Des Moines Iowa, June 27.—Gov. Packs and, last night, in response to a screnade, spoke as follows:

Kind-friends, I am gratified at this exhibition of confidence and friendship to me I represented the case which you hold dear as Republicans and as American citizens, discharging as well as I could the simple duty that fell upon me as Governor of the State of Louisians, trying to assert my authority and failing. I did not fail because the principles have failed, but I believe that the principles of the Republican party will yet save Louisians to the Republican party will yet save Louisians to the Republican party will yet save Louisians to the Republican party. [Loud cheers and applause] Since I have arrived in your beam tidel city, and even before I got here, is saw the evidence of loyality which abound in this freat State to the Republican party. I see all around me thrift. I see all around me intelligence. I found kind friends who had a word of occorregement to say; a word of comfort and cheer to give, and a word for me to take back as I return to my Southern home in a few weeks to cheer my companions. Many of you have met in this city as delegates to a convention which is about to make nominations for State officers. The men that attend, as usonl, are men of more political experience and intelligence than myself, and for this nothing need be said, but I wish to say that I am none the less a believer in Republicanism than I was when, I was claiming the office of Governor of Louisiana, and I am glad to see in Iowa evidence that an election which is to come this fall will be one in which the old time majority will be repeated. Rustschuk, Monday — June 27.—The population is flying into the neighboring villages. Twelve shells have fallen upon the military hospitals, five upon the civil hospital, and two upon the orphan asylum. The Turks in return have partly destroyed Giurgevo. Two complete army corps, the eleventh and 14th, are already in Dobrudscho. At Rustschuk the Consultates of France, Italy, Greece, Germany and Belguim, have been injured by the Russian fite.

Bucharest, June 27.—A dispatch to the Times says the Roumanian Cabinet is all in favor of the Roumanian arety crossing the Danube, with the exception of M. Cogolineceans, Minister of Foreign Affairs, who strenuously opposes such a step.

London, Jule 27.—The latest advices report that the Russian Centre has been reinforced by the Twentieth Division from Kars. Eighteen thousand men detached from the Centre have advanced to Sarakamysh. The Turkish Centre is also reinforced by a division of eighteen battalions, and has advanced two miles in front of Zewin, where the Ottoman headquarters still remain. The Turkish Right is still reported to be pursuing the Russian Left. Intelligence received at Erzeroum states that the Russian bombardment of Kars is stackening.

Wheat and oats and other small grain have turned out as a fine a yield per acre as ever besfore; but owing to the recent heavy rains, great quantities of small grain have been destrayed. Farmers living on Cotton Wood Bank have been very seriously damaged. One gentleman had about thirty acres of wheat entirely swept away. Several others were injured to a considerable extent. The grain in shock has been greatly injured, though not entirely rained, as it can probably be put to some use. This is itdeed a disaster to Hays county, as many farmers planted small grains in preference to corn and cotton. Our town continues to improve. The vote on the corporation question will be submitted to the people on Saturday, pext.
