NEW YORK. A NEWSPAPER OPINION. New York, Jan 8.—The Post's Washington correspondent says, relative to what course the Vice President Ferry will pursue on the second Wednesday of February, in regard to contesting the electoral vote. The following may be regarded as semi-official, although not authorized by Mr. Ferry, or published with his knowledge. If the Senate and House of Representatives agree as to the course to be pursued, Mr. Ferry will not act in accordance with such agreement; but what it may be, if no agreement is reached by the second Wednesday of February, Mr. Ferry will proceed to open and count the votes of all the States excepting those of Oregon, Louisiana, South Carolina and Florida. The question of contesting the votes from the four above named States will be submitted to the two houses. If they agree that the Republican or Democratic certificate from one or all of these States shall be counted or rejected, Mr. Ferry will abide by such agreement, and will, in accordance therewith, in counting or rejecting certificates. It, by the 11th of March, this concurrent action of the Senate and House will be taken in regard to the four States. Mr. Ferry will proceed to count the votes of all States, and to declare the result.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan 8.—There was little excitement in the vicinity of the State Capitol today, and the inauguration of Governor Packard, a heavy force of police was on duty, and only admitted those with passes. Not over 500 persons were in the street at 10 o'clock. Gov. Packard entered the House of Representatives which was festooned with flags. Many ladies were in attendance and a band was playing "Hail to the Chief" in honor of the new Governor. Gov. Packard, introducing Packard, said: "Circumstances recall in many respects the condition of affairs prevailing four years ago, and it is a matter of regret to the chief executive. Then, as now, a claimant to the same position went through the form of inauguration at the same time, and the same day, and now, a minority of the members legally declared elected, the general assembly organized into the semblance of a Legislature. Then, as now, it was declared to be a government which represented the will of the majority and would never be recognized by the minority. Then, as now, the business community were dragged by tyrannical hands into a pronouncement of a new government."
