THERE is one phase of George Eliot's philosophy of especial value in every day right, whether we feel fife it or not. In-stead of simply doing what we are impalled to do, she says :

Our deeds determine us as much as we determine our deeds, and wall we know what has been the peculiar combination of ontward with inward facts which constitute a man's critical actions, it will be better not to think ourselves wise about

There is a world of life philosophy here. Compel yourself to obey reason and conscience, and inclination will learn to adjust itself, for, truly, "Our deeds determine us much as we, determine our deeds" there is much about it that presents food for close thought. We in the South are naturally projudiced to some extent, since scenes revolting to liberty eminate from this cause at our every election. It will be a hard matter to take a step bankward, since the hot opposition of the great mass ce of ignorance will at once be encountered. It may be remarked that moderate qualifications respecting aducation and the payment of a poll tax, would in no way be a blow struck at any color or class. It would stimulate a higher ambition in those now unable to appreciate the value of auftage with a right estimate. It would redound to the benefit of the country.

[From the New York Sun. New Haven, February 5 .- Mr Charles E. Furbish's dramatic company, the "Fifth Avenue Combina tion," has for several years traveled in New Eugland, giving representations of Mr. Augustin Daly's plays. The "leading lady" of the organization has been Furbish's wife, known as Georgian Laugley. She is beautiful, about there years old, and an excellent across. She made a marked success in the dra ma "Divorce" and now she has ob. tained a real divorce trom ber hus-Last Sammer Mr. and Mrs. Fur-bish stayed in this city for rest, occupying a fine cottage, driving fine horses and amusing themselves in good society. Here they made the acquaintence of Mr. Don Thompson, a wealthy widower, and his daught. Lizzie, a pretty young brunette.

these four were much together in pages and 330 fine engravings. These four were much together in quest of recreation, and it soon was noticed that in their rides Mr. Thompson and Mrs. Furbish occupied one wagon and Mr. Furbish and Miss Thompson the ether. This arrangement was not satisfactory to Miss Thompson, because she discern d that her father was tall ing in love with the fascinating act ress. She called Mr. Furbish's at tention to the subject, but he took no active measures to stop the course of events. Early in the fall he organized his company for the dramatic season, but his wife refused to travel any more She said she intended to retire from the stage, and he interpreted that to mean that she intended to get a paid, 25 cents, 5 packages, with mean that she intended to get a solid food ratest Lees Watch for SRIDE & CO., 760 Br divorce from him and marry Mr. Thompson He went off on his tour, and a short time ago received a notice that she had begun a suit to get rid of him. Her accusation was drunkenness, and he wrote to her that he should make no opposition, and he was satisfied that she loved another. Later he sent her the message. "I hope you are as happy as I am unbappy." His mother sought to contest the suit, but the Court ruled that she could not do so except with his consent, which she could not contain. The divorce is now grant-

Mr. Thompson continues his attention to Miss Langley (late Mrs Furbish) and they are understood to be matrimonially engagad. Miss Thompson is greatly incensed, and At the Central Hotel. Always ready to when somebody suggested that she carry passengers to Bleasanton Mariant balance the account by mar any other point, at reasonable rates. might balance the account by mar rying Mr. Furbish, she replied. A SERVANT GIRL IN BIG LUCK.

From the Omaha Bee ] German girl named Minns Weiss, employed in the tamily of Mr. Howard Kennedy, of the Union Pacific Land Department, has received information to the effect that she is the probable heir to an estate valued at $240,000 in Germany. She got a letter last Sunday from Rev. Mr. Dickman, formerly of Wholesale and Betsil dealer in this city, but now living in Iowa, stating that he had received a letter from Germany containing a statement of facts which corresponded with her history throughout, and which led him to believe that she is the person whom the estate now belongs. We understand that steps will be immediately taken to investigate the matter.

PROF. RICHARD A. PROCTER is inclined to believe the tale which modern mariners are telling about the monster sea serpent, which coils about sperm whales in midocean. He reminds the public that monstrous cuttle fish were thought to be mostrous lies, till the Alecton, in 1861, came upon one and cap-tured its tail, whose weight of forty pounds, led naturalists to estimate the entire weight of the creature at I have just received a large, new stock, 4000 pounds, or nearly a couple of tons. In 1873, again, two fishemen encountered a gigantic cuttle in Conception Bay Newfoundland, whose arms were about thirty-five feet in length, (the fishermen cut off from one arm a piece twenty five feet long,) while its body was esti-mated at sixty feet in length and five feet in diameter-so that the devil fish of Victor Hugo's famous story was a mere baby entile by comparison with the Newfoundland monsfer.

Never quarrel with your wife, Here is a case full of warning. In 1859, at Hickeville, R. I., a bera was incendiarily burned; and now, after sixteen years, a wife has a quarrel with her husband, and revenges herself by revealing what she avers to be a truth, that her liege lord (but probably not master) set the barn on fire. A married man never knows when he is sa
