London, June 4.—It is stated that the Russians lest 20,000 in the recent attack on Kars. A correspondence of the daily Telegraph gives the following, dated Exzeraum June 2d. I have to record the most terrible event of the present war Two nights ago 4,000 Circassian cavalry commanded by Moussa Pacha, were ordered to preceed towards Kars, entirely unsapported by infantry or artillery. They rested for the night at Bethel.—Armod Russians secretly organized a powerful force, and during the night surrounded and surprised the village, in which the Circassians were, and only about five percent, of the entire force of 4,000 Circassians escaped the carnage which followed. Moussa Pasha himself is ameng the missing The Circassians fought desperately and no quarter was given.

London, June 4.—The Times says the report that Russiau Monitors had succeeded in forcing the Sulina month of the therefore be some inacouracy. It seems too much to suppose the Turks left the

with the Kelia branch, the sea along the coast there being very shallow. Some of the flat bottomed Russian monitors which are supposed to be in readiness at Nikolaff may have made their way down and succeeded in passing over the bar.

London, June 4.—The Daily Telegram's Bucharest special says:—Information received by this government leads to the belief that Osman Pasha intends attacking Kalafat in force.

London, June 4.—The Daily Newa has a Bucharest dispatch saying the Danube is still impassable. Rarely has the water risen so high at this season, and this merely with rains. The water from the Baviceria and the Caparthian mountains has still to come, and experts estimate that it will scarcely be pessible to cross for four weeks. The Daily Telegraph's story of the destruction of Moussa Pasha's Circassians is a gross exaggeration. Russian official accounts say the Circassians were dispersed, losing 83 killed.

The following dispatch has been received at the Admiralty from the commanders mehief of the Pacific station:—Squique, June 1.—The Peruvian rebel turret ship Hasslor committed piratical acts against Bittish subjects. Her Majesty's ships, Shah and Amethyst. engaged here off the coast on the 29th of May. She returned after dark, but was so badly damnged as to surrender to the Peruvian squadron. There were no British casualties.

Paris, June 4.—There is excitement here in consequence of the arrest of M. Duvordier, president of the Municipal Council. It is quite legal, but most unusual, to arrest people for effences by writing or speech. Offenders in this way are generally left at liberty till trial, even without bail. In this case, bail was refused. M. Duvordier denies the charges against him, and the impression produced is bad, as the prisoner is popular with the lower classes. He is a man of education and independent means. He is charged with insulting MacMahom and inciting civil war and assassination.

Pitkin, however, refuses to resign, and says if his office is wanted for somebody else, the president must remove him. It is held that the Custom house investiga-tions and the directions by the executive to the Collector, suggested by the com-missioners, who have no legal existence, is more or less an impertinent interference with the legal rights and duties of the collectors. Washington, June 4.—Joseph Franks, deputy U.S. Marshal from Macon county, N.C., who was arrested in this city Sunday night on a charge of defrauding the U.S. government, had a hearing to-day and was committed to jail in default of $10,000 bail. He says he wishes his trial in Washington, as he was arrested on charges made by Marshal R. M. Douglas, because he would not comply with his demand in making talse vouchers. Marshal Douglas, Mc. Franks asserts, was to have one-fourth of all amounts raised in that way. Douglas is the son-in law of the U.S. District Judgo Dick, before whom he would have to be tried. Washington, June 4.—Dispatches from all quarters report devotional exercises in the celebration of Corpus Christi and the Pope's golden anniversary. At St. Louis seventy and eighty societies, gaily dressed in handsome unitorms and regalia, with forty bands, were in the line of procession. At frequent intervals in the columns were large, finely embellished wagons, filled with elegantly dressed little girls and boys; also numerous carriages filled with pelests and officials of various grades. It is estimated that 20,000 persons were in the line, including the children. The streets along the line of march were densely thronged with spectators, and many houses were handsomely decorated with American flags, the Pope's colors, portraits of the Pope, and floral designs.
