Littlefield Varsity Slides By Mulettes

The Muleshoe Mulettes gave the Littlefield girls a run for the money last Friday night here in Muleshoe. The Manettes were able to stay fairly even with the 'Cats through the first and second quarters of the game, but began to lag behind in the third quarter by seven points. By making up the difference and adding a few points, the Mulettes brought the total score up to 44, but was not good enough against the 47

First'82 City Sales Tax Rebate Lower Than 1981 Payment

State Comptroiler Bob Bullock Thursday sent payments totaling $34.7 million to Texas cities with the one percent city sales

The payments, the first of 1982 to the nearly one thousand cities who collect the tax, totaled $1.6 million mere than these cities received in January of last

The City of Muleshoe's share of this tax amounted to $9,211.17, which was a minus 10.48%, down from the total of $10,289.33 for this same period of time in

While the neighboring town to the south, Morton, reflected a22.90% increase from the same time last year, their first payment for 1982 was $2,192.87 over the 1981 total of $1,-784.31.

Farwell's net payment for the first period of 1982 was $688.01. This reflected a minus 8.52% from the same time last year's figure of $752.07.

Fariona's check for net Friona's check for net payment this period was $3,433.02, showing a minus 3.02% from last year's $3,540.04 at this same

The biggest check -- $7.4 million -- went to Houston, an 11.7 percent increase over last January's check.

Dallas received a check for $4 million, compared to $3.7 million for the same period last year.

Cotton Classing Total Sets New Season Record

About 209,000 Smith-Doxey samples were classed at Lubbock during the week ended January 21. This brought the season's total to a record 1,930,000, according to Mack Bennett area director for USDA's Marketing Services Office. The previous record for one season's classing total at one office was 1,805,000 set in 1962, also at Lubbock. Last season's combined classing total at Lubbock, Brownfield and Levelland amounted to 1,-614,000.

About 16 percent was grade 42, 43 percent was grade 52 and 22 percent was grade 53. About 87 percent was reduced one grade because of bark.

Staples were 11 percent staple 29, 35 percent staple 30, 37 percent staple 31 and 11 percent staple 32 for an average of 30.5 thirty-seconds of an irch.

Micronaire 35 - 49 was 21 percent, 33 - 34 was 15 percent, 30 - 32 was 33 percent, 27 - 29 was 21 percent and 26 or below Cont. Page 6, Col. 8

 Police Report

 Muleshoe Police were kept busy the past weekend with public intoxications and DWI. On January 23, two were arrested, one for public intoxication and one for driving while intoxicated. On the 24th, two more were arrested for the same charges. The public intoxication on the 24th was also charged with possession of a drug.

One accident was reported to city police on January 24, however, no injuries were recorded.

Robert Green, Inc. reported a criminal mischief on January 21, involving three vehicles parked on the lot at that business. Rocks were thrown through windshields, headlights and car windows. No suspects have been arrested in this incident.

Parent-Teachers Group Facing Disbandment

On Thursday, February 11, there will be a special meeting for the Muleshoe Parent-Teacher's Association at 7 p.m. in the Mary DeShazo cafeteria.

This meeting has been called by the local PTA president, Robin Neptune, concerning the possibility or disbanning the PTA organization in Muleshoe.

The reasons for this disbanment being the unavailability of new cificers and the lack of local support and interest at the monthly meetings.

Since the discussion on disbanning at the last meeting, many concerned citizens have come forward to volunteer their services, however, the need for more concerned people is imperative.

The PTA has helped the schools in obtaining extra equipment that cannot be pointed out that while many young men are anxious to get into the farming business, there is definitely a waiting period before a young man can enter into the farming business from "scratch."

By way of explanation, the FmHA director said that a few years ago, limits of operating loans were $10,000 loaned at an interest rate of 5 percent. Now, in 1982, the limit on operating loans is $100,000 at 14.5 percent. And, even that not enough in these times of severely escalated prices. "The Business Side of Art," workshops are scheduled for the sixth annual session February 11-13 and February 25-27 in Kerrville. Sponsored by the Board of Directors of the non-profit Texas Arts and Crafts Educational Foundation, the workshops will be held in the classrooms of the Dietert Auditorium of Schreiner College.

Dr. Sam Junkin, chairman of the TACEF Board. said the Foundation plans to make available expertise and good support material in a form most easily used by artists and crafters. Approximately 100 arts business people travel to Kerrville each year to participate in the six day, two weekend program. The project is coordinated by Foundation executive director, Audie Hamilton.

Since participants are at various stages of developing their business procedures, registration may be made for any of the single days, for either weekend or for both weekends. The first weekend, February 11-13, concentrates on the needs of beginning arts business people. Second weekend activities focus on advance studies in accounting, selling and marketing for the more experienced in business proced-

Registration is $15.00 per day for single sessions. Each three day session is $40.00. Cost of the entire program of six full days is $75.00. Dr. Junkin stressed that registration fees only cover about one-third of the cost of producing the workshops.

Kerrville CPA George Rose, partner in the firm of Geistweidt and Company, returns for his second year of accounting sessions on February 11 and 25. The February 11 workshop covers setting up of a simple bookkeeping system and other accounting necessities of opening a small business. On February 25, attention is turned to maintaining a business, Jenet Hoffman, a New York artist, specializes in commissioned fiber works for commercial interiors and crafts markets. She is on the faculty of Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, NY and has taught marketing workshops for several years. Her advance session will cover market identification and product development for specific markets. Marketing alternatives, approaching and developing new markets will be discussed on February 27.

An all day session on marketing basics will be taught by TACEF director Audie Hamilton on February 13. Portfolio, basic brochure and mailing list preparation will be covered, along with how to use promotion money and time to the best advantage. Tips for acceptance in good shows will be included, as well as information on copyright and contracts.

Included in the registration fee is the cost of lunch each day and a copy of "The Arts Business System," a manual written by Audie Hamilton and George Rose. Coffee will be furnished by the Kerrville Convention and Visitors Bureau and Chamber of Commerce.

A&M researcher says tension causes 'quitting'

COLLEGE STATION -While the frustrations that lead people to quit a job can ake years to buildup, many times workers simply wake up one morning and decide they have had enough, says a management professor who has completed a study on quitting.

"We can tolerate just so much tension on a job," says Dr. Michael Abelson of Texas A&M University's College of Business Administration. "In many cases, all it takes is that one additional instance for us to pass the brink of no return.'

As long as people are com-mitted to their jobs they are more likely to put up with tension, he said, but as commitment declines and tension persists they start thinking about leaving.

Albelson said as pressures and a lack of commitment mount, some supervisor or other source of tension can apply the straw that breaks the camel's back.

"If an administrator is not perceived as being supportive but fellow employees are, then the person is likely to stay on a job," he added, "but when someone feels that neither his boss nor his fellow workers are being supportive, then he will be more apt to quit."

Nuclear firefighters get hands-on training at Texas A&M

COLLEGE STATION -Because fires in nuclear power plants can range from simple trashbasket blazes to electrical infernos that threaten vital radiation safety systems, fire brigades at such facilities need special training.

In one of the few programs nationwide, the Texas Engineering Extension Service, part of the Texas A&M University System, offers the kind of classroom and hands-on experience needed, says one instruction coordinator.

Firefighters from nuclear power plants are taught basic control and prevention skills. In addition, they receive special emphasis on radiation detection, fighting fires in the presence of radioactive contamination and seiting up control areas for firemen leaving the scene, said David Cox of TEEX' Fire Protection Training Division.

Grade 9 - 'A' Honor Roll: Donae Parker; 'AB' Honor Roll: Robin Kindle, Gena Pearcey.

COFFEE CAN BATTER BREAD 1 pkg. active dry yeast 1/2 C. warm water 1/4 tsp. ginger 3 Tbsp. sugar 1 lg. can (13 oz.) eyaporated milk 2 Tbsp. salad oil 4 C. unsifted flour

In a large mixing bowl, combine yeast, warm water, ginger and 1 tablespoon sugar; mix well. Cover and let stand until foamy, about 20 minutes. Stir in remaining sugar, milk, salt and salad oil. Add 3 cups flour and beat until smooth. Stir in remaining flour until well blended. Place dough in 2 well greased 1-lb. coffee cans; cover with well greased plastic lids. Let rise in a warm place until lids pop off, about 1 hour. Bake uncovered in a 350 degree oven for 45 minutes, or until bread sounds hollow when tapped. Let cool in cans 10 minutes; turn out on wire rack; stand upright to cool completely. Makes 2 loaves.

CALORIES ADD UP

Sticking to that New Years resolution to start a diet and stay with it? Good for you but don't be fooled into thinking that eating off a salad bar is the absolute answer to weight control.

It's easy to forget how fast calories add up as you make your own salad. Keep these calories in mind during your next trip to the salad bar:

-Macaroni, bean and potato salads contain 120-180 calories per half-cup serv-

Gelatin - type fruit salads, 120-150 calories per - Applesauce, fruit cock-gram, except that this money cannot be used for the purchase of land. The limits of loan money available and the rates of interest are the same. This loan is sometimes possible for landlords who wish to use this money for the improvement of farm land. This is the only program by which a landlord who does not farm his own land may obtain a loan through FmHA.

There is also an Economic Emergency loan. Kennedy explained that while the bill providing for this loan ran out in September of 1981, and it was not extended by Congress, the new 1982 Farm Bill has this loan facility back in. It has not been activated atthis time. The maximum limit of loan under this program is $400,000 at 14.75 percent interest for operating purposes. This loan, however, cannot be used to start in farming. It is only made to established farmers and is therefore of no help to that young man trying to get started in farming.

Another emergency loan program is that which is offered to farmers who are suffering from the effects of a natural disaster. Kennedy explained that this was not presently in effect for Bailey County this year, since the county made a fairly good crop overall.

Within the last couplle of years, according to Kennedy's figures, the local FmHA facility has loaned over $16 million ech year in farm loans. This figure stands alone in telling the sad tale of many farmers coming up on difficult times and having been sent to FmHA by banks because of the increase of these hard times. Bailey County FmHA now processes over 200 annual operating loans and services over 400 borrowers, whereas, eighteen years ago, only eighty loans were processed through this office. In a question and answer period, Kennedy was approached as to the attitude and policy of the FmHA on how and who makes the decisions on who or who does not farm. Kennedy answered by stating that the standard FmHA policy has not changed. That policy is to continue with farmers as long as it appears that they can eventually succeed. Or, in other words, as long as they have a chance to pull out of debt and make farming work for them, having it become a paying situation.

One of the main questions asked -- a question that is in the mind of all concerned -- "Is money short?" To this question the supervisor answered, "Yes, and we have no budget as yet in our county." According to Kennedy funds are beginning to be a very real problem. When it (the economy) gets to the point where farming won pay the interest on the back debts and repay the current year's operating loan, then the farmer is in troubie.

Another question dwelt upon the possibilities that a young man might have who wants to start farming n-v. To this, Mr. Kennedy replied: "We can a cept vour application, but funding would be delayed due to the allocated funds being set aside to those who are now indebted FmHA. First; then to new, young farmers, if any funds are left. The policy and feeling of the FmHA is that the greater obligation goes to the farmers who are already in debt to FmHA. In answer to the question as to who makes this kind of decision, Mr. Kennedy stated that these decisions are made on a national and state level and not through any local offices. Almost to a man, the group of young farmers wanted to know -- "How long a delay would there be for funds for a new farmer?" "This is a question I cannot answer," said Kennedy. "We start as early as December processing loans and it will take from 60 to 90 days to process those farmers who are presently indebted to FmHA." Also, the fact remains, Kennedy pointed out, that FmHA could run out of funds before all of our county loans are processed. He hastened to add that he was hopeful of a brighter side when word is received on the new 1982 budget.

In a statement that added weight to the blow, Kennedy told the young men that "Congress allocates 'X' amount of dollars per program, per state. These allocations have to do with and are based upon past history of need. Texas gets approximately 10 pecent of all program funds. When these funds get to the state level, the order is usually first come, first serve -- except for new farmers. The bottom line to this is that new farmers would have to wait, not just until their respective area was financed, but until the entire state of Texas' already indebted operators have been taken care of." This paints a pretty bleak picture for the young farmer.

Kennedy stated that the farm situation and farmers themselves, are in the worst shape he has seen in the 27 years of working for FmHA. The process involved for a young farmer, starting out from 'square one' is a long and tedious without financial backing. "While it has always been considered improper for the government to compete with private industry or lenders, a young farmer is to the point where there is no place else for him to go except to FmHA," Kennedy stated. And, even that, in these times is not a bright side of the situation, as it would seem that a young man's hands are tied. "We can only hope that this situation will turn around soon," said the director.

"If it does not, I would not

MJH Spotlights Athletic Department

Spotlighted this week at MJH is the Athletic Department. Girls athletic coaches in this department are Brenda Scott and Nanette Soto. Boys athletic coaches are Ronnie Jones and Ross Dodson.

Coach Ronnie Jones commented, "In our athletic classes, we are basically interested in accomplishing a few very important goals. We are first of all, working towards teaching our athletes the necessity of discipline. We try to do this through hard work. We, as coaches, make every attempt to see that the sport in progress is fun for our players. For this to happen, the players must have the right attitudes. The developing of this type of attitude is our number one priority. We also try to instill a sense of pride in these boys because we feel it is important for our students to make every effort to do the

"We do our best to play as many boys as we can in Junior High because we know how important this is. As long as the boys work hard, have a good attitude, and keep up their grades, they will play at least some. Really, we try to enjoy our work and get the boys to do the same."

Coach Brenda Scott commented, "We have two classes of girl athletics in our Junior High Program, seventh and eighth. The sixth grade is not included in our Athletic Progrem. Our sixth grade class is mainly physical education. We do spend a small amount of time on basketball. We do this so they will at least know a little about basketball, so they can decide if they want to be in athletics or PE during their seventh and eighth grade years.

"In our seventh grade program, we have three people working with the girls. The class is very small, therefore giving us a chance for more individual

Rates for listing in the Journal's Political Column is: $35 for all offices except those for City Council and School Board post which is $15. This fee includes a front page announcement article and a one column photoraph at the time the announcement is made, i addition to the listing in the Political column from the date of announcement until the final election.

Charges for announcements are cash in advance, and this same policy to applies to all political advertising carried in the columns of this new paper.

Names for each office will be listed in the Political Column in the order they are received at the newspaper

The Journal has been authorized to announce the following candidates for public office:

Lamar Dea Treadwell

*County Judge * Thomas S. Freeman We go from there into offense and defense. We start off with a very simple offense and a man-to-man defense. We feel these girls should be able to run a good man-to-man defense before going into a zone situation. We feel the most important things for this age group is to learn are the fundamentals of the game. If the basics are learned in the first year, then the game is easier for the gard to learn and for us ball handling and shooting.

"In our 8th grade program, we also have three people working with the girls. This is a rather large class (52), so we have two groups. One group works on basketball and the other one works in our off season (track) program. The basketball group works on asketball from the very beginning. The off season group does different activities until the middle of January. At this time, they "Il start working on track. nen basketball is over in the middle of February, then everyone works on track. "The 8th graders should already know about ball handling, shouting, etc., therefore we can start earlier in the season on offense and defense. We go into more detail on these and are able to run more complicated plays.

"There are other things we strive to accomplish besides learning the game of basketball. We stress leadership, responsibility, honesty, and citizenship. We also feel that learning to function as an individual is as important as learning to work as a team."

Commemorative Stamp Life Span Extended

A Houston congressman has moved to extend the lifespan of the Postal Service's 18-cent commemorative Alcoholism stamp.

Rep. Mickey Leland (D-Texas) has written the Postmaster General requesting consideration of continuation of the stamp or its reissuance as a 20cent stamp, Ross Newby, executive director of the Texas Commission on Alcoholism, announced.

Leland chairs the Subcommittee on Postal Personnel and Modernization of the House Committee on Post Office and Civil Ser-

"Use of this stamp enhances the possibility of alcohol-addicted individuals learning to deal with their disease." Newby said.

The stamp, with a blue design on a white background, carries the slogan: "Alcoholism: You Can Beat It!"

Newby noted that Gov. Williams Clements had encouraged utilization of the Alcoholism Stamp in an official memorandum in October. Leland wrote Postmaster General William F. Bolder in regard to the stamp's continuance after being conducted by Becky Davis, TCA deputy director, Newby said.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek may be in over his head this week in discussing intellectuals.

Dear editor:

A news report from Poland said many Poles are angered by President Reagan's sanctions on grain supplies to that beleagured country but "intellectuals believe such moves can bring pressure to bear on martial law authorities."

This brings up the question, What is an intellectual?

Well, they come in lots of different varieties. An intellectual economist for exampleis one who can tell you in four syllable words that the economy today is not what he said yesterday it was going to be.

An intellectual politician is one who has run for office four times and never gotten elected. Sometimes it's a shame, sometimes not.

An intellectual farmer is one who teaches agriculture in a university to students planning on teaching agriculture because it beats driving a tractor. He can predict when the price of cattle will go up but rarely takes advantage of his prediction by buying some himself.

An intellectual bureaucrat is one who can write a government regulation nobody, including himself, can understand.

An intellectual writer is one who, if he lives in Russia, does better if he keeps his mouth shut. If he lives in this country he can say what he pleases but his books don't sell very well.

The world need inore genuine intellectuals but they're hard to produce. Most of those calling themselves intellectuals are like politicians calling themselves statesmen.

If one over shows up out here we'll try to capture him and bring him to town, if you can find somebody who can identify the spe-
