LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

FORT WORTH—Nearly 11,000 cattle and calves arrived at Fort Worth Monday, the largest number since June, 1947. Everyone held his breath to see whether the run would ruin the good gains made last week—but a surprising strong undertone prevailed and prices ranged from steady to 50 cents off most of the way. A few spots $1 lower were noted on excessively full and on plain and medium kinds on the late rounds.

Hogs gained 25 cents, topping at $22.50. Sows were steady.

Most sheep and lambs moved along steady on the slaughter kinds, but steady to 50 cents lower on stockers. Lightweight stocker lambs were the kinds encountering trouble. The sheep run was 10,000 head, unusual because it came so late in the season.

Comparative prices:

Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings cashed at $26 to $32, and plain and medium butcher sorts sold at $16 to $25, with culls from $13 to $16. Stocker and feeder steers and yearlings of medium to good grades sold at $18 to $26, and choice lightweight steer yearlings sold at $26 and $27. Commoner stockers $15 to $18.

Fat cows cashed at $16 to $19, while canners and cutters sold from $10 to $16.50. Bulls sold from $15 to $23.

Stocker cows cleared at $14 to $22, and stocker heifers sold at $25 downward. Good and choice stocker calves $25 to $29, while common and medium quality sold at $16 to $25.

Good and fat choice calves sold at $25 to $28.50, while common and medium at $16.50 to $25. Culls sold from $13 to $16.

Good and choice fat spring lambs sold for $24 to $29, and medium to good kinds drew $20 to $24. Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $10 to $18. Stocker and feeder yearlings cashed at $10 to $15, and fat yearlings sold at $17 downward. Aged wethers sold from $8 to $10. Two-year-old wethers cashed at $14 downward. Slaughter ewes sold at $6 to $8.50. Old bucks sold around $6 to $6.50.

The Worth Durhams, the Bill Brookses and Clinton Hodges left for Antonito, Colorado Wednesday on a four-day trip, where they will fish, vacation and then close down Worth's cabin there for the winter. They plan to return Sunday.

SCHOOL OPENS ON SEPTEMBER 2

The opening of the Sterling City schools has been set for the morning of Tuesday, September 2, said superintendent O. T. Jones, this week. On Monday, September 1, there will be a faculty meeting at 10 a. m., he said.

The faculty is to be the same as last year with the exception of four new teachers, said the superintendent.

Helen Louise Brown is the new second grade teacher. She is from Seymour, has taught in the Tullia school and is a 1951 graduate of Texas Tech.

Mrs. Johnny Lee is the new fourth grade teacher. She formerly taught in the San Angelo and Pasadena schools.

Mrs. J. A. West, a McMurray graduate, is the new fifth grade teacher. She formerly taught in the schools at Big Spring, Coleman and Forsan.

Oscar Dorsey is the new high school coach and math and history teacher. He is an A.C.C. graduate and taught at Blackwell last year.

Mrs. Billy Lee Smith Is Gift Tea Honoree

Mmes. Tom Humble, Harold Emery, Will Augustine, Riley King and Tommie Augustine were hostesses at a gift tea in the Humble ranch home on Thursday afternoon of last week, honoring Mrs. Billy Lee Smith. The honoree was the former Miss Lucille Moore of Delaware, Oklahoma before her recent marriage.

Mrs. Humble greeted the guests at the door. In the receiving line were the honoree, and the groom's mother, Mrs. C. W. Smith.

The tea table was laid with a white satin cloth centered with white snapdragons and pink carnations, flanked by white tapers.

Mrs. Tom Rawlins served sherbert tinted punch. Summer flowers were used as decorations throughout the party rooms. Music was furnished by Mrs. Anna Lee Johnson. Mrs. Harold Emery presided at the bride's book.

Mrs. Tommy Augustine assisted in the gift room. Mrs. Will Augustine was in the dining room.

About 100 persons took part in the gift shower.

HOMEMAKING TEACHER GETS MASTER'S DEGREE

Mrs. Marian Moore, Sterling High School homemaking instructor, is to receive her master's degree at Denton, tonight, August 22.

She plans to arrive here on August 23, and announces that she is to check all the girls' summer projects on Monday morning at nine o'clock at the homemaking department of the school.

LIONS CLUB

Ross Hardy and E. W. Ward were guests when the Lions Club met Wednesday noon for the regular luncheon in the community center. Ward is here from Coleman to work for the South Texas Lumber Company.

It was reported that the club's Big Lake road paving committee members were in Austin for a hearing before the State Highway Commission.

The prize went to J. T. Davis. President H. A. Chapple appointed a committee to investigate the replacing of the signs approaching town announcing the time and the place of meeting.

The Billy Lee Smiths are now living in Kermit where Billy has a job with an oil company.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

THE STATE OF TEXAS

TO: J. W. Westbrook, et al, greeting:

You are commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 29th day of September, A.D. 1952, at or before 10 A.M. before the Honorable District Court of Sterling County, at the Court House in Sterling City, Texas.

Said plaintiff's petition was filed on the 16th day of August, 1952. The file number of said suit being No. 545.

The names of the parties in said suit are:

Rufus W. Foster as Plaintiff, and J. W. Westbrook as Defendant.

The nature of said suit being substantially as follows, to-wit: TO THE SAID HONORABLE COURT:

Now comes Rufus W. Foster, Plaintiff, complaining of J. W. Westbrook, and each and all of the spouses, heirs and legal representatives of the said J. W. Westbrook, their heirs and legal representatives, Defendants, and for cause of action, would show the Court the following:

I. Plaintiff Rufus W. Foster is a resident of Sterling County, Texas.

The residence and places of residences of all Defendants are unknown to Plaintiff, their marital status and identity of spouses is unknown to plaintiff, as is the identity of the heirs and legal representatives of the said J. W. Westbrook, and their heirs and legal representatives.

On the first day of August A. D. 1952, Plaintiff Rufus W. Foster was and still is the owner of legally and lawfully seized and possessed of the following described land situated in Sterling County, Texas, holding and claiming the same in fee simple, to-wit:

All of Lots No. Six (6), in Block No. Seven (7) in the original town of Sterling City, Texas, according to map or plat of said town recorded in Vol. 1, page 476, Deed Records of Sterling County, Texas.

III. That on the day and year last aforesaid mentioned, the Defendants unlawfully entered upon and disposed Plaintiff from said respective premises owned by him and set out above, and withholds from him the possession thereof to his damage in the amount of One Thousand Dollars, and although repeated demands for payment thereof have been made upon said Defendants, said Defendants have refused and still fail and refuse to pay the same.

IV. That the reasonable annual rental value of said land is One Hundred Dollars.

V. That Plaintiff, and those whose title he holds, have, claiming the same under deeds duly recorded and registered, had peaceable, continuous and adverse possession of the above described land, cultivating, using and enjoying the same, and paying all taxes as same became due thereon, for a period of more than five (5) years prior to the commencement of this suit.

VI. That Plaintiff, and those whose title he holds, have had peaceable and adverse possession of the above described land, cultivating, using and enjoying the same for more than ten (10) years prior to the commencement of this suit.

Democratic Run-Off Election Here Saturday

Behind The 8 Ball

A Quotable Quote—

"I go to church service every Sunday. This is to encourage my children and grand-children to acquire the habit of church-going. We oldsters may check out before real trouble comes... but let me tell you that the younger generation will need to have something more permanent than real estate, bank accounts, insurance, or even democracy. Unless they have a sane spiritual foundation they are licked. We can do far more for them by setting an example of church-going than by bequeathing them land, securities, or any other property."

BROWNIE SCOUTS WANT YOUR OLD SPOOLS

The Brownies want a number of old spoons to make toys for the nursery and children's ward at the Sterling hospital. Such request was made by Mrs. J. S. Cole, Jr., leader of the Brownies, this week. She said many entertaining toys could be made from the spoons by the group.

Mrs. Cole asked all who would give old spoons for the cause, to leave them at the post office building.

No more Brownie meetings will be held until after school starts, said Mrs. Cole.

HORNBUCKLES MOVE TO CLIFTON THIS WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hornbuckle moved to Clifton, Texas the first part of this week. They bought a home there, and Mr. Hornbuckle plans to rest for a year, he said.

With a heart condition that demands rest, Mr. Hornbuckle sold his grocery store here to John Brock. Mr. Hornbuckle said he did not plan on doing anything for a year or more but rest.

WORLD'S CHAMPION JUNIOR RODEO IN BIG SPRING AUG. 28

The 7th Annual World's Championship Junior Rodeo will be held in Big Spring, Texas, on August 28, 29 and 30. Each performance will start at 8:00 p.m. in the new rodeo bowl.

Special feature events will be the "Wild Mare Race" and Howard County Ex-4H Club roping. Other events are as follows:

Calf roping, bareback bronc riding, flag race, boot scramble, bull dogging, girls' barrel race and ribbon roping.

The show will be produced by Goat Mayo, Petrolia, Texas. Entries close in each event at 5:00 p. m. Wednesday, Aug. 27. At the 1951 show, there were 306 contestants from Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma. We are looking for a great turnout this year.

All proceeds from this show go to the Howard County 4-H Club.

The Rufus Foster and the Reynolds Fosters are vacationing in New Mexico.

Visiting Joe David Crossno on Thursday of last week were Carrol Smith of New York and Harry Barnes of Abilene, Texas. The two boys were classmates of Joe David's in Abilene Christian College.

J. S. Cole, vice-president of the bank here is on his vacation this week.

The Harold Emerys are vacationing in New Mexico this week. Harold is employed in the post office.

ONLY TWO CONTESTED PLACES ON BALLOT

There will be a run-off primary election here Saturday, August 23. Purpose of the run-off is to decide the contests of Spurgeon Bell of Harris County and Frank P. Culver of Tarrant County for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Place 1; AND that of Joe Mays and Clyde Vinson for the post of District Judge, 51st Judicial District.

The name of Martin Dies appears on the ballots for Congressman at large, but he has no opposition. It will be recalled that Dies got almost a majority in the first primary, with John Lee Smith of Lubbock in second place. Smith chose not to contest the race with Dies, but the State Executive Committee ordered Dies' name placed on the ballot anyway.

Voting boxes will be at the same places as in the July primary. The same judges will work, but fewer clerks will be needed, said County Executive Chairman Jack Douthitt.

Not much interest by voters is anticipated either in Sterling or over the state as a whole. It is hoped, however, that enough voters will go to the polls here to make it worth while to hold the election.

VOTE FOR CLYDE VINSON FOR JUDGE OF THE 51ST DISTRICT COURT

Clyde Vinson challenged the present District Judge to run for re-election.

Clyde Vinson challenges the right of the present District Judge to choose his successor.

Clyde Vinson seeks no promotion, but the opportunity to use his 27 years experience as trial lawyer to improve the administration of justice in the 51st District Court.

SUCCESSFUL—EXPERIENCED DISTRICT COURT TRIAL LAWYER. Clyde Vinson cites the following recent cases which he appealed from decisions of the district court against his clients, and the COURT OF CIVIL APPEALS and the SUPREME COURT reversed the trial court and rendered judgments in favor of his clients: 248 SW 2d 520, decided April 16, 1952; 239 SW 2d 379, decided April 25, 1951; and Harrison vs. Tinney, decided June 25, 1952, not yet included in the Advance Reports, won by Vinson.

Clyde Vinson's opponent does not claim any district court trial experience. The qualifications for a county judge and district judge differ so profoundly that under our Constitution a county judge does not have to be a lawyer.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 29
proposing an Amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 61 to authorize cities, towns, and villages of this State to provide insurance for employees; providing for the submission of the proposed Amendment to the qualified electorate; and providing for proclamation and publication by the Governor:

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding a new section thereto to be known as Section 61 to read as follows:
"Sec. 61. The Legislature shall have the power to enact laws to enable cities, towns, and villages of this State to provide Workmen's Compensation Insurance, including the right to provide their own insurance risk for all employees; and the Legislature shall provide suitable laws for the administration of such insurance in the said municipalities and for payment of the costs, charges, and premiums on policies of insurance and the benefits to be paid thereunder."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electorate of the State at the General Election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1952, at which election all ballots shall have printed thereon for in counties using voting machines the said machines shall provide for the following:
"FOR the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees of cities, towns and villages," and "AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment authorizing the Legislature to provide for Workmen's Compensation Insurance for employees of cities, towns and villages."

Each voter shall mark out one (1) of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one (1) expressing his vote on the proposed Amendment; and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said Amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.
Sec. 3. The Governor of the State of Texas shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State.

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 33
providing an amendment to Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas by the addition of a new Section to be known as Section 50a, providing for the establishment of a State Medical Education Board and a State Medical Scholarship Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine; providing that such students shall agree to practice in rural areas of this State; providing certain restrictions and limitations; providing for an election and the issuance of a proclamation therefor.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:
Section 1. That Article III of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new Section to be known as Section 50a which shall read as follows:

"Sec. 50a. The Legislature shall create a State Medical Education Board to be composed of not more than six (6) members whose qualifications, duties and terms of office shall be prescribed by law. The Legislature shall also establish a State Medical Education Fund and make adequate appropriations therefor to be used by the State Medical Education Board to provide grants, loans or scholarships to students desiring to study medicine and agreeing to practice in the rural areas of this State, upon such terms and conditions as shall be prescribed by law. The term 'rural areas' as used in this Section shall be defined by law."

Sec. 2. The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of this State at an election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1952, at which all ballots shall have printed thereon (or in counties using voting machines the machines shall provide for) the following:
"FOR the Constitutional Amendment providing for the establishment of a State Medical Education Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine,"

"AGAINST the Constitutional Amendment providing for the establishment of a State Medical Education Fund from which grants, loans or scholarships may be made to students desiring to study medicine."
Each voter shall mark out one of said clauses on the ballot, leaving the one expressing his vote on the proposed amendment; and if it shall appear from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast are in favor of said amendment, the same shall become a part of the Constitution of the State of Texas.

H. J. R. No. 33
Sec. 3. The Governor shall issue the necessary proclamation for said election and have the same published as required by the Constitution and laws of this State. The expense of publication and election for such amendment shall be paid out of proper appropriation made by law.

"BULLETS WITH BRAINS"

Major George Fielding Elliott tells about the guided missiles that think while they chase and destroy enemy aircraft. Not just in the blueprint stage but actually in production. Nike, as it is called, is a medium-range, supersonic anti-aircraft rocket. Read about it in the new American Weekly, that magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

Both candidates for District Judge were in Sterling City Thursday of this week beating the bushes for votes in Saturday's run-off election. The two are Clyde Vinson and Joe Mays, now Tom Green County judge.
