

ARMISTICE DAY

Tomorrow is Armistice Day. It is the day of all days and rightly so with all true, free Americans. It was in the eleventh month, eleventh day, and at the eleventh hour in the year of 1918 that the guns in France had hushed their thunder, the drums had ceased to beat their march of death and the thralldom which bound all humanity came to an end.

It was one day throughout all the civilized world in which there was universal rejoicing in every human heart. On that day the angel of peace began to wreath a chain around us once again. The American doughboys who had fought so long and gallantly for a righteous cause, were soon to return to their loved ones at home and once more to pick up the tangle thread of life and enjoy the blessings of peaceful callings.

Tomorrow, every patriotic American should bow his head in reverential gratitude to Almighty God for the safe return of those beloved heroes who so gallantly answered their country's call in its hour of danger, and for the peace that has endured these twenty years.

Yes, I know that there are those who say that the boys who went over there were dupes and that their efforts were in vain. That there was no call to fight. That our country was not menaced by a foreign foe.

To that kind of cattle, I want to say they are liars and yellowbellied poltroons. They are the jackasses who bear propaganda for the breaker of the peace of the world.

At that time the Americans were sore to the bone, because of the insults that had been heaped upon us for years, because Germany had disregarded solemn treaties with us, because she destroyed our commerce and murdered our women and babies on the high seas. At that time we were sore and wrought up and all hell could not have kept those boys out of the war.

You fellows who would dishonor your country and insult the boys who kept us from speaking German and saved us from goosestepping, can go to the place of which the ministers so often speak and where ice water is at a premium.—Uncle Bill

Greatest Number of Crashes Occur on The Straight Highways

Surgical skill has cheated the Texas traffic death book out of a number of victims. State Police asserted today as they counted the toll for the first nine months of 1939.

The scores: 1,098 beyond medical aid; 9,898 injured, many so critically they were saved only through quickly administered treatment by surgeons.

September claimed 128 lives while 1,233 were hospitalized. Thirty-one of the dead were pedestrians, eleven of who were crossing streets at locations other than intersections when struck down, the State Police summary stated.

Daily from 5 P. M. to 6 P. M., the peak accident hours in September, ambulances made emergency runs to a total of 441 crashes in which 37 people were taken to mortuaries instead of hospitals—all of these crashes, State Police director Homer Garrison Jr., pointed out, were due

A Roundup Of Antelope

Few places in the world has there been such a unique roundup as has been going on at the Brennan ranch six miles northwest of Sterling City this week.

The animals rounded up were not cattle, horses, sheep or goats but wild antelope, which have increased on the range so that they must be moved to other ranges in order that they may be preserved.

Dr. Lee W. Fisher, regional game manager, Phil Goodrum, director of game restoration, Ray Osborne, director of research and education for Texas Game Commission and E. P. Haddon official photographers for movies, are here directing and officiating at the roundup.

Local cowboys are driving the antelope into large rope net traps where they are roped, put into trucks and hauled to other ranges. Up to Tuesday 38 of these animals had been taken and hauled away.

Last year 33 of these animals were captured placed on different ranges where they have thrived and increased in a most satisfactory degree.

to carelessness on the part of average motorists.

The 1,486 collisions that month involved 2,563 vehicles and drivers and resulted in an economic loss of $3,150,000, the statisticians computed, in addition to the loss of life and the large injury toll. Glaring headlights accounted for two of the dead while 24 were killed in non collision accidents, usually caused from driving too fast for conditions.

Puzzling to traffic analysts were the 1,131 crashes which occurred on straight, level roads, 205 of which involved illegal passing. In 1,190 of the 1,486 collisions there were no defects in road construction that might have added to drinking hazards. Only 183 of the 2,563 drivers were reported to have been drinking.

Santa Fe Officials Here

A. B. Clements, Superintendent of the Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Company, and C. H. Hull Division Freight Agent were here on an inspection tour last Tuesday.

These officials were much pleased with the record of tonnage of livestock shipped out of Sterling City during the present season.

They noted the condition of the shipping pens and equipment at Sterling City and are now considering and planning to build new pens and bring the equipment up to date. Mr. Clements says Sterling City is very popular with the company, because its people has always been loyal and friendly to the road.

Colds Often Develop Into Pneumonia

Potential victims of pneumonia and families concerned, hold one of the keys to reduction of the death rate from this disease, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. It is estimated that each year 25,000 Texans suffer an attack of pneumonia.

As a means of prevention, people should guard against the common cold, neglect of which often leads to pneumonia as a complication.

Persons who develop pneumonia will have the best chance for recovery by knowing the symptoms of the disease and placing themselves under treatment promptly after onset of illness. Typical beginning symptoms include a severe chill and fever, stabbing pain in the chest, cough with rust-colored or blood tinged sputum, nausea and vomiting, loss of appetite.

Sudden onset of symptoms as described should cause the patient and members of the family to suspect the possibility of pneumonia. Rusty sputum usually a sign of inflammation in the lungs, naturally gives rise to the question as to the cause of sickness. Examination of the sputum in a hospital or public health laboratory which serves as pneumonia typing center, frequently shows the presence and type of the pneumonia germ, and makes clear the exact nature of illness.

Science has found effective means of combating pneumonias through the use of proper serum and medicine. To be most effective, these treatments must be given early and after the exact cause of the inflammation has been determined.

During 1938 pneumonia deaths numbering 4,129 were recorded in Texas and it is necessary for all people to arm themselves with knowledge and to cooperate in measures to decrease the pneumonia death toll.

NAZI ETHICS

The Nazi code of ethics is quite different now from that of the American West. In frontier days, if a man ambushed another man and shot him in the back, we hanged him for it.

Over in Germany, if a man, or group of men ambush an enemy and shoot him in the back, they decorate the shooters with iron crosses and hail them as "bully boys mit glass eyes."

A short while ago, the British battleship, Royal Oak, with more than a thousand people aboard never dreamed that a German submarine was lurking beneath the surface of the sea, watching for a chance to deliver a death blow to their unsuspecting victims.

At last, these assassins got the chance, and while they were hidden safe from the sailors, unleashed a deadly torpedo and sent the Royal Oak with 800 human lives to the bottom of the ocean.

These assassins of the seas backed away where all was safe and watched their wretched victims die without an offer of help. When their hideous work was finished, these (?) murderers rushed back home to tell their murderous work and receive the plaudits of all Nazi Germany. Reports say that all Berlin rang with praise of these bloody killers.

For days, these men whose hands were red with innocent human blood, strutted about wearing medals and boasting of creeping upon an enemy and shooting him in the back without giving him a chance to fight for his life.

Yes, I know that it is war and all that. Sherman truthfully remarked: "War is hell", but giving hell, the devils and the devil's angels their just dues, I can't see the point in crowning a bunch of cold blooded killers who took no chances in doing a cowardly and inhumane murder, as heroes. Had they stood up like men and fought their enemy to the last cartridge, there might be excuse for their decoration as heroes.

But these killers might be called Hitler heroes and not heroes after the old chivalrous code. To be plain, Shooters-in-the-back, dry gulcher heroes.—Uncle Bill

IF HITLER SHOULD DIE

If Hitler were to die tonight,
He'd cease his troubling here.
If Hitler were to die tonight,
Only a few would shed a tear.

If only Hitler could die tonight,
And leave this war torn sphere.
There would be joy in homes tonight,
Mothers and babes would cease to fear.

If Hitler only would die tonight,
T'would be one good act in life,
To lie down and die tonight,
And let the world end its strife.

England and France would cease to fight,
Their guns would be silent then,
If Hitler were to die tonight,
And permit the war to end.

If the end of Hitler came tonight
Tomorrow the song of peace would ring.

Throughout the world the Olive branch,
Would wave in peace tonight.

If Hitler's demise would occur tonight,
Plowshaves from swords would tomorrow,

Till the soil and free the world from sorrow,
If Hitler were to die tonight.

I say if Hitler were in hell tonight,
Where he should have been these many years,
Smiles would take the place of tears,
If Hitler were safe in hell tonight.

If Hitler does not die tonight,
O, Lord let some day soon,
Dawn upon his long wished doom,
If he does not die tonight,

But if this dadgummed peace wrecker will not die tonight, may the allies camp on his trail until he is willing to go to digging potatoes instead of graves. However, I am neutral—I don't givadam who licks Hitler.—Uncle Bill

A CLEAN GAME

That was a mighty fine football game played here last Friday when Garden City played Sterling on its own grounds.

Those Garden City boys are fine players as well as young princes while deserving in every respect, they could not be expected to hold up against the Sterling team after coach Sullivan had had them in training for a part of two school terms.

After the game was over in Sterling's favor, the Sullivan sport spirit prevailed. Garden City was our guest and Sterling was their host. There was no yipping, whooping or roughneck stuff among the crowd. Each one seemed to consider himself a lady or gentleman, and conducted himself accordingly. That is Sullivan Spirit.

Come back again some day, Garden City, whether you win or our boys win, you will be welcome all the same.

MEN SEEN 200 MILES AWAY BY TELEVISION

Diagram—Artist's conception of how radio and aviation worked together to receive television images over a distance of 200 miles. The images were broadcast from New York and were received in an airplane over Washington, D. C. Photographic inset—This photograph, snapped in an airplane flying in the stratosphere four miles above Washington, shows a television image of another airplane at rest on the runway at North Beach Airport, New York.

TELEVISION in the stratosphere, more than four miles above Washington, D. C., made history Tuesday, October 17, when the Radio Corporation of America, with the cooperation of United Air Lines, demonstrated successful reception of images broadcast from New York, more than 200 miles to the north. The experiment marked the twentieth anniversary of the founding of RCA.

Flying over the nation's capital at an altitude of 21,600 feet, occupants of the plane, including Major General Delos C. Ehamons, Chief of U.S. Army GHQ Air Force, saw David Sarnoff, president of RCA, and W. A. Patterson, president of UAL, who were seated in the television studios of the National Broadcasting Company in New York as they exchanged comments on the parallel rise of the aviation and radio industries in the last two decades.

During the flight, what is probably the all-time long distance record for photography was made when cameramen in the plane over Washington snapped pictures of persons and objects in New York as they were broadcast by television.

Returning to New York from Washington, the plane landed at North Beach Airport, Long Island, for one of the most thrilling moments of the flight. For the last several minutes, occupants of the plane had been watching news reels and other motion pictures on the television receiver; but suddenly these stopped and in their place appeared the image of an airplane being towed through the air.

Dramatically, the television announcer told the observers in the plane that they were watching their own ship as it circled the airport, dropped gracefully to the ground and taxied up the runway to the hangars. Actually, the men inside the plane watched it land just as if they had been standing all the while on the ground.

RCA's experiment of long distance television reception bore out the theory that the ultra-short radio waves used in television travel like rays of light, in straight lines. It was necessary, in order to receive the telecast over Washington, for the plane to rise above the 16,000-foot level in order to overcome the curvature of the earth and keep within a straight line-of-sight path from the point of transmission.

ROSIN, THE BEAU

I live for the good of my nation,
And my sons are all growing low,
But I hope that my next generation,
Will resemble old Rosin, the beau.
I've traveled the country all o're,
And now to the next I will go:
For I know that good quarters await me
To welcome old Rosin, the beau.
In the gay round of pleasure I've traveled,
Nor will I behind leave a foe,
And when my companions are jovial,
They will drink to old Rosin, the beau.
But my life is now drawn to a closing,
And all will at last be so:
So we'll take a full bumper at parting
To the name of old Rosin, the beau.
When I'm dead and laid out on the counter,
The people all making a show,
Just sprinkle plain whiskey and water
On the corpse of old Rosin, the beau.
I'll have to be buried, I reckon,
And the ladies will all want to know,
And they'll lift up the lid of my coffin,
Saying: "Here lies old Rosin, the beau."
Oh! when to my grave I am going
The children will all want to go,
They'll run to the doors and the windows,
Saying: "There goes old Rosin, the beau."
Then pick me out six trusty fellows,
And let them all stand in a row
And dig a big hole in the circle,
And in it toss Rosin, the beau.
Then shape me out two little

The rule of driving a car is always when meeting another car turn to the right. However, there are exceptions to this rule. Only for this exception Bob, Jim, Leon and I would have stood a fair chance to have been killed last week. Bob, who was driving, was turning around a sharp corner. He saw another car coming around the corner. The driver of that car had his head over his shoulder looking back while his car on the wrong side of the road was heading into us. Bob saw his only chance of escaping a wreck was to turn to the ditch. He did so and saved us of a lot of grief. Had we collied the rule of the road would have found us on the wrong side of the road. Common sense saved us by dodging to the left.

ANGELO TRUCK & TRACTOR CO.

International Trucks & Tractors

Angelo Truck & Tractor Co. in San Angelo, at 113.15 E. Concho St. feature a full line of the world famous International implements, the Farm All Tractor, the McCormick Deering farm machinery, the McCormick-Deering ball bearing cream separator, the only one of its kind. Excellent service on all and a full line of parts. An institution that is aiding in placing farming on a modern basis in this section of the nation.

The name International has been one that has been associated with all the great developments in agriculture from the days of the sickle to the self binder, the tractor, the truck and every modern device to aid in the rapid work on the farm.

With the development of the western plains of this country, came the modern age of farming and the International Harvester Co. of America have always been a little in advance of the times anticipating the needs of the day of having machinery that would meet the problem of the hour.

They started in the age of man power, were the developers of the reaper, self binder, shifting much of the work to the horse and mule. With the age of gasoline engine they still are making it more economical for the man to run a farm without much labor or much stock. The gasoline power only runs when it is needed and only eats while running. They have every modern machine for relieving the farmer of so much labor and stock trouble. The most recent development is the Farm-All tractor, which will do the work and go anywhere.

The International truck is made in all sizes to meet the demand of the farmer, business man, contractor, manufacturer and in fact will meet any haulage problem of the day. It is furnished with beds suitable for any purpose and thus makes it an all-purpose truck. It has been manufactured for years and has given the best of satisfaction.

They offer the best of service in the way of a full line of parts for all implements and tractors and these are furnished on a minute's notice so that there is no delay for people using the International line. Men are in charge of the service who are thoroughly familiar with all and are ready to give any advice or receive any suggestions.

In this review we are glad to compliment the International Harvester Company of America upon the very large display of modern farm machinery and tractors at this establishment and the excellent service they are giving and the part they are playing in the rapid development of the farming section of this part of the state.

CONTINENTAL COTTON OIL CO.

In a review of the business interests of the community there is no concern more worthy of extended mention than this one.

Here the public has at its disposal the services of men who possess the "know-how" and who obtained their manufacturing and business education in the school of practical experience. From the inception of this cotton seed products enterprise, quality has been the aim and the standard has been maintained from the beginning.

The plant of the company is very extensive and is equipped with the latest scientific machinery for the production of high grade cotton seed products.

Their name stands for quality, reliability and progress in the cotton seed products industry and as the advances of the times have marked improvements in the trade they have kept thoroughly abreast of the times.

It is a local concern, under competent direction of men interested in local development and its substantial and well merited progress is a matter of actual fact well known to the public.

The cotton seed products manufactured by this company are recognized

This concern operates one of the most progressive real estate agencies in this part of the state. Through his reliability and straightforward methods he has attracted new capital to the community.

Real estate is always a common sense investment. Whether it is a lot, a house, a farm or a large ranch you will find that money carefully invested in property listed by this real estate firm will net you a tidy sum over a period of years.

We cannot lay too much stress on the financial foundation of the surrounding rural communities. It is well that we have such an organization as this one who will aid the farmer in his pecuniary difficulties.

In the past when a farmer wished to negotiate a loan he was at the mercy of many unscrupulous parties. It was rather a haphazard method of obtaining assistance when a loan was needed. As a consequence firms such as this up-to-date one have come into prominence by reason of the fact that their loans are based upon honesty and good judgment.

The farmer has no fear in consulting this office as his fair dealings has gained for him a clientele that extends in every direction from San Angelo. Specializing on farm loans and is a most able business man who will aid you in putting your farm on a paying basis.

This community is fortunate in having such a progressive organization to handle these loans as it adds in no small measure to the progress of all the surrounding country. The retention of our wealth becomes more significant every day and here in our home community are men who are willing to invest monies that the farmer may overcome difficulties in obtaining a loan on his property.

Days gone by, the farmer had an aversion towards dealing with a firm in the city in regards to loans. He had the impression that his lesser knowledge of financial matters would lead him to many difficulties. However, that feeling has passed away and more and more he is depending upon his city neighbor for aid when it become necessary.

This loan service as operated by him has done much to weld the city and rural sections into a co-operation that will further extend our mutual progress.

Mr. Mahler offers liberal options and quick service and also makes appraisals.

C. L. ROOT HOSPITAL

Here so much better care can be given than in the home because this hospital is equipped for all emergencies. It is quiet and restful and you are under the care of nurses whose years of training and experience have made them familiar with all illnesses.

Here the best doctors that can be obtained are located and are secured at a second's notice. When it is necessary to be under the care of a doctor with the attending nurses think of the C. L. Root Hospital in Colorado at 1643 Chestnut Street.

You are assured of the best possible care and attention here. Everything is kept scrupulously clean and sanitary at all times, and there is an air of cheerfulness about it that is always an aid to speedy convalescence. The building itself, is so constructed, as to secure perfect, free circulation of air and the maximum amount of sunshine. This is true of either the wards or the private rooms. They are all well lighted and cheerful. It is an institution of which the people of this community may be justly proud.

For invalids of all diseases, for obstetrics and for accidents go to C. L. Root Hospital.

More people in this community are realizing every year the intrinsic value of the local hospital. The confusion in your own home incident to sickness there and its effect upon the patients are marked and they know that they are not only better off in the hospital but that the family at home are relieved and can go about their business in a sane frame of mind, because of the efficient and satisfactory care their loved ones are receiving in the C. L. Root Hospital.

Those in charge here have had long and scientific training in hospital work and do not tolerate any incompetency on the part of any one employed in the institution. It is with much pleasure that we give the C. L. Root Hospital honorable mention in this business review and recommend it to you for all cases of sickness or accident.

They are an asset to this community we urge you to give them your loyal support.

Continental Cotton Oil Co., is located in Colorado, west of the city.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

This most worthy institution is a financial pillar of unsurpassed strength in this section of the state. Its methods are up-to-date and efficient. Its management is able and fully competent to cope with every financial problem that may come to it for solution.

As a factor in the upbuilding of this section, this banking institution has played a prominent and honorable part. It is known as a bank of superlative integrity and one that can be counted on always to carry its share of the load in any progressive and worthwhile movement. Its influence on the home life of the community has been marked, indeed, for through its willing assistance and able advice many who would otherwise never have known the satisfaction of owning their own homes are now substantial citizens and home owners and are aiding in the progress of their various communities.

The policy of this bank is one of accommodations and convenience to its customers. Liberal without being careless, conservative without being hide-bound. The best interests of its customers are always consulted and they determine the course it shall follow in every instance, except where those interests would conflict with or prove a menace to the welfare of the community at large. Their policy has drawn to this institution a large clientele every one of whom is a real friend, just as the institution is a real friend to all whom it serves.

This bank, of course, conducts a general banking business. Its service and advice are sought by the largest corporations as well as by the humblest individual and in every instance the same courteous treatment is extended and the same careful attention given to the problems presented. Open or checking accounts are carried as a part of the bank's regular business; certificates of deposit are issued, as well as drafts on domestic and all foreign points. Collections are promptly made and every assistance in the way of loans to deserving enterprises is rendered.

A noteworthy feature of this bank is its safety deposit department where those desiring that service may secure the use of a strong box at a very small rental.

It is under the control of and subject to inspection and regulation by the United States government.

Its officers are men of highest standing in their community and of irreproachable character and unassailable repute. They have always adhered to the soundest principles of banking and are well deserving of the magnificent patronage that has been extended to their ably managed institution. First National Bank in Big Spring at 201 Main is one of the most valued of the community's valuable assets.

From a veritable hole in the ground to a flourishing volume of business, its history reads like the one of the tales of the famous Aladdin of old times. Not that there has been any magic lamp in its success for the only magic used was hard work and the wisdom and knowledge that always breeds success.

PEACOCK BEAUTY SHOPPE

You not only feel at home in this attractive and refined beauty parlor, but the work done here is so satisfactory that once you visit the establishment, your return is assured; you become a regular patron of Peacock Beauty Shoppe in Big Spring at 1603 Scurry Street.

They are adept in all phases of this work and enter to the discriminating, those who desire the best in the latest methods of beauty culture. They keep in touch with all new developments in this line and you are assured of that personal touch so necessary to successful beauty operations.

After all beauty is contour. It is symmetry that creates a pleasant sensation in our minds when we see things that are lovely. The management Mrs. Oma Appleton has made a close study of types and hair for so long that they are well able to advise in these matters. They realize that each individual type must be met in dressing hair.

They wave your hair as best suits the contour of your face, your type, and personality, or give you the style that fits.

Peacock Beauty Shoppe is well skilled in the proper giving of facials. If you feel tired out or your face shows signs of impurities or blemishes, try having a few facials at this shop. When you leave the shop you will look well and feel refreshed and young.

They simply do wonders to one's personal appearance, once you turn your problems over to them.

This up-to-date beauty shop is a most valued asset to the community. Not many communities can boast of such an exceptional metropolitan service and in this business review we wish to congratulate them upon the attractiveness of their service.

J. C. PENNEY CO.

The store of J. C. Penney Co. in Colorado at 157, 2nd Street has become an institution in the mercantile life of this section of the state by reason of their distinctive and modern service to the people of all the surrounding territory.

The notable career of J. C. PENNEY in the business life of America and his successful stores in forty-seven states has been the comment of the business world. Upon looking for the reason of the great success and the remarkable popularity of the stores it is easily discernable that the founder was a man of remarkable vision and able to read in advance the tendencies of the times. He saw the wastefulness of the retail merchandising and decided to be of a great service to the people. His idea of one central buying establishment where the complete output of the mills was taken over and the placing in charge of the store a man who was an expert manager has proven successful. Each man could concentrate upon his particular work and neither was a "jack of all trades." This policy enables these stores to furnish merchandise at reasonable prices to the public and enables the manager to give better service as he does not have to be away in distant cities purchasing goods, but is always present attending to business.

The J. C. PENNEY COMPANY, INC., is organized along the lines of potential partnership and applies the golden rule to business, making one price to all at all times.

Each store of J. C. PENNEY CO., INC., is excellently appointed and the stock is all systematically arranged for the convenience of the public and for the salespeople so that shopping is a very simple matter now.

The J. C. PENNEY stores do not conduct sales as all their goods are sold on a close margin and the stock disappears so fast that there is no time for sales.

The manager of each store has an interest in the store and is a resident of the town in which the store is located and takes an interest in the affairs of the city in which he lives. The great service each store renders the people makes it of great economic value to the community for it renders the public the highest type of mercantile service.

BIG SPRING COMPRESS

Big Spring Compress is conveniently located in Big Spring at 206 N. W. 3rd Street.

This is a very busy concern compressing cotton for their many friends. Genial and accommodating the management is always glad to have the public visit their plant and see for themselves how cotton is compressed by the most up-to-date methods.

Improvements have been added from time to time until now there are no compresses that surpass them in point of service and efficiency. For here will be found all that is new in the business. This is one of the industries that have done more than their share in making cotton growing production profitable.

The average citizens of the county know this firm to be one of the essential factors in the commercial and industrial organizations of the community and by reason of the public spirited policies of the management it has always been considered one of the substantial and valued enterprises of this locality. Do you realize just what an important part they play in the progress and advancement of this part of the state. It is the purpose of the publisher to here direct the special attention of every reader to the fact that this concern is one of the essential and vital enterprises of this section.

The services of this company in addition to adding to the commercial and industrial activity of this part of the state are contributing to the people inasmuch as they are compressors of cotton.

Let us then direct your special attention to this concern. Let us assist you to appreciate that it is a vital part of the community. And let us suggest that your inherent desire for the very best and your civic loyalty to the community should prompt you at all times to support, patronize and boost for this well known concern.

He had courage without bluster and pride without vaunting.

He was a loyal friend and a devoted companion.

He loved children and delighted in their enjoyment.

He was generous and never critical.

He was full of the joy of living. His name was "Hurly" and he was a good sheep dog.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Mann of San Angelo, called on this editor last week end and contributed to his britches and sox fund. Bart's account lacked a month being due, but they had read in the News-Record about the attenuated condition of our britches and the prospective northers, so this couple, true to their raising, concerned themselves about our personal comfort. We raised Bart, and he has never departed from his raising. We didn't raise Foy, but somebody did a good job of raising her, so we always look upon her as one of our best girls. Young Bart who calls this couple Mother and Dad, is making good with a big oil concern. You will read about young Bart later on.

Good old George Broome had read in the News-Record last week about our last year's britches and sox being too thin to withstand the coming boreal blasts, so he came in a few days ago and fixed things. This old scout can't sleep sound if he knows that a friend or neighbor needs his help. Temp Foster and Crit Clark are just like George about this matter, because they did the same thing on the same day. Seth Bailey, that prince of goodness, can testify about some new britches and the donation of a new vest. The good Lord is prospering these boys because they are good to their neighbors, their families and their country. A man can't go wrong if he practices these things. It is great to live among such people. This range country is full of such.

A Card of Thanks

When our beloved one passed away our hearts were in the cold grave with our beloved dead. Amidst the hours of our sorrow, you came to us with loving hearts and willing hands and did all that was humanly possible to lighten our burdens of grief and we. For all these things we thank you and may God's blessing be upon you.

Tax Payments Up

Dputy Tax Collector, Henton Emery reports a big increase in tax collections during the last month over the same month of last year.

The first month after the tax rolls were opened for collections, the taxpayers paid in $26,196.34. During the same month of 1938, there were only $2,196.78 taxes paid in.

Mr. Emery says the three-per cent reduction on state taxes induced the larger taxpayers to pay their taxes earlier this year. He says it is a big boost for the county and schools. "No," said the official, "it is not because we are good tax collectors, but because we have the best people in the world to deal with."

[Note: Bill Rucker, a Colorado City high school boy, dedicated the following verse to Floyd Theime who recently died from injuries received while playing in a game of football between Forsan and Westbrook.]

For heaven God selects the best.
I know this true to be,
For when I saw him in his rest,
'Twas plainly proven to me,
This rest we all have hopes to gain;
For this we know you strived,
I know your hopes were not in vain
Of this you weren't deprived.
Floyd, I can see thee on high,
And know that all is well,
For all about you angels fly,
And say that all is well.
As you look down on us this day,
Are there some words you'd speak?
Please say them in your own dear way,
To help us gain the Peak.
'Loved ones grieve not for my going,
And friends I'm happy here,
Live your life to make a showing,
For I am always near.
Follow His Blessd guiding Star,
And read His blessed word:
'For all things work together for
The ones who love the Lord."

"EAGLE OUTLOOK"

By KNO NOTHING

There has been a crazy something running through my mind to the tune of 34-6 and I think it is a pretty tune, too. I heard several of the boys say before the game that they were going to beat Garden City as this was their last crack at them and by golly they sure did it with plenty to coast on.

While I am on the subject I wish to congratulate the school and public for their most orderly conduct at the game the other day. That goes for Garden City as well. For the first time in history or at least for the first time I can remember, you couldn't hear one bit of slurring talk among the fans on either side. I think that is swell and while I have the opportunity to do so, I want to extend to Garden City a friendly hand and if they are willing to fall in beside us and be friends, I am sure we will welcome them most cordially. We really have no personal grudges, except that some of them may have it in for me and you can hardly blame them for I was the whole cause in the first place and if they will except my most humble apology I will gladly offer it now, so come on in Garden City and join the party, we're waitin' on ya.

Change of Mood: We started the 39-40 basketball season last Monday. This is really not the start of the season but it is for the boys who are not playing football. I wish to announce now that the game with Garner on Nov. 17 is the last game of the season. I believe the boys deserve sweaters more this year than any other year so far don't you? If you do believe this, come to the game Friday and do your part in helping secure these for them. Also the night of Nov. 17 we, or that is the Sterling Eagles will play the Garner boys in a basketball game and immediately following this boys game the Sterling High School girls will play the Garner girls. So come to the football game in the afternoon and the basketball games that night.

F. F. A. News

Some of the Green hands have their greenband pins. The second and third boys will have their pins shortly.

Yes we are still having trouble with figures. At the first of the year we had to balance rations etc.

Now we are standing to keep records in our new record books which we received the other day. These cause a lot of grief for some of us, but we have to find fault with something.

We have also studied some useful things in treating diseases in livestock; for most of us this is interesting. If Mr. Carter does not get grey headed it will be a surprise me, the F. F. A. Reporter.

Fourth Grade

Sterling Girls Attend F. H. T. Meet At San Angelo

Freda Mae Hodges, second year homemaking student, was elected area reporter for next year at an area meeting of the Future Homemakers of Texas held Saturday, Nov. 4 at San Angelo. Officers for next year were elected by a House of Delegates formed by one representative from each F. H. T. chapter. Since there are forty two counties in this area, the Sterling chapter of F. H. T. is very proud to have its chapter represented on the executive council for the area. Freda Mae acted as delegate for the Sterling Chapter.

Other girls who attended this meeting with their sponsor, Dorothy Ferrel, were Mozelle Mills and Arlene Abernathy from the Home making 1 class, Beatrice Smith and Lucille Littlefield of the third year class and Carmen Brooks and Freda Mae Hodges of the second year group. At a meeting of the club last week these girls were elected as the club representatives.

Highlights in the program at Angelo were a style show sponsored by merchants of San Angelo, an illustrated lecture of Chinese customs and styles by a former resident of China, and a play by the Eden Chapter of F. H. T.

The House of Delegates set Sweetwater as the meeting place for next year.

Seniors to Give Play

The Senior Class of Sterling High will present its annual play, "Pickles to You", on November 23 at 7:45. The public is cordially invited to attend. "Pickles to You" is a killer diller hearthrob with plenty of laughs. Some of the characters are:

Patrick Noonin, an Irishman who made his own out of the pickle business and still remembers he was once poor, is played by Sam Augustine. His wife, a society crasher with plenty of ambition is played by Geraldine Lee. Rosemary Durham, plays the part of Katherine Noonin, his daughter, a well liked, impulsive girl. Dale Hall takes the role of Cousin Phile, an old sponge on the family but an old roue at heart. Jack Conner, a very successful pickle salesman for the Noonin business is played by Jack Mathis. Sally McGinnis, one of Pat and Annie's old friends is almost forgotten in Annie's effort to crash society. The part of Sally is played by Marjorie Hudson. There are six other characters in the play. They will be briefly described in next week's "Eagles Eyes". Read it!

Admission will be ten cents for grade children, twenty-five cents for high school students and thirty five cents for adults.

Mrs. H. W. Hart is letting us keep one of her pot plants. We are glad to have it.

We are glad to have our windows painted.

Homemaking News

The homemaking girls of Sterling High School and their teacher wish to express their gratitude for the large painting donated to the department by Mary Lou Foster. The picture will be hung in the living room where it will add much to the attractiveness of the room. Thank you again, Mary Lou.

The homemaking department also wishes to express its appreciation for the china cups, saucers and plates donated by the Wimodausis club. This china helped greatly in serving during the Spanish restaurant sponsored by the home economics students at the Halloween carnival. We hope to be able to return the favor.

Geraldine: "What is the difference between a hamburger and a steak?"
 Sue K: Two weeks and a sausage grinder."

Dr. Beecher was amused when he walked into a restaurant and heard the waiter give such orders to the cook "Sinkers and Cows". He decided to give an order the waiter couldn't abbreviate. He said: Poached eggs on toast for two, with the yolks broken.
 Then the waiter yelled:
 Adam and Eve on raft. Wreck'em!

"I can't often leave Tommy to go to market or go shopping — so I go to the stores by telephone. His schedule doesn't allow me much time for visiting — so I keep up with my friends by telephone. And if we should need the doctor in a hurry — or have to meet other emergencies — I know we can depend on the telephone to bring the help we need."

It certainly pays to have a telephone: telephone errands take less time, telephone visits are pleasant, the people and things you need are always closer.
