Voters Approve County Tax Reallocation

3 Amendments Favored Here

Sterling County voters went to the polls last Saturday and approved the re-allocation of taxes 62 to 14. Such re-allocation will lower the permanent improvement fund from 25c to 15c, up the road and bridge fund from 15c to 27c and the general fund from 25c to 35c. The overall increase will be about 12c on the $100 valuation.

The voters disapproved of raising the pay of legislators, and approved the soldier's no poll tax amendment 61 to 17, approved the increase of the Supreme Court members 55 to 25 and approved the old age assistance raise amendment 51 to 28. The disapproval of the pay raise was 56 to 26.

Scouters Meet

The Sterling Boy Scout Troop Committee met Tuesday night and re-registered. Bro. A. A. Berryman is the Scoutmaster, Benny Green is assistant, and Homer Pearce was re-elected chairman of the group.

Plans for a new Scout house and enlistment of more boys were discussed by the group.

The troop committee is composed of Dr. W. J. Swann, Joe L. Snead, John Walraven, W. R. Hudson, Roy Foster, S. M. Bailey and Ted Brown.

The committeemen voted to send Boy's Life magazine to each Scout who registers for next year.

The building committee favors building the new Scout cabin soon as possible and such plans are being laid.

Newspaperman Staff:

Add Things I Never Knew Til Now: In 1812 a newspaperman named Nathaniel Raunsavelt was taken into custody for refusing to divulge the source of his information about the secret activities of some politicians. . . . He was threatened and cajoled but stood firm. . . . Thus was established the principle of the reporter's duty to protect his news source. . . . The first American newspaper was discontinued by authorities because it published some gossip about the family troubles of the King of France.

Heywood Brown was a skilled exponent of the rapier retort. He directed some of his most devastating arguments against Huey Long. . . . He once accused Huey of "murdering the truth." Long promptly shrieked for a retraction. . . . Brown replied: "Huey says that he never murdered the truth. That's because he never gets near enough to do it any bodily harm."

Along similar lines there's the classic about the small town gazette which conducted a vigorous campaign against the town council. . . . One of their yarns was headlined: "Half the Town Council Are Crooks." . . . The outraged politicians demanded an apology, and the editor promised to run one. . . . Next day the daily carried this headline: "Half the Town Council Are Not Crooks."

About a century ago the press was in its Mother Hubbard stage. . . . Namby-pambyism was rampant. Editors took a lorgnette view of the news. This sidelight illustrates their ultra fuddy-duddy attitude: One gazette front-paged an apology to its subscribers because a reporter had used the word "trousers" in a yarn when he should have used the word "unmentionables"!

Tiffs among newsboys nowadays belong in the taffy-pull category when compared with the journalistic slug-fests during the James Gordon Bennett era. . . . Bennett was physically assaulted a half-dozen times by opposition editors who had been clawed by his barbed-wire editorials. . . . But Bennett refused to dilute his potent attacks against competitors. He merely reported the brawls on his gazette's front page and reaped added circulation. . . . The anti-Bennett journalistic barrage also blasted his family. The

—AND THROUGHOUT THE LAND THE DOORS OF LEARNING OPEN TO OUR CHILDREN.

WE CAN BEST EQUIP THEM FOR THE TASKS THAT LIE AHEAD THROUGH EDUCATION— EDUCATION MADE POSSIBLE BY OUR PUBLIC SCHOOL SYSTEM— BY ENDOWMENTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS — BY THE INDIVIDUAL THRIFT AND FORESIGHT OF PARENTS WHO, THROUGH SAVINGS AND EDUCATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICIES, MAKE CERTAIN THEIR CHILDREN WILL BE ABLE TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE OPPORTUNITIES FOR HIGHER EDUCATION AND THUS BE BETTER PREPARED FOR THE RESPONSIBILITIES THAT SOME DAY MUST BE THEIRS.

Selective Service Still Necessary

Walter Winchell

Gen. J. Watt Page, Texas Selective Service Director, points out in a news release that it is necessary that new men be drafted—50,000 each month over the nation. It is only fair, he says, that new men replace those who have been in service for four and five years—and many months of overseas duty.

The draft boards are singled out for commendation by Page. These board members have filled one of the most patriotic jobs in the country's history. They were non-compensated, neglected their own business. In many cases they have lost money and friends of long standing, and have been subjected to all manner of abuse—these men without decorations. They can never be repaid for their contribution to winning of World War 11. Their only remuneration is contained within their hearts and souls in the knowledge that they have served fearlessly, tirelessly and honestly for their country. No man can do more.

The deferred boys should now take up the gun and "stand guard" for awhile, relieving the war weary veterans, said Page. So inductions will be continued until no longer necessary.

Mrs. Taylor Garrett and Fern went to the wholesale markets in Dallas and San Antonio last week. In San Antonio they visited Mrs. Garrett's brother, who was ill in a hospital there.

slanderers finally drove his wife and children out of the country. They moved to Europe and made infrequent visits to America, while Bennett continued his free-swinging style of journalism.

Joseph Pulitzer's N. Y. World set journalistic standards few newspapers have equalled. Yet Pulitzer arrived in America a poor, friendless, semi-illiterate immigrant. He spent all his spare time educating himself. . . . His enlightened opinions on the subject of newspapers are always worth absorbing. . . . Frixample: "What is everybody's business is nobody's business—except the journalist's. It is his by adoption. But for his care every reform would be stillborn. He holds officials to their duties. He exposes secret schemes of plunder. He promotes every hopeful plan of progress. Without him public opinion would be shapeless and dumb. Our Republic and its press will rise or fall together. An able, disinterested, public-spirited press, with trained intelligence to know the right and courage to do it, can preserve that public virtue without which popular government is a sham and mockery."

Hollywood has depicted foreign correspondents as overgrown Rover Boys. . . . It has created the impression that these newsboys have a glamorous occupation. Actually they have a difficult, perilous task with few rewards. . . . O. D. Gallagher, a British correspondent, dodged bombs and bullets, and traveled 100,000 miles in three years for his news stories, which readers forget five minutes after reading.

This is the wisest counsel for columnists we have come across: "Get around town—find out what people are talking about. Give your readers a little daily jolt on something they are gabbing about at home, perhaps, and can gab about some more. Controversial stuff—so they can argue. The big idea is this: Make half of them happy and half of them sore."

Reporters aren't as hard-boiled as the legends would have you believe. . . . When President Wilson made his gruelling cross-country tour (in an effort to gain the support of Americans for his world peace plans) he was broken in body but not in spirit. . . . Reporters who accompanied him were aware that he was sacrificing his life for his ideals. . . . As Wilson made his final stirring plea for world peace, newsmen listening to his eloquent address openly wept.

City Fat Saving Record Falls Under Town and Farm Push

Ever since our government asked town and farm women to save used fats, the record previously set by city women has taken a beating. We must keep up the good work! This country is facing a shortage of 1 billion, 500 million pounds of fats in domestic supplies, alone. Tons of vital war and home-front supplies requiring fats are still needed. We in towns and rural districts are in a better position to save fats than most city folks, so the government is depending on us. Save every drop, every scrap. Melt down solid fats. There's never too little to save! Butchers will give you up to 4¢ and 2 red points a pound. If you have any difficulty, call your Home Demonstration or County Agent. Approved by WFA and OPA. Paid for by Industry.

Rains fell here Wednesday night upsetting plans for the rodeo and barbecue. The rains were heaviest on the divide-two inches over there and nearly an inch here in Sterling City.

Rodeo Postponed Until Saturday

RAINED OUT

Rain here Wednesday night caused the Scout Rodeo and Barbecue to be postponed until Saturday. The plans had to be changed as the barbecue pits partially filled with water and the muddy park made things too unpleasant.

Riley King and Louis Bade iced down the goats and took them to San Angelo for cold storage.

Everything will be held as per schedule here Saturday. So pass the word along.

Roy Martin Buys Truck Line

Roy Martin has bought H. F. Donalson's truck line effective Tuesday evening. Roy began operating the truck on Wednesday. Donalson, owner of the Palace Theatre and Santa Fe agent at Carlsbad, only recently bought the line from Pink Abernathy. The Roy Martins until recently operated the Busy Bee Cafe here.

A polio epidemic, now in Big Spring, has caused some fly eradications and clean-ups in that city.

S-Sgt. D. L. Hunt arrived home on Tuesday. He landed on the Queen Mary in New York recently and came on here via El Paso.

What are your ideas about post-war train travel?

Santa Fe would like to know

How do you think post-war passenger cars should be built? What are your ideas about train-to-station telephone service, recreation cars, "snack-bars," dinner music? What about train speeds?

Santa Fe has prepared an illustrated questionnaire to give you a chance to take part in planning our trains and travel features of the future.

It's easy to show us what you have in mind. You simply check the idea you like in the questionnaire, jot down any additional ideas you may have, and return the questionnaire to us. We pay postage.

Mail the coupon today and we'll send you the questionnaire pronto!
