This week's question: "Do you think we ought to keep on drafting men of the 18-25 age group?"

ELLIS LEE: "Yeah, if it'll help those in there get out."

W. Y. BENGEE, SR.: "As long as we need them."

MAC BENGEE: "No, I think they ought to draft men 21-25."

ROLAND LOWE: "Yeah, I think they should."

ROY FOSTER: "Well, why not. I think we ought to let those over there come home."

FRED HODGES: "I think they should give them the opportunity to volunteer and if they can't get enough then draft them. Try the volunteer system first."

JIM McCARTY: "If they need 'em."

WEBB HUDSON: "Naw, I think we've got enough boys now but if we need them—well all right."

Lions Club

Sgt. D. L. Hunt was a guest at the Lions Club luncheon Wednesday. The prize went to Dr. W. J. Swann.

The Club voted to give the Halsey spur fund money to the Red Cross. President Ed. Lovelace discussed the advisability of planning the program several months in advance.

Cutting Scrape

A cutting scrape in Mexico about midnight last Sunday resulted in two local Mexicans being cut up a little, and the next morning both paid $25 fines and costs. Sheriff Vern Davis jailed Polo Elores and Paul Rodriguez and they were tried in Justice of Peace A. W. Dearen's office Monday.

ORRIE DEAL TO RETURN

Orrie Deal, now County and District Clerk of Irion County, will move to Sterling by September 15 and be connected with the Davis Drug Company.

Orrie, popular druggist, known over West Texas, used to work here with E. B. Butler in the Butler Drug Company.

J. T. DAVIS

Davis Named Outstanding Citizen

J. T. Davis, resident here since 1899, received the most votes in the outstanding citizen contest in Sterling in August. Coming here from Waco, J. T. began ranching, and now has extensive ranching interests in the county. He has also farming and stock interests in Falls County. In the past he's also had ranching interests in Bosque County, Concho County, Mitchell County and he and W. L. Foster ranched in Crockett County.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Davis of Falls County, J. T. received his education at Toby's Business College, Waco, and A. & M. He pushes community interests such as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, bond issues for county improvements, and helps the county on all drives and quotas. In war bond drives he buys heavily and urges others to do the same. He has said that he couldn't face the 130 service men from here when they return if he didn't do his best on bond drives to back them up.

He, his late uncle—J. T. Davis—and W. L. Foster organized the First National Bank here and J. T. has been vice-president ever since. He is a director of the West Texas Wool and Mohair Association of Mertzon, a director of the Gulf Colorado and Santa Fe Railroad, a director of the Sheep & Goat Raisers Assn., a director of the Brazos Valley Cotton Oil Co., a past vice-president of the Sheep and Goat Raisers Assn., and was president of the Texas Production Credit Assn. for six years.

For community interest and building J. T. has helped secure the railway here, the utilities connections, and other necessary and worthwhile projects.

Ranchman Davis is the third person to be voted an outstanding citizen of the county. Dr. W. J. Swann received the most votes in June, Mrs. Tommie Johnson in July, and Davis in August. Voting is now underway for the September voting. Vote, and use the ballot found elsewhere in this issue.

The Inter-Church committee met Wednesday afternoon at the State Hotel. Plans were formulated for a permanent organization.

Present were Rev. Ed. Lovelace, Bro. A. A. Berryman, H. L. Hildebrand, W. R. Hudson, Hal Knight and Jack Douthit.

Mrs. S. A. Mahaffey and her son, Phil, arrived here Monday from Los Angeles, Calif. for a visit.

School Opened Tuesday

Veterans Advisory Committee Meets

Claude Collins, chairman of the veterans advisory committee, called the committee together Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock for a discussion. The group met in the courthouse with Mr. Collins, J. T. Davis, Miss Ethel Foster, W. W. Durham, Trinton Revell, and County Agent J. M. Starr.

Mr. Starr had prepared a brief on the possibilities of Sterling County for the returning veterans benefit. The committee authorized Mr. Starr to mimeograph 50 copies of the pamphlet to be give veterans or applicants for information on Sterling.

Miss Foster made a motion to add to the brief the needs (in the matter of new businesses) to the report, so veterans would know what new businesses were needed here. The idea was approved by the group.

Mr. and Mrs. John Emery and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Emery of Mercedes visited relatives here week.

The Sterling Public Schools opened at 9 a. m. Tuesday, with opening exercises in the main auditorium. Supt. O. T. Jones presided at the opening.

Rev. Ed Lovelace led the group in singing the first three verses of America. Bro. A. A. Berryman gave the invocation. Supt. Jones then introduced the teachers.

Jones pointed out that this was the first peace time school opening in 6 years—since Europe went to war Sept. 1, 1939. Jones told of the improvements made on the lunchroom and building, etc. In fact the repairs on the roof were in progress at the time of the opening exercises, making things difficult for the speakers.

J. B. Atwell has bought Lowe's welding machinery and equipment from Roland Lowe and is running his own business, stationed in Lowe's Shop building. He is also in the butane gas business and now has tanks for sale.

Mrs. Mills of San Antonio and her son, F. T. Stansberry of Eden, visited the Herbert Copes and other friends here this week.

While Walter Winchell is away, this month, his column will be conducted by guest columnists.

By JACK LAIT

Coast-to-Coasting:

Herman Shumlin, Broadway-made director, now a Hollywood wage-slave (at what a wage!) is hot for realism. For a scene in a film with Charles Boyer and Lauren Bacall, he wanted a photo of a bullet hitting a wall—and he wanted it authoritatively authentic. At 2 o'clock in the morning, he got four Warner lot cops to stand off and pop their 44's at a studio wall and had each shot shot from several angles. . . . He still didn't get just what he was after. . . . But, came the dawn, H. M. Warner sent for his whole force and demanded to know—what crackpot had been shooting up his bungalow? It's right past the wall. The place looked like Berlin!

Mike Romanoff, the Great Pretender, who now owns the most prosperous cafe in California, has won his naturalization papers, thus disproving canards that his Imperial Highballness was born in Brooklyn. Mike is a native of London. Strangely, his true name is Romanoff, which gave him his original inspiration to "adopt" the czarist clan. He says he will definitely not change the monicker now to Mike Stalin. . . . Dr. Irving Berman, Hollywood eye specialist, has it figured out that persons with normal sight should sit four times the height of the screen from the screen. Bring your own tape-measure!

The Commies in and around the movie industry have set up such an organized and agonized howl against a proposed Red probe that their activities are accentuating the positive far more than another official investigation is likely to. That Hollywood is crummy with every shade of bolsky lovers is obvious to anyone who can see or hear. A recent California legislative survey turned up conditions even more malodorous than surface symptoms had indicated. Stars, producers, executives—with no understanding of what the Russian system means—plug for it. Crimson propaganda creeps into costly films. Anyone who thinks democracy and a republic are pretty sweet is a fascist isolationist; anyone who thinks we're lend-lease like fools is a Tory reactionary. The victory of the radicals in Britain was toasted and celebrated in mansions and swank cafes in the community which glorifies the Soviets and squawks about high U. S. income taxes in the same breath!

Tim Gayle has left Fred Waring exploitation to start another musical mag, "Preview." He formerly published "The Baton." He was going to call his new periodical "Finale," but Westbrook Pegler, whose advice he asked, didn't like that—said it sounded pessimistic. Peg also said in his letter: "I think anyone who starts a business enterprise today on his own money deserves either a medal or a scholarship in Matteawan. Anything that old Sam doesn't take away from you, in the improbable event that you make a dollar in the first place, will be taken by the unions and the lawyers whose services will be necessary to keep you out of prison from day to day." And Peg advises against pessimism!

Hollywood is where: A fortune rides on the turn of ankle or the tilt of a nose; everything is so irresponsible and goofy that a dozen new millionaires emerge every year; everybody wears slacks and owns race-horses; biggies love yesmen and hire high-priced monitors to stop them from doing what they'd love to do; everyone denies that the movies are just entertainment and insists the screen is a medium of education, culture, enlightenment and patriotism; and the cast and crew of "The Kid from Brooklyn" put in 48,400 man-hours in a prize fight sequence that runs 3 minutes, 14 seconds, when you see it.

Connie Bennett is back again, just a trouper on the payroll. Her ambitious venture as a producer came rather a cropper. . . . "Paris Underworld," a great story, was washed out with VE Day. But Connie had fun while it lasted—ordering people around, refusing this, turning down that, one Constance picnic.

Freddie Steele, ex-middleweight champ, couldn't get East for the "Story of G.I. Joe" premiers, but Pvt. Robert Mitchum (who plays the captain) got travel priority because he's in the army. Both are film finds and will be heard from plenty more. . . . Faye Emerson is heart-sick. A few months ago she blazed up as Elliot Roosevelt's bride, daughter-in-law of the President. Since then, she's had some tough publicity breaks and the Roosevelt name no longer works magic. Soon Elliot will be back in private life.

Short Cuts Save Time in Pickle Making

FULL-FLAVORED pickles can be yours this fall without long hours of work is the cheerful news to housewives imparted by the Rural Home editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer.

"There's a short-cut method for pickles," she writes in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. "It calls for shorter drainage and cooking time, less cooking liquid and uses distilled white vinegar as the preservative. Recipes developed with the new method require little sugar.

"For cucumber pickles made this way the brining period is omitted entirely. Vegetables for relish are salted down, then drained only 2 hours; then the cooking period is shortened and the amount of spiced-vinegar solution decreased.

"The pickles may taste rather mild when first packed. But flavor continues to penetrate during storage. By the time you want to serve these pickles at club meetings next winter they will be as spicy and sharp as you like them.

"With individual sandwich loaves, other relishes and coffee you'll have the tempting afternoon snack pictured above. Decorate plates with slices of green pickle."

CURRY PICKLES

4 c. white vinegar 3/4 c. yellow mustard seed
2 c. sugar 12 medium cucumbers
1/4 c. salt 1 tsp. curry powder
1 tsp. celery seed

Heat vinegar, sugar, salt and spices to boiling. Add washed and cubed cucumbers to solution and boil gently for 10 minutes. Pack while boiling into hot sterilized jars; fill to one fourth inch from top. Be sure solution covers cucumbers. Seal each jar immediately. Yields 8 pints.

Frozen Lemon Pie Is Toothsome Dish

FROZEN lemon pie is a toothsome dinner dessert for the family that's been working hard all day, says the Country Cooking editor of Capper's Farmer.

Graham cracker crumbs are crust and topping for the chilled yellow filling, she writes in the nationally circulated farm magazine. Pie-shaped pieces are made by cutting diagonally across the refrigerator tray in which pie is frozen.

The dessert which will be an ever-popular family favorite, serves 8, the Capper's Farmer expert advises.

FROZEN LEMON PIE

2 eggs, separated 1 c. evaporated milk, whipped
3/4 c. lemon juice 1/2 c. graham cracker, cookie or cake crumbs
Rind of 1/2 lemon
1/2 c. sugar

Beat egg yolks; add lemon juice and piece of rind sliced from lemon and all but 2 tablespoons of the sugar. Cook over low heat 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove rind and cool. Beat egg whites until stiff; add remaining sugar and fold into cooked mixture. Add whipped evaporated milk. Line refrigerator tray with waxed paper. Sprinkle with 1/4 cup of the crumbs. Pour in lemon mixture; sprinkle with remaining crumbs. Freeze with temperature set at coldest. Serves 8.

When You Were Three

Tying your own shoes was a tough job. But your parents let you try. They knew it would help you to help yourself. Remember the thrill when the knot stayed tied?

Shifting for yourself has always been an American custom. As boy or man, just give an American an even break—a chance to get ahead—and he'll do the rest.

But when government goes into business, in competition with its citizens, the American idea of an even break is destroyed... for government in business takes special privileges that are denied the people.

Consider government power projects for example. They are TAX SLACKERS—DO NOT pay federal taxes; but get YOUR money from the U. S. Treasury at little or no interest; make up losses out of the pockets of the patriotic taxpayers.

On the other hand, America's business-managed power companies—owned and operated by millions of folks like you—are on their own. They pay their full share of taxes (near one-third of each gross dollar collected). They pay through able management, fair interest on money loaned by people like you to build the property.

Maybe you run a store or service station or beauty shop. View then—a next-door government politically managed competitor who has little or no rent, or taxes, or interest to pay, and who is kept in business partly by your tax money.

It is a tribute to American self-reliance that tax-paying, self-supporting companies supply over 80% of the tremendous amount of electric power used in this country. And it is a further tribute to the American system of private initiative that these companies provide America with enough electricity to meet even the gigantic demands of war—and, when most things cost more—still deliver this electricity at low pre-war prices and without political tax favors or subsidies.

Mail G.I. Christmas Gifts Overseas Early

CHRISTMAS packages going to servicemen still overseas must be mailed early again this year, advises Marjorie Griffin, Rural Home editor of Capper's Farmer.

"Lists to Santa Claus from overseas servicemen are already on their way home," she writes in the nationally circulated magazine.

"Family photographs head many requests as always. Next come canned snack foods, such as nuts and olives. Books, writing portfolios, service watches, good pipes, pens, engraved identification tags and waterproof wallets rate high also.

"Mailing regulations are similar to last year. Packages must be mailed between September 15 and October 15. Boxes must be metal, wood, solid fiberboard or strong double-faced corrugated fiberboard. Newly available will be boxes 10 by 6 by 4 inches; these will be stronger than many previously used.

"Letters from your own overseas service folks will be the final guide to gift selection."

Take Care of Pans

With a little attention, kitchen utensils will serve you well for years. But if they're carelessly banged around and neglected, you'll soon be ashamed to use them, declares the Rural Home editor of Capper's Farmer, whose advice on household matters is read by 1,250,000 farm families. In general, put pans in to soak after using them. Run cold water into those used for egg and flour mixtures; hot water will set them, making food particles hard to remove. Greasy or sugary pans should be soaked in hot water.

Lulu Belle's been singing the praises of those old southern mountains since she was a tiny tot in North Carolina. She's still singing them, from the hayloft of NBC's "National Barn Dance."

Home Decorating Is Fun for Farm Families

TIPS for other homemakers may be found in the interior decorating hobby shared by Mrs. Louis Heidbrink, Sr., and Mrs. Louis Heidbrink, Jr., a mother and daughter-in-law team, writes Joan Miller in the Rural Home department of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer. They live next door to each other in LaFayette county, Missouri.

Just across the driveway from the parental big house is a smaller one built by the Heidbrink's only son for his bride before they were married. A shingled bungalow, it is modern throughout.

"The women started their decorating hobby by working out modern rooms for the small house," writes the Capper's Farmer expert. "Then convenience and charm of the big house came in for a boost.

"An attractive back porch was made for the big house with chairs and a double set, bright with yellow enamel. This enjoyable place is just off the kitchen where Mrs. Heidbrink, Sr., can carry small kitchen jobs or rest and cool off. Furniture was built of lumber from sliding doors taken out of an arch between living-room and dining-room.

"Modern design is carried out in the Louis Heidbrink, Jr., master bed-room. In the corner with adjoining windows he built a graceful dressing table, shelves underneath. Painted with pink enamel, it has a billowing white organdy skirt, matching curtains and lamp shade. A Hollywood bed resulted from hack-sawing head and foot from an old iron bed."
