

Double Wedding IN The Raney Family

Eldra Mae Raney and Dale Raney who formerly lived here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Raney, were married in a double ceremony Tuesday night, April 1.

Vows were read at the home in Big Spring. Eldra was married to S-Sgt. Joe C. Evans, now stationed at the Big Spring A.F.B. They are making their home at 1709 Young St. in Big Spring. Eldra is continuing as a junior in high school there. Sgt. Evans is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Evans of Fort Worth.

Dale married Ima Jean Myrick, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Myrick of Big Spring. Dale is a projectionist for the R&R theaters in Big Spring.

Cpl. Lonnie Raney and his wife from Lowrey Field, Denver, Colo., are spending the week-end at the family home in Big Spring. Lonnie is an instructor in electronics at Lowrey Field.

the Netherlands, all figured in the Washington news last week.

Charles E. Wilson, the demobilized War Mobilizer, handed in his resignation in protest against the President's refusal to follow his advice to refuse WSB's proposed settlement of the steel argument. WSB had recommended 26c an hour increase for Phil Murray's union, and Wilson said this will adversely affect the nation's economy and would probably lead to another round of wage and price increases, hence more inflation.

Wilson, in his first public appearance following his resignation talked to the Texas delegation at our weekly lunch last week. He pulled no punches. He pointed out that while the cost of living index is dropping Phil Murray is demanding an increase that will reverse that trend "as sure as God made little apples."

He cautioned that if Murray's demands are continued, "the cost of that labor by 1960 will reach $4 per hour and the cost of steel will jump to $200 a ton." Steel labor has had five raises in five years, not counting the ones they are now demanding.

"Phil Murray—and also one or two other union leaders—now has more power to control the fate of this Nation's economy than does the President of the United States", he reminded. "Murray can shut down the steel mills tomorrow, along with scores of other industries. But do you think the President of the United States has the power to start them up again the next day? Emphatically not."

TIDELANDS

Texas—and the nation for that matter—scored a victory last week when the Senate passed our tidelands bill by a vote of 50 to 35, with 7 of the absent Senators being recorded as favoring the measure. One absentee, Senator Kefauver, had himself recorded as being opposed to it.

Since the bill is not on all fours with the House bill we passed last summer, it will have to be acted upon again in the House. That will be done soon. The House will be able to override a veto. It is a bit doubtful in the Senate, though there is a distinct possibility that a veto can be overridden by the Senators. Up to now it has been a major victory for Texas and for fundamental rights of the States.

MORRIS GOES OUT

When the President announced the appointment of Newbold Morris as a choice to ferret out any corruption in government—thus carrying out the pattern set by many members of Congress in exposing crime and corruption where it can be found—he was acclaimed by the exposing element on Capitol Hill. But it soon developed that Morris' law firm had been entangled in some big ship profits, which while legal at least raised a question with regard to his fitness for the clean-up job.

Then last week the pay-off came. Attorney General McGrath said he had made a mistake in approving Morris' appointment, didn't like the way he was handling his job, and proceeded to fire him. A few hours later President Truman gave McGrath his walking papers. Thus two months after the appointment of a clean-up man, it all fizzled. The total result: zero.

It can be assured, however, that the independent members of Congress will not retreat. Those of us who have supported the exposure drive during the past year or so will keep right on exposing and bringing to justice all who can be found betraying their public trust.

AMONG RECENT FRIENDS who have visited our office have been: Milton Sparks of Brady and Big Menzel, both students at Daniel Baker College; Midshipman Roy B. Smith of Brownwood and Midshipman James B. White of Coleman, both attending the Naval Academy; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stein of Fredericksburg; A. B. Lollar of San Angelo; Naval Cadet James H. Stevenson and Capt. J. B. Dismukes, both of Kerrville; "Tuffy" McCormick of Eldorado, recently returned from action with the Marines in Korea; A. L. Kreuger of San Angelo and Hollis Blackwell of Goldthwaite; Gracia Swanson of San Angelo.

CARD OF THANKS

I want to express my thanks for the cards, visits, flowers and kindnesses while I was in the hospital. They will all be remembered.
