson, the proprietor of the theare, called a policeman to stop any misconduct on the part of Thompson, the serous affair we have recorded would not have occurred.

"What a great matter a little fire kind th." When Thompson, to amuse him self, bought the pack of fire-crackers, he Dr. J. H. McLean, 314 Chestnut, St Louis, had no idea that they would be the cause of a difficulty so serious.

A BAD PRACTICE .- It is bad enough when grown and matured men drink to their intoxication, but when we meet boys, mere youths, beastly intoxicated, the practice strikes us as an innovation demanding correction.
