John Walraven was the foreman of the jury.

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

Ten House members became eligible for membership in the mythical "Flip-Flop club" last week when they voted one day for the Wood labor bill (which passed by a vote of 217-to-203) and then on the following day flopped over and voted to kill the bill they had approved the day before. They were admittedly under terrific pressure, the President even threatening to take off patronage from those who didn't stand pat for the Lesinski bill.

After the House voted to okay the Wood measure (which contains about 75% of the Taft-Hartley bill), on the following day the reversal occurred, sending the whole thing back to the labor committee by a three-vote margin, presumably for further study.

The Lesinski bill, for which the Wood bill was substituted on the floor, would have repealed the Taft-Hartley law, re-enacted the old Wagner Act, and would have repealed all State laws on the closed shop and prohibited future ones from being enacted by the States. It was a close call and a hard nut to substitute the Wood bill thereby prevent a complete break-down of our laws controlling and restricting the activities of labor unions as well as those of employers. Texans in Congress are sharply divided on the question of killing the Lesinski bill with the Wood substitute. Nine voted to keep the Lesinski bill alive and voting against the Wood bill.

Among recent visitors in our office from Texas were Mr. and Mrs. G. Hollingsworth, of Coleman, along with their son, R. B. and wife of Tulsa. While in these parts, Hollingsworth visited the old family homestead in Pennsylvania where his grandfather lived a hundred years ago. The Coleman visitor who is a leading champion of water and soil conservation indicated several such projects in the State and got some news.

Washington the Hollingsworths saw the capitol for the first time, visited Mt. Vernon and other historical spots, talked with Congressman Whittington, Chairman of the House Flood Control committee and others, relative to flood control plans and soil and water conservation.

Another recent caller was John E. publisher of COUNTY PROGRESS, of Brownwood. Blake, who has radio and other interests, attended to business affairs while

Other recent visitors included Don Morris, President of Abilene Christian College; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Crenshaw, now of Pampa

1.85 Inches Rain Last Week-end

Last week-end the rain here in town was gauged at 1.85 inches. The precipitation varied, but it was well distributed over the entire county. Most of it fell Saturday and Sunday morning.

but formerly of San Angelo; C.L. Harless, the York Nut Cracker representative, of San Angelo; Arthur Stehling, General Counsel of Pedernales REA, of Fredericksburg; Houston Harte of San Angelo, and Millard Cope of Marshall. Mr. and Mrs. Steve Stumberg, of Sanderson, stopped by enroute from New York, where the West Texas ranchman attended a joint meeting of the American and British Dominions wool growers.

Last Friday, I accompanied Secretary of Agriculture Brannan and a group of Texans on a flying trip to Texas. The first stop was in Waco, where the Secretary inspected some agricultural projects and met with farm groups. A side trip was made to Lubbock where Mr. Brannan delivered an address Saturday night before the party returned to Washington on Sunday.

"Covering the County"

By Byron W. Frierson, Sterling County Agent

If you feel the urge to travel, now is a fine time. Texas really has on its Sunday clothes. Never in all of my 24 years have I seen such wildflower displays as can be seen in the hill country now.

Twenty members of the 4-H Club met last Thursday. Four of the five members who are to attend the District camp were determined by their grass collections. Selection of the 5th member was postponed to May 5 by a vote of the club.

The four excellent collections were turned in by Larry Glass who had 41 different grasses mounted neatly and correctly identified, Clinton Hodges who had 37, Harry Blaneck who had 33, and Henry Bliznak who had 29. If you think this is not a nice accomplishment by those boys, just try to find that many.

The experimental work in poisoning bitterweed by applying 2-4-D with an airplane spray rig may or may not effectively kill the bitterweed. One thing is sure, regardless of how good the kill is, it will be money wasted if the county involved is not given an opportunity to grow some grass.

Here are some shearing weights worth noting. Foster S. Price sheared 9 aged bucks, 36 yearling bucks, 34 yearling ewes, and 203 mixed ewes at the Bobs Creek ranch recently and got a clip of 17.2 pounds from the bunch.

A. H. Walker, former county agent at Menard, and at present ranching in Val Verde County and filling the capacity of Extension Range Specialist, will be in Sterling City May 27. A night meeting will be held in the Legion Hall for the Veterans Vocational Class and all other interested ranchmen. Mr. Walker has been asked to discuss rotation grazing, deferred grazing, reseeding, and stocking. Slide films will be shown. Mark the date on your calendar. Time is 8 p.m. It will be worth your time.

I have other fish to fry so I am going to close with this little gem of wisdom.

Recently a noted "poll" organization sent letters to a selected list of men to get their opinions as to the best way to hold a wife.

It is rumored that one of the replies came from Huntsville. It said: "I found the best way was around the neck, but it should not be overdone. Please note change of address."

H. H. Hooker, Former Resident, Dead

Herman H. Hooker, long-time resident of West Texas, died at his home in Eldorado of a heart attack Wednesday morning.

Funeral services will be held at 4 p. m. Friday from the Presbyterian Church with the pastor, the Rev. E. F. King, officiating. Burial will be in the Eldorado cemetery with the Ratliff Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Hooker moved to Sterling City as a boy. He moved to Eldorado and bought the Eldo Hotel in 1924 and operated it until 1937. He sold the hotel and moved to San Angelo where he operated a restaurant for a year before retiring.

After making his home in Sterling City for a short time, he returned to Eldorado. He was a Mason and a member of the Methodist Church.

Survivors include the widow, formerly Miss Mabel Gilmore of Sterling City; five daughters, Mrs. Clyde Everitt of Sterling City, Mrs. M. O. Shaeffer of San Angelo, Mrs. W. J. Durham of Tucumcari, N.M., Mrs. Thomas Richard Jones of Eldorado, and Mrs. Jack Mims of Marfa; and a brother, F. H. Hooker of Fort Worth.

J. T. Davis made a business trip to Dallas last week-end.

Rev. and Mrs. C. D. McEntire were returned home from an Abilene hospital last Friday. Rev. McEntire had been suffering from double pneumonia, it was said.

Joe Emery, local butane gas dealer, was taken to a San Angelo hospital last week for observation and treatment.

Lions Club Luncheon

Guests at the Lions Club luncheon Wednesday were E. L. Jones of San Angelo, Ralph Rolley of the Dow Chemical Co. of Houston, J. W. Gibson of Dow's—Houston, Lynn Swartz of Dallas and Pete Allen of Sweetwater.

Lion G. W. Tillerson told of the senior trip with the seniors last week-end. He told of the group going to Lake Buchanan the first day. Sightseeing in Austin was on the second day's program, and then on to Galveston. After the usual Galveston excursions, the group went to Houston. There they ate at the new Shamrock Hotel. The last day was spent in San Antonio seeing the sights there. He reported that Baker did not place in the mile run at the state finals in Austin.

New Mexican Catholic Church To Be Dedicated Next Tuesday Morning

St. Paschal's Catholic Church, a new edifice for the Catholics here, will be dedicated next Tuesday morning at 9:30, which is the fiesta day of the Patron Saint for which the new church was named. St. Paschal, a shepherd of Baylon in Spain, was a patron of the Universal Eucharistic Congress.

In charge of the dedication will be the Right Reverend Monsgr. Francis Pokluda, Vicar General of the Amarillo Diocese, Pastor at the Wall church. He will be assisted by the Very Rev. W. Bozen, Deacon of Rowena; and the Very Rev. F. Hulweg, O.M.I., Ex-Prvincial of Oblates of Mary, San Antonio and at present the pastor at Sweetwater. He is a sub-deacon.

Master of ceremonies will be the Rev. Wendell Sontheimer. Cross bearer will be Rev. Carroll Meyer, O.F.M., pastor of St. Mary's Church in San Angelo. Acolytes will be Rev. Frederick Doren of McCamey, O.F.M., and Rev. Cyril Hermann, O.F.M. of Sonora.

Rev. Herbert Effler, O.F.M., the Missionary to Mertzon and Knickerbocker, will be the censor.

Celebrant of the High Mass will be the Very Rev. Alcuin Feldhues, O.F.M., pastor of the Sacred Heart Church in San Angelo. The choir will be made up of the Sacred Heart church's children's choir.

Very Rev. A. Rodriguez, pastor of the Lady Guadalupe Church in Amarillo will preach the sermon.

The dedication will begin on the outside. The procession will march around the church singing psalms and blessing the church with holy water. The clergy already mentioned and others from Ballinger, Colorado City, Abilene, Olfen, Stanton, Big Spring, Midland and Odessa, will have a part in the ceremonies.

Following the outside dedication, the faithful will enter the new church, and then comes the inside dedication. The group will chant a litany and the inside will be blessed with holy water. Following this comes the solemn mass, said Rev. Fidelis, who will be the missionary in charge here hereafter.

The bell for the tower was furnished by the ladies of the parish, and on it is inscribed in Spanish: "In honor of San Fidel, offered by a grateful people to their pastor. 'El Padricito Fidelis.'" This, as can be seen, honors the pastor, Fr. Fidelis.

Everyone is invited to the dedication ceremony, said Fr. Fidelis.

SWING OF SOUTHWEST FARM MARKETS

By United States Department of Agriculture

(USDA)—Despite numerous weak spots, southwest farm markets ruled mostly steady to strong during the past week, the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration reports.

Cotton scored advances of 50c to $3 a bale. Spot middling 15/16 inch closed Monday at 32.55 cents a pound at Dallas and 33.15 at New Orleans.

Most grains sold from 1 to 3 cents higher than a week ago, although corn declined slightly. No. 2 yellow milo closed Monday at $2.57 to $2.62 per hundred pounds at Texas common points. No. 1 wheat brought $2.36 to $2.43 a bushel. No. 2 white corn sold at $1.66½ to $1.69½ and yellow corn $1.55½ to $1.57.

Rice found better export demand this week but domestic trade was slow. Wet fields continued to delay planting. Wheat millfeeds led a general downward trend in feed prices. Rainy weather improved pastures and slowed demand for hay, but also hindered curing. Rain held up peanut planting in the southwest.

Butcher hogs netted gains of 25 to 50 cents for the week at Oklahoma City and Denver, and feeder pigs advanced around $1 in Texas and Oklahoma. Other swine saw little change. Top butcher hogs closed Monday at $18.25 at Texas markets, and $19.75 at Denver. Receipts fell off slightly. Pork sold weak to $3 lower.

Cattle sold unchanged to $1 higher at most markets, but Houston and San Antonio recorded losses up to $1 or more compared to a week earlier. Calves declined most at the south Texas markets. Medium and good slaughter calves sold Monday from $23 to $26 at San Antonio and Houston. Fort Worth paid $24 to $27 for good and choice. Last week's cattle receipts about equaled the week before, but calves increased in Texas. Steer beef sold weak to 50 cents lower for the week, and veal as much as $1 lower.

Much heavier marketings of lambs brought slightly lower prices in Texas, but sold steady to strong at other markets. Mutton sold unchanged from a week ago, but dressed old crop lamb fell $2 to $3. Fort Worth paid $28 to $30 Monday for good and choice spring lambs. Goats and kids declined about 50 cents at San Antonio.

Wool trade improved, and some adult Texas mohair sold at 37 cents a pound.

More liberal marketing of hens lowered prices this week. Light hens brought 22 to 25 cents a pound at Dallas, where heavy hens brought 26 to 30. Most sales fell within the same ranges at Denver and Fort Worth. New Orleans ranged up to 33 on lights and 36 on heavies. Eggs held mostly steady at around 40 cents a dozen.

Strawberry shipments increased from various Arkansas producing areas, and prices declined $3 or more per 24 quart crate from a week ago. Week-end sales of U.S. No. 1 Blakmores ranged mostly from $5 to 07. South Texas harvest of carrots and onions drew toward a close, but corn and tomato shipments got into full swing. Corn and cucumbers sold at lower prices than a week ago. First offerings of New Mexico asparagus appeared at Fort Worth last week.

Bro. James F. Black of San Angelo was a brief visitor here Wednesday morning.

HOW TO SHOOT A RIFLE

By ARTHUR E. COOK
National and Olympic Rifle Champion

Trigger Control

Control of the trigger can make or break you as a shooter. The accepted movie hero technique of yanking at the trigger with hardly more than a glance at the target is bosh. You can't hit anything consistently that way.

When your sights are aligned on the target the only way to get off the shot is to squeeze the trigger with such a smooth and steady motion that you do not disturb that aim. The trigger is squeezed by a steady movement of the forefinger only.

Speed and smoothness in the trigger squeeze can be combined but it takes practice and the best way to practice is with an empty gun. Aim at a small bullseye across the room and carefully let-off each shot. Since the rifle does not actually fire you can see your mistakes.

Another thing—while squeezing the trigger stop breathing and relax. The rise and fall of the chest while breathing will throw your sights off the target. Relaxation will reduce your pulse beat, which is another disturbing factor in precision aiming.

One final hint—always follow through. By that I mean keep looking through the sights at the target even after the shot is fired. This prevents movement of the gun before the shot has left the muzzle and often enables you to see where your shot hit when you are shooting in the field.

(This instruction based on the booklet, "HOW TO SHOOT A RIFLE," published by The National Rifle Association, Washington, D. C.)

Be sure of your target!

How Would You Say It?

Curley Lawson's cousin from back East and a few of us got talking when he was here visiting, and I couldn't help noticing how different he said things.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement almost killed me." "You mean sack of cement?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interrupts young Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South, "He means a 'poke of see-ment.'"

It was good for a chuckle, anyway. Bag, sack or poke—we knew what he was trying to say. It just depends on where you are in the U. S., which way sounds right.

From where I sit, whenever we criticize someone for sounding funny to us, we ought to think how we sound to them. It's the same as choosing your liquid refreshment. I'm accustomed to a moderate glass of beer—you may like ginger ale—but who's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!
