Club Boys Annual Livestock Show Held Here on Tuesday

CLINTON HODGES AND BILLY RALPH BYNUM TAKE MOST TOP HONORS

Clinton Hodges took the champion fine wool rosette and prize money, and Billy Ralph Bynum was awarded the crossbred championship at the Annual Club Boys Livestock Show here Tuesday.

Clinton's lamb was bred by Bill and Lee Reed, who gave the lamb to Clinton for making a winner of him. Billy Ralph's lamb was bred by J. W. Cox of Garden City. Both boys took the reserve championship with lambs, too.

Clinton took five firsts, all told, making him top money winner of the show. Billy Ralph walked off with three firsts.

Special awards

Clinton was awarded the J. T. Davis plaque for having the champion fine wool lamb of the show. A wrist watch, donated by Nathaniel's Jewelers, went to Billy Derrell Blair. A drawing, among all boys showing, was held to determine his award.

James A. Gray of San Angelo judged the show. Horace Donaldson furnished the public address system. Tommy Foster, Claude Broome and A. T. Bratton judged the showmanship award.

The winners of the classes and breeders were as follows:

Lions Club Luncheon

Jackie and Elizabeth Cole sang two duets and two solos each at the Lions Club luncheon Wednesday at the Community Center. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Tommie Johnson.

The club voted to have a campaign to get new members. H. L. Hildebrand and Horace Donaldson were named to head the two competing groups in such a contest.

Guests present were Jackie and Elizabeth Cole, Mrs. J. S. Cole, Jr., Jodie Emery, Bob Brown and J. S. Cole.

The prize went to Doug Farnsworth. C. C. Ainsworth was a new member.

John Scott Murray Buried Here Monday

John Scott Murray, 66, died in a San Angelo hospital on Saturday of last week. Funeral services were conducted from the Robert Massie Funeral Chapel in San Angelo at 10 a.m. Monday. Burial followed in Sterling at the Foster Cemetery that afternoon.

The Rev. W. B. Green, pastor of the Hermligh First Baptist Church officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Taylor Henley of the Immanuel Baptist Church in San Angelo.

Murray, a former resident of Sterling City, had resided in San Angelo for the past 28 years, and was employed at the Wendland Manufacturing Co. there.

Mrs. Murray is the sister of W. H. Sparkman of this city.

DAUGHTER TO THE GEORGE BLACKBURNE

A daughter, named Brenda Diane, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Blackburn last Friday, February 24 in a Big Spring hospital. The baby weighed seven pounds and thirteen ounces. This is the first child for the Blackburns.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Blackburn of Daingerfield, and Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Jernigan of Bells, Texas.

NEW MASONIC HALL

The new Masonic Hall here, between the Palace Theater and the pool hall, is about finished and ready for occupancy. The bottom floor is to be leased for business and the top for the Masonic and O.E.S. meetings and gatherings. The bottom floor is finished with a pale green color, celotex ceiling, and fluorescent lighting. The front has been modernized. The top is finished somewhat like the bottom.

Lambs Auctioned

Nine lambs were auctioned off by Gray to the highest bidder. Riley King paid 25c a pound for a lamb, then donated it to the senior class. J. T. Davis paid 26c for a 96 pound lamb. John Reed paid 27c for a 89 pound lamb and then donated it to the junior class. Riley King then bought it at 25c and donated it to the sophomore and freshmen class. Last it was bought by Copeland Bros for 21c. Foster S. Price paid 26c for an 81 pounder. H. A. Chapple paid 26c for one as did N. H. Reed. Bill and Lee Reed bought one at 29c.

Fred Hodges had donated a registered lamb to the American Legion Post. Riley King bid in for it at $55, and then donated it to the City Cemetery. Then it sold to John Reed for $55 who donated it to the City Cemetery. Bill Brooks finally got the lamb for $40.

By a vote of 240 to 177 the House last week passed and sent to the Senate a "voluntary" fair employment practice bill, rather than one of compulsion which is advocated by President Truman.

The Southern Democrats joined with the Republicans in killing the compulsory or "police state" type of FEPC, and then the Northern Democrats turned around and formed a coalition with the Republicans to pass the watered-down measure over the united opposition of the Southerners.

But, thanks to the power of the Senate filibuster, it remains very doubtful that any type of an FEPC will be enacted at this session of the Congress. The bill may be called up for debate in the Senate late in March.

The House version would create a new bureau composed of five Commissioners, authorize them to subpoena witnesses to testify when disgruntled job seekers file complaints claiming discrimination because of race, color, religion or national origin. The Commission could then make findings, but would have no authority to force compliance by the use of injunctions and jails.

It is obvious, of course, that any version of FEPC is vicious and contrary to the traditional American way of doing things. It would permit substitution of the biased judgment of bureaucrats for that of employers in deciding who is the best fitted person to fill a particular position.

As pointed out by Donald Richburg, a noted lawyer, if the Government can by law force an employer to hire A, how long will it be before the Government will want authority to force A to work for that employer! Both are forms of involuntary servitude, yet one would seem to be as fair as the other.

A New Cook Book

The Department of Agriculture has just made available a brand new cook book called FAMILY FARE, food management and recipes. It offers a selection of more than 200 recipes from mainstay to special dishes. The cooking principles are modern—designed to conserve the nourishment as well as the appetite appeal in foods. While I haven't found any modern recipes that can compare in taste and appeal with the old-fashioned dishes of our mothers and grandmothers, the new publication claims to have some good advice on food planning so as to provide meals that contain the nutrients in the quantities that different individuals need, sections on food buying, storing, measuring foods and menu ideas.

This new publication sells for two bits, but each Congressman has been allotted an initial supply for free distribution. If you are interested, please let me know and your request will have prompt attention.

While I am referring to available publications, I have a limited number of pamphlets entitled: "100 Things You Should Know About Communism". This issue is very interesting and easy to read. If you are interested in a copy of this, please let us know.

Prisoner of War Claims

It has now been determined that our World War II veterans who were prisoners of war shall be paid a dollar a day for each day they were in prison. The payments are being authorized because at no time was sufficient food provided by either the Germans of the Jap-

CERAMIC EXHIBIT OPEN TO PUBLIC MARCH 8

Mrs. H. A. Chapple will exhibit her pupils ceramic art work at the Legion Hut next Wednesday, March 8, following the Wimodausis Club meeting. The open house for the public will be from four to six o'clock, said Mrs. Chapple.

W. H. Hill was taken to a San Angelo hospital last week for treatment. He was suffering from a loss of blood from an internal ailment, it was said.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bade went to El Paso last week. Louis needed to see an eye doctor there. They also visited with Mrs. Bade's parents there.

Mrs. John Boyd and daughter, Ernestine, have moved here for the remainder of the school year, and Ernestine has entered the Sterling school. Mrs. Boyd's husband had been transferred to Houston from Canada, and she decided to move here for the remainder of school. They are living with Mrs. Boyd's mother, Mrs. J. A. Revell.

These as required under the terms of the Geneva Convention of 1929.

Rather than attempt the difficult task of figuring out how much food the prisoners in each camp were short-rationed, the War Claims Commission has established the "single yardstick" of one dollar for each day a prisoner.

In the event the prisoner died in camp or since, payment will be made to his widow, his parents, or his children, in that order. The deadline for filing claims is March 1, 1951. Application blanks may be obtained at any Veterans Administration office or by writing your Congressman.

W. L. Foster is in a San Angelo hospital for treatment and observation.

NEW OIL TEST STARTED

George Strake of Houston started an oil test on the Mrs. Beulah Davis Bird ranch northwest of Sterling City this week. The test is about two miles east of the Georgia Frost well.

It was reported Tuesday evening around six o'clock that there was a grass fire on Claude Collins' Hackberry Ranch. It was found out that Charley Drennan had a hand plowing and raking up tumbleweeds and burning them. Someone seeing the smoke thought that it must be a grass fire.

SLIGHTLY COLDER

A cool norther blew in Tuesday night, bringing an end to our summer weather here. Even a light norther now seems cold after the extremely warm, summer weather of January and February.

Buster Gober, who drove down from Lubbock last week-end, said he saw peach trees blooming in Lamesa as he passed through there.

County Agent Garlyn Hoffman took a group of his 4-H boys to the San Angelo Fat Stock Show on Tuesday afternoon following the local livestock show. The boys have quality stock that should make a good record at the Angelo show.

Mrs. George Blackburn and new daughter, Brenda Diane, were returned to their home here from a Big Spring hospital Wednesday of this week. Both are doing fine, according to "Papa" George.

A. T. Bratton made a trip to Comanche last week-end.

MISS CAROLYN FOSTER

Miss Carolyn Foster Appears In Organ Recital At College

Miss Carolyn Foster of Sterling City is pictured above as she appeared recently in an organ recital at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo., where she is a student. Miss Foster, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Foster, was one of six senior music students to appear during the afternoon. The recital was sponsored by the Stephens College group of the American Guild of Organists.

For her selections, Miss Foster chose the Bach Prelude Chorale, "Hark, A Voice Saith, All Are Mortal", the Parrish "Chorale Prelude on Aberystwyth"; and Marriott's "The Cathedral at Night."

Hope Diamond—Not a Jinx Gem But a Marble Carrying a Hex

By BILLY ROSE

The members of the gang squatted in a small circle on a patch of green a block away from the subway station at 242nd street. Their eyes were in fixed focus on a shiny object at their feet—the Hope Diamond.

Let me end the suspense here and now by announcing that the gang was made up of boys who had gotten together to decide the marble championship of the Upper Bronx, and that the shiny object at their feet was not the unlucky stone of great price you've been reading about for years, but a legendary agate known to small fry from the Triborough Bridge to Spuyten Duyvil as the Hope Diamond shooter.

Now, a shooter, or "real," as the aficionados call it, looks a lot like an ordinary marble, but any kid who knows a heist-shot from a knuckle-down can tell you the difference. The shooter is heavier, truer, more cunningly fashioned than the ordinary immie, and, even more important, there exists between it and the thumb and forefinger of its owner a spiritual affinity which makes it more precious to him than all the other marbles he owns. When a player loses in a "for-keeps" game, he pays off with common, earth-bound miggels—he would no more think of parting with his shooter than a good family man would with his life insurance.

Billy Rose

noticed, Harry hasn't thrown it away either.

AND SO, five minutes before the contest, Charlie Hersch, Whitey's closest friend, dropped the Hope Diamond shooter in front of the contestants with the dire words, "Wizcoczki says anybody wants it kin have it, only he oughta make sure his family kin afford the doctor bills."

Eleven of the players regarded it with awe and distrust, but the twelfth—a dark horse from the swanky Riverdale section—was not impressed. He picked it up, tried a test shot, and said, "If nobody wants the Diamond, I'll use it." "Ya be lucky if va don't bust a leg," said Hymie Michernick.

Well, for most of the contest it looked as if the rich kid was a cinch to win. Not only did the Diamond connect with everything it went after, but it seemed to hex the other shooters that attempted to hit it. Inspired and made confident by its performance, the kid from Riverdale sighted long and carefully, considered the topography of the ground and, when the situation called for extreme measures, even shot from the stomach position.

However, as the match entered the tenth and final round, a station wagon pulled up and a hefty Swede of a nursemaid got out.

"Ja-ackie," she shouted. "Dinner's almost ready and look at your clothes. You're a sight!"

"Wait a minute," said the kid, squinting at a marble four feet away.

"Albert!" yelled the nursemaid. A chauffeur with big shoulders got out and walked toward the circle. Jackie dropped the Hope Diamond in disgust, said "Aw, nuts!" and climbed into the station wagon. And as it drove away, the blood-shot eye of the blue shooter seemed to wink at the other players.

Hymie Michernick picked it up. "This is the last time it's going to put the squitch on anybody," he said, and threw it as far as he could.

Now, if the Hope Diamond had been an ordinary shooter, the story would end here. But, as I have gone to some pains to make clear, it was not. Propelled by the Michernick muscles, the little ball of fire sailed through the air for 50 feet, bounced off a tin can onto the sidewalk, and was picked up an hour later by an intern on his way to the hospital.

"I know someone who'll get a real kick out of this," he said, handing the Hope Diamond shooter to one of the nurses. "Will you give this marble to the patient in room 218. Whitey Wizcoczki—the little boy who broke his ribs."

The 66 4-H lambs made good gains during the month of February. The average per lamb was 10.8 pounds. Gene Smith's lambs led the group with a 15.8 pound gain. Harris Brothers, Bobby and Billy Derrell Blair's lambs had a 13.0 pound gain. Billy Ralph Bynum's lambs gained 11.9. Larry Glass, Henry Bliznak and Mims Reed's lambs gained 11.5 pounds.

The annual livestock show was completed Tuesday in bright colors for a lot of the 4-H members. Billy Ralph Bynum won champion and reserve champion with his two crossbred lambs. Billy also won the showmanship award which was given by the American Legion Post. Clinton Hodges showed his two heavyweight finewool lambs to champion and reserve champion. Clinton was awarded the J.T. Davis plaque for the first boy to receive the plaque for the beginning of a six-year run.

All the stock was taken to the San Angelo Stock Show after the completion of the judging and auction. Sixty fat lambs, two Hereford calves, two Hampshire pigs and nine breeding sheep were entered. J. D. Reeves hauled the stock for the boys.

Billy Derrell Blair won the 17 jewel shock-proof watch that Nathans Jewelers give at each county show that they attend. All boys that have fed animals during the club year put their name in a box and the boys name that is drawn wins the watch. This way all boys have the same chance whether he is a good feeder or not.

RED CROSS CHAPTERS MEET VARIED NEEDS OF SERVICEMEN

The Red Cross Home Service worker looked up from her desk to find an old man holding a telegram and twenty-five dollars.

"My boy wants to come home, but he hasn't got the money for such an expensive trip," the old gentleman said. "He has just returned from 2 years overseas service and is getting a leave before reassignment. His mother has been very sick and I think he might help her to get well. We are living on our family allowance and whatever money my son can send, but I've scraped together this $25. Can you give me enough more to bring him home?"

After verifying the facts, the Home Service worker sent a telegram to the Red Cross field director at the boy's camp, telling of the father's request and of the offer of the twenty-five dollars he could so ill afford. The following day she received an answering wire from the field director:

Under federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matters of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

"Return twenty-five dollars to father. Army granting emergency leave and arranging for air transportation home. We are arranging for maintenance and return transportation."

It was only one item in a busy worker's day, but to two old people and a long-absent son it meant a lot.

Often the need is not for financial aid but for help with the unexpected problems that may hit any family and are more acute when the head of the family is thousands of miles away.

It was so with an Air Force sergeant who reenlisted after overseas combat service. He left his wife and children in Kentucky on a farm with his mother-in-law. He also left 25 head of cattle, through which the family income would be supplemented. He thought his family secure for the 3 years of his new enlistment. Then disaster struck. The wife's mother became ill and was compelled to sell the farm and go to live with a distant sister. This left the sergeant's family without housing, and 25 head of cattle without care.

The Red Cross helped the soldier get emergency leave, helped him find suitable living quarters for his wife, and arranged for quick sale of his livestock. The sergeant then returned to duty, content in the knowledge that his wife and two small children were provided for.

Often, the need for help extends beyond the time a man is separated from the service. If, as a veteran, the man and his family continue to need aid, the chapter is ready to help.

That is Red Cross Home Service—a friend and counselor to the perplexed, to those in need, to men and women with problems.

Home Offers Variable Plan

This home was designed with alternative exteriors and interiors, enabling the owner to choose the combination which suits his own needs best. Because of these optional major features, the dwelling has been selected by American Builder magazine, 30 Church St., New York 7, N. Y., as its Plan No. 38.

The two exteriors are the same except that one has a steeper roof pitch than the other. The house as shown above has the more gently sloping roof. The steeper roof provides an expansion attic where rooms might be added in the future. For either type of roof, Walter T. Anicka, the architect, suggests that the color of the shingles form the basis for the entire exterior color scheme.

The floor plan shown would be used with a basement. For a basementless house, the stairway would be eliminated. This would leave space for a small utility room where a heater could be installed.

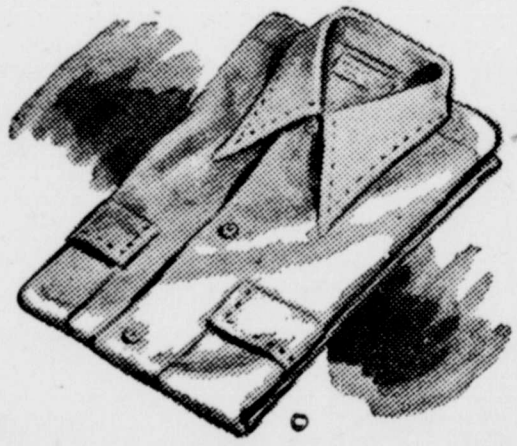

The living room-dining room and the kitchen face the street. The bedrooms, overlooking the rear yard, are in the quietest part of the house.

The house contains 1,020 square feet of space on the first floor. This figure would be useful in estimating cost of construction.

(Detailed estimating plans and a complete home planning packet of building information are available from American Builder, 30 Church St., New York 7, N. Y. Refer to Plan No. 38.)

8th GRADE CLUB REPORT

The club met on Friday, February 24 at 2:30 p.m. The minutes were read and approved.

Mr. Duff, room sponsor, promised the room that if we had 95% attendance this past six weeks, we could take a day off and go somewhere. The club decided to go to Big Spring to visit some of the interesting places. We decided to go on Monday, March 6.

Glenn Del Weimer, Reporter.

Robbie Blackman, a freshman of Jonesboro, Texas high school, was one of the star guards on the "Eagles" basketball team of that school, whose team won second place in Coryell County this year. Robbie, daughter of the Vernon Blackmans, formerly attended school here.

"HE REMEMBERED TEACHER"

It was only fitting that George Emlyn Williams should write one of his biggest stage hits about a lady to whom he owed so much. For fascinating reading entertainment you'll find it in the American Weekly, that great magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.
