

Gunn Gets Life Sentence In Murder Trial Here

For Beating Death of Cecil Grady

Riley Edward Gunn, 33, was assessed a life sentence in the state pen Thursday by a Sterling County jury for the beating death of Cecil Grady, 29, on January 15. Grady's badly beaten body was found by an oilfield trucker on the Roy Glass ranch up Garden City road—as he pulled in to haul oil out of the lease there.

District Attorney Justin A. Kever, assisted by assistant district attorney Jack Sessum and Sterling County attorney Worth B. Durham, prosecuted for the state. Royal Hart of San Angelo acted as the court appointed attorney for Gunn. District Judge Joe L. Mays presided.

Jurors were Earl Bailey—foreman, Jim Hinshaw, John Copeland, Jr., Nolan Stewart, C. W. Smith, Arthur Barlemann, Jr., Henry Zettler, C. T. Williams, Neal J. Reed, Johnny Dawson, and Delbert Dearen.

As district attorney Kever summed up the final argument he pointed to Gunn and said "He's the man that killed Cecil Grady!" Gunn involuntarily yelled, "I did not kill him."

When the verdict was read at 5:50 p.m., members of Gunn's family and relatives began crying and wailing "he didn't do it!" and had to be ejected from the courtroom.

The defendant, wearing his thick black rimmed glasses, sat through the trial beside his lawyer—paying attention to each detail—including the questioning of prospective jurors Monday and Tuesday all day and Wednesday morning.

He, Gunn, heard witnesses for the state place him in two bars in San Angelo with the slain man and an all-night poker game—in which Grady had been the heavy winner.

Grady, an ex convict just released from the state pen the day before, and Gunn left the all night poker game together at about 6:00 a.m. on the 15th of January. Grady had served a term in the pen for forging and passing.

The district attorney, with his witnesses, surmised that Gunn beat Grady with an unknown blunt instrument in the car and dumped him on the road where the badly beaten body was found. Grady, theorized Kever, got up and staggered as he was dumped and Gunn had to finish the job, and when he tried to leave the scene, his car stalled.

An oilfield truck driver, Merle Hudnett of Big Spring, was hailed by Gunn and asked to provide a push—which he did. Elroy Butler said Gunn drove in his station here that morning for gas and service—the car was all bloody inside. Gunn told Butler "a guy had insulted his wife and he beat the devil out of him."

The clothing, hair, shoes, etc. were investigated by the Department of Public Safety technician Donald Hannah.

The state evidence showed the blood on the car and Gunn's clothing were the same type as Gunn's. A pair of broken glasses like Gunn wears was found at the death scene by Bill Green and Jake Martin.

Gunn's wife said he came in that morning about 9:30 (of the murder) all bloody and cleaned up and she got the kids out of school and they left almost immediately for Oklahoma. Gunn was arrested by sheriff Bill Green and Texas Ranger Tom Wood in Oklahoma and brought back for investigation, indictment and trial.

Gunn took the stand and said he "woke up" in his car near here after leaving San Angelo with Grady and an unknown "red-haired" man, and he knew nothing about anything.

Grady, the "red-haired man" and Gunn all had breakfast together before leaving San Angelo, testified Gunn and the red-haired unknown gave him a drink and that's the last thing he knew.

Dr. Lloyd Hershberger, pathologist, who performed the autopsy on Grady, said the man had not eaten anything for at least two hours or more before he was killed.

Multiple bruises, fractures, and cuts covered Grady's head and body. Four of the 23 head wounds could have been the cause of death, said the pathologist.

The trial lasted four full days here. A special venire of jurors had been summoned. The opposing sides could cut 15 each; some were already decided and were automatically excused and six were excused at the beginning by the judge.

In his charge to the jury Judge Mays told them that under the law they could give the defendant any term in the pen from two years to life—if they found him guilty.

The state's attorney, Kever, had asked for a life sentence.

THE AMERICAN WAY

"The Customer Is Always BOSS!"

Our WASHINGTON Letter

By Congressman O. C. FISHER

The homestretch always sets in right after Easter. The weekly legislative schedules become fuller, the hours of the days longer. And so it is this year. With the cherry blossoms fading away along the tidal basin, Sam Rayburn & Co. are stepping up the work load in the House.

There will be foreign aid authorization; the finishing touches for the Civil Rights bills; a mammoth housing bill that is almost certain of a veto unless it is whittled down); and billion dollar school aid measure; a 'distressed areas' loan and grant scheme; and a few more appropriation measures.

Again, the lection-year pressures are on for more spending—of the non-essential variety. The main trouble with so many of the spending programs is that once begun they go on forever, and usually get bigger each year. That is one of the reasons why today the public debt stands at $290 billion. The interest on it accounts for 11% of our annual budget.

The brief Easter recess will give me a chance to make a brief trip to the district. On Monday, April 18, I will address the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in San Angelo, and on Friday, the 22nd—San Jacinto Day—I will speak at a luncheon in Austin on the occasion of the annual meeting of the Texas State Historical Association.

Just More Than 1200 in Sterling County

T. C. "Cutter" Davis, U. S. Census enumerator here, said this week that he estimated between 800 and 900 people in the Sterling City limits and 323 outside. Taking the 900 figure that would make just a few more than 1200 in Sterling County in the 1960 Federal census.

Speaking of Pets

Take Your Choice

So you're going to buy a dog? Perhaps you want a playmate for your children, a retriever to take hunting, or a watchdog for your country home. Or perhaps you simply want to add a friendly, fun-loving pet to your family.

With over 100 breeds to choose from, you are faced with quite a selection. Here are some tips from the Pet Food Institute to help you find the perfect dog for you.

1. Make a list of the qualities you want in a dog, then read up on various breeds. Chances are you'll find several that match your specifications.
2. Get to know the breeds that interest you. Go to a dog show. Talk to owners. Visit kennels.
3. Consider your home, family and way of life. A large dog needs lots of exercise so don't try to raise a standard poodle in an efficiency apartment. A toy is the logical choice here.
4. A curly-haired dog requires some upkeep at the beauty parlor. If your budget won't stand it, skip the poodles and terriers and concentrate on the short-haired breeds (dachshunds, German shepherds, etc.).
5. A large dog is a perfect pet for a small child if you have the room. If not, consider a pet in the size range of a space-saving Scottie or cocker spaniel—both devoted to youngsters.
6. Don't overlook the airedale, schnauzer, or boxer if you're looking for an alert watchdog.

Mexican Dies While Passing Through Sterling
 Celio Rodriguez, who had gotten a three-day pass from the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring (where he was a patient) died in the Sterling County Hospital Wednesday about 5:25 p.m. He had been brought in the emergency department less than two hours earlier—a very sick man. He had thought that a few days at his home south of here, was just what he needed, and he was unable even to make the trip home.

Low Funeral Home returned the body to the Veterans Hospital.

The Dearens do not know whose dog she is. All they know is that it is not their dog.

If it is your dog, go by and get at the Dearens.

A Breath of Spring Dessert

 THERE'S something about rhubarb that fairly shouts "It's Spring." And though fresh rhubarb enjoys an all-too-short season, you can enjoy its tart freshness any time of the year when you use the packaged frozen kind.
Stewed Rhubarb with Orange
 1 package (1 pound) Birds Eye Rhubarb; 1/2 cup water; 1 orange, sectioned and diced; 1/4 teaspoon grated orange rind; 1/2 cup sugar.
 Add rhubarb, frozen or thawed, to water in saucepan. Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, separating block with fork to hasten thawing. Cook gently 8 to 10 minutes, or until rhubarb is just tender.
 Meanwhile, combine orange sections, grated orange rind, and sugar in a bowl. Pour hot cooked rhubarb over the orange mixture and stir just until mixed. Serve warm or chilled. Makes 2 1/2 cups, or 4 servings.

THE WILL OF TEXANS
Re-elect WILL WILSON ATTORNEY GENERAL

The people are crying: "Give us a judge who as the guts to be fair to everybody."

Elect as district judge a man who has 41 years experience in trial of both civil and criminal cases, who, if elected, will try every case in a manner that will make the litigant feel—win or lose—that the law is his friend, not his enemy.

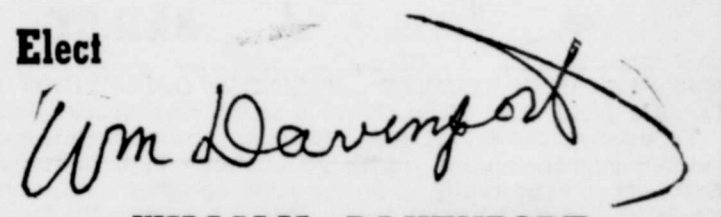

William Davenport

Elect as your judge a man who was fired by the San Angelo City Commission for being fair to the people—because he believed every case should be decided upon its own merits, and not decided against any person because the City of San Angelo needed the money.

William Davenport is a dedicated lawyer. He believes that the law is a sacred profession. If elected Judge, he WILL:

1. Preside with the attitude that the law is your FRIEND, not your ENEMY.
2. Call the civil and criminal docket at least once each month.
3. Have a jury ready and subject to call each week.
4. Pick a jury in half a day rather than to take 4 or 5 days, requiring lawyers to ask general and hypothetical questions—to the venire as a group, and require lawyers to turn in a list of these questions before the case is called to trial.
5. Co-operate with the bar and every law enforcement agency to get a better system of law enforcement.
6. Recommend and promote passage of State Legislation establishing a County Court at Law for Tom Green County. This will save thousands of dollars annually and remove a long standing log jam in our judicial system.
7. Oppose to the utmost the practice of making criminals of our citizenship in order to operate government agencies—such as making one or the other of each two persons involved in an accident pay a fine, in cases which usually should be civil, not criminal. He contends also, that leasing of our streets to the public as parking lots is unconstitutional. If elected judge, and these questions are properly raised, by habeas corpus or otherwise, he will so hold.

4-H Leaders in Texas Enjoy Chicago Trip

Four Lone Star state winners of trips to the 38th National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago were top 4-H exponents of soil conservation, frozen foods, safety and home improvement projects. All 1959 winners were chosen by the Cooperative Extension Service.

Crutsinger

Miss Feuge

Brown county 4-H gold star award winner Larry Crutsinger, 17, of Brownwood, attended the Chicago meeting because of his outstanding work in soil and water conservation. Since his 1954 enrollment in the Brown-wood 4-H Club, Crutsinger has concentrated on range and grass judging.

As president and junior leader of his club, Crutsinger assists in junior judging team instruction. A senior in Brownwood Senior High school, he went to Chicago as guest of Firestone Tire & Rubber Co.

The Whirlpool Corporation sent Helen "Betsy" Feuge, 16, a Llano High school junior, as its frozen foods project ambas-sador to the Chicago congress.

Since beginning her 4-H Club work six years ago, Miss Feuge has frozen 2,169 pounds of home-grown foods. She represented Llano county at the 4-H district camp in 1957.

She has been junior leader in three 4-H Clubs—Work and Play, Castell and Prairie Mountain.

A practical county-wide water survey as part of her 4-H project helped Nancy White, 17, of Greenville, to become a delegate to the Chicago congress.

During seven years of club work, Miss White has been a junior leader and former president of her County-at-Large 4-H Club.

Her Chicago trip was arranged by General Motors.

Billye Marian King, 19, as home improvement project leader, went to Chicago as guest of the Sears-Roebuck Foundation.

Miss White

Miss King

Miss King, a Loop Senior High school graduate and former president of the Loop Senior 4-H Club, has completed her first year at Texas Technological College and is now organizing a college 4-H Club.

Two years ago Miss King helped organize the Gaines County Council and was elected its first chairman. She is majoring in home economics and hopes to enter extension service.

REWARD NOTICE

A reward of $500.00 will be paid by the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association to any person (other than law enforcement officers) giving information causing the arrest and final conviction of any person or persons found butchering or stealing any sheep or lambs or goats belonging to any Association member in good standing. When two or more persons give information, the above sum will be divided at the discretion of the Board of the Association. When two or more defendants are involved in a single crime, the total reward is limited to $500.00, but the conviction of one defendant, even though the other defendants are acquitted, will entitle the claimant or claimants to said sum of $500.00. All claims must be submitted within ninety (90) days following conviction. If, upon conviction, a defendant confesses other thefts, no additional reward will be paid. All deviations concerning the payment of such reward and the conditions of payment will be made by the Board of Directors of the Association. TEXAS SHEEP & GOAT RAISERS ASSOCIATION

Good and Easy

By Betty Barclay

HERE'S an after-school snack made with cereal and semi-sweet chocolate squares, and so good the young set won't ever suspect it's good for them, too. Another virtue every busy mother will appreciate . . . it's so easy to make.

Chocolate Glossies
1 package (8 squares) Baker's Dot Chocolate; 1 cup sweetened condensed milk; 1 cup nut-like cereal kernels; 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Heat chocolate over hot water until partly melted; then remove from hot water and stir rapidly until entirely melted. Add milk and blend; then add cereal kernels and vanilla. Drop from teaspoon onto waxed paper. Cool until firm. Makes 5 dozen candies.

Sauce for the Goose

By Betty Barclay

"There's no better way to add variety and a party touch to family meals than by the clever use of sauces," says the new General Foods Kitchens Cookbook.

This unique book, compiled by more than 130 women of General Foods Kitchens, is almost square in shape and designed to lie conveniently flat when opened. The deluxe edition of the cookbook comes with a wrought iron holder which can be used to hang the book on the wall and then props it open at just the right angle for easy reading when you place it on your work counter or table.

This Indian Jelly Sauce is suggested as being especially good with ham or pork.

Indian Jelly Sauce
1½ cups apple jelly; ½ cup chutney; 1½ teaspoons lemon juice.

Melt jelly over low heat. Stir until smooth. Mix in remaining ingredients. Serve warm with ham or pork. Makes 1½ cups sauce, or 10 servings.
