

STERLING CITY NEWS-RECORD

Notes of an Innocent Bystander:
The Wireless: Radio's coverage of the San Francisco fiasco is all across the news analysts are turning the pockets of their minds inside out and representing perplexing peace problems with admirable clarity. They are driving home the issues which will affect every American home. . . . Nothing more soothing than the Nazi shortwavers' blah-by-blah description of Vermily's dying gasps. . . . Commentator Baukhage's adroit delivery packs a wallop. His recent idle report of FDR's interment ended in the Congressional Record. . . . Rita Hayworth's quip-banding with Cholly McCarthy kept the chuckles rolling at a swift pace. . . . Talk about crimson faces. A current best-seller moans that America is skidding into "collectivism." The tome's author appeared on the Chi. Round table and was asked to give a clear definition of "collectivism." He linked the query.

Memos for a Scrapbook: In a literary weekly John Mason Brown is embroidered a delightful bit of every lace: "Praise has never made anyone unhappy. We like it when we do not believe it. We are of it only when it is bestowed so long on other people. It is much we do not object to having played fastage. Although it may shame our consciences and insult our minds, it does no damage to our ears."

Between the Book Ends: Top-flight porter Ira Wolfert has captured the sordid tragedy, flaming courage and shining hopes of the current struggle via "American Guerrilla in the Philippines" (Simon & Schuster). His slam-bang chronicle of Lt. I. D. Richardson's exploits creates a spiritual glow. . . . Most timely is A. E. Ahn and Michael Sayers' "The Plot Against the Peace" (Dial Press). Here are the names of the fascist race-wreckers and their battle strategy. . . . Morris L. Ernst's "The East Is Yet" offers a sizzling series of essays. His most crushing haymakers land on the few prostitutes of our midst. Such "journalists" can never their depravity with lofty rhetoric, but they can't hide their name.

Quotation Marksmanship: A hard: Let us all be happy and live within our means, even if we have to borrow money to do it with. . . . C. Sherrif: The telephone began calling out like a spoiled child,

Girl Scout Leads Meet

Mrs. Gretchen Kidd, District Girl Scout Executive, conducted a all-day meeting here at the court House last Saturday. Mrs. Kidd gave demonstrations of outdoor cooking and the planning of simple out-door meals. Lunch was cooked on a camp fire and served on the screened porch of the Scout House. Those present for the meeting were the scout leaders from Garden City, Mrs. H. M. Fitzhugh, Mrs. Y. C. Gray and Mrs. J. E. Wilkerson, and Mrs. Roland Lowe, Mrs. R. E. Bynum, Mrs. H. L. Hildebrand and Mrs. Jack Douthitt of Sterling City. At 3 p. m. a committee meeting was held with Mrs. Kidd as chair. The above Sterling City committee members and H. L. Hildebrand were present at this meeting. Mrs. Bynum is chairman of the troop committee and Mrs. Hildebrand is secretary treasurer.

Mrs. E. E. Young returned to her home in Kosse this week after a month's visit here with her sister, Mrs. R. P. Brown. Last week Mrs. Brown entertained with a bridge party at her home honoring her sister.

Special School Election on June 2

There will be a school election here June 2 to decide on a raise for school maintenance taxes. The election is to be held under the new law which allows school taxes to be raised to $1.50.

On the ballot will be printed "For the increase of school maintenance tax"

"Against the increase of school maintenance tax"

The voting will take place at the courthouse with Lee Reed and W. H. McDonald as judges and Mrs. Sterling Foster and Mrs. Ed. H. Lovelace as clerks.

Only qualified property tax payers will be eligible to vote in this election.

Stock Shipments

Last Friday Lester Foster shipped seven cars of lambs to Fort Worth. Ed Bynum shipped two cars of cattle to Ohio.

On Tuesday of this week W. L. Foster shipped two cars of lambs to Fort Worth. J. T. and Jeff Davis shipped two cars of lambs to Missouri.

and he hurried off to soothe it. . . . Dorothy Parker: She said her words with every courtesy to each of them, as if she respected language. . . . The Jergens Journal: And so I remain Your New York Correspondent who, in this babble of tongues, just found out that Eden means garden, Molotov means hammer, Stalin means steel and Truman—means business.

Stalingrad rocked under a murderous barrage. Late one night, a creaking ferryboat, piloted by a wheezed old boatman, was smashed by a shell. The old man and a young lieutenant aboard were thrown into the river. The heavily-packed soldier started to go down. . . . "Here," shouted the old man, "take this life preserver," and looped it over the officer's shoulder. The lieutenant tried to push it away. . . . "Stop, you fool," screamed the boatman. "I'm old—my arm is missing. I'm through. But you're young and can fight. Take the preserver. Hold Stalingrad!" Just another unsung, unknown hero in the fight for Decency.

Counter-Attack: Little Inna Bentago is a six-year-old orphan. Her father—killed at the front. Her mother—by a Nazi bomb. . . . On Red Army Day all the other children in her kindergarten class were busy writing letters to their fathers or brothers. Inna came sobbing to Natasha Zemskaya, her teacher. "I have no Daddy and no one to write to." Natasha comforted the child and told her to write to Lt. Alexander Kuksenok. . . . Little Inna laboriously poured her heart into a scrawling letter. Soon she received an answer. "Don't you cry, little Inna," wrote the lieutenant. "From now on I'm your brother. I am sending you a little gift. Be a good girl. Love, Alex." . . . Each week Alex wrote to his newly adopted sister. . . . Suddenly the letters stopped. After several weeks, Inna received a note. It was signed by a hundred soldiers and said: "Alex has been killed, but do not feel bad. His last wish was for all of us to become your brothers. So now you have a very large family, a hundred brothers. Be a good girl and write to us. Love. . . ."

Ilya Ehrenberg, Soviet newspaper man, writes of his talk with a German sergeant: "He (the sergeant) limped out of the forest, leaning on a walking stick. . . . The most expressive thing about him was that stick. On it were carved the names of the cities he had been in: Radom, Warsaw, Liege, Namur, Rheims, Paris, Smolensk, and Vyazma.

"Observing that I was scrutinizing the stick, the Nazi said, 'We've been everywhere. But where have we got to?'"

O.E.S. to Install Bobby Edwards Gets Citizenship Award

The Sterling chapter of the O. E. S. No. 29 will have installation of officers next Thursday night, May 31, at 8:30 p. m. in the Masonic Hall.

The meeting is not a regular meeting of the O. E. S. and is open to the public, said Mrs. Joe Emery,

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Snead of Robert Lee spent last week-end here visiting the Joe L. Sneads.

Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Garrett and Fern visited Mrs. Garrett's parents, Mrs. J. B. Randolph last week-end. The first part of the week they went on to Dallas where Mrs. Garrett went on a buying trip for her store.

The hail Sunday afternoon broke out 15 window panes in the George McEntire ranch home west of town.

Doug Chapman, employed on the U Ranch, was shaken up and had a nasty fall last week when he was thrown from a horse.

Shearing of sheep is being completed around Sterling with the average prices paid running 25 to 26 cents per sheep. Bucks cost up to 60c. Shearing goes up every year - it seems.

The Baptist church members took a religious census of Sterling City last Sunday afternoon.

The I. C. C. finally has lowered the freight rates of the southwest, equalizing them with the north and east. Such action has been a long time in coming, but as the old saying goes—"it's better late than never."

Marilyn McEntire of Colorado City is here visiting Dorothy Sue Lowe this week.

Webb Hudson, manager of the telephone exchange here, was visiting his brother in Trinidad, Colorado the first part of the week. He left explicit instructions for Tom Onstott to stay out of Forsan. On Monday he was sent a telegram saying, "Tom has been in Forsan for three days and he won't come home"—signed Bailey-Pearce.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lindsay and son, Jimmy, passed through Sterling City Tuesday on their way to Marfa, where they will make their home. They formerly lived in Sterling.

Winona Ware is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Henry at Blackwell this week.

The county is continuing the topping of the streets in Sterling City with asphalt which is very welcome to the home owners. Less dust, less mud when it rains, and a prettier city will be the result. Such paving is a very worthwhile action.

Bobby Edwards Gets Citizenship Award

Bobby Edwards was awarded the Lions Club Good Citizenship trophy at the Wednesday luncheon. Rev. Ed Lovelace made the presentation speech. Bobby was selected by the faculty of high school. Betty Jane Donalson played a piano solo. Slim Jamison of Stanton was a guest.

A nominating committee to name new officers for next year was named by Clyde Davis, president. The committee named was Jack Douthitt, Dr. Swann, W. W. Durham and A. T. Bratton. New officers will take office July 4.

A. T. Bratton reported that REA could be secured if there could be one customer per mile and the minimum bill would be $5. Should there be two customers per mile the minimum would be $2.50.

Wedding Held In Colorado City

Mrs. Gillian McEntire and E. H. Richardson of Colorado City were married there last Saturday evening by Rev. Brinkley, Presbyterian pastor.

Attending the wedding from Sterling City were the Roland Lowes, the Fowler McEntires and Mrs. James McEntire.

Mrs. Harvey Glass visited her sisters, Mrs. Roy Sanderson and Mrs. Henry Rainey at Blackwell this week. Another sister of Mrs. Glass, Mrs. Bert Kincaid of Arizona, is also visiting in Blackwell and will return here later with Mrs. Glass.

Cooking School

Mrs. Myrtle Le May, with the extension service, is to hold a school on Tuesday, May 29, at 2 p. m. in the home economics laboratory, demonstrating the cooking of a meal in a pressure cooker. Everyone who is interested is invited to attend the demonstration.

 A high wind blew down Charley Coulson's windmill Sunday afternoon. Large hailstones fell, breaking some windows and causing other damage. What we got was the tail-end of the cyclone that roared through Coke County and caused pretty heavy damage there in spots.

Nation's School Children Ready To Assume Part in Seventh Drive

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The nation's 30,000,000 school children are again all set to assume as much responsibility as is given them in helping to meet the $7,000,000,000 quota set for sales of War Bonds to individuals in the Seventh War Loan.

The demonstrated sales effectiveness of school children was an important factor in the determination of the dates set for this new Drive—May 14th through June 30th. Insistence on the part of many War Finance Chairmen throughout the country paid tribute to the vital support that pupils, teachers and school administrators have given previous Bond Drives.

A recent survey reveals that more than 20 million people heard about the Sixth War Loan from school children. Over eleven million were directly asked to buy bonds by these boys and girls, a little less than a third of whom were solicited in no other way.

The participation of school children ranges from rallies at their schools to the taking over of actual house-to-house canvassing. In Penns Grove, a small New Jersey town, during the last Drive, E Bond sales were lagging badly. In desperation, the War Finance Committee turned to the students of the town's two high schools and one grammar school. "If the adults won't do it, it's up to you," the County Chairman told them. Accepting the challenge, within a week boys and girls had sold $25,000 worth of bonds, and before the close of the Drive, Penns Grove's 6,485 citizens had topped their E Bond quota by $17,000. "Let's chuck that worriment about youth taking responsibility into the ash can," said the local weekly newspaper.

In Michigan, public schools sold $23,750,560 worth of bonds in the Sixth War Loan, with Detroit schools contributing almost a third of this figure. One school in the heart of Detroit averaged sales of $233.60 per pupil; another, in a wealthier district, tallied up $349 for each of its 800 students.

Through special promotions staged by the schools of the small town of Laconia, New Hampshire, whose pupils manned booths, recorded the Drive's progress in downtown department store windows and canvassed all the town's fourteen districts, E Bond sales amounted to $341,334 against a quota of $272,300.

In the state of Washington, the 80,000 school children in King County sold 27,763 E Bonds in one day—$1,182,281 worth.

And in Kings County, New York, elementary and secondary school children tallied up $4,137,435 through the sale of 41,253 E Bonds during the Sixth War Loan.

On Pearl Harbor Day in a remote Virginia county, school pupils canvassed the neighborhood and sold $18,000 worth of Bonds; their total sales for the last Drive amounted to $46,000—eight per cent of which was estimated to be "new" sales.

Preparing fellow townspeople for solicitation by the pupils of Fairmount School, Hackensack, N. J., the principal wrote: "You may feel that we are placing an unusual responsibility on our children, but they are unusual children, living in unusual times. They are sincere in their belief that the future of America depends upon our continued support of every man in the line of battle." His pupils sold bonds worth more than $1,000,000 in the Sixth War Loan.

Your BABY.

By Lillian B. Storms
How thick should the first solid foods be?
Usually the first solid food given a baby is one of the special baby cereals. These are thoroughly cooked and need only to have warm milk or formula added. For the first serving of a cereal, dilute it with enough milk to give an almost liquid consistency. It is thus more nearly like the milk he has become accustomed to.

After several feedings of very thin cereal have been fed and baby seems to be familiar with the new food, gradually increase the proportion of cereal and reduce the milk, making it thicker.

Cereals are usually fed with a spoon. If the spoon has been previously used to give him water, orange juice and cod liver oil, it is no longer strange to him.

Of course, it is easier to feed thick cereal because it is less apt to be spilled. The baby may blow thin cereal out of the spoon either intentionally or accidentally. Or the spoon may be hit with a hand which is aimlessly waving around, or unconsciously he may be trying to help to feed himself. Prepare for spills, but don't try to give him a thick cereal at first. He has to learn to eat solid foods by experience.

The first strained vegetables may be diluted with milk or formula.

A good rule to remember is that you are not trying to make your baby eat, you are letting him eat.

Remember, too, that the first year of life is full of new experiences and there are a multitude of things to learn. Don't try too hard to teach him, let him learn.

DVORAK MEMORIAL

Antonin Dvorak, Bohemian composer, wrote melodies which were recorded as "String Quartette in F. Major," Opus 96, in tiny Spillville, Iowa, in 1893. The composition consumed only 12 days. Later Dvorak wrote "Theme With Variations," part of which, rearranged by Violinist Fritz Kreisler, became known as "Indian Lament." So that the spirit of freedom which inspires men and women to create masterpieces of art in all forms shall endure forever, U. S. men are suffering and dying. Home folks can at least lighten their trials by buying War Bonds to furnish them with munitions, food and medical supplies.

Champion of Champions

CALGARY, CANADA — This champion of champions, Alcartra Gerben, a pure bred Holstein owned by Hays & Co., holds the largest official yearly butterfat record ever made by a dairy cow of any breed anywhere in the world, regardless of age or times milked daily, according to figures just released by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. In 365 days she produced 1,409 pounds of fat from 27,745 pounds of milk on four-times-a-day milking. At a banquet here honoring the new champion, Hugh Colson, editor of the Holstein-Friesian Journal, pointed out that the butterfat total of 1,409 pounds is almost double that of the champion of 1897, the U.S. Holstein, Belle Sarcastic. Since that year the official world butterfat record for yearly production has been held by members of the Holstein breed with the exception of one year, 1915, when a Guernsey held the championship.

TFWC to Honor Texans in War; New Officers to Be Elected

The Texas Federation of Women's Clubs will plant a tree honoring Texans in World War II on the state headquarters grounds on May 30. Soil from each of the 254 counties in the state will be used.

The tree will be a "Governor Hogg" pecan and the ceremonial will climax a one-day business meeting the TFWC will hold in Austin. Mrs. Grover C. Johnson, Wichita Falls, arranged the memorial planting, which is the closing act of the 1943-45 administration, headed by Miss Ethel Foster of Sterling City.

Governor Stevenson has been invited to assist in the ceremony, and the federation has asked that the pound of Kimble County soil be taken from the ranch home of the Governor. Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, Eastland, former TFWC president, will dedicate the tree.

Because of ODT restrictions on regular conventions, only voting members, state board members and club delegates are asked to attend the federation's business meeting, which will be held on May 30.

Officers for the next two years will be elected, the ballot box to open at 12 noon, and to close at 3 p. m.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 2 of Article 5 of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as hereafter to read as follows: "Article 5. Section 2. The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices, any five of whom shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of five shall be necessary to a decision of a case; provided, that when the business of the court may require, the court may sit in sections as designated by the court to hear argument of causes and to consider applications for writs of error or other preliminary matters. No person shall be eligible to the office of Chief Justice or Associate Justice of the Supreme Court unless he be, at the time of his election, a citizen of the United States and of the state and unless he shall have attained the age of thirty-five years, and shall have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together at least ten years. Said Justices shall be elected (three of them each two years) by the qualified voters of the state at a general election; shall hold their offices six years, and their successors are elected and qualified; and shall each receive such compensation as shall be provided by law. In case of a vacancy in the office of any Justice of the Supreme Court, the Governor shall fill the vacancy until the next general election or state officers, and at such general election the vacancy shall be filled by the qualified voters of the state. The Justices of the Supreme Court who may be in office at the time this amendment takes effect shall continue in office until the expiration of their term of office under the present Constitution, and until their successors are elected and qualified. A Man-Sized Cup of Coffee!

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Tired of getting too-small servings of coffee at their regular meetings in hotels and restaurants, members of the New York Coffee Roasters' Association solved the problem once and for all—by purchasing their own cups. Turning down the demi-tasse are (left to right) Frederic Cauchois, vice president, and Robert E. Sassen, president, who toast the favorite beverage of all the Americas in size cups befitting its importance to the American way of life. Since the great cups were bought, they are as much standard equipment for meetings as the bulletin boards, pads and pencils which accompany the discussions.
