LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK BY TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—Heavy pressure continued on cattle and calf prices this week. Another excessive run of grassers and shortfeds appeared at the 12 major markets Monday when over 165,000 cattle and calves appeared and roughly 75 percent of these were grassers and stockers and feeders at many markets. This was over 23,000 over a week ago and over 42,000 over the same day last year.

Most cattle and calves ruled 50 cent to $1 or more lower at Fort Worth, with some spots $1 to $1.50 off on calves and yearlings and the plain and medium steers. Stocker demand remained narrow over the country and packers reported excessive supplies of meat other than strictly choice grain fed beef.

Deterioration of pastures in Kansas and Oklahoma increased the rush from those areas. Continued lack of moisture dampened prospects for wheat grazing over the Texas-Oklahoma-Kansas plains.

Hogs opened the week with 25 to 50 cents higher prices and a top of $20.75 to $21. Sows drew $17.50 down. Sheep and lambs opened steady.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings sold for $23 to $30, odd club calves $33 and $34, while plain and medium slaughter kinds sold at $14 to $22 with cutter grades from $10 to $14. Stocker steer yearlings bulked at $14 to $24, with a few choice lightweights to $25. Stocker heifers sold from $22 down.

Fat cows cashed at $13.50 to $17, with canners and cutters at $9 to $13.50. Stocker cows sold from $14 to $18.50. Bulls sold from $12 to $19.

Good and choice slaughter calves cleared at $20 to $27 and plain and medium slaughter kinds sold from $14 to $19, with cull sorts from $10 to $14. Good and choice stocker calves sold mostly at $20 to $27, while plain and medium sorts sold from $15 to $19.

Good and choice fat lambs sold from $18 to $22 and stocker and feeder lambs sold from $10 to $17. Cull lambs, yearlings and two's sold from $3 to $10. Fresh short lambs and sheep usually sold $1 to $2 under woolskins.

Yearling wethers sold at $17 down, and two-year-olds sold from $12.50 down. Aged wethers cashed at $10 down. Slaughter ewes sold from $5.50 to $7, and some solid-mouthed ewes drew $7 to $8.50. Old bucks cashed at $6 to $6.50. Feeder yearlings sold from $10 to $12.

Entertain Sunday School Class With Party

Mrs. H. L. Hildebrand and Mrs. Lester Foster entertained with a party at the Hildebrand home Tuesday afternoon, honoring those of the class that were being promoted. Thirty-five children and eighteen adults were present for the occasion. Comedy films were shown, lawn games played and drinks were served as refreshments.

The party honored the following that were being promoted to the next class up in the Methodist Sunday School: Mike Williams, Lee Douthit, Ronnie Allen, Temple Ann Foster, Lois Ethel Price and Cleve West.

Visiting Augustine's

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Smith of Nogales, Arizona arrived here Sunday at the Lee Augustine's. Mrs. Smith is a sister of Mrs. Augustine's. On Thursday of this week they all went to Robert Lee to be with Mrs. Augustine's father, J. I. Murtishaw, who was observing his 91st birthday. Also there for the occasion were two of Mrs. Augustine's brothers, W. B. Murtishaw of Kingsville and J. W. Murtishaw of Paducah.

On Sunday, the Augustines son and his family, the J. S. Augustines of Sonora were here for a visit.

FOUR INDICTED BY GRAND JURY HERE

Four men were indicted by the 51st district grand jury which met here on Monday morning. A petit jury panel is being summoned this week for jury duty next Monday morning when the cases come to trial.

Sam V. Holifield, 47, San Antonio contractor, was indicted on a charge of assault with intent to rape. Holifield, who was arrested last July, is accused of driving a 13-year-old Latin-American girl a short distance from the city with the intention of attacking her.

Indictments charging second offense of driving while intoxicated were brought against Edwin Grady Frazier and Clarence Vernon Douglas, both of Midland. Frazier was convicted on a charge of DWI (misdemeanor) Sept. 10, 1951, in Dawson County, and Douglas' first conviction was in Sterling County on Oct. 10, 1949. Also cited on indictments was Thomas L. Lightsey, charged on separate counts with sale of mortgaged property and removal of mortgaged property.

District Attorney Earl W. Smith of San Angelo presented the cases to the grand jury.

Mrs. Fred Allen Is Noratadata Hostess

Mrs. Fred Allen was hostess to members of the Noratadata Club on Thursday evening of last week in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Foster.

The president, Mrs. Foster S. Price, called the meeting to order. The program was on Music. Mrs. Hubert Williams discussed "Music in the Home", and Mrs. Reynolds Foster "Music—New and Old", and she played two pieces by old and new artists.

Following the program, bridge was played, and Mrs. Chesley McDonald won high. Mrs. William Foster high cut and Mrs. Martin Reed, bingo.

Present were Mrs. Worth Durham, Mrs. Trion Revell, Mrs. Bill Cole, Mrs. Ross Foster, Mrs. David Glass, Mrs. Hubert Williams, Mrs. Alvie Cole, Mrs. Nan Davis, Mrs. Forrest Foster, Mrs. Robert Foster, Mrs. Reynolds Foster, Mrs. Delbert Haralson, Mrs. Ewing McEntire, Mrs. Price, Mrs. Anna Lee Johnson, Mrs. William Foster, Mrs. Neal J. Reed, Mrs. Dayton Barrett, Mrs. Sterling Foster, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. R. T. Foster, Jr., Mrs. M. C. Reed, Mrs. Finis Westbrook and Miss Sue Nelson.

"WE SET THEM FREE TO KILL" * * * David Dressler, the former executive director of the New York State Division of Parole, reveals the weaknesses in our mental health program that account for the premature release from institutions of homicidal maniacs, and tells what must be done to give society the protection it now lacks. Read it in the American Weekly, that great magazine distributed with next Sunday's Los Angeles Examiner.

Every spring, young fancies lightly turn to thoughts of picnicking—and a healthy sign it is, for what child eats delicately in the open air! Appetites run wild, and nothing tastes so good as a freshly toasted hamburger. You can stretch the meat for the onslaught and add a new and delicious nutty tang to this old favorite by mixing in a quantity of ready to eat cereal flakes. The recipe is so simple that the picnic is likely to be as much fun for Mother as it will be for the children. Enlist their help in mixing or in wrapping the patties in wax paper and arranging them in the basket. And—make enough for an army!

Hamburger Toasties.
½ pound ground beef, 1 cup Grape-Nuts Flakes, slightly crushed; 1 teaspoon salt; dash of pepper; 3 to 4 tablespoons milk or water.

Combine ingredients and mix well. Shape into flat cakes and pan-brown in lightly greased pan (or clamped in a hamburger grill over an open fire) turning to brown both sides. Makes 6 cakes about 3 inches in diameter.

New Bible Revision Out This Week

A new revision of the Bible is complete and the new version (Revised Standard Version) went on sale Tuesday of this week. This is the first full-scale revision by an authorized group since the King James translation and revision in 1661. Protestants have been (for the most part) using the King James version since the 17th century and now all groups have had a hand in this modern revision and translation.

The date of the publication of this new version was set on the anniversary of the date of the printing of the Gutenberg Bible—the first printed book in the world. All others had been hand-copied.

The work was started on the new version in 1930, but really got underway several years later. It was hoped to bring out a new version of the scriptures in the language, instead of the older English used in the King James version.

It is pointed out by the group of 91 Bible scholars that worked on the project that the language in the King James version does not fit into modern expression and is somewhat archaic in that respect, hence the putting it into more modern English.

The first Bible (Old Testament) was in Hebrew and for the Jewish race, the first new Testament was in Greek, the language of that day and then they were translated into the languages of the day, and now, the new version is in the language of our day.

The theme for the new work of publication is "The Word of Life in Living Language."

Most ministers over the United States and Canada delivered a sermon on the new revision last Sunday. Several million copies of the Bible had been placed in bookstores for sale which began Tuesday.

Early Taxpayers

The first poll tax payers in the county were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bade, said Bill Brooks, deputy in the tax assessor-collector's office, this week. The first property tax payers were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Douthit, said Brooks.

Property and poll tax payments began Wednesday, October 1, and all property tax payments paid in October earn a 3% discount, points out Brooks. Payments in November earn 2% and those paid in December earn a 1% discount. Then, all taxes have to be paid in the month of January and those paid then earn no discount.

Legion Auxiliary Tea Held Monday

The American Legion Auxiliary held a membership tea in the Legion Hut Monday afternoon of this week. Guest of honor was Mrs. G. A. Stockton of Otis Chalk, the mother of the boy the post was named for.

Two new members were recruited, being Mrs. George Blackburn and Mrs. Bill Hood.

EAGLES PLAY FORSAN TONIGHT; DROP THE GAME TO MERTZON

Coach Oscar Dorsey's Sterling City Eagles go to Forsan tonight for the second conference game of the season. The game will be called at 8 o'clock, said Dorsey.

The Forsan Eagles have beaten Water Valley in district play and tied Fort Davis 14-14 in a non-conference game. They have a fast, light team.

Mertzon Drops Eagles 14-12

The Eagles went to Mertzon last Friday night and dropped their conference opener 14-12. Failure to convert the extra points cost the boys the game or a tie.

It was Mertzon's ball game during the first half. Marshall Bair ran over a touchdown on the second play of the game but the officials called it back. The referee said it was an improper handoff.

Marshall and Billy Blair chalked up the Sterling counters.

The Eagles play Knott here on the night of October 10 in a non-conference tilt.

DIVISION OF ANDERSON, CLAYTON CO., INC.

Competition is the life of the OIL BUSINESS

The demand for oil increases every year.

Americans need more oil for more automobiles, for more airplanes, more ships, more high speed locomotives and more of many things besides.

And just as one merchant competes with another for your business, oil companies compete for it, too—for the gallons of gasoline and quarts of motor oil you buy; to supply the ships, the locomotives, the industries, the airplanes.

The competition is intense, and it spreads throughout the industry. Oil companies compete with each other to find and produce more oil. Pipe line companies vie with each other to develop low cost transportation. Refineries compete to supply more and better oil products. Salesmen compete on the basis of quality products and the service rendered.

It's a good thing, this competition, a healthy thing. It is the life of the oil business; it keeps the industry vigorous, progressive, enterprising.

But its chief benefit is to you and other Americans. Competition within the oil industry discovers and develops a natural resource necessary not only to modern living but to national defense. It supplies you and the country with continuously improved petroleum products; today, two gallons of gasoline do work that required three in 1925, but the gasoline costs no more than it did then.

TO MY FRIENDS AND OLD CUSTOMERS:

I will start selling feed for myself on Monday, Oct. 6th. I have made connection with one of the best mills in Texas, and will be able to take care of all your feed needs. I hope this will please you.

I sold your mothers and fathers their feed for many years and bought their produce when no one else would. I don't think you ever heard any one say that I failed to play fair with them or make good my promises.

My happiest memory of the past is that I never lost one as a customer---no one ever got mad enough to quit trading with me.

I pleased them and would like the pleasure of trying to please you.

Because of limited capital, I will have to sell for cash.

But, if you will come look my feed over, get my prices, and let me show you what I can do, I feel confident you will give me some business.

Yours hopefully,

ROBERT BROWN
