AROUND THE COUNTY by

ARTHUR BARLEMANN, JR. COUNTY AGENT

Stockmen are urged to check the labels on all livestock spray before using and use only according to directions. One product, Co-Ral, has had to alter its label. Label registration for one of the original recommendations for the use of the product has been withdrawn.

The recommendation for the use of a 0.5% spray (16 lbs. powder in 100 gallons of water) has been withdrawn and this portion of the label should be altered or blotted out by the manufacturer in some fashion. If it has not, return it to the place of purchase. The company will replace it.

The use of Co-Ral as a 0.25% dip has also been withdrawn and the above procedure should be followed.

It is recommended in the following methods: As a 0.25% spray or as 0.125% dip. At these rates, Co-Ral is a safe product and a good one.

Pecan growers in this area as well as others are being plagued by premature sprouting of pecans this year. The monthly pecan news letter states that a number of samples have been received by the Department of Horticulture at Texas A&M College this fall.

A pecan will sprout or germinate immediately upon reaching maturity and some of this occurs every year. However, this year it is above the expected percentage. And, it is occurring in all varieties of the nuts in various parts of the state.

In the past, it was thought that sprouting was more likely to occur in pecans that have thin shells and thick, heavy shucks to retain the moisture. This year, it is observed that it is occurring in nuts on which the husks are still green. In some cases the husks never separate from the nuts; in other cases they do separate partially but not completely or normally.

The specific cause of the trouble is not known. It has been observed that it most often occurs when there has been a long dry summer followed by abundant rainfall during the late summer or early fall just prior to the harvest season. We have not had the rainfall but there was considerable humidity for a period. Also, watering the trees could have the same effect.

Several people have complained of worms in the husks of the pecans this year. In all likelihood, it is the hickory shuckworm. The worm is white with a light brown head; usually it is less than 1/2 inch long. They tunnel into the shuck and it fails to open. There is no chemical control for this pest. In a larger grove, it is recommended that the area be plowed in order to turn the shucks under. The worms will not mature underground nor emerge. On a small area such as many here in town, gather up the shucks and burn them.

The Sterling County 4-H Club Awards program has been set for Tuesday night, December 11 in the Community Center. Final plans for the meal and program will be made in a few days.

The county agent's office will be closed from Monday through Thursday of next week. I will be in Fort Worth attending the Market Study Tour on a training assignment during the period.

The Market Study Trip is sponsored by Swift and Company. Twenty-eight county agents in Texas have received the assignment for this year. The program includes spending a morning on the Fort Worth yards with a buyer, one morning with a commission company salesman, visits to retail outlets, one day in the packing plant viewing the carcasses of the animals which were purchased by the group, and trends in consumer preferences and market activities.

This trip has long been one of the better studies for agents. I'm glad to have received the assignment this year and am looking forward to it. If the weather will cooperate and not be too cold and wet, the six o'clock mornings on the yards will be enjoyable.

JOHN MARSHALL

(From the 8th Grade American History class, by Helen Hays.)

When Marshall became Chief Justice of the United States in 1801, the Supreme Court of the United States was poorly respected that it was difficult to get able men to serve as justices. But 34 years later, when Marshall's term as chief justice ended with his death, the Supreme Court had become a vigorous and fully equal third branch of the government.

John Marshall was born on Sept. 24, 1755, at Germantown, Va. His father was a colonel in the Revolutionary War. Marshall grew up on his father's farm and had little formal schooling. He was a tall, awkward boy, but he had great strength and agility. When the Revolutionary War broke out, he joined the patriot army and fought in several battles. By 1777, he had risen to the rank of captain. He served in Virginia, New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania, and was at Valley Forge during the winter of 1777-1778. During the war years, he saw much of his country for the first time. Later, he said that he had gone into the army a Virginian and had come out an American.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hays, and sons, Bobby and Terry of Reno, Nevada, are here visiting the Marion Hays family this week. Robert is a son of the local Hays.

doughBelly Price Reports

Sunday, November 11th and how well I remember that day 44 years ago. That was the end of A war to end all wars. But it didn't. I woke up that morning in a hay manger in the Kansas City stockyards with a wee dab of hay under me and nothing over me but the clear, cold air. I had done the same as most of the other people, got gentlemanly drunk. I had lost my hat, coat and money and shore wanted water.

I staggered into the stockyards lunch counter and contacted the boss, told him my story and what I wanted, water and hot coffee. And he said, "I guess you could use a drink too, no son". Oh boy, I thought here is an angel that don't have wings. He fixed me up in good shape and I went on my way looking for my lost stuff. Found my coat and my hat is still among the missing.

I had kept my reputation of being a good single handed drinker, tho. That was something because everybody was happy and very liberal with drinks. I got soused again, matched me a fight that night that I didn't win.

So the morning of the 12th found me worse off than the 11th, if possible. I was slightly disfigured but still in the going. In my stupor I had my war bag out of the baggage room at the depot. (I rode war horse inspection during the war and was being transferred from Chicago to Kansas City when the Armistice was signed.)

I hocked my saddle and had a place to lay down and be warm on the 12th. I thought so much of the boss of the boss of the yards lunch counter that I just went to work for the yard company, breaking horses. Riding a bronk on that frost covered concrete early in the morning was no job for anyone that had any brains. But I didn't need any brains as lucky as I was.

That is ancient history now but I can look back and laugh as some of the silly, dangerous things I done them days. Which I shore wouldn't think of doing now and I still ain't so smart.

Eagles Drop Title Game To Forsan

Historic Designation HISTORIC MEDALLION TO BE PRESENTED HERE NEXT TUESDAY AT 2:00 Millard Cope To Present

A historic medallion will be presented here next Tuesday afternoon for the old R. P. Brown house just east of the home they now live in. The medallion presentation will be made at 2:00 p.m. by Millard Cope, publisher of the San Angelo Standard-Times.

Old buildings over Texas are being marked with medallions and maps will be prepared with such listings shown for tourists, etc. Some of the buildings will be open to the public and some will not.

The old Brown house was built in Montvale around 1870 and moved to Sterling City in 1881. None of the lumber went through a saw mill—it was all rough and the nails are the old square ones, say the Browns.

Public Invited Tuesday

Everyone is invited to be present at the medallion presentation, said Mr. Brown. The presentation will take place at the Brown's present home.

Attend Rites for Relative in Arizona

Mrs. J. H. McCabe returned home Monday from Tucson, Arizona where she attended funeral services for Mrs. Raymond Roberts, 78. Mrs. Roberts was the former Willie McCabe. Survivors include the husband, a daughter, Mrs. T. J. Harmon and four grandchildren.

The Sterling City Eagles, 8-Man District 6-B team, lost the right to represent the district last Friday night when the Forsan Buffaloes came out on top of a 22 to 14 score game.

Forsan will play Jayton for the bi-district title this week. The score was tied at half time 14 to 14, but the Forsan boys got a touchdown and the two extra points in the third quarter to sew up the game.

Forsan kicked off to Sterling, publisher of the San Angelo Standard-Times. On the first play of scrimmage, Danny Bailey took the pigskin over for a Sterling TD. Try for the extra points failed. Then as the Eagles kicked following the touchdown, a Buffalo back took the kick and returned it for a Forsan counter, AND they added two extra points. So, a lot of action was seen in the first few minutes of the game.

Bailey got another Eagle counter in the second quarter and Jerry Payne added the two extra points. In the second quarter, Forsan added another eight points and then again ditted in the third for a total of 22 points to win the game and the district championship.

The Eagles went a lot further than most observers in the town and area thought at the beginning of the season.

Coaches J. R. Dillard and Fred McDonald said they were extremely proud of the game the boys played here last Friday night and the record they made this season. In conference play the locals did not lose a game until the final one with Forsan here last Friday night.

The 1962 Eagles squad was made up of Bill Boyd Allen, end; Vernon Asbill, guard; Danny Bailey, back; Billy Bauer, center; Jack Clark, center; David Coleman, back; Eddie Coleman, guard; David Foster, guard; Mike Foster, center; Bill Foster, back; Ernest Longoria, end; James Morgan, guard; Jerry Payne, quarterback; Royce Sparks, back and end; Larry Stewart, guard; Billy Joe Tindall, guard and Crips Williams, end.

Managers this year were Billy Blair and James Harvey Latham.

LIBRARY CLUB MEETING

The third meeting of the Sterling City Library Club was held last Monday night in the home of Mrs. Frank Milligan. A letter received from the District Library Club Meet in Throckmorton was the object of discussion. In it was expressed regret that the Sterling Club was not represented at the meet. There was also a discussion about the membership dues set by the state.

Visiting the R. P. Browns here last Saturday and Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jones of Fort Worth and Frs Howard Snyder and son, Mark from Dallas. Mr. Jones is Mrs. Brown's brother, Mrs. Snyder is a niece and Mark is a great nephew.

THE TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR

As you say, "She may be empty, but I'll tell the world she's clean"
 But when the sheet is printed and is out upon the mail, On its way to the subscribers I have never seen it fail— In the center of the front page, in a most conspicuous place, Some typographical error fairly kicks you in the face. For the typographical error is a slippery thing and sly, You can hunt 'til you are dizzy, but it somehow will get by, 'Til the forms are off the press it is strange how still it keeps, It shrinks down into a corner and it never stirs or peeps. That typographical error too small for human eyes, 'Til the ink is on the paper, when it grows to mountain size, And you see that blasted error, far as you could throw a dog, Looming up in all its splendor, like a lighthouse in a fog! That glaring blunder juts out like an ulcerated tooth, Where it dodged the eagle vision of a napping comma sleuth.

Two Texas teen-agers have been awarded all-expense paid trips to the 41st National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago as rewards for being the state's top 4-H'ers in their 1962 club projects. They are Janet Paclik, 17, of Gainesville, entomology project winner, and Sereita Giaketti, 15, of Montague, top electric project winner. The Cooperative Extension Service also picked Eugene Roberts Jr., 19, of Paris, as the state boy leadership winner, and Eugene Schilder, 17, of Arlington, as winner of the state beautification of home grounds award. Roberts will receive a special

Miss Paclik will be the Chicago guest of the Hercules Powder Company, Wilmington, Del., and Miss Giaketti's trip will be sponsored by the Westinghouse Educational Foundation, Pittsburgh. The two trip winners will compete for $400 scholarships that their sponsors will award to national winners during the congress in the Conrad Hilton Hotel on Chicago's lakefront. Miss Paclik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Paclik, fulfilled the objectives of the entomology project when she learned the life history of insects and how to control them through use of insecticides. "I live on a farm and there are many insects to control," she said. She also collected more than 100 different varieties of insects. Miss Giaketti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Giaketti, said: "When my mother has trouble with her small electrical appliances, I can usually tell what is wrong with them and repair them." The project is designed to teach 4-H'ers more about electricity and to properly use and care for electrical equipment.

Social Security

Over fifty million people have worked long enough under social security to qualify for cash disability benefits if they become disabled. This means that they have social security credits for five years (20 quarters) out of the past ten years, Floyd B. Ellington, district manager of the San Angelo Social Security office said. In the case of a severe disability, the worker and his dependents may be eligible for monthly cash social security disability benefits if he meets this work requirement.

It is not necessary to be completely helpless to qualify for social security disability benefits. These benefits are payable to those who suffer from a crippling disease or a severe impairment which makes them unable to do any substantial work.

Disabled adult sons and daughters of retired, deceased, or disabled workers may also receive childhood disability benefits if they become disabled before they reached age 18.

Anyone suffering a severe disability which prevents him from doing any substantial work should get in touch with the local social security office to determine his eligibility under the Social Security disability program, Ellington stated. He may be losing benefits if he fails to apply for them promptly. The social security district office will explain to disabled workers and their families their rights under the law.

ABOUT READY TO RETIRE?

Are you about to retire? Then ask the social security office for their new booklet, "Now That You Are Retiring." It contains advice and useful information for persons nearing retirement.

Floyd B. Ellington, social security district manager in San Angelo, said the publication was prepared because of numerous requests from persons at retirement age. They wanted information that would help them get full satisfaction and enjoyment from their later years. The draft of the booklet got enthusiastic approval at the recent White House Conference on Aging.

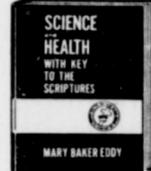

The booklet covers such subjects as decisions to make and changes to face, working while getting social security payments, part-time work available to older people, community activities, recreation, adult education, where to live after retirement, health care, stretching retirement income, and counseling and information services. A copy may be obtained free by writing or telephoning the Social Security Administration District Office in San Angelo.

All Roads Lead to National 4-H Club Congress

CHICAGO
NOV. 25-29, 1962

BIG 4-H DELEGATION COMES FROM 50 STATES AND ABROAD FOR WEEK OF MEMORABLE EVENTS

An estimated 1,500 of the nation's best 4-H youths travel to Chicago right after Thanksgiving to participate in the 41st National 4-H Club Congress. They are joined by 500 4-H Club leaders, educators, business officials and guests from abroad.

The congress convenes on Sunday, November 25, in the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton Hotel, headquarters for the week-long event. But delegates begin to arrive as early as Friday. They travel by bus, plane, train, and come from all 50 states, Puerto Rico and a dozen foreign countries.

Keynoter at the Sunday afternoon session is a former 4-H Club member, and one who this year is honored nationally as a 4-H alumnus. He is the Honorable Buford E. Ellington, governor of Tennessee.

"Citizenship in Action" is the 1962 congress theme. The principle speaker on the theme is Dr. Glenn Olds, president of Springfield College (Massachusetts).

Also talking on the subject is a panel of leaders in agriculture, business and labor. Questions to be answered come from the 4-H'ers themselves. The moderator is Dr. Russell Mawby, assistant director of extension at Michigan State University.

Expect Many Firsts

The young people have a week crammed with many "firsts" such as meeting prominent U.S. citizens, seeing the internationally-known museums of Chicago, listening to the 106-piece Chicago Symphony Orchestra, enjoying the companionship of fellow 4-H'ers from north, south, east and west.

Perhaps the most valued personal reward is the fact that every single one of the 1,500 boys and girls has all expenses paid. This highly regarded prize is theirs for having achieved an excellent 4-H Club record. In addition, more than 200 delegates go home the richer by a college scholarship.

And how is all this made possible? By the generous donations of more than half a hundred American business enterprises which have consistently supported the 4-H Club program.

Business Helps

Co., American Forest Products Ind., Inc., American Oil Foundation, California Chemical Co., Carnation Company, Coats & Clark Inc., Conrad Hilton Hotel, Elgin National Watch Co., Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., General Motors, Heisdorf & Nelson Farms, Inc., Hercules Powder Company, Homelite and Humble Oil & Refining Co.

In addition to the above firms, there are more than 20 other private business enterprises working with the Cooperative Extension Service and the National 4-H Service Committee to provide county, state and national awards, and make the annual 4-H congress a reality.
