All The Animals Will Be There-

The 1956 State Fair of Texas in Dallas, Oct. 6-21, will have an animal kingdom all its own, with plenty of royalty on hand. These four aristo-crats of the range and pasture-Brahman, Hereford, Jersey and Angora goat-are blue-blooded representatives of only four of the 26 purebred beef and dairy cattle, sheep, swine, goat and horse breeds to be featured n the fair's livestock shows.

Lions Club to Meet On Tuesday Next Week FOR THE WORLD SERIES

The members of the Lions Club voted to meet on Tuesday next week instead of Wednesday due to the opening of the world series. Coach W. L. Young told the Play Imperial There members about the coming game with Imperial there Friday night. He said it would or should be a good game. Sterling has lost no games, and allowed only 14 points to be scored by opposing teams in the three games played. Imperial has won their first three games by scores of over 50 each time. The two teams should be evenly matched.

Guests present were Bill Young, Lynn Glass, and James Ripley of San Angelo. The prize went to Pat Boatler.

Fred Igo announced that the FFA boys were trying to raise money for their trip to the State Fair, and they (the boys) would all be "for hire" Saturday, September 29.

North Concho River Soil Soil Conservation News Column

Ewing McEntire has taken charge of the North Concho River Soil Conservation District pitting plow and seeder. He will handle the routing, maintenance and collection of fees for the District Supervisors on this piece of equipment. Anyone desiring to use this tractor and plow should contact Ewing.

Last Friday was our first reminder of what is in store during the coming winter and spring.

Soil is not permanent. Under many conditions it is very unstable. When wind and water move across bare ground they usually carry some soils with them. They may move it hundreds of miles or just a few feet but eventually large amounts of precious topsoil can be moved

Leaks in Roof Slow to Show

Most people don't examine a raincoat for leaks every time they put it on. If the coat leaks, they generally find out about it during a downpour when rain soaks through to their skin. But your home doesn't have the instant warning system your skin provides. Rain or melting snow and ice can seep through a worn out roof and cause cost-budged by a state of the state of the state of the state budged by the state of the state of the state of the state a worn out roof and cause costly damage long before you are aware of it.

Late summer or early fall is a good time to check the roof for leaks so that any faults can be corrected before cold weather sets in. After a rainstrom, go into the attic and look for telltale dark areas water makes when it soaks into wood. Or feel along the decking and rafters for dampness. If you find even one spot, and if the roof is old, chances are you'll need complete new roof-ing. Roofs wear out uniformly, and one leak usually means you'll have more.

A new roof of asphalt shingles is economical, since the colorful singles usually can be laid right on top of the old roof, saving the cost of removing it, and retaining the insulating value of the old covering.

The wisest time to re-roof is before leaks start. You can keep a check on the condition of your roof by having it inspected peri-odically by a reliable roofing contractor.

Stain Preserves Attractive Grain Of Pine Millwork

One of the special advantages of wood windows, panel doors and kitchen cabinets is that they can be stained to retain warm natural wood tones and the attractive figuring of the wood grain.

A panel door of ponderosa pine, for example, can be fin-ished to look like an antique door from an old Colonial mansion or to harmonize with modern styling. Interior window frames and sash can be finished to add richness to the color scheme of a room.

Ponderosa pine is the wood of which most windows and panel doors are made. It adapts read-ily to stains of all kinds. Here are a few rules to get the best

'Esplanade of Light' Planned for Fair

Visitors to the 1956 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 6-21, will be dazzled as they enter the fairgrounds by the brilliant "Esplanade of Light" which will transform the concourse just inside the main gates into a spectacular vista of dramatic illumination and scenic water effects. The lighting will be the most striking since the Texas Centennial Exposition in 1936. This artist's impression of how the Esplanade will look at night shows how it will utilize enough electricity to light a small city and a total of 1,772 fountains of water shooting high into the air. The manmade scenic wonder is co-sponsored by the State Fair and Dallas Power and Light Company.

Some local high school teachers spent the summer taking courses at the State University. They learned a lot, but one of them -Miss Williams-got homesick.

"To save expenses," she reports, "we chose a hotel that was clean but grim. When I found my window looked out on a coalyard -my heart just sank!"

But, when Miss Williams noticed a pot of geraniums on the window sill-and a note saying "Look at these instead. (signed) Last Occupant"-she decided to stick it out. She kept those flowers watered and tended to make things that much easier on the next occupant.

From where I sit, it's often hard to adapt to new surroundings just as new customs often seem strange to us at first. For instance, if you've always had tea with your meals you might find it odd that I prefer a glass of beer. It's OK to prefer what's familiar to you . . . but also keep an open mind on what's not.

Gulf No-Nox is the gasoline That's famous 'cause it burns so clean. Fill up at Gulf and you will see

(Make your last word rhyme with "see.")

Clean-burning No-Nox gives you many more miles of new-car power! HINTS TO HELP YOU WIN!

1. No-Nox burns clean because Gulf refines out the "dirty-burning tailend" found in ordinary gasoline.

3. No-Nox protects your engine, keeps new-car power intact for thousands of extra miles.

2. No-Nox combats formation of carbon deposits which "shrink" engine power.

4. Gulf No-Nox is a high-octane gasoline-gives more miles per gallon in short-trip driving.
