San Antonian Fined $500 In Assault Case

Sam V. Hollifield, 47, San Antonio paving contractor, was fined $500 in district court here Thursday of last week. He had been charged with assault with intent to rape but the jury reduced the charge to aggravated assault. He had Hershel Upton and Bill Griffis of San Angelo for his attorneys.

This week the family of the girl sued Hollifield for $10,000 damages in the case and it came to an out of court settlement for $2,500. The plaintiffs alleged that the girl had suffered injury when she jumped from the car, and asked $5,000 actual damages and $5,000 exemplary damages.

Let's Talk Livestock

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—The biggest run of sheep since June, 1950, arrived at Ft. Worth Monday. Shorn fat lambs hit a new high for the season of $22.75 and the class was strong to 50 cents higher. Feeder competition was the best for some time with Nebraska and Iowa buyers active on the yards as well as the regular staff of order buyers who make Fort Worth headquarters. Spring lambs were steady to easier, with some of the lighter weights and less than choice fat kinds 25 to 50 cents off. Old sheep and yearlings were steady.

Good and choice shorn fat lambs drew $20 to $22.75, and stocker and feeder shorn lambs sold from $14 to $20, some fleshy and fat mixed lots at $19 to $20. Good and choice Spring lambs sold for $22 to $25, and common and medium sorts sold for $15 to $20.

Old ewes sold for $5 to $6.50, and old wethers from $8 to $11. Yearlings and two-year-old wethers cashed at $13 to $17.

There was more action on stocker and feeder cattle and calves and some spots were 50 cents higher on the better kinds of calves, yearlings and steers. Stocker cows had fair demand. Fat calves of good and choice kinds were stronger, the plainer to medium kinds just steady. Fat steers and heifers, cows and bulls were fully steady to strong, some fed steers and yearlings higher again.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings sold for $18 to $23, and common, plain and medium sorts drew $10 to $18. Fat cows drew $12 to $14.50, and canners and cutters cashed at $8 to $12. Bulls returned $10 to $16.

Good and choice fat calves sold for $18 to $23, and common and medium offerings cashed in the $12 to $18 bracket, with culls from $8 to $11. Stocker calves ranged from $15 to $21.50, and stocker yearlings sold from $19 down. Stocker cows cashed at $10 to $17. Some 2-year-old feeder steers drew $18.50.

Choice butcher hogs topped at $24, and sows sold from $19 to $21.50. Pigs sold from $20 downward.
