Foster; "Transition from War to Civilian Production," Miss Ethel Foster. Other members Present were Mes. Vern Davis, Harry Glass, H. Everitt, R. P. Brown, Hent Emery, C. N. Crawford, Ed. About Town:

Lady Astor is trying to arrange a visit to the U. S. mainly to avoid being summoned as a witness by the war criminals at Nuernburg, to still fondly recall the Cliveden t. . . The State Dep't is anxious to learn just how Doris (World's chest Gal) Duke could enter Italy without a visa, which the State Dep't in't give her. . . The reason Her't Hoover's marriage to a wealthy dder is being retarded, they say, "family static." . . . Biggest story at ever happened in the Washington Press Club didn't make any of the papers. A U. S. Marine, fed with a columnist's poison about DR, etc., picked him up bodily and sed him from the bar into the by.

After the San Francisco Conference, a Russian attache visited Hollywood as the guest of Gregory Ratoff the director. . . Ratoff pointed numerous movie queens. . . one set Ratoff sighed: "They are all so beautiful, but, unfortunately, they don't stay happily married very long!" . . . "In Russia," complained the visitor, "one reason marriages last longer is that a wife looks the same after washing her face!"

At the 400 (which features named bands) a Broadway song pluggler did too much to drink and started singing a bore. "Oh," said Lenore Lemmon, "limb back into your flask!"

Errol Flynn's forthcoming book, "The Showdown," is said to be better than his first book. . . As Flynn dined with his friend, artist John Saker, John remarked: "I wonder if Hollywood will believe you wrote it?" "Yes," said Errol, "if they think it's not good."

Ciro's the other midnight Jack was seated near an actor who just lost a chance for a choice part in a film. He was popping off about "all the inefficient directors, and producers, two-timing agents, . . ." Jack turned to his wife and nifted: "Pardon me, honey, but I think I smell somebody coming."

See Sullivan, the singer, relays yarn about the two shipwrecked ana critics. They drifted for weeks on a raft. . . The more of the two started seeking forgiveness for his sins.

Snow and Ice; Mercury to 6°

Approximately six inches of snow fell in Sterling City Monday, January 21, bringing moisture for the ranges and a pretty white mantle for the countryside. Many roads in West Texas were closed to traffic and activities were at a minimum.

The snowfall accounted for about one-half inch of moisture, going by the rule of 12 inches of snow for 1 inch of moisture.

The temperature dropped to 6 degrees above zero Monday night freezing up pipes, car radiators, and brake rods on some cars. Livestock were drawn only slightly, and the moisture benefit outweighed the damage. The sun came out Tuesday and Wednesday, melting the snow.

Ex-captain Harold M. Gober, veteran of the Pacific War will enroll in Texas Tech at Lubbock the beginning of the second term on February 1.

Ex-See Bee John Brock, son of the Will Meyers', left last week for Morgan City, La. to report to work for Robert H. Ray, Inc., an oil survey company. He went with R. P. Davis, Jr., who works for the same company.

"I've been a louse all my life," he said. "I've been cruel to actors. Too often I went out of my way to hurt them. If I'm spared, I promise. . . ."

"Just a moment," shouted the other one, "don't go too far. I think I see smoke from a ship!"

An executive of the Scientific Research Development Board had an appointment with Prof. Oppenheimer, the scientist who had so much to do with completing the atomic bomb. . . . Oppenheimer was to have registered at the Statler Hotel in Washington. . . . But the caller was told that he was not registered, and he wasn't. . . . This is why. . . . While the phone operator kept getting important calls for Oppenheimer—he was seated in a far corner of the foyer—patiently waiting for a room! . . . In any other country he would have been given a hotel or a palace. What dopes!

Sportsman R. S. Evans brought this back from California. . . . A street corner prejudist screamed: "There ain't enough room in this country for furriners and us Amurricans." . . . To which a lumbering giant among the listeners interrupted: "Yessiree, especially pale-face foreigners!"

The squelcher was Jim Thorpe, American Indian Olympics star.

Nothing New Under the Sun Dept: Bob Berryman of the WOR news room has traced the origin of "wolf" as applied to current usage. . . . In the Decameron of Boccaccio, a king with a roving eye was accused of being a "wolf." The Decameron stories were published in the 16th century. . . . This king wanted a man's two daughters as his wives—and the father intoned: "I firmly believeth you to be a king and not a ravening wolf!"

John W. Raper, a Cleveland paragrapher for decades, has put some of his peppigrams between covers. The title is: "What This World Needs." . . . We liked these especially. . . . The theater box office counts the cash, not the applause. . . . Justice is what we get when the decision is in our favor.

Quotation Marksmanship: John W. Raper: Success has made failures of many men. . . . Anon: One man with courage names a majority. . . . Doris Keane: Romance and marriage are two different things. . . . Voltaire: Satire lies about literary men while they live and eulogy lies about them when they die. . . . Alan Sands: He's one of those in-the-nobodies. . . . Wilson Mizner: There is something about a closet that makes a skeleton terribly restless. . . . Helen Sims: Unplanned as a hiccup.

High School Head Resigns

Chesley McDonald Hired By School Board

Principal A. L. Davis who has taught in the local school for the last one and one half years has resigned his position. Mr. Davis has accepted a position with Henry K. Jacobi Jewelry Co. in New York as a representative in West Texas and New Mexico. Mr. Davis and family will move to Big Spring if a house can be located.

Chesley McDonald was elected to succeed Coach Davis. McDonald, who expects to be discharged from the U. S. Army soon, will be high school principal and coach, and will teach math.

McDonald, a star athlete in Goose Creek high school and Abilene Christian College, was assistant coach at Colorado City high school when he joined the Army in 1942. He taught navigation at Lubbock Army Air Field for three years, and is now camp athletic and recreational director at camp Atterbury, Indiana. His wife is the former Cecile Irene Reed of Sterling City. They have two children

Promoted to Major

Reggie B. Pearce, son of the Homer Pearces, received his U. S. Army Commission as a Major on the day he was put on the inactive list—January 9. Major Pearce, who served with the Air Forces Communications, is now on his way to Venezuela, South America, where he has a radio job with the Standard Oil Co.

Major Pearce was with the radio station, KTRH, Houston before he went into "the" Army. He and his wife and baby visited the Homer Pearces here this week.

Farm Census Figures Out

In figures released by the Bureau of the census and J. M. Starr, County Agent, the farm census of 1945 show a trend to larger ranches and less sheep in Sterling County over the 1940 census. (Ranches are called farms in the census.)

Where there were 117 farms in 1940 there were only 102 in 1945 with acreage of 580,210 now compared to 551,775 in 1940. The average size ranch now is 5,688.3 compared to 4,716 acres in 1940. Acreage from which crops were harvested fell from 4,803 to 2,146 acres in 1945.

Cattle and calves reported in 1945 show 12,934 compared with 11,044 five years ago. Goats showed a gain of about 1,000 head over the five year period. Sheep and lambs showed a decline—147,060 were reported five years ago and only 136,592 in 1945. This of course accounts for the reduction in wool shorn which was 1,293,223 lbs. in 1945 and 1,234,352 lbs. in 1945.

Sterling ranchers bought $116,384 worth of feed in 1940 and in 1945 they bought $242,476, a double of the five-year-ago amount.

Feed crops are becoming less and less—with acreage declining on all crops. Cotton is doing a fade-out, with only five farms planting cotton in 1945 compared to 12 in 1940.

THESE starved and ragged prisoners were found by American troops in a German concentration camp. They are among the millions you can help by giving clothing, shoes and bedding to the Victory Clothing Collection for overseas relief. What can you spare that they can wear?

Clothing Relief Drive

Bro. A. A. Berryman, chairman of the Clothes Drive for Foreign Relief, is asking that the clothes be brought in the building next to Pearce Electric Co.—the same depot that was used last year.

The drive lasts through Jan. 31, and the time is short, he pointed out. Please bring your clothes in soon as possible, so they may be sorted and packed. They are badly needed.

Fall Injures Wrist

Mrs. D. P. Glass fell on the ice Tuesday morning and hurt her wrist—possibly fracturing it, as she was going to work at Lowe Hardware. The injury was attended to by Dr. Swann.

Because of her injury Mrs. Glass couldn't prepare for the Lions Club luncheon, and the meeting was cancelled for this week.

Mrs. Taylor Garrett, Manager of Garret and Bailey dry goods company, is in Dallas this week on a buying trip for her store.

Local Items

County Agent J. M. Starr attended a 1946 program planning meeting in Angelo Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Ivy and Jim are visiting relatives and friends in Andrews and Pecos this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Mansker of Slaton and Mrs. Warren Henry of Amarillo left Wednesday after a visit here with Mrs. Mansker's mother, Mrs. Mattie House. Mrs. House returned home with them to Slaton.

Ex-sergeant Dale M. Hall, son of the D. Halls, has gone to Stephenville to enroll in John Tarleton College. His brother ex-captain Jimmie D. Hall will enter Texas University next week.

Jack Bengé, recently discharged from the Navy, has returned to Sterling and is working at Bengé's Grocery and Market.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Reed and Trinabeth plan to go Bryan this week-end to see Neal J. Reed, student in A.&M. and on to Houston to visit the John Boyds.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Collins spent the first part of the week in Comanche visiting Claudes father.

"They say all his other clothes went to the Victory Clothing Collection."

Angus Steer Sets U.S. Record

GLYNDON, MINN. — Stanley Crume, 4-H club boy here and his grand champion Angus steer, "Prince Blackcap 4th," which holds the 1945 U.S. record for the highest selling "beef on the hoof." In competition with 800 other beef calves Stanley's steer was grand champion over all breeds at the South St. Paul Junior Livestock Show. In the auction following the show "Prince Blackcap" brought $3.75 a pound to set a 1945 national record, and to bring his young owner more than $4,600. The beef from this prime Angus will be served at the disabled veterans' hospital at Minneapolis.

The grand champion was purchased from the purebred Angus herd of Max Goldberg, Moorhead, Minn., and was bought the hard way—with money Stanley earned last year picking potatoes. With part of the $4,600 from "Prince Blackcap" Stanley has purchased five purebred Angus to start a herd of his own. The remainder of the money has gone into Victory Bonds.

In 186 junior livestock shows held the past year Aberdeen-Angus steers have won 129 grand championships in competition with other breeds.

By Frances Ainsworth

The other day while I was buying my groceries I noticed two women standing at the bread counter pinching each loaf one by one.

I commented on this to my grocer and asked him if he would explain it to me. He smiled and said, "When store bread first came into popularity many years ago, bakers made every effort to deliver it oven-fresh to local groceries. But packing and distribution methods were slow, so very often the bread became stale and hard—and that's where bread-pinching came in . . . women looking for fresh bread gave each loaf an experimental pinch trying to find the freshest loaf."

My readers should know that "bread-pinching" is definitely old-fashioned. You see, modern bakers use waxed paper for wrapping each loaf. This automatically seals in the freshness. Modern-minded shoppers know that bread wrapped in waxed paper is always fresh bread.

I wish I could tell this to every woman I see pinching a loaf.

And another thing I've learned myself—after that loaf is opened, it should be carefully re-closed in the waxed paper to keep it fresh longer. Cereals and crackers, too, should be carefully re-closed. The inner wrap of cereal and cracker boxes is waxed paper. After a serving, re-close the inner waxed paper lining. You'll find it will keep the last serving fresh and tasty. I can tell you frankly that from my personal experience, bread is on my list of things that must be bought wrapped in waxed paper — and kept wrapped in waxed paper.

'THE HARVEY GIRLS'

MGM's musical romance in Technicolor

Epic of a famous Eating Place! Hearts, Heroism and Happiness in a Harvey House! When the Santa Fe, back in the last century, pushed its rails on out through the West, Fred Harvey followed with "civilized" eating places along the railroad. Waitresses were ladies. Food was good. Harvey Houses along the Santa Fe became a national institution.

Stir up the Harvey House Girls serving beefsteak and coffee in a wild and woolly frontier town, add a handsome Western hero and a crooked Western political boss, season with seven hit songs, including that toot-toot-tootingest hit, "On the Atchison, Topeka and The Santa Fe," produce it under famous MGM producers, wrap it all up in Technicolor and you have something!

You met her in St. Louis. She made your heart ticktock in "The Clock." Now she'll put your hair in curls in "The Harvey Girls." Who-o-o? Nobody but Judy Garland. Never such a song for Judy to sing as "On the Atchison, Topeka and The Santa Fe." Never such a part for Judy to play. She carries coffee—sings songs. She curbs crime. She rates romance—and she hog-ties her hero as the lights go up.

Winningest cast of the West:

Along with Judy you get He-Man JOHN HODIAK.

PRESTON FOSTER as the vicious villain.

Find-of-the-year ANGELA LANSBURY.

RAY BOLGER with the frisky feet.

Dead Pan VIRGINIA O'BRIEN.

Those comical cutups, MARJORIE MAIN and CHILL WILLS.

And KENNY BAKER, back in pictures, fresh from Broadway and radio successes.

But that's not all.

You get seven singable songs by JOHNNY MERCER and HARRY WARREN, including that Hit of Hits, "On the Atchison, Topeka and The Santa Fe."

You get direction and production by MGM's famous George Sidney and Arthur Freed. And all in Technicolor.

Historically "The Harvey Girls" grew up with Santa Fe. Our railroad and their eating houses pushed through the Southwest and West when towns were scarce, times were tough, and a Colt's 45 was a man's standard equipment. Today, the 70-year-old Fred Harvey company—which has been under the management of the same Harvey family for three generations—operates Santa Fe dining cars and the Fred Harvey hotels and restaurants located along the railroad.

"The Harvey Girls" is a delightful and wholesome entertainment the entire family will enjoy. Watch your newspapers for announcement on when "The Harvey Girls" will be in town.

Behind Your Bonds Lies the Might of America

LEAD AND SILVER

Discovery of gold attracted the Nation's attention to Idaho in 1866 but the surrounding "worthless rock" that gold hunters spurned 25 years later became the foundation of an enterprise that brought the state into first place in the production of lead and silver. Elimination of waste, big-scale operations and new scientific processes of milling, smelting and refining have enabled the industry to provide livelihood for 50,000 people. It has added to the Nation's wealth that will be enjoyed by holders of War Bonds.

With Ed Reardon

THE NEW MR. LINCOLN

NOW THAT President Truman's labor-management conference has exploded with a beautiful bang and the boys have gone back to their favorite pastime of bashing each others brains out, this might be the opportune time to put Mr. Lincoln under the microscope.

Ed Reardon

This is in no way a reference to the Great Emancipator—although he had some pertinent ideas about labor, too. The Mr. Lincoln now under discussion is James F. Lincoln, a gentleman who operates an electrical welding concern in Cleveland, and has been making a pretty good go of it for a considerable number of years.

Mr. Lincoln has a plan on how to run business in a way which is mutually satisfactory to both labor and management. His plan isn't just a theory he has scribbled down on paper and is waiting for someone to try.

It is one which he has tried himself, and has found practical over a period of years. It is a plan which is so simple, however, that it has the efficiency experts, the economics analysts and the brawny-brained Government statisticians tearing at their hair roots and gnashing their bridgework in angry amazement.

Mr. Lincoln merely pays his employees what they are worth.

THAT ISN'T intended as a witticism. It really is the Lincoln plan in a nutshell. But the idea is so elemental that it has confounded the experts who regard the Cleveland tycoon as a sort of monstrosity, an industrial bogeyman, a guy with a gimmick who will pull the world's economic structure down around their big, red ears if somebody doesn't throw a net over him in a hurry.

They even hustled him off to Washington during the war to let a Senate investigating committee pick and poke at him and threaten him with fines for overpaying his help and warn him that he and his silly ideas would be the ruination of all the wartime industrial regulations if he didn't watch out.

You see, Mr. Lincoln made the mistake of thinking that what this Country really wanted was more production for less money, more employment and less strikes and absenteeism, and the most that could be produced in the shortest possible time. He didn't know that keeping within the Government regulations was more important.

MR. LINCOLN, it appears, is an odd individual. He works on the principle that if you pay a man what he is worth, based on what he can produce, you won't have any of this fuss about union rights, or quotas, or days off, and the like. You will also increase your productive output so that you can drop the unit price on your product, which in turn gives the buying public a break and prevents inflation.

Mr. Lincoln believes these things because out at his Cleveland plant where they are in effect not a single hour ever has been lost through a misunderstanding between the workers and management.

In 20 years no person has been laid off because of lack of work. In the same period no reduction in wage rates has been made and every employe has received a steady income.

More jobs have been created so that the employe force of the company has been more than quadrupled.

The earnings per man of Lincoln employes have been increased by more than four times, which is double that of industry in general. Last year's average compensation per man was in excess of $5,800.

The system has made possible a reduction in the selling price of Lincoln's products by more than 60 per cent. During the same period other manufacturers' products were increasing an average of 25 per cent.

Yet dividends to the company's owners and shareholders—practically all of whom are workers—have been continuous and increasing.

MR. LINCOLN thinks now that the labor-management conference has blown up higher than one of those lovable Picard Brothers' balloons, maybe both sides would be interested in studying his plan as a solution to the present problem.

He seems of the opinion that representatives of the unions and of the big industries might welcome an opportunity to drop all these long-winded discussions about contracts and agreements, hidden profits and "take-home" pay and say, instead:

"Okay, fellows. From now on we'll both agree that the worker will be paid what he's worth." Isn't Mr. Lincoln foolish?

But since the war is over I didn't think you'd need your uniform anymore—so I sent it to the Victory Clothing Collection.

If You Had MY JOB

KEEPING HOUSE, helping take care of the family—you would realize that business girls are not the only ones who sometimes get Headache and Tired Aching Muscles. We home girls often work just as hard and have just as many Headaches, just as many Stomach Upsets and get just as Tired.

About a year ago, I first used ALKA-SELTZER

I find that it eases my Aching Head, takes the kinks out of Tired Aching Muscles and brings relief when I have Acid Indigestion.

The family says I am a lot easier to live with since I have known about Alka-Seltzer.

Your BABY

By Edna Mae McIntosh

It would be very convenient if physicians and nutritionists could set up a schedule telling exactly when each new food should be started during baby's first year. Just as babies vary in the age when the first tooth and then other teeth appear, so they vary in the age when new foods should be started. Your physician is by far the best guide, for he knows your baby's requirements.

Orange juice and cod liver oil are started any time after the first week, usually when the baby is two or three weeks old. Your doctor will tell you how much to give.

One of the special baby cereals, fortified with vitamins and minerals to supplement those in milk, is given next. This may be started any time from one month to three months and is given at the noon feeding.

About a month later, which means between two or two and a half months to about three and a half months, one of the strained vegetables is given. After a week on one vegetable, change to another one, but give baby plenty of time to become familiar with each one. Then change the cereal to breakfast or supper time and after two or three weeks it may be given at both meals.

Strained fruits may be started any time after a vegetable has become familiar. Gradually, very gradually, more of a variety is given. By nine months of age there should be several vegetables, some meats and vegetable soups, egg yolk, several fruits in the menu.

Good food habits are started early and learning to eat a variety is an important part in this training.

ALKA-SELTZER
BRIGHTENS
MY DAY

OCASIONALLY, I wake up in the morning with a Headache. It sometimes wears off along the middle of the forenoon, but I don't want to wait that long, so I drink a glass of sparkling ALKA-SELTZER. In just a little while I am feeling a lot better.

Sometimes the week's ironing tires me and makes me sore and stiff. Then it's ALKA-SELTZER to the rescue—a tablet or two and a little rest makes me feel more like finishing the job.

And when I eat "not wisely but too well," ALKA-SELTZER relieves the Acid Indigestion that so often follows.

Yes, Alka-Seltzer brightens my day. It brings relief from so many of my discomforts, that I always keep it handy.

Why don't you get a package of ALKA-SELTZER at your drug store today?

Large Package 60¢, Small 30¢.

I don't care if you have been eating STANTON'S 18% LAYING MASH with MANAMAR you didn't lay it!

For Better Health, Quality and Production, feed Stanton's Laying Mash, made with MANAMAR.

You will find that the eggs are richer, stand up better, have a better hatchability, and make a more vigorous, healthy chick.

The continuous practice of feeding MANAMAR feeds pays big dividends.

A. L. EDMONSON

New Telephone Co. Manager

A. L. Edmondson has been named general manager of the San Angelo Telephone Company, effective February 1, J. Y. Rust, president, announced today. Mr. Edmondson, formerly with the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, came to San Angelo from Houston.

The new general manager has a wealth of experience in the telephone business, in both independent and Bell System fields, having risen in the ranks from groundman to general manager of the Texas Telephone Company in Waco, and to division superintendent of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company at Houston.

During the 17 years of his service as division superintendent of the Bell System's properties in Southeast Texas, Mr. Edmondson took an active part in civic activities. He was president of the Houston Rotary Club, a director of the Chamber of Commerce, during the war was in charge of communications for civilian defense, and was associated with many other activities in that city.

E. J. Hardgrave, secretary and assistant general manager of the San Angelo Telephone Company, has resigned his position to devote himself to personal interests, Mr. Rust said. Mr. Hardgrave has been in the telephone business since 1900, starting to work in Ballinger. He came with the San Angelo company in 1910. During the past 35 years here he has had an active part in building the San Angelo Telephone Company from a System with 2,614 telephones to 13,600 as of today.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmondson will move to San Angelo from Houston as soon as necessary arrangements can be made, according to Mr. Rust.
