Two Mexicans Apprehended

Last week sheriff Vern Davis caught two Mexican boys, Adolfo Sanchez, 20, and Juan, 12-year old Sanchez, wanted for theft of a bicycle in San Angelo. The boys were from Lamesa.

The two boys came through here and stayed awhile. They bought some food at Benges Grocery. Mac Benges told the sheriff that they paid with old black coins that might have been saved in a collection of coins. Vern had read in the daily paper about the theft of a bicycle in San Angelo. After he picked up the boys, he found that he had the right parties.

The boys confessed to a burglary in Brady, but it proved to be a falsehood. The stuff was not identified at Brady. It later developed that they had burgled a Glasscock County home.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Reed and Trinabeth will leave today for Ft. Worth to meet their son, Neal J., A. & M. sophomore, and they will all attend the A. & M. - T. C. U. football game at Fort Worth Saturday.

Foster Sims Price underwent an appendectomy operation in the Shannon hospital last week-end. He had an acute case of appendicitis, said Dr. Swann.

On the New York Scenic Railway:

The long parade and the exciting band music in the fierce rains and winds north along Fifth Avenue — with hardly anyone among the pedestrians brave enough to pause and watch. (What dope insisted upon that parade, anyhow, in such pneumonia weather?) . . . The knots of nuts clattering up Columbus Circle — exercising their Constitutional rights with double talk about the next war. . . . The blinking electric signs on the Broadway signs embellished by the penmanship of the furiously falling rain. . . . The 59th Street management's reply to freezing tenants: "No heat until October 1st!" The Waldorf has it, however. . . . Miss Liberty, everyone's favorite pin-up gal, winking happy hellos to shiploads of returning veterans, who fought for her honor.

The cacophony of buses, taxis, trolleys, cars (and women) as they merge at 34th and Broadway in what seems like an inextricable tangle — then miraculously emerge again without a fender dented — a symphony of NYC clatter. . . . The aroma of oncoming autumn heralding the return of King Football and rah-rah-coat coats — the signal that Ma Nature's getting set to wield her brush with those magic browns, yellows and reds. . . . Staten Island's shore line still brimming with the implements of war. . . . Newly inducted soldiers, without war ribbons — looking like overgrown Boy Scouts.

Broadway, washing her face of war paint, trimming her wartime hustle and bustle and setting her coiffure with the brightest of lights for the postwar hoopla. . . . Faces and facades, absent for too long, reappearing with joyous smiles, like exiles who've been given a reprieve. . . . The red, white and blue service flags now flecked here and there with stars of gold — grim reminders of those who fought the good fight and won't come back. . . . The be-medaled private, cane in hand, strutting down 5th, tilting his MacArthur corncob pipe at a jauntily precarious angle.

Sheep Subsidies

Drafts for sheep subsidy payments have been received in the County AAA Office and over $5,000.00 has been paid this week for sheep subsidies. The Commodity Credit Corporation will make payments to any person who sells sheep and lambs to a legally authorized slaughterer for slaughter. Payments will be made for sheep and lambs sold since Aug. 5, 1945. For sales made from August 5, 1942 to October 31, 1945 the application must be filed in the county AAA Office on or before December 31, 1945. For sales made on and after November 1, 1945 the application must be filed within 60 days from the date of sales.

Payments for August, September, October and November $1.50 per cwt. for lambs 65 to 90 lbs.; $2.15 for lambs over 90 lbs.; and $1.00 for all other lambs and sheep.

Evidence shall consist of invoice, sales tickets or account of sales signed by the buyer, showing date of sale, name, address, and license number of the authorized slaughterer, number of head sold, total liveweight, whether sheep or lambs and a statement that the sheep were purchased for slaughter.

The book stores along the Gayer White Way advertising "Social Dancing" instead of "How to Prepare for Your Army I. Q. Test" . . . The 42nd St. Army & Navy stores offering "Tailor-Made Sailor Suits" at reduced prices. . . . Drug-stores with signs shouting, "Yes, We Have Bobby Pins." . . . The honey-sweet "Thank you" from the cutie behind the ciggie counter at the Waldorf. . . . The dance hall on 7th Ave. where the GIs go to cut a rug on Saturday nights. It is called "The Midtown Youthopia." . . . The subways, returning to their eerie dawn-patrolling — half empty, looking semi-nude without their early ayeem sleepy war workers.

The chatters in Bryant Park trying to figure out what's worth arguing about. . . . The medieval architecture of St. Patrick's, getting its modern face-lifting — grudgingly yielding to the hordes of busy workers while kids feed the pigeons on the steps. . . . The faded picture of FDR almost hidden in the side window of a downtown picture gallery. . . . The wisies who diller-dollared their war time moo on nonsense and frillies — eyeing the Wise Men who sunk theirs in bonds — and are holding on to them. . . . The big, new department store being dug at 53rd and 5th, with a knot hole fence knee high. . . . Sign in the window of a 72d Street eatery — "Waiter Wanted — Bring References."

The colorful ribbon of light whirling around the neck of the Times Bldg. waving all that good news to the Broadway gapers. . . . The Brooklyn Navy Yard and its half finished ships. . . . The one-armed window gazer on Madison and 43rd with battle ribbons on his gray flannel civvies. . . . The long line of want-addicts in front of the Madison Avenue U. S. Employment offices. . . . The Bowersky joint offering a "Victory Bath" and shower for a dime. . . . A returning air force captain being greeted with a sticky "helooooo, dahleeeennng" from a sub-deb in an East Fiftieth subcellar. . . . The Tower of Babel that congregates in the St. Moritz lobby and spills out on the sidewalk. . . . That "situations wanted" ad in the Times of a well known war analyst.

A ferry dawdling across the Hudson like a glacier of molasses. . . . The tattered shoes of shoeshine boys. . . . The Belasco Theatre's unique marquee with its hanging lanterns. . . . The Players Club where thespian Edwin Booth once lived. The furnishings in his room remain intact. . . . The Waldorf's opulent residential suites decorated with garden terraces. . . . The two-story frame structure wedged in among Convent Avenue's tenements — built by Alexander Hamilton as his country home.

To the People of this Community

Thanksgiving is in the air. The spirit of the Good Provider hugs you warmly. What better time or reason to buy another extra Victory Bond, the good provider of the future? As you sit around the festive table this year, first year of world peace since 1939, remember the millions of men and women still in uniform in strange lands. In Germany about 2,500,000 Americans will be separated on this family holiday from fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, wives, sweethearts and children. Every extra Victory Bond is a link between home and the Tokyo or Berlin patrol.

There's self-interest in your purchase of any extra bond today but there's service to your country too. You have most to gain by ownership of as many Victory Bonds as you can possibly buy. You guarantee yourself a better chance for personal peace and prosperity. You also help your government to pay the war costs and return home of men and women who will be badly missed Thanksgiving Day in your own home and your neighbor's home.

IT'S not even too far to hobble, when you're leaving the blank walls of a hospital room for a brief while, on your way to a place of laughter and song and play.

The welcoming doors of a U.S.O. lounge club are just outside the hospital grounds—at more than 500 hospitals.

Here, at the house of smiles, war-shattered veterans escape that hospital routine, from the smell of ether and disinfectants. Here they enjoy their favorite phonograph records, today's newspaper, the checkerboard that you gave them when you gave to your County War Chest.

These are little things, but they're good medicine! The nearby U.S.O. lounge is theater, club—almost home—to the shocked and hurt boys whose present home is a hospital room. And your dollars keep these lounges going—the dollars you give to your County War Chest.

It's time to give again—for the men who gave a lot. Give generously! Make your donation twice as big—the need is more than twice as great.

You help many who can't help themselves, yet you are asked for only one gift. Let your heart decide how big it should be.

FIFTY YEARS AGO . . .

At the turn of the century most Americans were kindling their streetlights and kerosene lamps by torch or match. The polishing of lamp chimneys and trimming of wicks were grimy household chores.

In the homes of a few rich people electricity was being installed. Since it was very expensive, very new and extremely hard to obtain, electricity was ultra smart and most fashionable—fashions, you know, are things that are scarce and in keeping with the prevailing customs. Judged by these standards, use of electric service is old fashioned—it hasn't skyrocketed like other necessities, it's readily available to the smallest home at pre-war levels and there has been an ample supply.

Operating costs, as in other businesses, have advanced progressively in the electrical industry—taxes have been on a tremendous upsurge—only by the most careful direction and private initiative, advancement in methods could the electrical industry continue to supply its services at decreasing costs.

Sound and practical business management under governmental regulation as distinguished from government ownership tax-subsidized political operation are your guarantee that as new electrical comforts are available, adequate power at a reasonable total cost will prevail.

RED CROSS HOME NURSING

WHAT'S YOUR BEDSIDE MANNER?

THIS IS GRANDPA, CROSS AND GROUCHY, confined to bed with chronic arthritis. His arms are cold so you bundle heavy blankets around his shoulders and then wonder why he complains, "The pain in my joints is worse." His feet are cold so you tuck a hot water bottle, filled to the top with scalding water, next to them and his thanks is, "Are you trying to burn me to death?" So in desperation you turn to . . .

RED CROSS HOME NURSING where you learn the easy way to care for bedridden patients—how to arrange equipment to save yourself steps—how to prevent bedsores—how to bathe, feed, and comfort an impatient patient. And now . . .

THIS IS GRANDPA, COMFORTABLE AND HAPPY, even though he is still in bed with arthritis. A lightweight bed jacket gives him warmth without weight. A hot water bottle wrapped in towels keeps his feet warm. And he puffs contentedly on his pipe with your full approval because you understand that clinging to a favorite habit is more important to Grandpa's happiness than a clean, but empty, ashtray.

If there is no home nursing course offered at present in your community, ask your Red Cross chapter how you may help organize one.

WHEN GUESTS DROP IN—A busy girl likes to be her most glamorous self at home. For evenings when friends may drop in, Georgia Carroll, wife of Kay Kyser and popular singer of NBC's "College of Musical Knowledge," wears deep crimson crepe slacks and striped cardigan bodice. The beige of the yoke is repeated and the crimson stripe is banded with black in this Addie Masters original. On these evenings, Georgia, long considered America's most beautiful model, wears her blond hair in a long, soft page-boy.
