SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

By United States Department of Agriculture

(USDA)—Livestock and grains showed some easiness during the past week, in otherwise unchanged to stronger southwest farm markets. The U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

After day to day fluctuations during the week, most grains showed net losses of 1 to 2 cents, with white corn and sorghums falling even more. Barley gained two cents to sell from $1.47 to $1.52 at Texas Common points. No. 2 milo closed Monday at $2.72 to $2.77 a hundred pounds and white corn $1.89 to $1.94 a bushel.

Rice values continued to rise during the past week on both rough and milled. Top grades of the long grains enjoyed the best demand. Animal protein feeds and oilseed meals took the lead in a generally rising feed market. Cold winds and snow renewed demand for hay in many areas but slowed movement from farm to market. A few late-picked peanuts sold at government support prices. Shelled stock was slow.

Texas sheep markets paid steady to $1 higher prices for sheep and lambs, as other terminals dropped as much as 25 or 50 cents a hundred on some classes. Goat prices rose mainly 50 cents at San Antonio. Best ewes cleared around $9.50 at San Antonio and Denver, $8.50 at Oklahoma City and Wichita, and $10 at Fort Worth.

Southwest wool prices strengthened following the advance in foreign Merino wools. Mohair sold around 40 cents for adult hair and 60 to 75 for kid, f.o.b. Texas.

Hogs netted an advance of mostly 50 cents at Texas markets, but lost as much as 50 cents during the week at Kansas terminals and $1 at Denver. Top butcher hogs cashed at $23.75 at Fort Worth, $23.50 at Oklahoma City and Denver, and $23.25 at San Antonio, Wichita, and Kansas City. Sows brought mostly $18 to $21.50.

Cattle sold unchanged to $1 higher for the week at most southwest terminals, although some classes lost as much as 50 cents at Kansas City. Cows and calves were most numerous in the week's trading. Killing calves moved largely from $25 down at Kansas City and Oklahoma City. Heavy slaughter calves sold mainly from $19 to $24 at Denver, as good and choice grades brought $19 to $24 at Wichita and $21.50 to $25 at Fort Worth. Good calves made $24 to $25 at Houston and San Antonio.

Heavy hens found best demand at southwest poultry markets the past week at slightly stronger prices. Best heavy hens brought 30 to 32 cents a pound at Denver, 32 to 35 at Dallas and Fort Worth, and 39 to 40 at New Orleans. Fryers sold around 32 to 33 cents at Arkansas farms. Light egg supplies sold firm.

Cold and snow curtailed supplies of homegrown vegetables at mid-west terminals and made room for more winter products from South Texas and Southern Louisiana. Texas carlot shipments the past week included tomatoes, peppers, spinach, beans, beets, cabbage, broccoli, carrots, lettuce and mixed vegetables.

Cotton closed Monday about unchanged for the week. Spot middling 15/16 inch brought 31.55 cents a pound at Dallas, 31.45 at Galveston, and 31.40 at New Orleans.

Truck Line Sold

C. T. (Boots) Williams has sold his truck line, and Ansel Reed is now operating it. Williams has operated the truck line for the past three years almost.

PMA COUNTY COMMITTEE ELECTION DATE SET FOR DECEMBER 15

The present county committee agreed upon December 15 as the date for the 1949 County Committee election. They also appointed the nominating committee. The men appointed were E. L. Bailey, Riley King, and Will Augustine. These men will select from a list of eligible men to serve as committeemen the names that are to appear on the ballot. They will select two names for each of the following positions: Chairman, vice-chairman, and regular member and a first and second alternate. The list of eligible farmers or ranchers is made up of men who have carried out a conservation practice or participated in the Loan or Price Support Programs this year and are not holding an office for which they have been selected.

Any person who is participating or cooperating in any program administered during 1948 through the Agricultural Conservation Association including owner, operator, tenant or sharecropper on a farm or ranch on which a conservation practice is being carried out, or any owner, operator, tenant or sharecropper who is eligible for a cooperator's loan under any of the loan programs or any one eligible for price support under any of the Price Support Programs is eligible to vote in this election. The wife is eligible, also.

Every farmer and rancher who is eligible to vote has a responsibility to cast his or her ballot on December 15. We may well be at the cross-roads this year. We may neglect our opportunity to administer our own program and let control of agriculture slip away from us. Or we may unite back of the farm and ranch program and build a better and stronger agriculture in the future. It is your choice. Ballots will be mailed to every eligible voter. He may vote at the polls on Dec. 15 or he may vote by mail. If the voter chooses to mail the ballots, they must be returned to the AAA office by the date of the election and the name of the voter must be on the envelope in order that the voter may be checked on the list of eligible voters.

North Concho River Soil Conservation News

George O'Barr has recently built a number of road and gully diversions on his ranch. These conservation practices were established as a part of his complete ranch conservation plan. O'Barr did the work with an Olive Cletrac tractor which he purchased last year.

Mrs. Jess Elrod & Sons requested the assistance of Soil Conservation Service engineers to stake out road blocks along the newly graded ranch roads on their ranch in the northwest part of the district.

Over twenty 4-H Club and FFA boys from the North Concho River Soil Conservation District were present at the W. N. & L. R. Reed ranch field day and official opening of the first range management contest on November 20. This contest is sponsored by the district and extends for a period of approximately one year. Including ranchers, district supervisors, county agents, vocational agriculture teachers, Soil Conservation Service technicians, approximately sixty people were in attendance.

The group saw 3 1/4 inches of water applied by a rain maker in 30 minutes penetrate to 9 1/2 inches on

"Covering the County"

By Byron W. Frierson, Sterling County Agent

Kent Jones is doing a very practical piece of work with his 4-H pig demonstration. He is feeding two Duroc pigs and using part of the lunchroom waste and supplementing it with milo. The milo is costing him $2.25 per hundred. He will soon start feeding ground milo which will cost him $2.50 per hundred. This maize is from a stock of several thousand pounds of maize that was purchased by the club. Tommy Foster gave the club members some of their feed sacks which was a help in holding their feed price down. Kent is feeding salt free choice. His pigs are making a nice gain.

Edmund Heacock purchased a Hampshire pig and is feeding him milo and a protein supplement made of two parts meat and bone scraps, 2 parts cottonseed meal, and 1 part alfalfa leaf meal. He feeds this at the ratio of 4 pounds of grain to 1 pound of supplement. He is also giving his pig salt free choice.

If I hadn't seen it, I wouldn't have believed it, but 326 cows were treated for grubs on Lester Foster's Glasscock ranch in 58 minutes. The cows had previously been worked for lice and ear ticks. The exceptional speed of the grub spraying was made possible by having two men above the chute, each with a spray nozzle from their 400 gallon spray machine. As the cows came through the chute each cow was hit with a stream from each nozzle and her back thoroughly sprayed from the overhead position. Six hundred pounds of pressure was used. This is much more pressure than is necessary, but it really put the rotenone where it would do the most good. Slightly over 1/2 gallon of spray mixture was used per cow and cost of the rotenone was less than 4 cents per cow.

These figures come from that annual report that is giving me all the static: During the past year 608 visits to farms, ranches and homes were made; fifty six days were spent in the office and 246 spent outside.

If Virgil Brownfield were to have his say, he would probably want me to figure out how many times I have eaten lunch in the country, and add that to the rest of the figures I have to compile.

4-H Club members are feeding 1/4 ounce of sulphur per day to the lambs that they have on feed. It is mixed with the regular ration. Results of the experiments at Colorado A. & M. indicate that this will assist in preventing death from overeating. This is a trouble otherwise known as enteroxemia or feed-lot apoplexy.

The 4-H boys will exhibit five pigs between the City Cafe and the Merrell Barber Shop Saturday between 10 and 4 o'clock. Six weeks later the boys will exhibit them again and see whose pig gained the most, as well as let the general public compare and see what the boys are doing.

An area heavily covered with side oats grama and tobosa grass. In contrast 3 1/4 inches in 30 minutes penetrated only 1 1/4 inches on barren ground of the same soil type. The temperature was 10 degrees higher on the bare ground. Clippings of grass on squares showed that forage production doubles with increased composition of the higher feed producing grasses and increased litter on the ground. Range in good condition was found to be producing more than a ton of grass per acre.

Clyde Reynolds, district cooperator for several years, made an efficiency check of his irrigation pumping plant last Friday. Soil Conservation engineers assigned to assist this district helped Reynolds to do this job.

Harold Jensen, range conservationist with the Soil Conservation Service, is collecting grass specimens to be used in a display of the more important range plants of western Texas at the Cactus Hotel San Angelo, during the Sheep and Goat Raisers Convention early in December.

Texas 4-H'ers Win Chicago Trips

Ann Peterson Wayne White Betty Blackerby Reuben Rother

SUPERIOR records of achievement in National 4-H Better Methods, Canning, Clothing and Garden programs have won 1948 state championship honors for four Texas club members. Each received an all-expense trip to the 27th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, Nov. 28 to Dec. 2. The winners, who were selected by the state club office, and brief outlines of their records follow:

Getting that well-known "new-look" was little trouble for Ann Peterson, 17, of Devine, who selected, sewed, made over or mended 26 garments for herself and other members of the family during three years of 4-H club work. In addition to completing five 4-H projects, of which three were in clothing, Ann served as president and leader. She gave a talk at a community meeting and wrote three stories about 4-H tours, camps or special events. Ann has done some interesting things with textile paints. A peasant blouse which was plain white she painted attractive Mexican girl and ivy flower vendors around the neckline. She painted bath towels with a design taken from the bathroom wall paper, painted initial A on the cuffs of a pair of white pants with Mexican design, which was done in six colors. Named State winner in the 1948 National 4-H Clothing Achievement program, she was awarded an educational trip to the Chicago Club Congress provided by Spoon Cotton Educational Bureau.

Wayne White, 17, of Coahoma, has applied many better feeding and housing methods in his livestock activities because of skill achieved through the National 4-H Better Methods Electric program. Wayne has been named State winner in the program in recognition of the many better methods he has developed for doing farm tasks. He has given demonstrations on trimming calves feet, grooming livestock, terracing, culling chickens and pruning trees. In addition to project work, he has served as junior leader of his local club for five years. Wayne received an educational trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, provided by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation.

The Blackerby family of White-wright has no worries when it comes to being supplied with a variety of healthful foods all year around. Canning 1,984 quarts of meat, fruit and vegetables helped 4-H'er Betty Blackerby, 16, win State honors in the National 4-H Canning Program. She also has served her club in many offices and is a junior leader. Betty was provided an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, by the Kerr Glass Mfg. Corp. as recognition for her outstanding achievements.

Providing his family with plenty of healthful home-grown vegetables was a major achievement for Reuben Rother, 20, of McDade, but he has now also been recognized with State honors in the 1948 National 4-H Garden program. Reuben planted and tended peanuts, tomatoes, squash, blackberries, melons, potatoes, cabbage and corn during his seven years as a 4-H'er. He has used crop rotation and learned their value in both garden and field crops projects. As a recognition of his achievements, Allis Chalmers provided Reuben with an educational trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago.

All of these activities are conducted under the direction of the Extension Service of the State Agriculture College and USDA cooperating.

Win Texas 4-H State Championships

TEXAS' 4-H State winners in the 1948 Dress Revue, Food Preparation, Girls' Record and Home Improvement programs, who each received an all-expense trip to the 27th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago, and brief outlines of their records follow:

In recognition of what she has learned in 4-H Club work about all phases of homemaking, Lois Wilson, 16, of Morton, has been named State winner in the 1948 National 4-H Girls' Record program. She helped raise 1,250 fowl and sell eggs, and canned 2,023 quarts of fruit and vegetables from the family garden. To beautify her home she repaired the fence, cared for the lawn and planted flowers. Lois makes all her own clothes. She has served her club as secretary, president, and is junior leader. Lois has been awarded an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago, provided by Montgomery Ward.

If you visited her home in Moore, you would readily see why Shirley Moore, 15, has been named State winner in the 1948 National 4-H Home Improvement program. Shirley has remodeled a narrow clothes closet into a linen closet, put new linoleum on the floor, varnished and covered a rocking chair, and sawed the posts off her bed to make it Hollywood style. Shirley helped upholster a studio couch and chairs for the living room. She also helped in painting the bathroom and kitchen. In recognition of her achievements, The Sears-Roebuck Foundation is providing Shirley with an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago.

Preparing tasty, nutritious home meals is an art, well mastered by Dona Hendry, 16, Blackwell, who has been named State winner in the 1948 National 4-H Food Preparation program. Dona has prepared and served 4,889 meals and 2,217 separate dishes during her eight years as a 4-H member. She has also completed 63 projects, canned 2,345 quarts of food, raised 1,330 chickens, and 57 hogs, calves, and sheep. She has held every office in her club and was also county president. She is now an assistant leader. The income from her 4-H projects amounts to $4,566. As a recognition of her 4-H achievements, Donna was awarded

For the skill and knowledge shown in the planning, selecting, constructing and assembling a wool dress with a topper which won first place in the state 1948 4-H Dress Revue, Jolene Campbell, 16, of Colorado City won a trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, Chicago. Her winning outfit is a winter green wool one-piece dress. For her topper she chose a plaid which repeats this winter-green with red and off white. It is double breasted with self-covered buttons and features a flaring back. Her accessories include a green cloth bag trimmed in gold, gold colored gloves, a brown felt hat and brown calf shoes. The cost of her complete outfit was $31.00 including all accessories. State winners who participate in the National 4-H Dress Revue at Chicago will each receive a $25.00 U. S. Savings Bond from Simplicity Pattern Company, which also provided the National Club Congress trips.

Boyce House "GIVES YOU TEXAS"

Some of the favorite touches given by the writers for Western story magazines and for the cowboy movies are treated rather roughly by George Hendricks in his book "The Bad Man of the West." (Naylor Company, San Antonio.)

Very few of the famous real-life gunfighters actually fired two guns at the same time, nor did they fire from the hip.

Of approximately 250 gunfighters whose records Hendricks studied, Billy the Kid was the only one who preferred the double-action .45 to the single action. To fire the double action pistol, all you do is pull the trigger, the mechanism automatically lifting the hammer, then causing it to fall.

With the single action gun, the user had to pull the hammer back with his thumb and then squeeze the trigger with his finger. However, the experts usually altered the mechanism so the weapon could be fired merely by pulling the hammer back with the thumb and then letting it fallback, not using the trigger at all. In fact, usually the trigger was filed off.

But it would be almost impossible for the fiction writers to think up situations more exciting or unusual than actually happened as related in Hendrick's book.

For instance, Red Kelley's final fight. Kelley was credited with having killed Bob Ford, who was the slayer of Jesse James. Kelley and an enemy met at very close range, each went for his gun and each seized the other by the wrist of the gun-hand. As they struggled each fired three times before they fell heavily to the ground with Kelley on top. His adversary finally was able to free his arm sufficiently to level and fire, killing Kelley; but the victor was so exhausted from the struggle that he could neither throw off Kelley's body nor wriggle from under it but had to ask to be liberated by spectators.

One time, a bad man got the drop on the famous Texas Ranger Captain Bill McDonald, ordering "Hands up." McDonald slowly raised his hands but just as they reached the elevation of his hat, he grabbed the brim and sailed the hat into the other's face, then whipped on this six-shooter and shot him.

Captain Harry Wheeler of the Arizona Rangers found himself in an even more difficult position. He was unarmed and two outlaws leveled their pistols on him. "Wait a minute," he said, "while I tie my boot" and after he had tied the boot, as he was raising up, he threw a handful of sand in their eyes, grabbed a gun and covered them.

PITTSBURGH — Eliminating the danger of driving with inadequate rear vision, a full sized rear window is featured in one of the new Hudson convertibles. This safety feature is made possible by folding glass, developed by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass company. Dr. P. C. Slusser— Chiropractor

Dr. P. C. Slusser, Chiropractor, has his office at 911 Gregg in Big Spring. Phone 1602 for an appointment.

For more than 50 years chiropractic has been accomplishing wonderful things. That it has endured for that length of time is proof of its worth and merit. It has saved thousands of individuals from a premature grave and has put millions on the road to health and enabled them to become useful members of society.

The practice of Chiropractic is based on the principle of correcting the cause of disease in the body. Disease is effect and every effect must have a cause. Chiropractic contends that the cause of disease in the body is the vertebral subluxation which creates pressure upon nerves and interferes with the normal transmission of vital energy. The Chiropractic objective is to locate the place in the spine where nerve pressure exists, due to vertebral subluxation, and by proper adjustment, to restore the subluxated vertebra to its normal position. Correct adjustment releases the pressure on nerves and thereby removes the real cause of disease in the body.

If Dr. P. C. Slusser cannot help you he will tell you so.

NTSTC MOYERS MIXUP GIVES JONESES LAUGH

Denton, Texas, Nov 26—The Smiths and Joneses will get a laugh out of this.

When James Henry Moyers, junior from Marshall, arrived at North Texas State Teachers College this fall, he became irritated when he failed to get telephone calls and mail, including those important GI subsistence checks. And when he opened letters found in his box at the college post office, he discovered the topics were unfamiliar and the signatures unknown.

At the same time, James Herbert Moyers, freshman from Ferris, was getting mysterious letters and GI subsistence checks, which he promptly returned.

Finally the boys tracked each other down and talked the matter over. They decided the situation not only was inconvenient and confusing to them, but was resulting in confusion to the college offices and teachers, who would send absentee slips and grades to be recorded which might wind up with the wrong student.

The Ferris Moyers decided that since he was called Jimmy at home he would change all of his college records and go by that name. Thus they thought everything was cleared up. But this week the Marshall Moyers sat down beside a man in a drugstore and they started talking. The man introduced himself and said his name was Moyers-Herbert Moyers, father of Jimmy. That did it! The Marshall boy's father is also named Herbert!

The Ferris Moyer is a nephew of Mrs. H. A. Chapple of Sterling City.

WHAT'S UNDER THE HOOD?

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Secaucus, Arkansas

Looking Ahead

MACHINE LOVING, curious Americans, we are. If we buy a new car, most of us want to know first what it's got that makes it go. Many a lad, since grown up but still curious, remembers papa's razor - strop or mama's rage because he tore up the Big Ben alarm clock. He just wanted to see what made it tick! The genius of young America today, for understanding things and machines and gadgets, shows a quality of mind and spirit that is distinctly American. May we never lose it.

To want to know what's under the hood is a mighty fine thing. But about America itself: the story of our enormous growth, the foundations for our freedoms and prosperity—these things we have not looked into. We know that America is the best land in which to live, but we don't always have the answers why. That's not fair to America, nor fair to the future we all have a right to expect. We ought to know the How's and Why's of the American Miracle.

Seeing is EVER SINCE I came Believing back in 1936 from a ten-year stay in China and a look-see at dozens of other nations both ways around the world, I have been plugging for real understanding of America. When we steamed into New York harbor that time, my wee daughter thought Heaven would be wonderful if it were half that nice. She didn't mind saying so. She was born in China. But I found a nation full of confused people, and I felt that many of my fellow Americans were faint-hearted.

I do not regret having since devoted so much time and energy to the job of reselling everybody I meet on the idea of America. It's not that Americans are against the American way of doing things. We've been so free, and so busy, that we just haven't paid much attention to the reasons for our well-being. Then, when some Johnny Commie happens along to tell us: "Down with capital and hate your boss!"—we fail to have answers ready for him. Such a misunderstanding of America can be serious.

A Greater I AM HAPPY to see America that the Advertising Council, Inc., a non-profit organization made up of men in the advertising profession, will dramatize the story of America in magazines, newspapers, and on billboards. Many companies and publications will sponsor the advertisements prepared by the Council. The American Federation of Labor, the Congress of Industrial Organizations, and other groups are helping. If you see any of the ads in November and later months, please read them.

You will also want to read "The Miracle of America," a booklet which will be offered free in the advertisements. Two full years of work were put into preparations for this educational campaign by the most talented story tellers in the land: America's advertisers. They are doing a fine job telling the story of our nation and the benefits of the American system. Let us echo the story and pass the word around!

You bet, America's going ahead, if we all pull together. If we count our blessings, and at the same time view our glorious future, it'll not be possible for a single American to fall for anybody's false ideas. There's no country with a past like America's, nor any with as great a future. If we inform ourselves, and determine that our way is the best, we can settle down and get going toward the goal of an even greater America! What's under the hood will take us places!

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Why Dutch is Growing a Beard

That beard on Dutch Miller's chin doesn't mean that he's getting ready to play Santa Claus. He's simply paying off the election bet he lost to Cappy Swanson.

And while some folks allow it's all a lot of nonsense—like the wheelbarrow ride that Cappy had to give Dutch after last election day—from where I sit, it's a mighty wholesome aftermath to a difference of opinion.

Because good Americans all take their politics and voting mighty seriously. But when the issue's settled, and the die is cast, they accept the verdict in a spirit of good humor.

And that's as it should be when it comes to any difference of opinion. Some folks vote for beer as their favorite beverage—others vote for cider. In fact, we all have differences of taste in almost everything! But that doesn't mean that we can't live together in a spirit of good fellowship.
