LET'S TALK LIVESTOCK

BY TED GOULDY

FORT WORTH—After a couple of weeks of lighter supplies of cattle around the major market circle, followed by strengthening prices, the gates flew open again this week and over 111,000 cattle were reported at 12 markets on Monday. Prices sagged from 50 cents to $1.50 per hundred at Northern points.

At Fort Worth, despite the fact that a big percentage of the run was fed yearlings and steers, the market was less drastically lower. Sales of fed steers and yearlings opened steady, and closed 25 to 50 cents lower. Other kinds of cattle were fully steady, with cows and bulls in good demand. Fat calves drew firm prices, and stocker cattle and calves moved at firm prices, some high quality calves and yearlings stronger.

Fat and feeder lambs were around steady to 50 cents higher. Old sheep and yearlings were steady. Butcher hogs were 25 to 50 cents higher, topping at $20.75 and $21 on Monday. Sows drew $16 to $19 or 50 cents higher.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings drew $19 to $23.50, plain and medium kinds $13 to $19. Stocker steer yearlings sold at $22.50 down. Fat cows sold from $14 to $16.50, with canners and cutters from $10 to $14. Fed cattle came from a wide area to Ft. Worth Monday. E. H. Sator, Agden, Arkansas, had 102 steers at 1,026 lbs. at $20 and from across the full length of Texas at Tornillo El Paso County) the Allison Farms shipped 31 heifers at 842 lbs. at $22.50 and 22 steers at 898 lbs. at $22.

From South Texas, Bentsen Bros. Mission, had 74 yearlings at 434 lbs. at $20.50 and Simmons & Perry, Corpus Christi, had 40 steers at 1,135 lbs. at $23. Other South Texas shippers were Connally-Hicks Cattle Company, Floresville, two loads of $22 calves. Muleshoe Cattle Co., of Northwest Texas (Wilbarger Co.) had a load of 571 lb. yearlings at $22. Amherst in the Plains was represented by Halsell Cattle Co., with a load of heavy 940-lb. heifers at $20.

Good and choice fat calves $19—23.50; cull and common and medium kinds drew $11—19.00. Stocker steers calves $24 down. Stocker cows $12.00—18.00. Bulls $12 to $18.

Woolled fat lambs $18—21.50, shorn kinds, No. 2 and No. 3 pelts and good and choice drew $18.00—19.50. Stocker and feeder lambs drew $14—19.50. Fat yearlings and two's, shorn, drew $16—17. Slaughter ewes sold for $7.50—9.50.

Mrs. J. Q. Foster Is Noratadata Hostess

Mrs. J. Q. Foster was hostess to the Noratadata Club when it met in the Lester Foster home Thursday evening of last week.

The club voted to help with the decorations in conjunction with the Wimodausis Club when the banquet is held in Colorado City honoring the T.F.W.C. president.

The club will actively campaign for the blood bank program that is to begin right away at the Sterling County hospital. It was announced that all the supplies were in and that the hospital was ready to begin typing blood for the walking blood bank program.

Following the business and refreshment hour bridge was played. High score prize went to Mrs. Ross Foster, and Mrs. Billy Roland Conger was high guest. Bingo prize went to Mrs. Worth Durham and the floating prize to Mrs. Lee Augustine.

Present were Meses. G. C. Murrell, Reynolds Foster, Dayton Barrett, Foster S. Price, Neal J. Reed, Bill J. Cole, Finis Westbrook, Anna Lee Johnson, Dean Johnson, Leah Wyckoff, R. T. Foster, Jr., Worth Durham, Alvie Cole, Martin Reed, Hubert Williams, Forrest Foster, William Foster, Ewing Fowler McEntire, Billy Roland Conger, Lee Augustine, Fred Allen, Joe Emery, Ross Foster, Miss Sue Nelson and Mrs. Lester Foster.

Wimodausis Club Has Safety Program

The Wimodausis Club met Wednesday afternoon, February 18, in the clubroom of the community center. Mrs. Lester Foster was hostess.

The club meeting was conducted by Mrs. N. H. Reed, president. Mrs. Bill Reed was elected as delegate and Mrs. Roy Morgan as alternate to the 6th district convention at Colorado City April 6-7-8.

The club has been asked by the City-County Federation at Colorado City to have charge of the table decorations and favors for the president's dinner at the convention. Mrs. Reed appointed Mesdames Roy Morgan, R.T. Foster, T. F. Foster and W. N. Reed to act on this committee. Mrs. Fowler McEntire is to help the registration committee. Mrs. N. H. Reed has been asked to serve on the hospital-ity committee.

Miss Ethel Foster, charter member of the Wimodausis Club, has been endorsed for a national candidate. Her club activities are well known by her home and Sterling people. At this time she is on a trip around the world with noted club women. A card was read from her, mailed in Jerusalem, thanking the club for the telegram sent her, wishing her a pleasant and successful voyage in San Francisco as she was boarding her plane.

The club, sponsor of the Sterling County Library, again reminds the public, that the library is open each Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30 o'clock with Mrs. Leon Wallace in charge.

Highway Patrolmen Womack and Bristol gave discussions on Safety on the Highways. Patrolman Womack remarked "we have a terrible monster to conquer and the only way it could be done was to obey the highway ruler."

The home as a family unit was given by Mrs. Roy Foster. During her talk she said, "Families should enjoy more recreation together which help family relations."

Safety in the home was Mrs. Lester Foster's topic which covered hazards in the home. Mrs. Roy Morgan talked on "Noted Women of America."

Eleven members were present, being Meses. N. H. Reed, Ray Lane, H. L. Hildebrand, T. F. Foster, W. E. Allen, Fowler McEntire, Lura McClellan, Minta Phillips Roy Morgan, R. T. Foster and Lester Foster.

Next Week's School Lunchroom Menus

The menus at the Sterling City school lunchroom next week will be as follows:

MONDAY, February 23—Vegetable soup, cheese sandwiches and peanut butter sandwiches, cake and milk.

TUESDAY, February 24—Meat loaf, creamed potatoes, green beans, light bread, milk margarine and peach halves.

WEDNESDAY February 25—Barbecued turkey, boiled potatoes, whole kernel corn, light bread, margarine, milk, fruit salad.

THURSDAY, February 26—Combination salad, butter beans, spinach, light rolls, milk, margarine, and preserves.

FRIDAY, February 27—Sardine salad, deviled eggs, pork and beans, light bread, milk, margarine and peach cobbler.

O. F. Carper, Jr., left Thursday of this week for army duty. He had to report to the draft board in Midland and he wasn't sure just where they would send him from there.

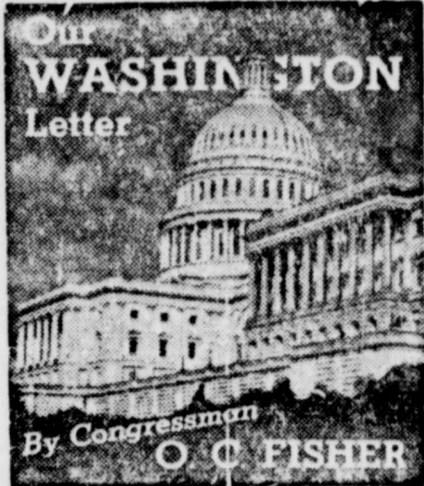

Hospital Needs a Sewing Machine

The Sterling County Hospital is in the market for a sewing machine. They would accept one as a gift, or possibly would buy one if it was cheap enough, said Mrs. Horace F. Donalson, of the hospital auxiliary.

If you can help them out in the way outlined above, get in touch with the auxiliary of the hospital.

Water Valley P.T.A. To Have Benefit Basketball Game Tonight

The Water Valley P.T.A. is sponsoring a basketball game between the Dads and the present team in the school gym there tonight at 8 p.m. There will be added attractions between halves, it has been announced, and a hilarious good time is promised.

BOB ANDERSON, the new Secretary of the Navy, just up from Texas has an easy and natural way of making friends and gaining their confidence. He may become one of the most influential and respected men in the Eisenhower defense

Even before he was confirmed by the Senate, Anderson was around getting acquainted with people he would need to work with. He called on Dewey Short, chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, and then, the next day, remembering protocol, he popped in on Rep. Carl Vinson, former chairman of the committee and the ranking Democrat on that group which handles all Defense legislation.

Vinson, who was first elected to Congress in 1914 (the same year Sam Rayburn was elected), is considered the Nation's leading authority on naval affairs. The Georgian who always arrives early and works late, was the only one in his office when Anderson arrived, unannounced, for a brief get-acquainted call.

"What can I do for you?" inquired Vinson, not bothering to get up from his desk. "Oh, I just dropped in," said Anderson in his Texas drawl. Then he talked on about things he thought would be of interest to the sage of Milledgeville, Ga.

Soon Vinson was getting a bit impatient. It was past his quitting time and besides he had to catch a ride home. Again gazing over the tops of his glasses, he got right down to the point. "Now, just what is it you want me to do for you?"

"Not a thing... not a thing," replied the Texan, catching on. "You see, I'm to be the next Secretary of the Navy, and I know that you are a leading expert on naval affairs. I'll be needing your counsel and advice on legislative matters, and I wanted to get acquainted with you."

"Mr. Secretary," Vinson said, arising. "I just didn't catch on to who you were. I'm glad to see you. I've been hearing a lot of mighty fine things about you."

TEXANS VISIT—O. L. DAVIS, Jr., an Ensign in Uncle Sam's Navy from Lometa, is now stationed in Washington. He is with the U. S. Naval Security Station here, doing intelligence and other specialized work for the Navy Department. Son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Davis, Sr., of Lometa, the youthful Naval officer is making a top hand for the Navy. But he admits that he "misses those cows and sheep" on his father's ranch in Lampasas County.

ANOTHER service man to visit us recently was Jim Daniel, Jr. Son of the Jim Daniels of Eden, the Eden youth is stationed at a nearby Army post. He is uncertain where his next assignment may take him. "I'm glad to be in the Army," he commented, "doing my duty. But after I've done that, I'll be mighty glad to get back to Eden and a normal life."

ANOTHER TEXAN of prominence who was a busy man on a recent visit to Washington was Wright Armstrong, formerly of Brownwood. Armstrong, son of Brownwood Optometrist, Dr. Mollie Armstrong, one of the best known and most beloved women in Texas, Wright is now president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in addition to serving in Fort Worth as active Vice President of the Fort Worth & Denver Ry. Co. and the Wichita Valley Ry. Co.

DR. FRANK MOLA and Dr. Paul E. Johnson, both of the State Sanatorium, near San Angelo, were business visitors in Washington and New York last week.

Abe Houston, a prominent citizen of Brownwood, was another recent visitor.

Other San Angoleans doing business on the Potomac recently have included Chamber of Commerce Manager and Mrs. M. D. Fanning, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Audy Bryam and Norfleet

Lions Club Minstrel Here Next Friday Night

Next Week Designated "Blood Bank Week" In Sterling City

Next week, February 23 to March 1 is BLOOD BANK WEEK in Sterling City. There is to be an all out effort to type the blood of every person in Sterling City. Typing is to be done at the Sterling County Hospital by John M. Stuckwisch.

Blood type cards will then be issued to those typed (and their children.) Later if they need a transfusion, it will be known immediately just what type of blood is needed. Too, to find a proper matching blood, the staff would be able to thumb through their files and find someone who could give that person a transfusion (without further typing.) The program works two ways—if you need blood, the program speeds your securing the needed blood, and too, you may be just the one to furnish blood for someone who needs it badly.

During the week, each person is asked to go to the hospital and register and be typed. They will be given a card and are urged to always carry the card with them—it may save their life or the life of another in some time of need.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Patients in the Sterling County Hospital on Thursday morning of this week included—

Mrs. C. N. Crawford
Tommy Lilly
Frank Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Foster S. Price
Mrs. Lillian Reed
Mrs. W. B. Atkinson
D. P. Glass
Lee Roy Randolph.
Dismissals since Thursday of last week include—
Mrs. O. M. Fulton and infant daughter, Gay Nell
Barbara Jean Bowen

Lions Club Luncheon

Nearly a full house was on hand at the regular Lions Club luncheon meeting in the community center Wednesday. Rev. Bob Ritchie was a guest.

The club set a price of $1 per seat for the Lions Club minstrel. The money raised will go into the Community Center improvement fund, it was decided.

Sheriff Bill Green said that the Highway Department was to paint a double (no passing) stripe on the highway on the main block here in town. Such would lessen the possibility of accidents right in town.

Dr. Swann reminded the members of the Heart Week drive that would be closed out this week. He said containers were to be found in the Drug Store, Chapple's FoFod Store and Brock's Grocery.

R. P. Brown told of visiting the Lions Club in Temple last week. He said they had a lively club but that the food was not as good as was had here.

The prize went to J. T. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Brown spent Sunday through Thursday in Temple, Texas. Mr. Brown went to be with D. L. Slaton of San Angelo, who underwent a major operation in the Scott & White Clinic there. While there the Browns visited Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Young of Kossee. Mrs. Young is a sister of Mrs. Brown. Mr. Brown will go back to Temple this weekend to bring Mr. Slaton home. He is recovering nicely, it is reported.

Figures. Bryam is the President of the San Angelo Real Estate Board, and along with the Logans attended the annual conference of the National Real Estate group in Washington.

Another recent visitor to our office was Warren Woodward of Coleman, former assistant to Senator Lyndon Johnson. Woodward, now residing in Dallas, has become associated with a prominent Public Relations firm which maintains offices in Big D and Washington.

The Sterling City Lions Club will present its Second Annual Minstrel Show here Friday evening, February 27 at the high school auditorium. Curtain time is 7:30 p.m., said Mrs. Anna Lee Johnson, who is again directing the show.

The Darkie's Jubilee will be one of the most lively, hilarious novelty shows ever presented with home talent. A brand new show written and composed for your entertainment, featuring six end men who will keep you in gales of laughter when they stage a bear story-telling contest.

Rev. Bruce Medford will act as interlocutor, and the end men are: Harry Bradstreet, Oscar Dorsey, J. P. Lester, Bill Barbee, R. T. Caperton and C. L. King. A full chorus, quartet, and special musical numbers will be featured, along with another sermon by Horace Donalson. DON'T MISS IT!

Tickets for reserved seats are being sold by Anna Lee Johnson. Prices have been set at $1.00 for all seats, whether for adults or for children.

Others appearing in the minstrel will be H. A. Chapple, M. E. Churchill, O. E. Neal, M. K. Smith, L. C. McDonald, John M. Stuckwisch, Earl Bailey, Kent Jones, Ronald Smith Evelyn Ann Smith, Mrs. M. K. Smith, Mrs. Worth Durham, Mrs. Pat Boatler, Mrs. Bill Barbee, Mrs. G. C. Murrell, Mrs. J. E. Wyckoff, Mrs. David Glass, Esther Ann Bird, Vicki June Johnson, Rossanne Foster and Bill Hood, the zoot suit man. Mrs. Rube Ricker of Garden City is to bring down three numbers from Garden City talent.

Admission price, or rather the price of seats will be $1.

Blanek's City Cafe To Open Saturday

Joseph Blanek will open the remodelled City Cafe here Saturday, February 21. Free coffee, cold drinks and doughnuts will be served to the public all that day, said Joseph.

Owner of the building, Earl Bailey, has spared no expense to fix up his building in the best and most pleasing way. It was completely re-done, lowering the ceiling, installing indirect lighting, automatic heat and air-conditioning, walk in cold storage room, private dining room, asphalt tile flooring, and other improvements. Blanek has installed the latest in seating and restaurant fixtures. He will have a display case for steaks—the customer may pick out his steak before it is cooked. The latest and improved fixtures have been installed and the whole place is attractive from all angles.

Joseph said he will open for business with a full crew. Cooks are Mrs. M. Z. Brown and Mrs. Ben Atwell. Waitresses are Mrs. Sam Simmons, Mrs. Jake Martin and Mrs. Eugenia McGuire. Other helpers are Mrs. Carol Reed and Eunice Cleveland.

$888 Raised For March Of Dimes Campaign

"Easy As Pie"

By Betty Barclay

AS a matter of fact, this Coconut Tutti-Frutti Pie is even easier than the ordinary pie, because it uses that wonderful time-saver, prepared pudding and pie filling mix as a base. This pie is made with "delightfully different" coconut cream pudding and has chopped maraschino cherries, dates and almonds folded in. Garnish with some whipped cream and you have a pie that's not only delicious to eat, but extra-special in looks, too.

Coconut Tutti-Frutti Pie
1 package coconut cream pudding and pie filling mix; 2 cups milk; 2 tablespoons chopped maraschino cherries; 2 tablespoons chopped dates; 2 tablespoons chopped almonds; 1/2 teaspoon rum flavoring; 1 baked 8-inch pie shell; 1/2 cup cream, whipped and sweetened.
Combine pie filling mix and milk in a saucepan. Cook and stir over medium heat until the mixture comes to a full boil. Remove from heat. Cool only about 5 minutes, stirring once or twice. Fold in fruit, almonds, and flavoring. Press into pie shell. Chill. Spread whipped cream on top.

McEntire-Spence Nuptials Saturday

ABILENE—The Elmwood Baptist Church was the scene of the marriage of Kaye McEntire, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. D. McEntire of Abilene and William Oral Spence, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Spence of Midland Saturday evening.

Wedding vows were solemnized in a candlelight service read by the bride's father, pastor, before an altar decorated with a pink heart made of carnations flanked with candelabra holding pink tapers. Baskets of pink gladioli and fern were used.

Mrs. Charles Welch of Midland, aunt of the bride, presented nuptial prelude and traditional wedding music.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Myrtle Welch of Denver City, the bride wore a dress of white imported organdy and white silk imported lace made over taffeta. The neckline was scalloped and the long pointed sleeves were of lace and trimmed in seed pearls. She wore a seed pearl crown with a silk illusion fingertip veil. She carried a white ivory backed Bible, gift of her sister, Darlene, topped with a bridal bouquet of pink and white rosebuds. She wore a gold coin necklace worn by her great grandmother at her wedding.

Darlene McEntire was the maid of honor. Ginger Lane of Sterling City was bridesmaid. They wore white embroidered organdy and carried heart shaped nosegays of white and pink carnations.

Candlelighters were Neta and Bettie Welch, cousins of the bride. They wore pink dresses with floor length skirts. Flower girl Janie Foster wore a pink organdy dress. Rickie Cauble, cousin of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Best man was E. R. Tarbox of Lubbock. Ushers were Steve McEntire, brother of the bride, Joe Paul Owens of Littlefield, and Quincy Ray Taylor, Winters.

The bride's mother wore a white and black crepe dress topped with black linen jacket. Her accessories were black patent and her flowers were white carnations.

A reception was held in the church. Among those in the houseparty included Mrs. Ray Lane and Mrs. C. N. Crawford of Sterling City.

The couple will live in Lubbock where he is a junior in Texas Technological College. She will complete her high school work at Lubbock this semester.

Mrs. J. E. Cannon Dead

Funeral services were held in Beeville, Texas Wednesday for Mrs. J. E. Cannon. Mrs. Cannon made her home in Sterling a number of years ago and will be remembered by many of the old timers. She was a sister-in-law of Mrs. G. A. Stockton.
