WHO IS THIS "CUR" HITLER?

The other day a friend asked, "Uncle Bill, who is Cur Hitler of whom the papers are having so much to say?"

Well, sir I am not personally acquainted with the Cur, but I read in the papers that he is a native of Austria.

As a boy, he was the pest of the neighborhood. When he went to school he joined a Red society which is popular with some of our American schools and colleges. In this society, each member pledges himself to raise all the unshirred sheol he can in the country and community in which he resides. The Cur, which in German is Fuher or something like that, raised so much cain in the community in which he lived, that the cops put him in jail and kept him there for quite awhile.

After the Cur was let out of jail he went to Germany and joined the Nazis, who at that time were raising cain with the respectable element of Germany.

The Nazis at that time needed a leader. To be a leader of the Nazis, one had to be a convict who had served at least one term in prison. He must also be a wall-eyed, nutty fanatic with a propensity to kill and rob. Hitler filled these requirements perfectly, even if he were an Austrian. Fact is the Austrians had no use for him.

By trade, the Cur was a paper-hanger. As soon as the Cur got out of jail and was elected chief cook and bottlewasher of the Nazis, he went to hanging Jews instead of paper. The Cur needed money and lots of it. The Jews had the money and when they got hung, and having no futher use for it, the Cur took it, bought guns and hired men to use them in taking real estate. His native Austria was held up and taken over.

The reason they call Hitler the "Cur", is because his grandmother was never certain which one of her many admirers was his grandpa. A mongrel is a Cur.

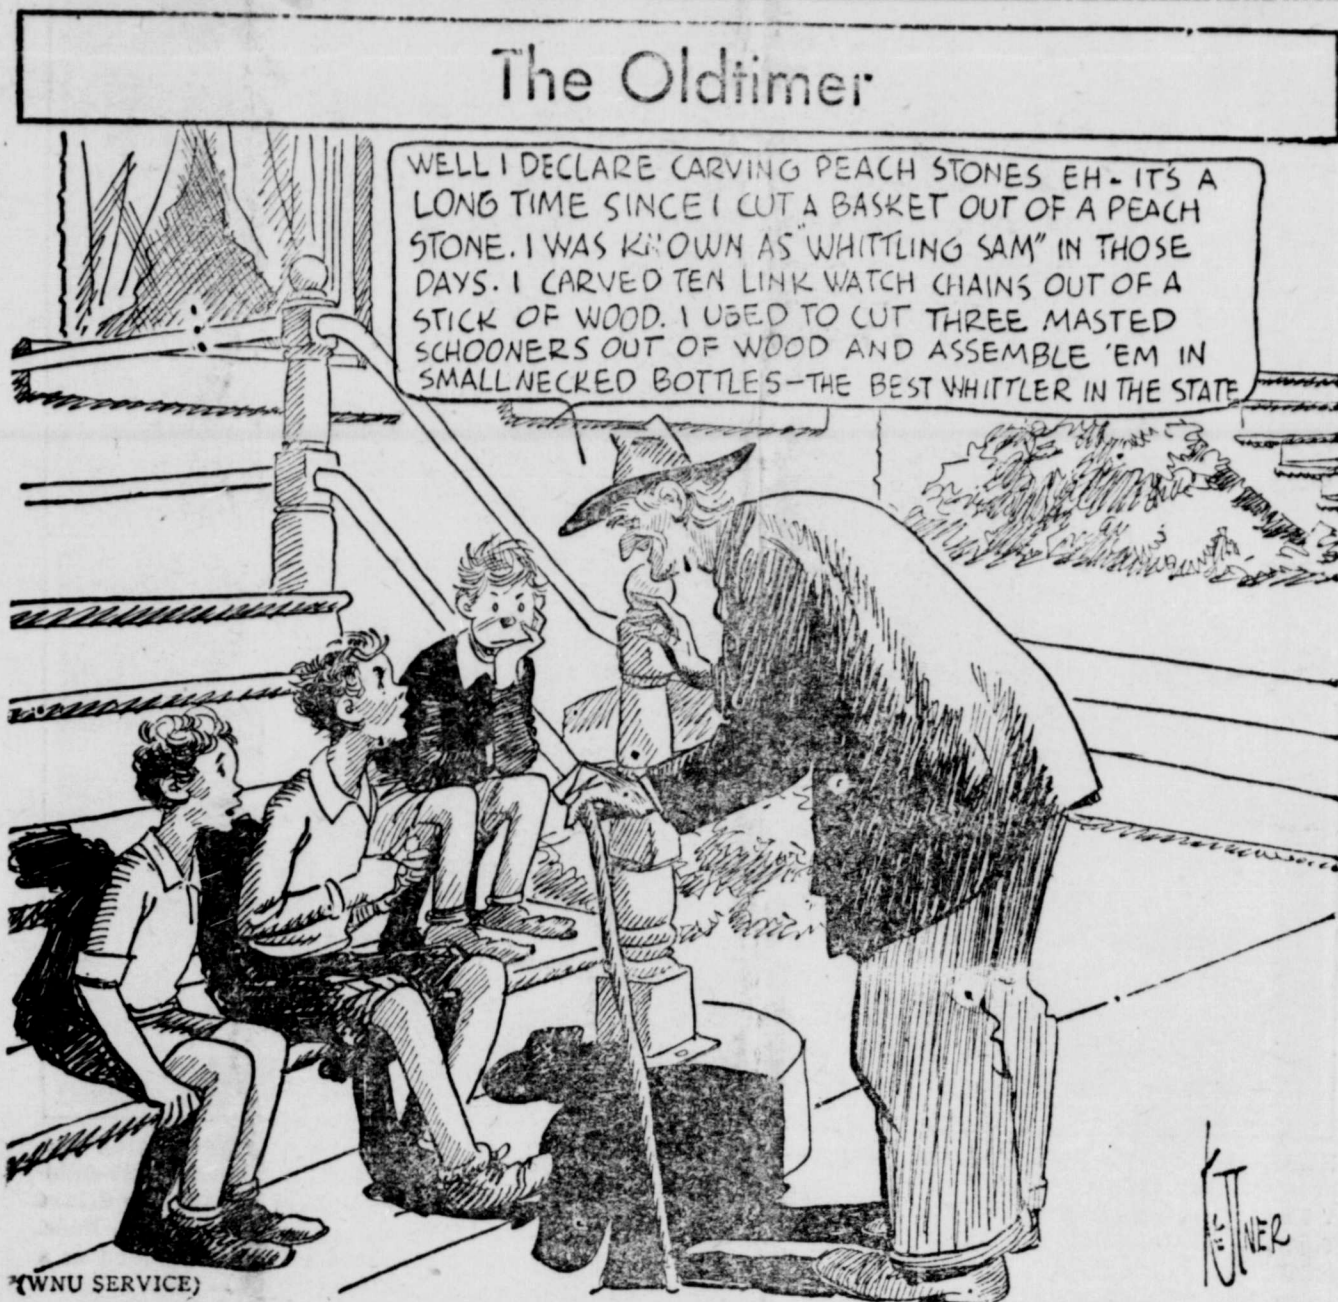

Ripansnort, a big shot, is a sidekick of Cur Hitler's in the real estate business. Ripansnort helps the Cur in his many land deals.

Also, Stalling, (Stalin) the big Soviet rod has recently joined the Hitler, Ripansnort Stelling & Co. Having no money with which to buy land, but having plenty of guns ammunition and soldiers, this firm is doing a big business in Poland. They first kill off the Poles, and seeing the deceased Poles have no futher use for their lands and goods, the coporation takes it over and will sell it a big profit.

After they get the ground cleaned of dead Poles and deceased Nazis and other dead animals. The Cur and Stalling will proceed to divide it among themselves. The only trouble is the Cur and Stalling may fall out over the division. Stalling did not get in on the deal in time to kill his share of the Poles.

The Cur is of the opinion that those had no business to be Poles and have lands. They had no business to be weak and have something the Nazis wanted.— Uncle Bill!

H. L. Hildebrand, official weigher at the Sterling stockyards, has been kept busy on the job day and night most of the time since early in September. Two special trains were run last week besides the regular service, because of the heavy fall deliveries.

Mrs. G. C. Flint Died Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Emily Flint, 52, wife of G. C. Flint, who died in San Angelo last Saturday, were held Sunday at 3 p. m. at Johnson's Chapel. The Rev. B. B. Hestir and the Rev. N. E. McGuire officiated. Burial was in Fairmount Cemetery.

Mrs. Flint had been a resident of San Angelo about nine years. She was born in Ireland, and came to the United States 34 years ago.

Survivors are her husband; three daughters, Mrs. N. A. Petty, Hazel Flint, and Joy Flint, all of San Angelo, a sister, Sara Wilson of Ireland; four brothers, Robert, George, and Newbury Wilson, all of Ireland, and Edward Wilson of Chicago.

Pallbearers were Jack Mims and Julius Bade of Sterling City, George Demere and Robert Mims of Water Valley, and W. T. Harris and Kent Mitchell of San Angelo.

Pair Wanted at Austin Are Arrested Here

Sunday night of last week, a couple drove to the Magnolia Filling station and tried to trade Mr. Martin a watch for gasoline.

While the dickering was in progress, Sheriff Vern Davis came up and broke into deal by asking the man some questions about the car he was driving. He said they were taking a car to a man who lives in Austin.

The car suited the description of one alleged to have been stolen in Austin, Mr. Davis arrested the man and started off to jail. The girl, who was about 17, insisted that she be locked up along with her male companion. Her request was granted and they were both locked up.

Sheriff Davis notified authorities at Austin, and on Tuesday they came up and carried the pair back to Austin on a charge of car theft. Mr. Davis said the girl appeared to be tough. She called him names with chicken adjectives and didn't seem to be overcome with modesty.

Notwithstanding her uncouth appellations and comparisons to chicken roost bi-product, our sher-

Mrs. Hal Knight Is Hostess to Her Club

Mrs. Hal Knight was hostess to her bridge club and a number of guests recently in her home. High score awards went to Mesdames V. E. Davis and Sterling Foster for club and guest.

Concho Valley Baptist Missionary Union Met Here Last Monday

Officers were re-elected, Mrs. L. V. Hanna of Nazareth told of her work and conditions in the Holy Land and Mrs. Charles Sivells of Brownwood, district president, told of the organization and work of the missionary society when the Concho Valley Baptist Women's Missionary Union met Monday in Sterling City.

Mrs. E. E. Bradford of the Park Heights Church San Angelo was re-elected president; Mrs. Vester T. Hughs of Mertzon, recording secretary; and Mrs. L. W. Woods of the First Church San Angelo, corresponding secretary-treasurer.

At the morning session, standing committee chairmen and Mrs. Woods made reports and Mrs. Hanna made her talk. Luncheon was served to 112 by the Sterling City society. Devotionals were by Mrs. A. D. Foreman, Jr. and Mrs. G. E. Brake of San Angelo.

Vice presidents, who were from San Angelo, made reports in the afternoon before the address by Mrs. Sivells. The business meeting followed with Mesdames Foreman reporting for the nominating committee, W. M. Riley of the Park Heights Church for registration and L. W. Walker of the First Church for courtsey.

Forty-three women from San Angelo attended. Others present were Mrs. George Collins of Water Valley; twelve from Eldorado; five from Carlsbad; five from Mertzon; six from Big Lake; three from Sonora; J. T. Burns of Sherwood; three from Christoval and thirty-six from the Sterling City Church.

John J. Bugg Here

John J. Bugg of Florence, Arizona county school superintendent of Pinal County, Arizona was here last week end visiting relatives and attending to business. John is an old time Sterling boy, and his many friends here rejoice that he is making good in his adopted state. He was accompanied by his nephew, Joe Edwards Davis of Big Spring.

MY VACATION

Every body in this shop has enjoyed a vacation during the summer except me. Ed Douthitt had a lot of land to be surveyed in the northwest part of this county. In fact, the land lay partly in Sterling, Mitchell and Howard counties.

So Tuesday of last week, with the jitney loaded with grub, equipment, bedding, Jim, Bob, Leon and me, we turned the shop over to Pat, Marie, Vinnie Fred and Ray, the devil, to run, and rolled out for the long wished for vacation, because I needed a little rest.

Arriving at the ranch, we found Ed Douthitt a very busy man. He would go with us and show us where to begin the survey, but he had sold a large flock of lambs and was busy rounding them up and loading them for shipment, so, he could't go. Our working sketch enabled us to find the beginning point and without much trouble, we found it and began compassing and chaining the lines. In places we had to cut through mesquite that were so thick that you couldn't see far enough to cuss a cat.

At noon we cooked dinner at a tank under the shade of a big willow. One of the boys reported the water in the tank was so thick, "you could't stir it with a stick." Necessity forced us to take it, and contrary to the report, while it was a little red, we found it to be cool and palatable. It was better than well water, altho, sheep, antelope, a few cows and some horses drank out of it. Also, big flocks of wild ducks and quails came to this tank, the ducks to swim and forage, and the quail to slake their thirst.

The afternoons work was without event, except that Leon and I got balled up with the jitney in a mesquite flat cut up by deep gullies and we had to signal Bob and Jim to come and help us out. They reported that Bob had fallen into a deep grass covered gully and as a result Jim developed a severe leg pain when we got back and struck camp at the tank and willow on the grass just below the tank dam.

Somehow, our vacation gave us the urge to eat more at supper than usual. We soon had the dishes washed and our beds made on the grass. It was a beautiful night, cool and nice. After resting on our pallets and telling yawns, a snore from some one reminded us that Morpheus was laying claim to the members of that tired crew.

About the time we got set for the shuteye season, a cloud rose up out of the northwest, two flashes lit up the sky followed by a deep roll of thunder. Bob said: "did you hear that?" But were all so tired that a cloud with lightning and thunder didn't interest us much. Soon an owl in a tree hooted to his mate and was answered away down on Bull Creek. After an hour or so, a flock of wild ducks alighted on the water and set up such a quacking that even a doctor couldn't sleep. After awhile they quieted down and again we were asleep, I was awakened by some racoons having an argument just over the dam. What they were fussing about, we could only guess at the bone of their contention.

After a hearty breakfast next morning we went to work and finished the job that day and went home.

In that pasture is a nice flock of antelope which seem to realize that they roamed in a state game reserve. There were great flocks of wild ducks on the tanks and nu-

HE'D GIVE A HORSE

Governor Lee O would give a horse if he had not promised to give everybody over 65 years old a pension of $30 a month without raising taxes.

Instead of the old folks getting $30 a month as promised, their pay checks are for less money than in the history of pensions.

A mighty cry is going up, but the governor can do little about it. All he can do is to cuss the legislature for not raising taxes with which to pay pensions.

But he said he could and would pay the pensions without raising taxes. Everybody is wondering why he doesn't get busy and do it.

But I have no brief against the governor about this matter. He just told the folks that he would give the long green in great gobs to all over 65 just to get elected. He knew he couldn't do it. He thought that everybody knew enough that couldn't do it. So what is the use to worry about it? The governor is not to be blamed for something that can't be done—even if he did say he could do it. The people should kick themselves, and not the governor about it. He promised that to get elected.—Uncle Bill

HERBERT MILLS TO EL PASO

Herbert Mills left last week for El Paso to assume the duties of assistant county agent of El Paso County. Herbert is a Sterling boy who has made good in all his undertakings. He graduated from Sterling High School. Then he studied at the A & M and earned his sheepskin at that institution, and after helping his dad at the ranch awhile, he steps into a good paying job as assistant county agent of one of the counties where they employ only the best men that money will hire.

Lots of work in Herbert's new job, but that boy likes hard work. His hard work at the ranch and in school are the things that lead to the road of success.

Herbert has set a pace for all Sterling boys to follow, and they are following at his heels and one day you will read about them.

merous coveys of quail that didn't seem to mind our presence. They seemed to know that they were protected, because the crack of a hunter's gun would soon bring a man to administer on his estate. I had as soon to be caught stealing sheep as to be caught stealing game in that pasture.—Uncle Bill

The heavy wind that prevailed Wednesday of last week blew off a lot of unmatured pecans from trees in this locality. Many of these pecans can be salvaged by exposing them to the sun for several days when their hulls will crack open.

Two Ford V-8 Cars for 1940 Presented

HERE are the two Ford V-8 cars presented for 1940. One is a Ford V-8 and the other a deluxe Ford V-8. Top, the deluxe Ford V-8 Fordor sedan; below, the Ford V-8 Tudor sedan. Both are big cars with graceful lines. Emphasis in interior styling is on fine appointments. Among numerous important features are a finger-tip gearshift on the steering column, a new controlled ventilation system and Sealed-Beam headlamps for safer night driving. Two V-8 engines are available, at 85 horsepower in the deluxe, the 85 horsepower or a 60 horsepower engine in the Ford V-8 models. Cars with 85 horsepower engine have improved spring suspension and a torsion bar ride-stabilizer. Four Ford V-8 and five deluxe body types comprise the two lines. A new business coupe as well as a coupe, Tudor sedan and Fordor sedan are available in both. There is also a deluxe convertible club coupe with automatic top standard equipment.

THE SPANISH CAVALIER

A Spanish cavalier stood in his retreat,
And on his guitar played a tune dear.

The music, so sweet, would oftimes repeat,
The blessing of my country and you dear.

Say darling, say when I'm far away
Sometimes you will think of me dear.

Bright sunny days will soon fade away;
Remember what I say and be true dear.

Chorus

Say, darling, say, when I'm far away,
Sometimes you will think of me dear.

Bright sunny days will soon fade away,
Remember what I say and be true dear.

Off to the war, to the war I must go,
And fight for my country and you, dear;

And if I should fall, in vain would I call
The blessings of my country and you dear;

When the war is o'er to you I will return,
Back to my country and you dear;

And if I be slain, you will seek me in vain,
On the battlefield you will find me, dear.

Future Homemakers Club Meets

Friday, October 13, was selected as the date for initiation of the freshman home economics students at a meeting held Tuesday morning in the laboratory.

An initiation committee consisting of Marie Rhoden, Charlene Chesney, Jamie Sue McEntire, Mitzi Broome and Beatrice Smith was appointed by President Louise Littlefield. Since the second year girls were not initiated last year, they will also be initiated formally this year by the third year girls. Then both classes will complete initiation of the freshmen in the home of Lena Findt, a second year student.

New business considered this meeting was the election of Peggy Edwards to fill the place of Mary Lou Foster as vice president, and the appointment of various club committees by the club officers. These committees are as follows: yearbook committee, Peggy Edwards; Sammie Lee Caneff, Marylene Story, Nubye Casey, Louise Littlefield; program committee, Mitzi Broome, Carmen Brooks, Marie Rhoden, Louise Littlefield, Lorine Mille; scrapbook committee, Mozelle Mills, Maudine Hallmark, Nanie Mae Emery, Mary Jo Wallace; social committee, Sue McEntire, Freda Mae Hodges, Arlene Aberdathy, Charlene Chesney and Beatrice Smith; finance committee, Lena Findt, Marylene Story, Mozelle Mille, Willene Smith and Nan Findt.

They voted to affiliate our club with the state in order to send a delegate to the rally in the spring.

The club also voted to use part of the money made selling drinks at the Water Valley game to affiliate with the state organization.

WE WONDER

What Junior boy and Freshman girl were seen going toward Tater Hill Sunday night.

Why Benny and Dale blushed when they read the scandal column.

What was wrong with Dale Friday night at the show.

Why Fred couldn't find Charlene at B. Y. P. U.

Why Jr. Hallmark is a woman hater.

If Prof. Carter knows how to drive a pick up.

Why Misses Roach, Ball and Ferrell went to see "The Old Maid"

Why Dale wanted Mr. Hall to get a Lincoln Zephyr instead of a Chevrolet.

The freshmen have a new pupil Bill Hornbuckle. Bill comes to us from Vernal Utah. He is staying with his grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John Hornbuckle. We are very glad to have him.

Colbert Littlefield and Lucille Hodges spent the week-end here visiting friends and relatives. They are attending John Tarleton.

Mr. Jones absent mindedly; I started to take a cold shower last night but there wasn't any hot water.

F. F. A. News

To those who would like to know who is in the F. F. A. works. Here is a report of the boys who are feeding lambs. C. J. Copeland, Eugene Blackburn, William Burne, Claude Broome, Billy Nelson McClellan, Fred Currie, Jr. Thiers, Louis Blaneck Joe Allen Mathis, Richard Abernathy, Winston Churchill, Jim Bob Clerk, Sterling McCarty, Ira Lee Langford, Tom D. Davis, Joe Conger, Ewing McEntire, Scooter Carr, Johnny Dawson Weldon Phillips, Dan Dearen, Durwood Chapman L. B. Hallmark, Billy Chesney, Tom my Augustine, and Sam Augustine.

The ranchers whose flocks these lambs came from are: Roy Foster, Broome Estate, John Copeland, P. H. and W. M. Jackson, Lester Foster, Harry Tweedie, Mrs. Tillie Findt, Mrs. Nelson McClellan, Martin Brown, J. T. Davis, Bade Bros.

GIVE YOURSELF A MANICURE

A new and convenient aid to the home manicure is a jar of polish removal pads, replacing the old method of using absorbent cotton dipped in liquid remover. First step in the process of manicuring is illustrated by Virginia Grey.

Mims Bros. Spade Ranch, Foste Sims Price, Fowler McEntire, George Case, H. W. Hart, Fred Council J. C. and N. H. Reed W. D. Augustine and Dee Davis.

George Mills is feeding registered sheep from Mills Bros.

Ross Foster, Loyd Sharp, Fred Mitchell are feeding calves. These calves are from Templeton and Rufus Foster. Chet Reynolds, and W. N. and L. R. Reeds.

We are now all learning our parts in how to carry on a meeting and the rules. Mr. Carter is a very good actor he shows us how each person should act. We have many good laughs but we are getting along fine.

Due to the foot ball games we had to put off initiations of the Green Hands. We are going to try to have this the first of next week.
