A Smart Supper Idea

By Betty Barclay

MEAT left on your roast, to slice down cold? Ham left from the weekend picnic? Well ... you can give your family an interesting meal they'll enjoy (instead of grumble at!) if you prepare Coconut Broiled Bananas to serve as a hot and delectable accompaniment for the cold meat. With a little bit of effort, a "left-overs meal" can thus become a "smart supper!"

Coconut Broiled Bananas
4 bananas; melted butter; salt.
1 cup shredded coconut, cut; 3 tablespoons orange juice; ½ teaspoon grated orange rind.

Peel bananas and split lengthwise in halves. Place cut side down in lightly greased shallow baking pan. Brush with melted butter and sprinkle lightly with salt. Place in broiler, about 4 inches from heat, and broil about 3 minutes, or until bananas are almost tender. Meanwhile, combine coconut, orange juice, and orange rind. Turn bananas and sprinkle with coconut mixture. Return to broiler for about 2 minutes longer, to brown coconut lightly. Serve hot as meat accompaniment. Makes 4 servings.

Gulf No-Nox Gasoline burns clean

Here's proof: Note the black deposit on plate at left, caused by the "dirty-burning tail-end" of gasoline—the part Gulf refines out in making new NO-NOX. But see how clean new NO-NOX leaves the plate at right. Now—in your own new 1956 car—see how NO-NOX can give you more miles per gallon in the short-trip, stop-and-go driving you do most.

Gulfpride Select Oil works clean

Here's why: Most conventional oils are refined only to the stage shown in A. But New Gulfpride Select is further refined by the Alchlor Process—removing up to 15% more of the carbon-formers, in B... C contains the new super-refined oil that gives you more miles per quart because it gives the toughest protective film ever developed.

REMEMBER: No gasoline alone can give you today's finest performance ... no oil alone can give you today's finest protection. Get the new super-power gas-oil team...

By JANE ASHLEY

Cookies are in great demand these days—for the lunch box and after school snack. Here is a family favorite, a rich refrigerator type cookie with excellent keeping qualities.

Chocolate Refrigerator Cookies
 3 cups sifted all-purpose flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
 1 cup butter or margarine
 1/2 cup Karo Syrup, Blue Label
 1/2 cup sugar, brown or granulated
 1 egg, beaten
 2 squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1 cup nuts, chopped

Mix and sift together first three ingredients. Beat butter until soft and creamy. Add corn syrup and sugar, and beat until thoroughly blended. Add egg; blend well. Stir in melted chocolate, then vanilla and nuts. Add sifted dry ingredients; mix thoroughly. Chill dough about 1 hour. Shape into 2 rolls about 2 inches in diameter. Wrap in wax paper and chill in refrigerator at least 4 hours or overnight. With a very sharp knife, cut in thin slices. Place on ungreased baking sheet. Bake in hot oven (400° F.) 8 to 10 minutes. Make about 5 dozen.

Variations:
Butterscotch Cookies: Omit chocolate from recipe.

Orange Coconut Cookies: Follow recipe for Chocolate Refrigerator Cookies. Omit chocolate, substitute light corn syrup for dark corn syrup. Use granulated sugar. Stir in 2 tablespoons grated orange rind, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg and 1 cup coconut, chopped, before adding sifted dry ingredients.

WHAT a pretty party dish to treat a little girl... or a big one, for that matter! Strawberry Ambrosia, made of dainty pink Strawberry Instant Pudding (the latest, newest instant pudding flavor), snowy white coconut and the all-popular fruit—bananas. It's all so fast and enjoyable to prepare, no cooking, no waiting, no wondering what's going to happen!

Strawberry Ambrosia
2 cups cold milk; 1 package strawberry instant pudding mix; dash of salt; 2 small bananas, sliced; 1/2 cup shredded coconut.
Pour milk into mixing bowl. Add pudding mix and salt. Beat slowly with egg beater just until well mixed, about 1 minute. Do not overbeat; mixture will be thin. Layer alternately with banana slices in sherbet glasses. Top with coconut and let stand to set—take 15 minutes. Chill, if desired. Make 4 servings.

What'cha Waitin' On? Get Those Polio Shots Now!

Folks, you can now have your children shot with the Salk Polio Vaccine shots. The deal comes in three packages, so to speak. The first shot is followed by another in a month. Then six months later a third shot is given. Right now (or really a month ago was better) is the time to start the shots if you haven't already. This makes that last shot, six months from now, fall just before the polio season begins next summer. Besides, the shots might hit after polio has struck a chill next summer—and isn't so good, it is pointed out.

The cost of the shots is cheap—only 1.50 per shot and the cost of the doctor's fee for an office shot. What are you waiting on. Now is the time to begin!

First and Second Latin-American Grades Sponsoring Show at School

This picture is James Oliver Curwood's novel "God's Country" and is in color. It is about a "wanted" man and his dog. They fight timber thieves for freedom and the right of those they love to live in happiness.

All profits from this film will be used for the Latin-American rooms for Christmas.

Seen Monk's "Better Half"?

Monk McCarthy's latest creation has the town talking again. You can see it parked in front of Monk's auto repair shop on Maple.

Remember last year Monk cut two cars in half, and put their front ends together? You couldn't tell if the thing was coming or going. Sure attracted attention.

Now Monk's taken Tog Morgan's old sedan and completely restored one half of it. One side is as good as new, the other looks like—well, Tog's old car. "Sort of before-and-after demonstration," Monk told me, "shows folks the kind of work I do."

From where I sit, some of Monk's ideas may look a little wild sometimes... but I wouldn't want to tell him how to run his business any more than I'd like him to tell me what beverage to enjoy. He always keeps a hot pot of tea in his garage—I'd rather have a cold glass of beer—but respect for each other's opinion is "auto"-matic with us both.
